

Reviews.

THE CHURCH OF ALL SAINTS, WOKINGHAM. By the REV. A. G. G. THURLOW, M.A. Morley Service, Reading.

Mr. Thurlow has produced an informative brochure on the parish church of All Saints, Wokingham. Our readers will remember that not long since we noticed Canon Long's volume on the Parish Church and Parish of Wokingham and as this old forest town had long been without a competent history a very definite service to local history was thereby rendered. Mr. Thurlow's guide deals more succinctly with the church and is produced in a cheap and handy form for visitors and others who do not require the larger and fuller account. There are several illustrations and those who are unfamiliar with the old Church of All Saints will find much in this booklet to interest them.