1. Robert Symson was Rector in 1526, Subsidy, Dio. Lincoln; and in 1534-5. (Valor Ecclesiasticus). His Will was made 22 April, and proved 17 May, 1537. (Archdeaconry of Hunts., 5, 69, Peterborough Probate Registry).

2. In 1552 the Living was in sequestration; there had been a non-resident Rector for seven years. (Chapter Muniment Room, Lincoln).

3. Thomas Smith was Rector in 1583-5. (Visitation of Hunts. Lambeth Palace Library).

4. Abel Smith is called Rector in the Will of W. Heley, of Water Newton, made 6 April, 1607. A List of Benefactors, in the Church, says that he was Rector 23 years, and died in 1616. He evidently resigned about 1611 or 1612.

5. 'John Hanger, Rector, and Mary Smythe were married 23 June, 1611.' (Register). He compounded for the First Fruits in 1613, (F). His brass, in the Church, says that he was Rector 24 years, and died in 1638. The statements do not quite agree.

6. John Yaxley is called Minister, in 1639, and he appears to have been still here in 1642. (Register).

7. Giles Alleyn appears to have been Rector as early as 1667, in which year Captain George Alleyn gave £10 to the Parish in memory of his brother John. (List of Benefactors, in the Church). He made his Will 15 March, 1677, and it was proved at London 9 Nov., 1678.

8. Mentioned in the Patent Rolls, 1279. (G).

9. Held it in 1343, and 2, Kal., Nov., 1344. (Papal Registers).

	VICAR.	PATRON.
1876	George Edward Sharland	Bishop of Ely

1. Thomas, Prior of Stoneley, is mentioned in a Will, in 1486, and Thomas Ravensden in 1487, and again in 1501.
2. George Holland apparently resigned in 1508, but he must have been again Prior, for he was succeeded in 1529 by Edmund Bonde.
3. Richard Rowell was still Prior in 1515. (Visitation at Lincoln).
4. The Will of George Holland, "priest," was made 30 August, and proved 9 Oct., 1531. He calls himself "late Prior of Stoneley." (P.C.C. 8 Thower).
5. Edmund Bonde was Prior in 26, Henry VIII. (Valor Ecclesiasticus).
6. The Patrons, previously to 1837, were the Prebendaries of Stow Longa in the Cathedral of Lincoln.
7. Thomas Ydlat is called "Chaplain of Stow," in the Will of William Petyr, 26 April, 1490. (Archdeaconry of Hunts., I, 155, Peterborough Probate Court).
8. John Barnes was Curate in 1526. (Subsidy).
9. Thomas Attwoode is called "Parish Priest of Stow," in the Will of Thomas Kirke, of Overstowe, Kimbolton, 1529. (Archdeaconry of Hunts., 3, 94).
10. George Symcotte is called "Vicar of Stow," in a Will dated 1546. (Archdeaconry of Hunts).
11. Brudenell Moseley signs the transcripts, as Curate, in 1605, 1607, 1608, 1609 and 1622.
12. Edward Savage, 'a preaching minister,' was Incumbent, 1651. (Triers' Visitation).
13. John Ensor witnessed a Will in 1711. He seems to have been at Spaldwick from 1697 (and perhaps a little earlier) until his death, and to have written the Register for the whole period; he was buried there, 4 January, 1723-4. His Will, made 22 May, 1707, was proved 10 April, 1724. (Stow Peculiar, Peterborough Probate Court). He wrote the Register of Stow from the beginning (1698) until 1724, and was probably Perpetual Curate.
14. Fleetwood Neville wrote the Spaldwick and Stow Registers from Ensor's death until 1742. He was buried at Spaldwick, 6 May, 1742.
15. Thomas Strong signs the Register, as Curate, in 1742, 1748, 1761, 1763. His writing begins, in the Spaldwick Register, in June, 1742, and continues until 1749, and similarly in the Stow Register. But he resigned Stow in 1790.
16. John Thompson's appointment to Long Stow occurs in the Episcopal Registers at Lincoln, but not his appointment to Easton; while John Bligh's appointment to Easton occurs, but not his appointment to Stow. They both held the two livings.
17. The Livings were consolidated by an Order in Council, 1869, which came into force on the death of John Bligh. (See note to Spaldwick).
