ART. XI.—The Winders of Lorton. By. F. A. WINDER, Southsea, Portsmouth.

Communicated at Carlisle, August 8th, 1895.*

DURING the last three years many important evidences have been found relating to the above family, and to the branches descended from them, and I am pleased to be permitted to contribute this paper, having in view the desire, of chronicling what has already been accomplished, and also, of indicating what yet remains to be done, to complete the gathering in of many scattered reminiscences—first then:—

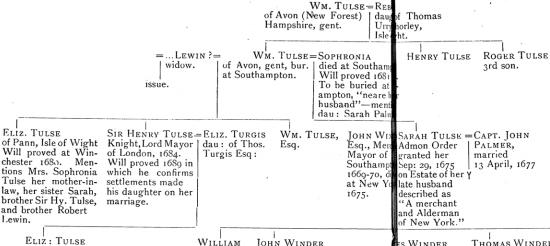

As to the Winder Family of Maryland.

With the assistance of good friends in the United States of America, a large historical Pedigree has been compiled and printed, (now being further added to and corrected), which certainly is a very comprehensive record of the descendants of John Winder, Planter and Commissioned Officer in the Colonial Army, of...Princess Anne, Somerset Co., Maryland—whose Will was found at the District Probate Court, proved 23rd Sept. 1698. In November, 1672, this John Winder of Somerset Co., Gent, proved Rights to 200 acres of land for transporting into that province, Thomas Quarteman, Thomas Relfe, William Walter, and Ann Boyden.†

Here it would be in place to mention that a Thomas Relfe of Cockermouth, married in $171\frac{1}{2}$, Barbara dau. of

^{*} For a previous paper on the Winders, see these Transactions, vol. xii, p. 439. † Abstracted from the Records in the Land Office, Maryland, by Philip D. Laird, Esq., Commissioner, of Rockville, Maryland, and kindly sent me with many other evidences by R. Winder Johnson, Esq., of Philadelphia.

JOHN WINDER Winder Mercht, of London, late of died about Cape Coast Castle, Guinea. 1678. Will proved 1686. Appoints Sir Henry Tulse and his bro: Thomas Winder, Exors. Mentions his kinsman Wm. Lewin, his mother Mrs. Sarah Palmer, and his fatherin-law Mr. John Palmer. THOMAS WINDER died at Barbadoes, 1691, bur: at St. Michael's. Admon granted in Philadelphia to James Winder, 8 Novr. 1694.

SAMUEL WINDER Gent, Provincial Councellor of New Jersey, U.S.A. Married Margt. Rudyard, Oct. 25, 1684—Died Jan. 1688-9—left a daughter, Sarah. who it is believed died in her minority -In his Will he mentions his brother James Winder.

CHARLES WINDER Appointed by Govr. of New Jersey, Oct. 29, 1693, Administrator of his brother Thomas Winder's estateat that time Charles was of the Island of Antigua-he died intestate "last of New York."-George Willocks (who afterwards married his widow) was appointed Administrator of his estate, 20 Dec: 1710.

William Williams of Johnby Hall, whose sister Lettice married John Winder, Esq., Barrister-at-law (eldest son of John Winder, gent of Lorton, who died 1696),—this is the only clue associating this Maryland branch with the Lorton family, which as I believe, has yet been found.

THE BRANCHES IN IRELAND.

A family settled at Cork, of which Arthur Wellesley Winder, LL.D., is a member, descends from Winder of Stonehead, Wyersdale, Lancashire,—out of Exchequer Depositions, date about 1660, I gathered that: "One Wynder of Stonyhead, Wyersdale was killed in Queen Elizabeth's time in the Border service against the Scotts."

John Winder of Dearham, Cumberland, in his Will proved at Carlisle, 1663, mentions the children of his son Peter, in Ireland.—John Winder of Lucie Close, parish of Deane, Cumberland, gent, in his Will (at London) proved 1623, mentions his godson, son of Henry Fearon of Galwaye. The families bearing our name and resident now about Dublin may possibly be descended from this Dearham family.

JOHN WINDER MAYOR OF SOUTHAMPTON 1669-70.

I believe him to be descended from the Cumberland Stock, and as the appended Pedigree is an important one I have worked it out, in part, to shew the Winder, Tulse, and Ouslow connection.

WINDER AND MUSGRAVE.

Thomas Winder of St. Christopher's, West Indies, Merchant, made a Will which was proved (in P.C.C.) 15th June, 1704, by his "honoured mother" Elizabeth Winder. This member of the family I have not been able to identify yet with any pedigree, but it seems probable that he would be some relation to Mrs. Anne Winder, sister of Thomas

Thomas Musgrave, Gent, who died in Antigua about November, 1699, and in whose Will* is mentioned his loving sister Mrs. Anne Winder, his niece Mrs. Hartley, wife of Mr. —Hartley, Bookseller, of London, and Edward Musgrave, Esq., his "dear brother" of Westmorland.

Edward Musgrave † of Ashby, Westmorland, Esq., in his Will (proved in P.C.C., 17th June, 1700), mentions his only son Richard Musgrave and leaves him his demesne lands &c., in the said county with Tythe Barns at Allonby and West Newton in parish of Bromfield, Cumberland, and to his daughter Catherine an annuity. and also a gold ring with inscription "God's providence is our inheritance,"-he desires his honoured and most faithful friends Sir Christopher Musgrave, Bart., and Sir Richard Musgrave of Haton, Bart., to take upon them the trust of seeing that his son (whom he leaves his Exor) is carefully educated and religiously brought up.

From the Westmorland "Feet of Fines" I find that:-"Christopher Musgrave, Knight, in 1702, disposes of Lands and Tenements lying in Appleby to Hugh Hugill and Margt his wife for £60."

Richard Musgrave, in 1703, purchases Lands and Manor of Asby Cotsford from William Johnson, Gent, for £360.

fully assigned to Richard Musgrave, Armiger, a minor, son and exor. of Edward Musgrave, Armiger, deceased.

† I have not yet traced from which branch of the Musgrave family he descends. Altho' it may be from Cuthbert Musgrave, who was granted by King Henry VIII, the office of Bailiwick of the town of Penrith by Letters Patent 7 March, 1536,—for we find Richard Dudley of Yenwyth, Westmorland, complaining (Exchequer Bill—Cumb: Eliz: No. 25) that Cuthbert Musgrave having by deed assigned him the said office in 1583-4—did, with his son Cuthbert Musgrave, John Atkinson of Penrith, and John Winder [of Penrith—Will proved 1593] enter into the said bailiwick, by force and arms and disseise him [Richard Dudlev] of his office. Dudley of his office.

"main lines" of the pedigree set out in my previous paper and published in the Society's Transactions for the year 1892-3.

John Winder, gent, of Nether Lorton, was bur: at Lorton 21 Nov: 1609.

DISPUTE AS TO PROPERTY IN PAPCASTLE. †

It appears from a dispute with John Watson of Papcastle that John Winder of Lorton Esq., was interested in a customary messuage and tenement situated in Papcastle and held of Robert Browne Esq., as Lord thereof—for the lives of John Winder the elder of Lorton, Esq., decd. and Mary his then wife—who was very aged in 1696, the date of the Chancery suit.

I most humbly beg leave to acquaint your Lordship that before the departure of my nephew Wms. Winder he absolutely promised and assured me over and over that [he] would not Resign his Consulship any otherwise than under favour and protection of his Grace the Duke of Newcastle to my son John and which I have very good reason to believe he'l be Inflexiable in, he having no other view therein, but that his kinsman should succeed him in all his business, for shou'd the p'sent Consul die wthout your admittance of one of the same Family, our Demands on the Court of Spain wou'd vastly suffer (if not be entirely lost) for want of due and proper sollicitation in the same channel; and I hope my son's Behaviour and character in Life has been such, that His Grace will think him a proper Person for such a station, and will Indulge the family with his favour, who have been great sufferers, particularly myself during ye course of upwards of Forty years Trading to ye Port of Barcelona and which I
