

INDEX.

A.

- Aber, Caernarvonshire, Stone of the Arrows near, 170.
- Ampulla, glass, found near Bishopstoke, 99; at Charlton, Kent, 182; exhibited by Mr. E. W. Cooke, 266.
- Anglesey, charter of Henry VII. in favor of, 69; sites of circular dwellings in, 162; chippings of flint, 168.
- ANGLO-SAXON ANTIQUITIES :— brooch, weapons, &c., found near Dover, now in the Leeds Museum, 101; silver coins and ornaments found at St. Austell, 169; brooch found at Searby, Lincolnshire, 264.
- Antiquities, fictitious, notices of, by Mr. Reed, 167; by Mr. Franks, 168.
- Arbuthnot, Hon. Mrs., watch exhibited by, 190.
- ARCHITECTURE :—account of Dinas Brân, Denbighshire, 114; masons' marks at Darenth Church, Kent, 265; notice of Warwick Castle, 376; of Kenilworth Castle, 379; vestiges of Coventry Cathedral, 381; notice of Maxtoke Castle and Priory, 384.
- Argyleshire, stone monuments near Lochgilphead, 164, 166; sculptured cross, sepulchral slabs, &c., 272.
- ARMOUR AND ARMS :—tilting helm in the Woolwich Armory, 60, 176; helm formerly at Brussels in the Peuker collection, 61; sword of the Duke of Monmouth, 62; culet of scale armour, 91; oriental mail, ib.; Persian and Indian weapons, ib.; helm in Ashford Church, Kent, 98; daggers found in the Thames, 170; remarks on armour by Mr. Curzon, 177; Italian anelaces in Mr. Water-ton's collection, 178; wheel-lock rifle exhibited by Mr. Wilkinson, 266; helmets in Mr. Curzon's armory at Parham, 273.
- Arrow heads, of flint, found in Derbyshire, 55.

- Arrows, Stone of the, in Caernarvonshire, 170.
- Artillery, ancient cannon at Mont St. Michel, 90; stone shot exhibited by Mr. Hewitt, 169.
- Ashford, Kent, helm in the church there, 98.
- Astley, Dr., Roman ring found at Dover in his possession, 263.
- Astley, Rev. J., his account of paintings in Idsworth Church, 184.
- Auditors, their report, 191.

B.

- Bannockburn, notices regarding the battle of, 155; Privy Seal of Edward II. lost there, 157.
- Barenton family, in Essex, noticed, 154.
- Barons' War, the; on the part taken by Roger de Leybourne, 29; notices of the battle of Evesham, and other events of the period, 278.
- Bartlow Hills, Essex, proceedings for their preservation, 86, 92, 97, 162, 174; relics of flint and bronze found near, 178.
- Barton, Hants, Roman coffin, glass vessels, &c., found at, 99.
- Battersea, cake of metal found near, 169.
- Bauge, reliquary found on the field of battle at, 190.
- Beauchamp Chapel, Warwick, memoir by Mr. Winston on painted glass there, 302; visited by the Institute, 372.
- Beck, Rev. J., photographs of remains at Pompeii exhibited by, 91.
- Bellarmines, jugs of stoneware found in Southwark, 190.
- Bennett, Mr., silver ring found in Derbyshire exhibited by, 91.
- Birch, Mr., seal found at Colchester exhibited by, 91.
- Blackmore, Dr., his account of stone implements found at Milford Hill, Wilts, 242, 269.

- Blanchett, Mr., portrait of Queen Elizabeth exhibited by, 266.
- Bobbing, Kent, sculpture in the church there, 246.
- Bohn, Mr. H. G., exhibits an Egyptian tablet, 263; a painting from Herculaneum, ib.
- Boileau, Sir John, his notice of a discovery in Holbrook Church, Suffolk, 89; exhibits a medallion of Hallam the historian, 91; a pistol found in Norfolk, 181.
- Boreham, Mr., exhibits a flint celt found near Bartlow, Essex, 178.
- Bowyer, Sir G., exhibits a sculpture of the Virgin Mary, 190; Italian paintings, ib.
- Boyle, Rev. E., his notice of discoveries at East Ham, Essex, 93.
- Brackstone, Mr., exhibits a bronze Egyptian vase, 185; an Etruscan harpage, ib.; a bronze dagger, ib.
- Britain, Julius Cæsar's Invasion of, 220.
- BRONZE, ANTIQUITIES OF:—celts, sword, &c., found in the Isle of Portland, 90; celts and palstaves in Mr. Westropp's collection, 100; celts found at Murston, Kent, 171; broken weapons, rings, with copper cakes, found near Sittingbourne, Kent, 172; recent forgeries of, 168.
- Brooch, Anglo-Saxon, found in Kent, 101; found at Searby, Lincolnshire, 264.
- Brown, Mr. J., his discoveries of stone implements, 269.
- Bruce, Robert, licence of Edward II. to remit a debt to him, 154.
- Bruce, Dr. Collingwood, his account of circular markings on rocks, 87; third edition of his Roman Wall announced, 276.
- Burges, Mr. W., exhibits a mother-of-pearl cup, chalice, knife, &c., 102; photographs of illuminations, ib.; his account of paintings in Charlwood Church, Surrey, 209; exhibits Oriental and German plate, 274.
- Burt, Mr. J., his memoir on Roger de Leybourne, 29; his account of the Bartlow Hills, 162, 174; exhibits a Roman coin found there, 178.
- C.
- Cæsar, his Invasion of Britain, 220.
- Caerleon-on-Usk, Roman station there, 128.
- Calvert, Mr. F., his memoir on Gergithe in the Troad, 48.
- Cameo, exhibited by the Right Hon. W. Gladstone, 90.
- Cangi, their supposed position, 123.
- Cannon, at Mont St. Michel, 90; found in Tenby Bay, 178.
- Caractacus, supposed scene of his defeat, 121.
- Cardew, Rev. G., his discoveries at Helmingham, Suffolk, 172, 272.
- Carlisle, Roman remains found at, 88.
- Castell Dinas Bran, Denbighshire, notices of, 114.
- Caulfield, Mr. R., exhibits the seal of an abbot of Tracton, 170.
- Celt, of stone, found in Derbyshire, 55; near Bartlow, Essex, 178.
- , of bronze, found in the Isle of Portland, 90; Etruscan, in Mr. Westropp's collection, 100.
- Charlton, Dr., his notices of antiquities at Flensburg, 92
- , near Dover, Roman remains found at, 181.
- Charlwood, Surrey, mural paintings in the church there, 209, 216.
- Chester, Rev. Greville J., his accounts of inscriptions in Nubia, 260; exhibits an inscribed tablet from Maharraka, 263.
- Chichester, the Dean of, his Memoir on Gundulf, 1.
- Clarke, Mr. J., exhibits the seal of John de Ferring, 181; a seal with a figure of St. John, ib.
- Clepsydra, used at races in the Circus Maximus, 138.
- Coates, Rev. R., his notice of masons' marks at Darenth Church, Kent, 265.
- Coffins, Roman, of lead, found at East Ham, Essex, 100; found near London and elsewhere, 94, 95; at Barton, Hants, 99.
- COINS:—Roman, found in the Isle of Portland, 90; at Wycombe, Gloucestershire, 97; at Wroxeter, 131, 135; at Bartlow, Essex, 178; Anglo-Saxon, at St. Austell, Cornwall, 169, 184; money-weight found in Denbighshire, 180.
- Cooke, Mr. E., exhibits a statuette of Da Vinci, 266; sculptures in ivory, ib.; a glass ampulla, ib.
- Copper, lumps of, found with bronze celts in Kent, 162.
- CORNWALL:—inscribed slab near Penzance, 100; silver Anglo-Saxon coins and ornaments found at St. Austell, 169, 184.
- Cramp-rings, notices of by Mr. Waterton, 104; first blessed by Edward II., 107; service for the hallowing of, 109; MS. manual used by Queen Mary at their consecration, 112, 188.
- Crinan Moss, Argyleshire, ancient remains there, 267.

CUMBERLAND :—Roman remains found at Carlisle, 88.
 Curzon, Hon. Robert, his remarks on helmets and armour, 176, 273; exhibits a book of early woodcuts, 273.

D.

Darenth, masons' marks on the church there, 265.
 Denny, Mr. H., exhibits Anglo-Saxon relics found in Kent, 101; stone objects found in Yorkshire, ib.; silver rings, ib.
 DERBYSHIRE :—interment found at Biggin, 55; silver ring found at Chapel-en-le-Frith, 91.
 Diadumenus, the, memoir on the statue so called, 338.
 Dial, of stone, found at Dover, 261.
 Dinas Brán Castle, Denbighshire, 114.
 DOCUMENTS :—relating to Roger de Leybourne and the Barons' War, 29, 41; Exemplification of charters of Henry VIII. in favor of North Wales, 64; writ under the Privy Seal for the said charter, 76; licence to remit a debt to Robert Bruce for the ransom of a prisoner, 154; Queen Elizabeth's Commission to Sir Richard Lee, 189; relating to the Swynford family, 254; Benedictions of Ekkehard used at St. Gall, 360.
 Dodd, Mr. S., his notice of an inscribed slab near Penzance, 100.
 DORSETSHIRE :—sword of the Duke of Monmouth obtained at Woodyates Inn, 62; celts found in the Isle of Portland, 90; proposed meeting of the Institute at Dorchester, 390.
 Dover, Anglo-Saxon relics found near, 101; Roman relics and urns found near, 181; stone dial found at St. Martin's Church, 261; Roman ring in Dr. Astley's possession found at, 263.
 Dundee, gold ring exhibited by Mr. Neish found there, 186.
 Dunraven, the Earl, exhibits a relic of elk's bone found in Ireland, 190.

E.

Edinburgh, proceedings regarding the demolished church of the Holy Trinity there, 175.
 Edward the Confessor, gives his ring to a Pilgrim, 104; his ring deposited in his tomb, 107; painting at Bury St. Edmund's representing him, 178.

 Edward II., licence by him to remit a debt to Robert Bruce, 154; his Privy Seal lost at Bannockburn, 157.

Effigy, of diminutive size, at Holbrook, Suffolk, 89.

Egerton, Sir Philip de M. Grey, exhibits collections relating to the Imhoff family, 265.

— Hon. W., exhibits a steel vice, 274; cameo, and an ornament from Thibet, 274.

EGYPTIAN ANTIQUITIES :—papyrus discovered by the Prince of Wales, 92; inscription found near the Nile, 260; sepulchral tablet and papyrus exhibited, 263.

Elizabeth, Queen, portrait of her exhibited by Mr. Blanchett, 274; by Mr. J. Gough Nichols, 274; by Mr. Farrer, ib.

Elk, horn of, used for hafting stone implements, 58; an object of bone of, found at Desmond Castle, Ireland, 190.

Elsted, Mr., his notice of Roman interments found near Dover, 181.

Embroidery, exhibited by Mrs. Courtney Morland, 266.

Enamel, Chinese vases ornamented with, 91.

ESSEX :—proceedings for the preservation of the Bartlow Hills, 86, 92, 97, 162, 174; seal found at Colchester, 91; Roman coffins, pottery, &c., found at East Ham, 93, 100; transactions relating to estates of Robert Bruce, 154, 157; seal of John de Ferring found at Hadstock, 181; tile found at Castle Hedingham, 190.

F.

Farrer, Mr. H., exhibits a portrait of Elizabeth, 274.

Ferguson, Mr. R., his account of Roman remains found at Carlisle, 88; his notice of a seal found at Lanark, 102.

Fibula, found at Wroxeter, 181; forgeries of ornaments of that kind, 168.

Flint, antiquities of, see Stone.

Forgeries of antiquities sold in London, 167, 267.

Franks, Mr. A. W., his remarks on fictitious antiquities sold in London, 168; exhibits a cake of metal found in the Thames, 169.

Friswell, Mr. H., exhibits a portrait of Shakespeare, 169.

G.

- Gergithe, in the Troad, Memoir on by Mr. F. Calvert, 48.
- Gibbs, Mr. M., exhibits a bronze dagger, 266.
- Gibson, Mr. Sidney, his appeal regarding Trinity Church, Edinburgh, 175.
- Gladstone, Right Hon. W., exhibits a cameo, 90.
- Glass, Roman; vase found at Carlisle, 88; fragments at East Ham, Essex, 94; at Barton, Hants, 99; at Wroxeter, 134; at Charlton, near Dover, 182; ampulla exhibited by Mr. E. Cooke, 266.
- , mediæval, balls found at Walton Hall, Yorkshire, 178; bottle found in Southwark, 266.
- , painted, in Nettlestead Church, Kent, 166; in Lichfield Cathedral, 193; notices by Mr. Winston of the processes of painting, 204; windows in the Beauchamp Chapel, Warwick, 302.
- GLOUCESTERSHIRE:—Roman remains found at Wycomb, 96, 263.
- GLYPHIC ART:—cameo exhibited by the Right Hon. W. Gladstone, 90; intagli found at Wroxeter, 136; gem representing a clepsydra, 138; intaglio set in a Roman ring found at Dover, 263; cameo in tortoiseshell, 274; seals of St. Servais at Maestricht, 274; memoir by Mr. King on Mediæval Gems, 319; intaglio in the Blenheim collection, 328; other mediæval intagli, 331, 335; notices of camei in gothic style, 336.
- Goodwin, Mr. C. W., his remarks on an Egyptian papyrus, 92.
- Gore, Mrs. Ormsby, exemplification of charters of Henry VII. to North Wales, in her possession, 64.
- Graham, Mr. H. D., his notices of circular markings on rocks in Argyshire, 164, 269; of stone monuments, perforated rocks, &c., 267, 269; of sculptured crosses and slabs in Western Scotland, 272.
- Graves, the Very Rev. Dean, his intended publication on markings on rocks in Ireland, 269.
- Graves, Rev. J., his notice of markings on rocks, 164.
- Green, Rev. J. R., his Memoir on the Ban of Kenilworth, 277.
- Guest, Dr., his Memoir on Julius Cæsar's Invasion of Britain, 220.
- Gundulf, memoir on his life and times by the Dean of Chichester, 1; his bible, 11; buildings attributed to him, 17; his episcopal ring, 25; his last days and death, 27.

H.

- HAMPSHIRE:—Roman coffin, glass vessel, and relics found at Barton, 99; paintings in Idsworth Church, 184; Roman pottery found at Idsworth, 186; flint implements found near Fareham, 244, 269.
- Hart, Mr. W., exhibits Queen Elizabeth's Commission to Sir Richard Lee, 189.
- Hartshorne, Rev. C. H., his Memoir on the Parliament of Kenilworth, 143.
- Heart, supposed interment of, in Holbrook Church, Suffolk, 89; in Leybourne Church, Kent, 90.
- Helm in the Woolwich Armory, 69; formerly in the Peuker collection at Brussels, 70; in Ashford Church, Kent, 98; examples in the Hon. Robert Curzon's Armory, 273.
- Helmington, Suffolk, ancient remains there found, 172, 272.
- Henderson, Mr. J., exhibits Chinese enameled vases, 91; damascened candlesticks, 266.
- Henry III., events of his times; on the part taken by Roger de Leybourne, 29; the Battle of Evesham and subsequent events, 142; the Dictum of Kenilworth, 148; the Ban of Kenilworth, 277.
- Henry VII., his charters in favor of North Wales, 64.
- Herculaneum, fresco paintings found there exhibited, 263.
- Hewitt, Mr. J., his remarks on a tilting helm in the Woolwich Armory, 60; on the sword of the Duke of Monmouth, 62; exhibits Oriental weapons, 91; stone shot from the Tower of London, 169; bronze celts found at Murston, 171.
- Hilton, Mr., exhibits a bronze bell found near Bartlow, 178.
- Hoare, Capt. E., exhibits a silver seal, 267.
- Holbrook, Suffolk, tomb and effigy there, 89.
- Holt, Mr. H., his observations on early woodcuts, 270.
- Hook, the Very Rev. Dr., his Memoir on Gundulf, 1.
- Horns, of the stag and elk used for hafting stone implements, 54.
- I.
- Idsworth, Hants, paintings in the church there, 184; Roman pottery found there, 186.
- Imhoff family, collections relating to 265.

Indian objects exhibited; weapons by Mr. Hewitt, 91; seals of brass by Mr. Majendie, 170.

Inscription, on a slab near Penzance, 100; Roman, found at Wroxeter, 131, 133; on a cake of metal found near Battersea, 169; found on rocks in Nubia by the Rev. Greville Chester, 260.

Intagli; found at Wroxeter, 136; gem representing a clepsydra, 138; in a Roman ring found at Dover, 263.

Ivory, sculptures in; exhibited by Mr. Webb, 97, 265; spoon found at Norwich, 173; medallion exhibited by Mr. E. W. Cooke, 266.

IRELAND:—circular markings on rocks in co. Kerry, 163, 165; seal of an abbot of Tracton, co. Cork, 170; object of elks' bone found at Desmond Castle, 190.

J.

Jade, axes of, found in Normandy, 56.

Jarvis, Rev. E., communicates documents relating to the Swynford family, 254; silver seal of Reinald de Tiwe, 267.

Jervoise, Sir J. Clarke, exhibits Roman pottery found at Idsworth, 136.

Julius Cæsar, memoir by Dr. Guest on his Invasion of Britain, 219.

K.

Keller, Dr., his memoir on the Benedictions in use at St. Gall, 360.

Kenilworth, the Parliament of, memoir by the Rev. C. Hartshorne, 142; the Ban, or Dictum, of, memoir by the Rev. J. Green, 277; the castle visited by the Institute, 390.

KENT:—services of Roger de Leybourne in that county, 36, 39; his memorial in Leybourne Church, 90; costrel of earthenware found at Strood, 97; Sir John Fogge's helm in Ashford Church, 98; Anglo-Saxon relics found near Dover now in the Leeds Museum, 101; Roman urns and glass vase found at Charlton, 181; sculpture in Bobbing Church, 246; sun-dial found at Dover, 261; Roman ring found there, 263.

Key, at Liege, given to St. Hubert, 274; cellarer's keys from Old Hall Green, Herts, 274.

Kettlethorpe, Lincolnshire, documents relating to, 254.

King, Rev. C., exhibits engravings of Etruscan celts, 100; memoir by him on a gem representing the clepsydra used at races in the Circus Maximus, 133; his observations on a Roman intaglio found at Dover, 264; memoir on mediæval gem-engraving, 319.

King, Mr. Warwick, exhibits drawings of Roman relics found at East Ham, 100.

L.

Lamps, Roman, found at Wroxeter, 136. Lawrence, Mr., his discoveries at Wycombe, Gloucestershire, 96, 263.

Lee, Sir Richard, Queen Elizabeth's commission to him, 189.

Lee, Mr. J. E., his notice of ancient cannon at Pembroke, 178.

Lefroy, Gen., exhibits a tilting helm from the Woolwich Armory, 60, 176; his account of cannon at Mont St. Michel, 90; exhibits a sight for a firearm, 91; antiquities from Switzerland, 166.

Leybourne, Roger de, memoir by Mr. Burt on his share in the Barons' War, 28; his memorial in Leybourne Church, Kent, 90.

Lichfield, memoir by Mr. Winston on painted glass in the Cathedral, 193; visited by the Institute, 382.

LINCOLNSHIRE:—documents relating to the Swynford family, 254; Anglo-Saxon brooch found at Searby, 264.

London, fictitious antiquities stated to be found in, 167, 168.

Lotharius, the Emperor, his seals, 321, 322.

Lowndes, Mr. G. A., documents relating to the Bruce in his possession, 154.

M.

Maclean, Rev. H., exhibits an Anglo-Saxon brooch found in Lincolnshire, 264.

Majendie, Mr. A., exhibits Indian stamps, 170; a tile found at Castle Hedingham, 190.

Mary, Queen, her MS. manual for hallowing cramp-rings, 112, 188.

Masons' marks, at Darenth Church, Kent, 265.

Milford Hill, Wilts, flint implements found there, 243, 269.

Milman, Mr. H. S., his observations on a charter of Henry VII. to North Wales, 64.

Mirrors, Roman, found at Wroxeter, 136.

Mitre, its ancient forms, 249.

Monmouth, the Duke of, sword attributed to him, 62.
 Morgan, Mr. Octavius, exhibits Indian silver objects, 101; an Arabic quadrant and a dial, 273; a jewel of the Danish Order of the Elephant, ib.
 Morland, Mrs. W. C., exhibits an embroidered cushion-cover, 266.
 Murston, Kent, bronze celts found at, 171.

N.

Neish, Mr., exhibits a gold ring found at Dundee, 186.
 Nichols, Mr. J. G., exhibits a portrait of Queen Elizabeth, 274.
 Nightingale, Mr. J., seals exhibited by, 181.
 NORTHUMBERLAND:—circular markings on rocks near the Cheviots, 87, 88, 163.
 Nubia, inscriptions on rocks near the Nile, 260; inscribed tablet from Maharraka, 263.
 Nunneley, Mr., exhibits a ring found at Fountains Abbey, 101.

O.

OXFORDSHIRE:—relic of elk's horn found in Wychwood Forest, 57; paintings in Charlgrove Church, 212.

P.

Palstaves, Etruscan, in Mr. Westropp's collection, 100.
 PAINTINGS:—of St. John and Edward the Confessor at Bury, 178; in Idsworth Church, Hants, 184; Italian, exhibited by Sir G. Bowyer, 190; portrait of Luther's wife exhibited by Col. Tempest, ib.; in Charlwood Church, Surrey, 209; in Charlgrove Church, Oxfordshire, 212; of the Trois Vifs et Trois Morts, 216; at Ditchingham, Norfolk, and elsewhere, 217; at Bolton, Suffolk, 218; at Battle, Limpenhoe, Tettenhall, &c., 219; fresco paintings from Herculaneum exhibited, 263.
 Papyrus, published by direction of the Prince of Wales, 92; exhibited by Mr. Bohn, 263.
 Phillips, Mr. R., exhibits celts and bronze relics from the Isle of Portland, 90; a vase from Fiesoli, 91.
 Pipson, Mr., his account of discoveries in Holbrook Church, Suffolk, 89.
 Pollexfen, Rev. J., seal found at Colchester in his possession, 91.

Portland, Isle of, bronze celts, sword, &c., found there, 90.

POTTERY:—found in the Troad, 48; vases enclosing human remains, 50; found in Wychwood Forest, 57; Roman, found at Carlisle, 88; at East Ham, Essex, 95; mediæval costrel found at Strood, 97; Roman found at Wroxeter, 131, 134; Upchurch ware found there, 136; at Helmingham, Suffolk, 172; majolica bottles, 173; Roman, found at Charlton, near Dover, 181; at Idsworth, Hants, 186; Bellarmine jugs found in Southwark, 190.

Poynter, Mr. A., his account of Roman remains found at Charlton, Kent, 181; of a stone sun-dial found at Dover, 261.

Priam, his Tomb in the Troad, 49.

PUBLICATIONS, ARCHÆOLOGICAL:—memoirs by the Rev. J. Kenrick, 102; on Glass Painting, by Mr. Winston, 276; third edition of the Roman Wall, by the Rev. Dr. C. Bruce, ib.; new edition of Hutchins' History of Dorset, 276; Bial's History of Celtic Civilisation, ib.

R.

Ready, Mr. R., exhibits the seal of Bertrand de Verneto, 102.

Reed, Mr. C., his observations on fictitious antiquities sold in London, 167.

Reliquary, found on the battle-field of Baugé, 190.

Rembrandt, etched plate with his name exhibited by Sir T. Winnington, ib.

RINGS:—Gundulf's episcopal ring, 26; examples exhibited by Mr. Water-ton, 91, 178; silver, found in Derbyshire, 91; in the Museum at Leeds, 101; found at Fountains Abbey, ib.; cramp-rings, 104, 110; ring of Edward the Confessor, 105; deposited in the tomb of that king, 107; cramp-rings highly valued in foreign lands, 110; ritual for their benediction, 111; mention of such rings in wills, 113; Roman ring found at Wroxeter, 137; exhibited by Mr. Fortescue Wilbraham, 185; found near Dundee, 186; posy rings exhibited by Mr. Soden Smith, 190, 274; Roman, found at Dover, 263; jeweled, probably Indian, 266; the ring of John, Duke of Burgundy, 325, n.; of St. Louis, ib.; set with intaglio of a regal head, in the Blenheim collection, 328; signet of Matthew Paris in the Waterton collec-

- tion, 331; with an intaglio of a triple head in the Braybrooke collection, 330.
- Rochester, buildings there attributed to Gundulf, 17; notice of John Warner, bishop of, 42.
- Rock, the Very Rev. Canon, his remarks on a fictitious painting attributed to A. Durer, 169; on a MS. Processional used by the nuns of Syon, 178; exhibits MS. Herae, 266.
- Rocks, circular incised markings on, 87, 88, 164.
- Rogers, Mr. J. J., exhibits Anglo-Saxon coins and ornaments found in Cornwall, 169, 183.
- ROMAN ANTIQUITIES:—found at Carlisle, 88; at East Ham, Essex, 94; Wycombe, Gloucestershire, 96, 263; leaden coffin at Barton, Hants, 99; observations by the Rev. H. M. Scarth on Urioconium, 121; station at Caerleon-on-Usk, 128; report on progress of excavations at Wroxeter, 130; inscriptions found there, 132; glass vessels, intagli, mosaic pavement, &c., found there, 135, 137; cake of metal found at Battersea, 169; bronze bell, coins, &c., found near the Bartlow Hills, 178; pottery found at Idsworth, Hants, 186; ring found at Dover, 263; see also Bartlow Hills.
- Russell, Rev. J. Fuller, exhibits a MS. Processional of the use of Syon, 178.
- , Rev. F., exhibits a bronze spoon, 266.
- S.
- St. Austell, Cornwall, silver coins and ornaments found at, 169, 183.
- St. Christopher, criticisms by Mr. Holt on woodcuts of, 270.
- St. Gall, Benediction used in the monastery there, 270.
- St. Margaret, representations of her legend, 212.
- St. Marcial, sculpture of, at Bobbing, 248.
- St. Servais, his relics, seals, &c., at Maestricht, 274.
- Salisbury, seals in the museum there, 181; stone implements found near, 243, 269.
- Samian ware, found at Carlisle, 88; at East Ham, Essex, 94; at Wroxeter, 130.
- Scarth, the Rev. H. M., his memoir on the foundation of Urioconium, 121; report on excavations there, 130; exhibits drawings of Roman relics at Bath, 178; his account of Roman villas, &c., there, 260.
- SCOTLAND:—seal found at Lanark, 102; incised circles on rocks in Argyleshire, 164; appeal regarding the destruction of Trinity Church, Edinburgh, 175; gold ring found at Dundee, 186; antiquities in Argyleshire described by Mr. H. D. Graham, 267; drawings of ecclesiastical remains, sculptured slabs, &c., exhibited by him, 272.
- Sculpture, found in Bobbing Church, Kent, 246; statue of the Diadumenus in the British Museum, 338.
- SEALS:—of the chancery for Merioneth, Caernarvon, and Anglesea, 75; of Charles I., for Caernarthen, Cardigan, and Pembroke, ib.; with device of a hare, found at Colchester, 91; found at Lanark, 102; of Bertrand de Verneto, ib.; privy seal of Edward II., called targia, lost in Scotland, 157; impression of the privy seal of that king, 161; Indian stamps or seals exhibited by Mr. A. Majendie, 170; seal of an Abbot of Tracton, co. Cork, ib.; matrices found in York Minster, 181; seal of John de Ferring, ib.; with figure of St. John the Baptist, ib.; matrices in the Salisbury Museum, ib.; seal of Sir Nicholas Hebdenne, 256; of Sir Thomas Swynford, 257; of Reinald de Tiwe, 267; of St. Servais at Maestricht, 274; of the church of St. Gabriel in Rode, 275; of the Emperor Lotharius, 321; of Florence, 325; of John, Duke of Burgundy, ib., n.; privy seal found at Childerley, Suffolk, 332; silver seal found at Monkton Farleigh, Wilts, 335.
- SEPUCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—interments in vases in the Troad, 50; interment at Biggin, Derbyshire, 55; cists with stone implements found in Normandy, 56; Roman graves and relics found at Carlisle, 88; supposed deposit of a human heart at Holbrook, Suffolk, 89; Roman coffins of lead and relics found at East Ham, Essex, 24, 95; urns found at Wroxeter, 134; cemeteries at Helmingham, Suffolk, 172; traces of funeral feasts, 173; Roman graves at Charlton, near Dover, 182.
- Shakespeare, portrait of, exhibited by Mr. H. Friswell, 169.
- Shrewsbury, notices of objects in the museum there, 131, 137.
- Sittingbourne, Kent, bronze celts and relics found there, 171, 172.
- Slabs, sepulchral, in Western Scotland, 272.
- Smith, Mr. R. Soden, exhibits Bellar-

- mine jugs found in Southwark, 190 ; gold rings and an armlet, ib. ; spurs of various dates, 266 ; glass bottle, ib.
- Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits relics of elk's horn, 54 ; Italian armour and Oriental mail, 91 ; daggers found in the Thames, 170.
- Snail-shells, found in a Roman interment, 183.
- Spurs, exhibited by Mr. Soden Smith, 266.
- Stag's horn, used for hafting stone implements, 54 ; objects of, found in lake dwellings in Switzerland, 56 ; found in Normandy, ib.
- Stanley, Hon. W. O., his communication regarding charters of Henry VII. to North Wales, 75, 82 ; his account of circular dwellings in Holyhead Island, 162 ; exhibits flint flakes found in Anglesea, 168 ; a money-weight found in Denbighshire, 180.
- STONE, ANTIQUITIES OF :—stag's horn used for hafting implements of, 54 ; celts and arrow-heads found in Derbyshire, 55 ; celts of stone and jade found at Cocherel in Normandy, 56 ; burnishing stones or hones found in Yorkshire, 101 ; implements from the lake dwellings in Switzerland exhibited, 166 ; flint chippings found in Anglesea, 168 ; spear-head found at Helmingham, Suffolk, 172 ; celt found at Bartlow, Essex, 178 ; implements found in gravel at Milford Hill, 242, 269 ; standing stones, &c., in Argyleshire, 267 ; perforated stones and superstitions connected with them, 268 ; implements found in the tertiary drift in Wiltshire and elsewhere, 269.
- shot, found in the Tower moat, London, 169.
- , of the Arrows, near Aber, Caernarvonshire, 170.
- Sun-dial, found at Dover, 261.
- SUFFOLK :— sepulchral remains and miniature effigy in Holbrook Church, 89 ; cemetery and relics found at Helmingham, 172, 272.
- SURREY :— paintings in Charlwood Church, 209 ; relics found in Southwark, 190, 266.
- Switzerland, antiquities from the lake dwellings exhibited, 166.
- Sword, attributed to the Duke of Monmouth, 62 ; of bronze, found in the Isle of Portland, 90.
- Swynford family, Lincolnshire, documents relating to, 254.
- Syagrius, cakes of metal stamped with his name, 169.
- Syon, MS. Processional formerly belonging to the convent of, 178.

T.

- Targia, privy seal of Edward II. so called, 157, 160.
- Tempest, Col., exhibits seals found in York Minster, 181 ; a portrait of Luther's wife, 190.
- Tesselated pavements, at Wroxeter, 137.
- Thames, fictitious antiquities alleged to be therein found, 167 ; cake of metal found in the river at Battersea, 169 ; daggers exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 170.
- Tortoiseshell, cameo of, exhibited by the Hon. W. Egerton, 274.
- Tregellas, Mr. W. H., his memoir on Dinas Brân, Denbighshire, 114.
- Troad, memoir on the site of Gergithe in the, by Mr. F. Calvert, 48.
- Trois Vifs et Trois Morts, paintings of that subject in Charlwood Church, Surrey, 216 ; at Battle and elsewhere, 219.
- Tumulus, of Balli-dagh in the Troad, 49. See Bartlow Hills.
- Twamley, Mr. C., his notes on the Warwickshire Domesday, 373.

U.

- Uriconium, memoir by the Rev. H. Scarth on the date of its foundation, 121 ; report by him on progress of the excavations, 130 ; intagli found there, 136 ; Roman lamps found there, ib.

V.

- Vestments, ecclesiastical, notices of as illustrated by a sculpture in Bobbing Church, Kent, 249, 251.

W.

- W. S. W., observations on a sculpture in Bobbing Church, Kent, 246.
- Warner, Rev. J. Lee, his memoir relating to John Warner, Bishop of Rochester, 42.
- Wales, H. R. H. the Prince of, description of a papyrus found during his Eastern tour presented by him, 92 ; becomes the Patron of the Institute, 162.
- WALES :— Charters of Henry VII. in favor of the Shires of Merioneth, Caernarvon, and Anglesea, 64 ; notes

- on legal terms there in use, 83; memoir on Castell Dinas Bran, Denbighshire, 114; circular habitations in Anglesea and on Holyhead Mountain, 162; flint flakes found in Anglesea, 168; Stone of the Arrows, Aber, Caernarvonshire, 170; ancient cannon at Pembroke Castle, 178; money-weight found in Denbighshire, 180.
- Walford, Mr. W. S., his observations on charters of Henry VII. to North Wales, 64.
- WARWICKSHIRE:—memoir by the Rev. C. H. Hartshorne on the Parliament of Kenilworth, 142; the Ban of Kenilworth, by the Rev. J. R. Green, 277; memoir by Mr. C. Winston on painted glass in the Beauchamp Chapel, 302; proceedings of the Meeting of the Institute at Warwick, 366; notes on Domesday for the county, 373.
- Waterton, Mr. E., exhibits Roman cabalistic and other rings, 91; a pilgrim's scallop shell, ib.; his memoir on an incident in the life of Edward the Confessor, and on cramp rings, 103; exhibits an ivory tablet, 169; Italian anelaces, a leaden badge, paintings, &c., 178; a figure of a pig of terra cotta, 185; a silver hanap, and a jug of Arabian ware, ib.; photograph of the key of St. Hubert at Liege, 274.
- , Mrs. E., exhibits a badge of the Order of the Fleece, 178.
- Way, Mr. A., his observations on charters of Henry VII. to North Wales, 64; notice of Roman remains at East Ham, Essex, 93; remarks on a licence of Edward II. to remit a debt to Robert Bruce, 154; on circular markings on rocks in Northumberland, &c., 163, 165; on paintings of Les Trois Vifs et Trois Morts, 216; on a sculpture in Bobbing Church, Kent, 246.
- Weale, Mr. W. H., his notice of seals of St. Servais at Maestricht, &c., 274.
- Webb, Mr. J., exhibits a reliquary found on the battle-field of Baugé, 190; a processional cross, and a sculpture in ivory, 265.
- Westmacott, Professor, his memoir on the Diadumenus, 338.
- Westropp, Mr., Etruscan celts in his collection, 100.
- Wickham, Mr. H., exhibits a costrel found at Strood, Kent, 97.
- Wilbraham, Mr. G. Fortescue, exhibits a Roman ring, 185.
- Wilkinson, Mr., exhibits a German rifle, 266.
- Williams, Mr. J., his notice of the Stone of the Arrows, Caernarvonshire, 170.
- WILTSHIRE:—flint implements found at Milford Hill, near Salisbury, 243, 269; matrices of seals in the Salisbury Museum, 181; silver seal found at Monkton Farleigh, 335.
- Winnington, Sir T. E., exhibits an etched plate with the name of Rembrandt, 190.
- Winston, Mr. C., his notice of Roman relics found at Barton, Hants, 99; exhibits drawings of painted glass at Nettlestead, Kent, 166; his memoir on painted glass in Lichfield Cathedral, 193; proposed publication of his memoirs, 276; his memoir on painted glass in the Beauchamp Chapel, 302.
- Wiseman, Cardinal, Queen Mary's Manual for hallowing cramp-rings, and touching for the evil, in his possession, 112, 188.
- Woolwich Armory, objects from the collection there exhibited; tilting helm formerly in the Brocas collection, 60; antiquities from the lake habitations in Switzerland, 166; stone-shot found in the Tower moat, 170.
- Wroxeter, on the date of foundation of the Roman city, 126; report on recent excavations, 130.
- Wychwood Forest, Oxfordshire, relic of elk's horn found there, 57.
- Wycombe, Gloucestershire, Roman sculpture found there, 96; bronze statuette of Mars, 263.
- Wynne, Mr. W. W. E., communicates a charter of Henry VII. in favor of North Wales, 64; notice of MSS. in his library, 78.

Y.

- YORKSHIRE:—antiquities in the Museum at Leeds, 101; stone burnishers or hones found near South Cave, ib.; ring found at Fountains Abbey, 101; proposed publication of antiquarian papers by Rev. J. Kenrick relating to that county, 102.
- Yates, Mr. J., exhibits a medal of the Emperor Charles V., 190.