

INDEX.

---

- AMBER, beads of, found in barrows in Somerset, 148.
- Amphitheatre, at Charterhouse, Somerset, 153.
- ANGLO-SAXON PERIOD:—architectural portions at Bolney Church, Sussex, 94: manuscripts and illuminations at Copenhagen, 144; at Utrecht, 245; coins and ornaments found at Goldsbrough, Yorkshire, 197.
- Anthony, Dr., memoir by Mr. Calvert communicated by, 6.
- ARCHITECTURE:—notices of supposed Anglo-Saxon portions in Bolney church, Sussex, 94; examples of Domestic, in Sussex, 98; notices of Roeskilde Cathedral, 134, 137; Llanaaber church, Merionethshire, 204; Lund Cathedral, in Sweden, 236; buildings at Utrecht, 248; fortified churches in Cumberland, 318; Burgh-on-the-Sands, 319; Newton-Arlosh, 321; Great Salkeld, 322.
- Armlet, of bronze found in the Danes' Graves, Yorkshire, 83; of bronze found in France, 179; of gold found at Kertch, 181, 354; of bronze found near Pluuton Castle, Scotland, 194; of gold in form of a torc found near Elgin, 209.
- ARMOUR AND ARMS:—illustrations of, on sepulchral slabs in Belgium, 174, 195; tilting helmet and rapier in Mr. Bernhard Smith's collection, 182; painted glass at Königsfelden in Switzerland, 340; flint-lock birding piece, supposed to have belonged to Prince Charles, 355; misericorde found at Deddington, 356.
- Arrow-heads, of flint and bronze, found in Somerset, 151.
- Auditors, their report, 214.
- Austen, Rev. J. H., notices of Kimmeridge coal by, 299.
- Barlow, Miss, privy seal with antique intaglio exhibited by, 357.
- Bath, Roman inscription found at, 65.
- Beads, of glass, found in Hampshire, 89; in tumuli in Somerset, 149; in the Scilly Isles, 356.
- Beck, Rev. J., exhibits stamped leather hangings, 91; letter padlock, ancient keys, glass bottle, ib.; jeweled morse from Hereford Cathedral, 182; stone celts from Ireland, 124; gold torcing from Hayling Island, 194; specimens of iron-work, 356.
- Bells, of Scotch and Irish Saints highly venerated, 42; of St. Fillan, 52; of St. Govan in Pembrokeshire, 361.
- Berlin, notices of Museums and works of art at, 238, 241.
- Bingham, Rev. C. W., communicates notices of Roman remains found at Dorchester, 82, 183; of a gold brooch found at Sydling, 181; inventory of effects of Robert Bingham, 211.
- Boat, ancient found in the River Arun, 97.
- Bolney, Sussex, notices of the church at, 94.
- Bosbury, Herefordshire, sepulchral slabs at, 84; remarkable tombs of the sixteenth century there, 86.
- Brackstone, Mr., exhibits a dish of English Delft-ware, 91; a portion of one of the Coway stakes, 202; a talismanic stone from Ireland, 203; a celt found on Haldon, near Exeter, 211; a metal vase, 212.
- BRASSES, SEPULCHRAL:—in Wiltshire, proposed publication of, by Mr. Kite, 91, 207; palimpsest at Echingham, 104; brass at Ringsted in Denmark, 138; in Belgium, 174, 195, 210; at Adderbury, Oxfordshire, 182; proposed publication on examples in Denmark, &c., by Mr. Weale, 394.
- Braybrooke, the Lord, exhibits a brass key found in Essex, 202; notices of his excavations at Chesterford, 297; exhibits a Samian bowl, 302; Roman and other rings, 358.
- British Museum, see Museum.
- Bronze, ancient fabrication of, 15; ingot

- from Livonia in the British Museum, 39; statuettes and other relics found at Wroxeter, 68; armlet found in Yorkshire, 83; capsule or armpurse found in Northumberland, 84; arrow-head in a tumulus in Somerset, 151; various relics found in Norfolk and Suffolk, 180.
- Brooch, of gold, found at Sydling, Dorset, 181; near Kimbolton, in possession of the Duke of Manchester, ib.
- Bruce, Rev. Dr. J. C., exhibits a bronze capsule or arm purse found at Birdswald, 84.
- Bullinger, silver cup given to him by Queen Elizabeth, 164.
- Burges, Mr., his notices of mural paintings at Charlwood, Surrey, 89; exhibits Italian hangings of leather, 178; mediæval iron-work, 182.
- Burgh-on-the-Sands, Cumberland, notice of the fortified church at, 319.
- Burningham, Rev. T., communicates discovery of mural paintings at Charlwood, Surrey, 89; Roman mosaic and remains at Crondall, Hants, 298.
- Caltraps, found in a castle in Switzerland, 212.
- Calvert, Mr., his memoir on a tumulus in the Troad, 1.
- Cambridge, proposed formation of an Historical Society at, 306.
- Camp, on the Wrekin, Shropshire, 56.
- Campion, Mr., portrait of Edward Honing, exhibited by, 211.
- Cardinals' Rings, notice of by Mr. Waterton, 280.
- Carlisle, annual meeting of the Institute held there, 208, 364; memoir on the Parliaments held there, 326; architectural notices of the Castle, 334; of the Cathedral, 372.
- Carrington, Mr., his notices of popular customs in Monmouthshire, 88.
- Cassiterides, tin obtained from the, 10.
- Caton, Rev. R. B., exhibits a carving in graphite from Melbourne, 213.
- Celts, remarks on their manufacture, 16; of flint, in Rev. Greville J. Chester's collection, 180; of stone found in Ireland, 194; found on Haldon, near Exeter, 211.
- Censer, of brass, found at Corwen, 206.
- Charlwood, Surrey, mural paintings found at, 89.
- CHESHIRE:—pig of lead at Eaton Hall, 27; pigs described by Camden as found near Runcorn, 28; pig found in Chester, 31; wooden bowls from Delamere House, 304.
- Chester, Rev. Greville J., exhibits antiquities found in Suffolk, &c., 180.
- Chessmen, of silver, exhibited by Mr. Tite, 90; of ivory at Copenhagen, 143.
- Clayton, Mr. W., communicates the discovery of Roman urns at Dovor, 297.
- Clibborn, Mr., communicates an intaglio found in Ireland, 203.
- Cluny, Musée de, at Paris, gold crowns of the Gothic race there, 253.
- Codrington, Rev. R. H., his account of Roeskilde Cathedral, 135.
- COINS:—Roman, found near Coleraine, 40; found at Wroxeter, 60, 271; coin-moulds found there, 62, 273; aureus of Tiberius found there, 69; called Dinders there, ib.; found at Charterhouse, Somerset, 153; of Trajan, found at Savery's Weir, near Strain, 179; Cufic and Saxon, found at Goldsborough, Yorkshire, 197; Roman found near Rathfarnham, Ireland, 204.
- Copenhagen, the crosier of the Bishops of Roeskilde preserved there, 137; notices of Art Collections there, 139; of historical and antiquarian Museums, 140; the cross of the Princess Gunhilde, ib.; carvings in ivory, MSS., &c., there, 145; portion of the Brehon Laws in a MS. there, 250; Irish Poetry there, 251.
- Copper, rarely if ever found pure with early remains, 15; celt of, found in Northumberland, ib. note.
- Cornthwaite, Rev. T., exhibits a document regarding lands in Cumberland, 362.
- CORNWALL:—block of tin found near Penzance, 38; block of tin in the Truro Museum, 39; proposed publication of the Domesday of, 216.
- Cory, Mr. J. A., his account of fortified churches in Cumberland, 318.
- Costume, military, examples of ailettes, 175; curious figure at Königsfelden, 339; shoes of the Princess Hildegard, 353.
- Coway Stakes, Middlesex, notices of, 202.
- Crania, remarkable, found at Wroxeter, 273.
- Cremation, remarks on burial by, 154.
- Crondall, Hants, Roman mosaic at, 298.
- Crosier, of St. Fillan, 41; of St. Moloc, 46, 49; various types of in Ireland, 50; of the bishops of Roeskilde, 137; in the Copenhagen Museum, 143.
- Cross patee, attributed to the Templars, 85, 87.
- Cross, of Gunhilde at Copenhagen, 140; of brass, found at Llanaber, Merionethshire, 204.
- Cross-slab, sepulchral, at Bosbury, Herefordshire, 84; at Laon, 85, 304; at Great Salkeld, Cumberland, 323.
- CUMBERLAND:—Memoir on the Early History of, by Mr. Hodgson Hinde,

- 217: account of fortified churches by Mr. Cory, 318; memoir on the Parliaments of Carlisle, 326; notices of Carlisle Castle, 334; document regarding lauds near Wigton, 362; notices of Carlisle Cathedral, 372; Proceedings at the Annual Meeting of the Institute at Carlisle, 364.
- Dax, in France, its Roman Walls threatened with destruction, 188.
- Deane, Rev. J. B., exhibits drawings of an effigy in Devon, 182.
- DERBYSHIRE:—Ancient lead works at Wirksworth, &c., 20; pig of lead found at Matlock, 25; at Cromford, 31; at Castleton, 36; uninscribed, found near Wirksworth and Darley, 37.
- DEVONSHIRE:—Sepulchral effigy of a lady at Harwood, 182; stone celt found on Haldon, 211.
- Diptych of ivory, consular, at Berlin, 210.
- DOCUMENTS:—regarding the relics of St. Fillan, 50, 51; proceedings regarding Sorcery in Yorkshire, 71; will of John Fromond, 166; letter of William of Wykeham appointing Fromond his bailiff, 166; relating to lands near Wigton, 362; ordinances of the Gild Merchant at Southampton, 283, 343; tariff of Tolls at Salisbury, 348.
- Dondaine, or bolt-head, exhibited, 212.
- Dorchester, Roman remains found at the Castle, 82, 183.
- DORSETSHIRE:—Mosaic found at Dorchester Castle, 82, 183; gold brooch at Sydling, 181; mosaic at Frampton, 186; interment, pottery, &c., at Wyke, 201; proposed new edition of Hutchius' County History, 216; notices of relics of Kimmeridge coal, 299.
- Dovor, Roman urns found there, 297.
- Dusseldorf, notice of Art Collections there, 244.
- Eagle stone, exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 203.
- Effigy, sepulchral, of a lady at Harwood. Devon, 182; incised tomb of a bishop at Lund, in Sweden, 238; tombs of Otho and Editha at Magdeburg, 242; of Henry the Lion, and Matilda, sister of Richard Cœur de Lion, ib.; of Thomas de Caldebeck, at Great Sal-keld, 324 note.
- Elizabeth, Queen, presents a silver cup to Bullinger, 164.
- ENAMELS:—exhibited by Mr. Webb, 90; armorial roundels on silver cups at Zurich, 164; by Penicaud, in Mr. Webb's possession, 207; casket exhibited by Mr. Jones of Clytha, ib.; Roman fibula found at Lincoln, 209; specimens at Brunswick, 242.
- ESSEX:—brass key found at Hempstead, 202; Samian bowl found at Chesterford, 302; Roman and other rings found there, 358.
- Ewers, of pottery in forms of animals, 103.
- Farrer, Mr., exhibits a pyx, ivory casket, and a Venetian mirror, 90; mediæval iron work, 304.
- Faulkner, Mr. C., his notices of a sepulchral brass at Adderbury, 182; of an effigy and mural painting at Deddington, ib.; exhibits the seal of John Blaket, 183; a misericorde found at Deddington, 356.
- Ffarington, Miss, exhibits gold and silver rings, found in Lancashire and elsewhere, 362.
- Fibula, enameled, found at Lincoln, 209.
- Fillan, St., his crosier now in Canada, 41; veneration towards his relics, 48, 51; his bell, 52.
- Flint, arrow-head found in Somerset, 151; flakes or knives found in France presented by Mrs. Kerr, 179.
- Frampton, Dorset, Roman mosaic there, 186.
- France, antiquities found in, presented to the Institute by Mrs. Kerr, 179; threatened destruction of the Roman walls of Dax, 188; sepulchral slabs at Laon, 85, 304; gold Gothic Crowns at the Hotel de Cluny, 253.
- Franks, Mr., exhibits a gold brooch belonging to the Duke of Manchester, 181; his account of a gold armlet found near Kertch, 181, 354; exhibits a salver of Venetian glass, 195; a watch made by Edward Bysse, ib.; his account of one of the Coway stakes in the British Museum, 203.
- Freeman, Mr., remarks on Llanaber church by, 204.
- Fromond, John, his will, 166; letter of William of Wykeham appointing him his bailiff, ib.
- Gild merchant at Southampton, ordinances of, 283, 343.
- Glass, used in Roman times for windows, found at Wroxeter, 269.
- Glass, vessels of, found in tombs in the Troad by Mr. Calvert, 2; in a Roman tomb near Chichester, 101; fragment of rich blue glass from Lausanne, 179; Roman, found at Lincoln, 208.
- Glass, beads of, found in Hampshire, 89; in a barrow in Somerset, 149; beads and bugles found in the Scilly Isles, 356.
- Glass, mediæval, Venetian salver, 195;

- singular bottle, exhibited by the Rev. J. Beck, 91.
- Glass, painted, at Konigsfelden, in Switzerland, 340; heraldic, with a collar of SS., in a church near Thun, 359.
- Gloucester, proposed meeting of the Institute there, 391, 393.
- Godfrey, Sir Edmondbury, medals relating to his murder, 91, 175; portraits of him, 178.
- Gold, found in South Wales in Roman times, 17; tore armlets of, found near Elgin, 209; armlet found at Kertch, 354; penannular tore-ring, found in Hayling Island, 194; other examples in Essex, Ireland, &c., 358.
- Goldsborough, Yorkshire, Saxon and Cufic coins found there, 197.
- Goths, crown of Reccesvinthus, king of the, found with other crowns near Toledo, 253.
- Graphite, carved human head of, found at Melbourne, 213.
- Grey, Lady Jane, seal attributed to her, 196.
- Guest, Dr., his Memoir on the Boundaries between the Welsh and English races in Somerset, 105.
- Gunner, Rev. W., communicates the Will of John Fromond, 166.
- HAMPSHIRE:—pig of lead found near Stockbridge, 26; glass bead found near Twyford, 89; gold tore-ring found in Hayling Island, 194; mosaic pavement at Crondall, 298; ring found at Exton, 362; County History, by Mr. Woodward, noticed, 393.
- Hamburgh, MSS. in the library there, 132.
- Hanai Tepeh, in the Troad, account of a tumulus there by Mr. Calvert, 1.
- Hanover, Art Collections, &c., there, 243.
- Hartshorne, Rev. C. H., his Memoir on the Parliaments held at Carlisle, 326; his account of Carlisle Castle, 334.
- Hawkins, Mr., exhibits medals of Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, 175; his remarks on Treasure Trove, 197; on Cufic and Anglo-Saxon coins found with Saxon relics, 193.
- Hawkins, Mr. Rohde, exhibits the chapter-seal of Udina, 91; a casket of damascened work, 182.
- Head, Sir Edmund, Bart., communicates photographs of the Crosier of St. Fillan now in Canada, 44.
- Heraldry, observations on the arms of the Earls of Eu, 96; proposed publication of a roll of arms at Zurich, 104, 212; escutcheons of arms of Bishop Horn and Bishop Jewel on plate at Zurich, 163.
- HEREFORDSHIRE:—sepulchral slabs and tombs at Bosbury, 84; jeweled ornament found in Hereford Cathedral, 182.
- Hewitt, Mr., his remarks on dondaines or bolt-heads, 212; on a remarkable flint-lock birding-piece, 355.
- Hinde, Mr. J. Hodgson, his Memoir on the Early History of Cumberland, 217; takes part in the Annual Meeting at Carlisle, 360, 392.
- Honing family, portraits of the, 211.
- Horn, Bishop, presents a silver cup now preserved at Zurich, 163.
- Horner, Rev. G. H., exhibits a glass paste representing St. Demetrius, 90.
- Horner, Dr., librarian at Zurich, 165.
- Hospitalers, seals of the, 357.
- Howlett, Mr., exhibits photographs of views and buildings in China, 304.
- HUNTINGDONSHIRE:—gold brooch found near Kimbolton, 181.
- Hut-circles, in Somerset, ancient dwellings described by Mr. W. Long, 157.
- Innes, Mr. C., his notices of St. Govan's cave and relics, 198, 361.
- Inscriptions, Roman, found at Wroxeter, 62, 66, 277; found at Bath, 65; proposed publication on those found near the Roman Wall, 371, 387.
- IRELAND:—silver ingots and Roman coins found near Coleraine, 40; reliquary of Irish character at Copenhagen, 143; stone celts found in Ireland, 194; talismanic or eagle stone exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 203; engraved gem found near Rathfarnham, 203; Roman coins found there, ib.; Irish MS. of part of the Brehon laws, and of Irish poetry at Copenhagen, 250.
- Iron, singular pigs or blocks of, found in Switzerland, 200.
- Ivory Carvings; hunting-horn, dagger-hilt, &c., exhibited by Mr. Webb, 90; pyx, casket and mirror-case exhibited by Mr. Farrer, ib.; at Hamburgh, 133; cross of the Princess Gunhilde at Copenhagen, 140; chessmen and other objects there, 143; pin found in a tumulus in Somerset, 153; carved objects at Berlin, 239; consular dip-tych there, 240; at Brunswick, 242; at Hanover, 243; at Xanten, 244; at Arnheim and the Hague, ib.; mirror-case and hunting-horn, 356.
- Johnson, Dr., his reports on Excavations at Wroxeter, 174, 211, 302.
- Jones, Mr., of Clytha, enameled casket exhibited by, 207.
- Keller, Dr., his account of silver cups at Zurich, 158; of iron pigs or blocks found in Switzerland, 200; of painted

- glass at Konigsfelden, 339; of shoes of the princess Hildegard at Zurich, 353.
- KENT:—Transactions of the Archæological Society of, 216; Roman urns found at Dover, 297.
- Kerr, Mrs. Alexander, presents antiquities to the Institute, 179.
- Kertch, gold armlet found there, 181, 354.
- Kimmeridge coal, notices of, 299; vessels, &c. of, 302.
- Kite, Mr., exhibits specimens of his proposed publication on the Sepulchral brasses of Wiltshire, 91, 207.
- Konigsfelden, Switzerland, painted glass there, 339.
- Laing, Mr. D., exhibits a portrait of Roger Honing, 211.
- LANCASHIRE:—Roman ring found near Leyland, 362; gold ring found in Cuerdale, ib.
- Lascelles, Hon. and Rev. J., exhibits Cufic Anglo-Saxon coins and ornaments found at Goldsborough, 197.
- Lawrance, Mr., his investigation of Roman remains at Dorchester, 82, 183.
- Lawrie, Mr., exhibits the guard of a weapon found in Norfolk, 303.
- Le Keux, Mr., exhibits copies of initial letters from a MS. at Florence, 207.
- Lead, ancient workings for, in Spain, Gaul, and Britain, 16; Roman pigs of, found in Shropshire, &c., 17; worked in Derbyshire in Saxon times, 20; list of inscribed Roman pigs found in England and Scotland, 22—40; cake of, found in the Thames, 38; pigs of, found on the continent; 40; lead mines on the Mendip Hills, 111; objects of, found at Wroxeter, 269.
- Leather, stamped hangings of, exhibited by Rev. J. Beck, 91; by Mr. Burges, 178; notices of other examples, ib.
- Long, Mr. W., his remarks on Entrenchments and interments on Walton Down, Somerset, 157.
- Long, Mr. H. L., exhibits pottery from Wagden Common, Surrey, 179; fragments of rich blue Roman glass, and of fictile ware, from Lausanne, 179.
- Lund, Sweden, notice of the Cathedral there, 236.
- M'Ewen, Dr., exhibits a bronze armlet found in Scotland, 194.
- Mail, banded, illustration of its use in Switzerland, 340.
- Manchester, the Duke of, exhibits a gold brooch, 181.
- Manuscripts; at Copenhagen, 144, 249, 250, 252; illuminated service book from South America, 182; MSS. in the library at Berlin, 240; at Hanover, 203; Utrecht, 245; remarks on productions of the Anglo-Saxon School, 247; MS. of Aratus at Leydeu, 248.
- Mary, Queen of Scots, hangings of gilt leather belonging to her, 178.
- Mathews, Mr., exhibits an early edition of the Common Prayer, 91; medals of Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, ib., 175.
- Medals, of Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, described, 175.
- Memling, Hans, remarkable painting by, 206.
- Mendip Hills, Roman pig of lead found there, 23; tumuli there, 146.
- Metallurgy, among the Brigantes, 7; notices of pigs of lead found in Great Britain, 22—36; of blocks of tin, 38, 39; workings in North Wales, 39; remarkable pigs or blocks of iron found in Switzerland, 200.
- Minty, Mr., his account of discoveries in dredging in Portsmouth Harbour, 199.
- Mirror, of steel, Italian, 90; ivory cases for mirrors, 356.
- Monmouth, singular custom there regarding baptism, 88.
- Monuments, sepulchral, in Roeskilde Cathedral, 135; of the Danish kings, at Ringsted, 138. See BRASSES, EFFIGY, &c.
- Morgan, Mr. O., his remarks on gilt leather hangings, 178; on a quadrant belonging to Mr. Greville Chester, 180; on a Sutton's quadrant, 181; exhibits a papal ring, ib.; enameled casket with bacchanalian subjects, 207; pewter vessels made at Nuremberg, 212; a pitched wooden tankard, ib.; ecclesiastical rings, 362.
- Mosaic pavements, at Dorchester, 82, 183; Frampton, 186; Crondall, Hants, 298; Carisbrooke, 388.
- Museum, British, Roman pigs of lead there preserved, 24, 26, 23; ingot of bronze from Livonia, 39; pig of lead from Spain, 40; bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Hoddam, 84; gold armlet found at Kertch, 181, 354; one of the Coway stakes, 203.
- Museums, at Copenhagen, 140; Hanover, 203; Berlin, 240.
- Narval ivory, sculptured tablet of, at Copenhagen, 142.
- Nesbitt, Mr., his account of slabs and monuments in Bosbury church, 84, 86; of slabs at Laon, 304; exhibits damascened metal work, 361; an ewer with Arabic inscriptions, 362.
- Newton, Mr., proposed publication of his

- discoveries in Asia Minor, 305; his discourses at the Carlisle meeting on the Mausoleum and his various researches, 376, 380.
- Nichols, Mr. J. B., exhibits portraits of the Honing family, 211.
- Niello, medallions enriched with, exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 90; Italian rings ornamented with, in Mr. Waterton's collection, 316.
- NORFOLK:—Roman pigs of lead found at Saham, 37; antiquities from Reedham, &c., exhibited by the Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180; guard of a sword or dagger found at Downham Market, 303.
- Northumberland, the Duke of, gold posy ring found at Corbridge, in his collection, 308, 317; Surveys of Roman vestiges made by his direction, 368, 387; promotes the publication of a "Corpus Inscriptionum," 371.
- NORTHUMBERLAND:—singular bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Birdswald, 84; gold ring found at Corbridge, 308, 317; Survey of the Eastern Watling Street or Devil's Causeway, 368.
- NOTTINGHAMSHIRE:—Roman pig of lead found near Mansfield, 36.
- OXFORDSHIRE:—sepulchral brass at Adderbury, 182; effigy and mural painting at Deddington, ib.; misericorde found at Deddington, 356.
- Paintings, mural, in Charlwood church, 89; in Roeskilde Cathedral, 134; in Deddington church, 182.
- Palstave, bronze, at Shrewsbury, 68.
- Parkhurst, Bishop, silver cup presented by him at Zurich, 163.
- Parliaments of Carlisle, memoir on the, by the Rev. C. H. Hartshorne, 326.
- Peterborough Cathedral, painted glass formerly there, representing a knight Templar, 88.
- Phillips, Professor, memoir by, on Ancient Metallurgy, 7.
- Pigs, of lead, Roman, found in Britain, 17, 19; inventory of such relics, 22; pig found near Blagdon, Somerset, 23; at Matlock, 25; Pulborough, Sussex, 26; near Stockbridge, Hants, ib.; near Chester, now preserved at Eaton Hall, 27; at Hints, Staffordshire, now in the British Museum, 28; twenty, found on the coast of Cheshire, as stated by Camden, ib.; pigs found on Hayshaw Moor, Yorkshire, 29, 30; pig found in Chester, 31; near Matlock, now in the British Museum, ib.; at Snailbeach, Shropshire, 32; at Shelve Hill, Shropshire, ib.; near Shrewsbury, 33; at Snead, Shropshire, 34; at Bath, ib.; at Bruton, Somerset, ib.; at Matlock Moor, 35; in Hexgrave Park, Nottinghamshire, 36; at Castleton, ib.; in Perthshire, ib.; in Dumbartonshire, 37; at Saham, Norfolk, ib.; in Derbyshire, possibly not Roman, ib.; at Flint, 38; pigs found in France and Spain, 40.
- Pigs of tin, found in Cornwall, 39.
- Pigs, or masses of iron, found in Switzerland, 40.
- Pigou, Mrs. H. C., her account of an interment found at Wyke, Dorset, 201.
- Plate, specimens of; silver cups at Zurich, 158; cup presented by Queen Elizabeth to Bullinger, 164; tankard presented by Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, preserved at Sudbury, 178.
- Pliny, his statements regarding metals and metallurgy, 7.
- Portraits of Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, 178; of Queen Mary I. and Philip of Spain, 356.
- Portsmouth, discoveries in dredging there, 199.
- Posy Rings, Memoir on, by Mr. Waterton, 307.
- POTTERY:—Sepulchral jars found in the Troad, 2; Roman, found near Chichester, 101; mediæval ewers in form of animals, 103; cup with knobs on its surface, found in a tumulus in Somerset, 149; numerous fragments found on Wagden Common, Surrey, 179; Roman, found at Dorchester, 185; Roman and Mediæval found in the silt of Portsmouth Harbour, 199; curious cup found with an interment at Wyke, Dorset, 201; Roman, found at Wroxeter, 270; Roman, found at Dovor, 297; Samian bowl found at Chesterford, 302; Italian Majolica painted with portraits and mottoes, 315.
- PUBLICATIONS NOTICED:—Sussex Archaeological collections, vol. x., 93; proposed Cornish Dictionary, by Rev. R. Williams, 104; ancient Roll of Arms at Zurich, ib., 212; Roman London, by Mr. C. Roach Smith, 215; Sepulchral Antiquities in France, by the Abbe Cochet, ib.; the Domesday of Cornwall, by the Rev. F. C. Hingeston, 216; Description of Ancient Seals at St. Omer, ib.; proposed new edition of Hutchins's History of Dorset, ib.; Transactions of the Kentish Archaeological Society, ib.; Mr. Newton's Discoveries in Asia Minor, 305; Mr. Woodward's Archaeological Maps, ib.; Guide to the Ruins of Wroxeter, by Mr. T. Wright, 306; Memoir on the Romans in Gloucestershire, by

- Rev. S. Lysons, 393; Mr. Woodward's History of Hampshire, ib.; Scotland in the Middle Ages, by Mr. Cosmo Innes, 394; Sepulchral Brasses in Denmark, &c., by Mr. Weale, ib.
- Purday, Mr., his observations on Carlisle Cathedral, 372.
- Quadrant, in possession of Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180; a Sutton's quadrant exhibited, 181.
- Quigrich, or crosier of St. Fillan, 41; privileges enjoyed by its custodian, 48.
- Raine, Rev. J., communicates a document regarding sorcery in Yorkshire, 69.
- Ready, Mr., exhibits a singular ovoid stone found at Athelney, 90; seals of the Hospitalers, 357.
- Reccesvinthus, King of the Goths, his gold crown discovered near Toledo, 254; notices of him in Spanish Chronicles, 262.
- Richard II., quadrant engraved with his badge of the hart lodged, 180.
- Rienzi, his nuptial ring, 192.
- Ring, of silver with monogram IHS., presented to the Institute by Mrs. Kerr, 179; various examples in the collection of the Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180; papal ring in Mr. Morgan's collection, 181; talismanic and other rings in the Rev. J. Beck's collection, 182; Rienzi's nuptial ring, 192; Etruscan, Roman, and other rings in Mr. Waterton's collection, 193; inscribed with the name Alhstan, 194; the Darnlev ring and others, ib.; gold torc ring found in Hayling Island, 194; account of Cardinals' rings, by Mr. Waterton, 280; various rings in his collection, 302; Saxon and other rings in Mr. Whincopp's collection, ib.; Memoir on Posy Rings by Mr. Waterton, 307; Jewish nuptial rings, 314; various rings exhibited by Lord Braybrooke, 358; by Miss Ffarington, 362; by Mr. O. Morgan, ib.
- Ringsted, Zealand, tombs of the Danish kings there, 128.
- Roeskilde, the cathedral built by an English bishop, 134; account of its architecture, by the Rev. R. Codrington, 135; seal of the Cathedral, 138.
- ROMAN ANTIQUITIES:—pigs of lead found in Britain, 22—37; copper cake found near Conway, 40; silver ingot found at the Tower of London, ib.; coins and ingots found in Ireland, ib.; relics found at Wroxeter, 53, 70; coin moulds, 62; inscriptions at Wroxeter and at Bath, 62, 66; mosaic floor and other remains at Dorchester, 82, 183; tomb with pottery and glass at Densworth, near Chichester, 101; mosaic pavement at Danny, Sussex, 104; station at the mouth of the River Axe, Somerset, 146; amphitheatre at Charterhouse, Somerset, 153; coin of Trajan, found at Savery's Weir, near Staines, 179; roofing tiles of stone, 185; mosaic pavement at Frampton, Dorset, 186; walls of Dax, in France, 188; pottery found in Portsmouth Harbour, 200; coins found at Rathfarnham, Ireland, 204; enameled fibula, inscriptions, and other remains found at Lincoln, 208, 209; Illustrations of Roman London, by Mr. C. Roach Smith, 215; consular diptych at Berlin, 240; Christian sarcophagus at Leyden, 248; recent excavations at Wroxeter, 264; urns found at Dover, 297; mosaic pavement at Crondall, 298; pottery and Kimmeridge coal-money, 300; Samian ware at Chesterford, 302; rings found in Lancashire, 362; rings found by Lord Braybrooke at Chesterford, 358; villa and mosaic floor found at Carisbrooke, 388.
- Runic inscriptions; at Copenhagen, 145; on marble lions at the Arsenal, Venice, 188; at Lund, 238.
- Russell, Mr. W., exhibits a portrait of Edward Honing, 211.
- Russell, Rev. J. F., exhibits a painting by Hans Memling, 206.
- SS. collar of, example found in Switzerland, 359.
- St. Fillan, his crosier and bell, 41, 52.
- St. Govan, his cave in Pembrokeshire, 198; his bell, 361.
- Salisbury, tolls on merchandise brought there, 348.
- Samian Ware, found at Chesterford, 302.
- Scarth, Rev. H. M., his memoir on Wroxeter, 53; on tumuli on the Mendip Hills, 146; Report on recent discoveries at Wroxeter, 264.
- Scilly Islands, glass beads and bugles found on their shores, 356.
- SCOTLAND:—pig of lead found in Perthshire, 36; in Dumbartonshire, 37; crosier of St. Fillan called Quigrich, 41; veneration of the relics of St. Fillan, 52; bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Hoddam, 84; bronze armlet found in co. Kirkcubright, 194; proceedings regarding Treasure Trove, 196; gilt torques found near Elgin, 209; tumulus there, examined, 210; Gallery for the Museum of the Society of Antiquaries granted by Government, 306.
- Scott, Hon. Mrs., exhibits a coin of Trajan found at Savery's Weir, Surrey, 179.

Sculptures. see EFFIGY, IVORY, &c.

SEALS:—of iron, found at Wroxeter, 58 note; chapter seal of the Cathedral of Udina, 91; seal of the Templars, 96; of William de Peshale, 97; of Roeskilde Cathedral, 138; of the Nunnery of St. Clare at Roeskilde, ib.; of the commissary of the bishop of Winchester, 173; of John Blaket, 183; of hone stone attributed to Lady Jaue Grey, 196; proposed publication on seals of St. Omer, 216; privy seal with an antique intaglio found near Farnham, 357; seals of the Hospital of Jerusalem, ib.; signet with a crowned initial I, 363.

SEPULCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—account of the tumulus of Hanai Tepeh in the Troad, 1; interments found at Wroxeter, 62; tumuli in Yorkshire examined by Dr. Thurnam, 83; Roman tomb found at Densworth, Sussex, 101; tumuli on the Mendip Hills, 146; on Walton Down, Somerset, 157; monumental effigy of a lady at Harwood, Devon, 182; interment and singular vase found at Wyke, Dorset, 201; tumulus near Elgin, 210; tombs and effigies at Lund, 238. See BRASSES, Cross-slab, Effigy, &c.

Shoes, of the Princess Hildegard at Zurich, 353; Roman, 354.

Shrewsbury, antiquities in the School Library there, 68.

SHROPSHIRE:—Roman pig of lead found at Snailbeach, 32; at Shelve Hill, ib.; near Aston Farm, 33; at Snead, now in Mr. Mayer's Museum, 34; Memoir by Rev. H. M. Scarth on Wroxeter, 53; camp on the Wrekin, 56; Recent excavations at Wroxeter, 174, 215, 387.

Silchester, silver perfume-box found there, 182.

Skinner, Rev. J., his investigations of tumuli in Somerset, 147.

Slabs, with incised crosses, at Bosbury, Herefordshire, 84; at Laon, 85, 304; of peculiar fashion attributed to the Templars, 85; at Great Salkeld church, Cumberland, 323.

Smirke, Mr. E., communicates the Ordinances of the Gild Merchant of Southampton, 283, 343; tariff of tolls on merchandise at Salisbury, 348.

Smith, Mr. C. Roach, his notice of the Roman Walls of Dax, 188; his Illustrations of Roman London, 215.

Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits a tilting helm, 182; cup-hilted rapier, brass stirrups, &c., ib.; wooden bowls from Delamere House, 304; glass beads and bugles from the Scilly Islands, 356; processional axe of a Builders' Gild, 363.

Sneyd, Rev. W., exhibits miniature portraits of Queen Mary and Philip of Spain, 356; ivory sculpture, ib.

SOMERSETSHIRE:—Roman pig of lead found on the Mendip Hills, 23; pig mentioned by Camden, ib.; pig found at Bath, 34; pig found at Bruton, formerly at Longleat, ib.; singular ovoid stone found at Athelney, 90; account of tumuli on the Mendip, 146; investigations of tumuli there by the Rev. J. Skinner, 147; amphitheatre at Charterhouse, 153; remains on Walton Down, 157; stamped leather hangings at Dunster Castle, 178.

Southampton, Ordinances of the Gild Merchant there, 283, 343; oath of the Mayor, 296.

Spear of bronze, found in tumuli in Somerset, 149, 152.

STAFFORDSHIRE:—Roman pig of lead found on Hints Common, 28.

Stone, antiquities of; ovoid stone found at Athelney, 90. See ARROW-HEAD, and CELT.

Stuart, Mr., communicates documents regarding the Quigrich or crosier of St. Fillan, 52.

SUFFOLK:—antiquities found in, exhibited by the Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180.

SURREY:—mural paintings found in Charlwood church, 88; coin of Trajan found at Savery's Weir, near Staines, 179; ancient pottery found on Wagden Common, ib.; privy seal with an intaglio found near Farnham, 357.

SUSSEX:—Roman pigs of lead found near Pulborough, 26; Archæological Collections, vol. x., noticed, 93; Anglo-Saxon features in Bolney church, 94; Sele Priory, 96; ancient boats found in the river Arun, 97; examples of Elizabethan Architecture, 98; Roman tomb found at Densworth near Chichester, 101; portrait of Edward Honing at Danny, 211.

Switzerland, silver cups, gifts of English bishops, at Zurich, 158; cup given by Queen Elizabeth to Bullinger, 164; fragments of Roman pottery and glass found near Lausanne, 179; pigs or blocks of iron, 200; caltraps and bolt-heads from the castle of Russikon, 212; painted glass at Königsfelden, 339; shoes of the princess Hildegard at Zurich, 353; example of the collar of SS. in a church near Thun, 359.

Talbot de Malahide, Lord, communicates the discovery of St. Fillan's crosier, now in Canada, 44; his appeal to the Duke of Cleveland regarding the

- excavations at Wroxeter, 279; his addresses at the Carlisle Meeting, 365, 367.
- Talismanic ring, 303.
- Tariff of customs at Southampton, 343; of tolls on merchandise brought to Salisbury, 348.
- Templars, the knights, cross slabs supposed to be their memorials, 85, 87.
- Tessellated pavements, at Wroxeter, 61, 68; at Dorchester, 82, 183; at Frampton, 186; at Crondall, 298; at Carisbrooke, 388.
- Thames, the river, cake of lead marked with a Christian monogram found in, 39.
- Thurnam, Dr., his account of a bronze armlet found in Yorkshire, 83.
- Tiles, tombs formed of in the Tread, 3; Roman, for roofing, formed of stone, 186; found at Wroxeter, 269.
- Tin, notices of, by Pliny, 8, 10; produced in Britain, 38, 39; pigs of, found in Cornwall, ib.; objects of, found at Wroxeter, 269.
- Tite, Mr., exhibits illuminated MSS., 90; silver chess-men, ib.
- Toledo, gold crowns found there, now in the Hotel de Cluny, 253.
- Treasure-trove, proceedings relating to, in Scotland, 196, 386.
- Treasure, magical practices for its discovery, 72.
- Troad, researches in the, by Mr. F. Calvert, 1.
- Trollope, Mr. A., his account of Roman remains at Lincoln, 208; of an enameled fibula and inscriptions lately discovered there, 209.
- Tymms, Mr., exhibits a cast of a medalion relating to the Sacheverell party, 363.
- Uriconium, account of, by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 53; excavations recently made there, 174, 211, 302, 376, 387; Report on the discoveries, by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 264.
- Urns, see Pottery.
- Utrecht, notice of objects in the Museum there, 244.
- Vaux, Mr. W., his account of Saxon and Cufic coins found in Yorkshire and in Scandinavia, 197.
- Venice, Runes inscribed on the marble lions at the Arsenal there, 188.
- WALES:—gold found in Roman times, 17; pig of lead found at Flint, 38; cake of copper found near Conway, 40; notices by Mr. Carrington of customs at baptisms, &c., 88; leather hangings at Cefn Maby, 178; St. Govan's cave and bell in Pembrokeshire, 198, 361; bronze cross found at Llanaber, 204; censer found at Corwen, ib.
- Walford, Mr. W. S., his remarks on royal collars of livery, 361.
- Waller, Mr. J. G., exhibits sepulchral brasses from Belgium, 175, 195; from Ypres, 210.
- Wansdike, notices of the, 109.
- Waterton, Mr., exhibits the ring of Cola di Rienzi, 192; various other valuable rings, 193, 194, 302; his Memoir on Cardinal's Rings, 280; on Posy Rings, 307.
- Way, Mr. Albert, his account of Roman and other pigs of lead, tin, &c., found in Great Britain, 22; his account of the Quigrich or crosier of St. Fillan, 41; exhibits a quadrant made by Sutton, 181; his remarks on Runes inscribed on marble lions at Venice, 188; exhibits a gold tore found near Elgin, 209; his account of portraits of the Honing family, 211; exhibits caltraps and bolt-heads found in Switzerland, 212; his account of the Gothic crowns found near Toledo, 253; of an example of military costume in painted glass at Konigsfelden, 339; of a collar of SS. given by Henry VI. to a Swiss knight, 359.
- Webb, Mr. J., exhibits sculptures in ivory, enamels, &c., 90; a fine enamel by Penicaud, 207; specimen of Byzantine mosaic, &c. 358.
- Webb, Mr. G. Bish, exhibits a silver perfume box found at Silchester, 182.
- Weights, Roman, found at Wroxeter, 270.
- Westwood, Mr., his observations on the style of Irish metal-work, 49; his Memoir on an Archæological Tour in the north of Europe, 132, 236.
- Whincopp, Mr., exhibits various rings, 302.
- Will of John Fromond at Winchester, 166.
- WILTSHIRE:—proposed publication on Sepulchral Brasses in that County, by Mr. Kite, 91, 207; tariff of tolls on merchandise at Salisbury, 348.
- Winchester, benefactions by John Fromond to the College there, 166.
- Wright, Mr. T., his investigations at Wroxeter, 264; publication of his Guide to the Ruins there, 306.
- Wroxeter, account of the Roman remains there, by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 53; inscriptions found there, 62; oculist's stamp found there, 66; account of the progress of the late excavations, 174, 211; auxiliary Excavations Committee formed in London, 215; Report on the discoveries by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 264; facilities granted

- by the Duke of Cleveland, 279;
 Guide to the Ruins, published by Mr.
 T. Wright, 306.
- Wykeham, William of, his letter appointing John Fromond his bailiff, 166.
- Wynne, Mr. W. W. E., exhibits a bronze cross, found at Llanaber, 204; bronze censer, found at Corwen, ib.
- YORKSHIRE:—Memoir by Professor Phillips on metallurgy in Roman times among the Brigantes, 7; notices of lead workings in Swaledale and in the West Riding, 18, 22, 29; proceedings regarding a charge of sorcery near Halifax, 69; bronze armlet found near Driffield, 83; Saxon and Cufic coins, ornaments, &c., found at Goldsborough, 197.
- Zurich, proposed publication of a Roll of Arms preserved there, 104, 212;
 silver cups in the library there, presented by English Bishops in the time of the Reformation, 158; shoes of the Princess Hildegard there, 353.

END OF VOL. XVI.