

VI.

ADDITIONAL NOTE TO MR. A. JERVISE'S COMMUNICATION ON THE HISTORICAL AND ANTIQUARIAN PECULIARITIES OF SOME DISTRICTS OF FORFARSHIRE. (See pp. 64-65.)

(Extracts from the Treasurer's Accounts of the Burgh of Forfar, relating to the Erection of the Old Cross.)

1684.

To Alex^r Adam mcasson to hie the stons for the vse of the Croce, 00 14 00

To Alex^r Adam for goeing to Glames for ane stone to the Croce, 01 08 00

To James Guild for his horse and Cairt and to Andrew Smith for his horse to Glames to bring home the said stone to the Croce,	01	00	00
To James Gordon in Templebank for the lend of his extrie to bring home the said stone—James Guild having broken his extrie in the cause,	00	04	00
To the officers for goeing to Glames for helping to lift and wait- ing wpon the said stone in the Cairt,	00	08	00

Thanks having been voted to the Chairman and the Office-Bearers for their services during the past Session, the Society adjourned to the 30th of November next, St Andrew's Day.