

CONTENTS

(Illustrations in the text are not mentioned separately)

ART.		PAGE.
I.	Bronze Age metalwork from Cumbria. By T. H. McK. Clough	1
II.	Early Neolithic sites at Eskmeals. By J. Cherry	40
III.	Roman sites on the Cumberland Coast 1966- 1967. By R. L. Bellhouse	54
	Fig. 3.—The probable positions of the missing Wall and Coast Structures to West of Bowness facing	73
IV.	Walter the Priest and St. Mary's, Carlisle. By the Rev. J. C. Dickinson	102
V.	Elizabethan Paines at Hutton John. By the late Nigel F. Hudleston	115
VI.	King James I and the Western Border. By Prof. G. P. Jones	129
VII.	Notes on Carlisle Grammar School register. By F. J. G. Robinson	152
VIII.	The Burroughs of Carleton Hall. By J. R. E. Borron	179
	Carleton Hall facing	184
IX.	The Witherslack Survey. By Prof. G. P. Jones	205
X.	Orthwaite Hall and the Simpson, Richmond and Browne families. By the Rev. F. B. Swift ..	221
	Orthwaite Hall facing	225
	Arms of Richmond impaling Hudleston .. facing	225
XI.	Dr. John Brown. By P. M. Horsley	240
XII.	Thomas Harrison and Stramongate Bridge, Kendal. By A. C. Taylor	276
	The bridge from the South facing	276
	The south side of the bridge facing	276

XIII.	Some aspects of the social history of 19th century Cumbria: migration and literacy. By J. D. Marshall	280
XIV.	An inquest on the death of William Armstrong of Sorbietrees. By W. A. J. Prevost	308
	Sorbietrees facing	320
	Walton Vicarage facing	321
	The house at Kirkcambeck from which William Armstrong rode to his death facing	321
XV.	John Harris, Quaker Engineer and Investor. By H. J. Smith	330
	Pedigree facing	336
NOTES:	Olivant, Rumney and Langhorn — Roman Wall at Cambeckhill Farm — Fenwick Lowther — Portinscale Bridge — Ranald Macdonald	344
Notes on Contributors	35I
New Members, Deaths and Resignations	353
General Index	355
Publications	37I