

ART. X.—A Kirkby Lonsdale Armorial. By R. S. BOUMPHREY, M.A.

Read at Keswick, April 3rd, 1971.

Introduction.

WHEN, some two years ago, I began work on the following notes, I only intended to do on a small scale for the original parish of Kirkby Lonsdale what F. J. Field did on a much larger scale some thirty-five years ago for Cumberland, that is, to compile an armorial containing details of the arms of as many families and persons resident in or connected with the parish whom I could trace as ever having borne or used arms. About a year ago, when I had almost finished compiling my notes, I carelessly lost them, and soon afterwards Mr C. Roy Hudleston, Editor of Transactions, suggested that I should collaborate with him and with Mr J. Hughes, Excursion Secretary and now Assistant Editor of Transactions, in compiling an Armorial for the whole of Westmorland on the same lines as Field's Armoial for Cumberland. I was only too pleased to agree to this and the three of us have been working on the Armorial ever since.

In the meantime, my notes on Kirkby Lonsdale were found again. Much of the information they contain will be incorporated in the larger work, but since it may well be a year or two before the latter is ready for publication, Mr Hudleston has suggested that the more limited information covering Kirkby Lonsdale alone may be of interest as a precursor of the work which will, we hope, follow on the whole of the county.

Readers will, of course, recall that the original parish of Kirkby Lonsdale, the most south-easterly one in the county, bordered on the east by Yorkshire and on the south by Lancashire, included what are now the separate parishes of Kirkby Lonsdale with Mansergh, Hutton Roof with Lupton, Killington, Firbank, Middleton, Barbon and Casterton, and that it lay within the old Barony of Kendal.

It is interesting to note that not a single one of the medieval landowning families mentioned in the Armorial survives in the area covered, and that only one, the Conders of Terry Bank, retain the lands which they owned in the 16th century. It is interesting, too, to note that of the families mentioned by Alexander Pearson (Pearson, Annals, 37) as regarding Kirkby Lonsdale as their market town in Elizabethan times, only the Conders are still represented in the parish in the male line; interesting, but perhaps not surprising, for

Time hath his revolutions, there must be a period and an end of all temporal things, finis rerum, an end of names and dignities, and whatsoever is terrene, and why not of De Vere? For where is Bohun? Where is Mowbray? Where is Mortimer? Nay, which is more and most of all, where is Plantagenet? they are intombed in the urnes and sepulchres of mortality . . .

ARMORIAL.

ALLEN. Sir John Sandeman Allen, J.P. (1865-1935), of Liverpool, M.P. for West Derby Division of Liverpool, 1924-35, was the son of John Sandeman Allen (1839-1914), of Rock Ferry, Cheshire, formerly of Kirkby Lonsdale, and was himself educated at Queen Elizabeth School. Arms. Sable a fess invected Ermine between in chief two talbots passant Or collared Gules and in base a rose Argent barbed and seeded Proper. Crest. Between two wings each charged with a rose as in the Arms a talbot's head Or gorged with a collar Gules thereon two bezants. Motto. Triumpho morte tam vita (BLG 18; Pearson, Annals).

ASHTON. Radcliffe Ashton, of Preston, Lancashire, bought Killington Hall from Robert Wadeson and sold it in 1617/8 to Thomas Kitson, of Warton, Lancs. (NB; Farrer). He appears to have been the Ratcliffe Assheton who was son of Ralph Assheton, of Great Lever, by his wife, Johanna, daughter of Edward Radcliffe, of Todmorden, and coheir of William Radcliffe, of Wimmerley (Lancs. Peds.). Arms (of Ashton of Great Lever). Argent a mullet Sable pierced of the field a canton . . . Crest. A man party-coloured Argent and Sable with a scythe Proper (Raines, Vis. Lancs.).

ASHTON, of Croston. Hugh Ashton, of Croston, Lancashire (died 1749, aged 46), who purchased Near Underley in 1730, married in 1726 Susannah, daughter and coheir of Thomas Godsalue, of Rigmaden; she died at Kirfitt Hall in 1731 (CW1 xiv; M.I., Kirkby Lonsdale Church). He married secondly Eleanor Benn (died 1782, aged 79) and their son, James Ashton, of Underley Hall, was buried at Kirkby Lonsdale, 1765 (CW2 v). Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Argent a chevron between three chaplets Gules; 2, Argent three bars Sable; 3, Gules two lions passant guardant Argent. Crest. A demi-angel issuing from clouds (Raines, Vis. Lancs.).

ASKEW. Dr Adam Askew, of Newcastle upon Tyne (of the Cumberland family of ASKEW, of Graymains, later of Conishead Priory, Lancs., Pallinsburn in Northumberland, and Ladykirk in Berwickshire), who died in 1773, bought the hall and part of the manor of Middleton and left them to his second son, Adam Askew, M.A., Rector of Plumbland, Cumberland, who died in 1791. The latter left them to his nephew, Anthony Linacre Askew, M.A., Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, and a noted bibliophile (died 1818), who in turn left them to his brother, the Rev. Henry Askew, M.A., Rector of Greystoke (died 1850), who sold them to William Moore, of Grimeshill. Arms. Sable a fess Or between three asses passant Argent. Crest. A dexter hand holding on a poignard erect Proper hilt and pommel Or a saracen's head couped and embrued Proper wreathed about the temples with a torse Argent and Gules tied with ribands of the same colours. Motto. Facet spera (NB; Bulmer; BLG 17).

ASSHETON. The manor of Casterton passed to Richard Assheton, of Middleton, Lancashire (1511-50), by his second marriage to Katherine, eldest daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Bellingham, of Burneside; she was alive in 1560. Their daughter and coheir, Margaret (died 1609), married William Davenport, of Bromhall, Cheshire, and carried the manor to him (Farrer; Croston ii). Arms. Argent a mullet pierced Sable (Raines, Vis. Lancs.).

BABER. Montacue Stuart Baber, of Kearnstwick Lodge, Kirkby Lonsdale, is descended from the BABER family, of Chew Magna, Somerset. Arms. Argent on a fess Gules three hawks' heads erased of the first. Crest. On a mount Vert a cock with wings expanded Argent comb wattles and legs Gules (Monument at Chew Magna; BGA).

BAILIFFE, BAYLIFF(E). The BAILIFFE or BAYLIFF(E) family, of Casterton and Kirkby Lonsdale, have at various times used two entirely different versions of their Arms. (1) Argent on a bend between three martlets Gules three plates (Painting in the possession of Mrs Mabel Bayliff, widow of James Bayliff, formerly of Barbon). (2) On a chevron between three lions' heads cabossed three cinquefoils all within a bordure (Engraving on a wooden snuff-box inlaid with mother-of-pearl in the possession of Mrs M. E. Robertson, née Bayliff, of Husborne Crawley, Bedfordshire).

BAINBRIG, of Hawkin Hall. The Bainbrig family owned Hawkin Hall in Middleton at least from the time of Edward Bainbrig (died 1583/4) until it was sold in 1714 by Edward Bainbrig, of Stody, Norfolk, to Thomas Hutton, of Overforth, near Beetham. The family then settled in Kirkby Lonsdale and became extinct in the main line with the death of George Bainbrig in 1803, aged 53; his sister, Isabel (born 1734), married Henry Remington, of Melling, and another sister, Elizabeth (born 1745), married in 1779, Richard Gathorne, of Townend House, Kirkby Lonsdale (CW2 xxiv). Arms. Argent on a chevron between three martlets Sable as many stag heads cabossed Or (CW2 xxiv; Field).

BAINES, BAYNES. Jeremy Baines, of Southwark, Brewer (died 1678), formerly a Captain of Dragoons and a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Parliamentary Service, registered a pedigree in the Visitation of London, 1664, which shewed him as the son of Edward Baynes, of Barbon (died 1620), and grandson of Baynes, of Lupton. Arms. Sable a shin bone in pale surmounted upon another in cross Argent. (Information supplied by T. Fahy.)

BARKER. Sir Herbert Atkinson Barker (1869-1950), the famous manipulative surgeon, was the son of Thomas Wildman Barker, of Southport, Lancs., and of Lupton Tower (1833-83), Coroner of South-West Lancashire; both were educated at Queen Elizabeth School, Kirkby Lonsdale (Pearson, Annals, 159). Arms. Or three bears' heads erased Sable muzzled and bridled Argent a chief Gules. Crest. A bear's head erased Sable muzzled and bridled Argent. Motto. Si Dieu veult (M.I.s Preston Patrick church and churchyard).

BATTERSBY. The Battersby family, resident at Horton in Ribblesdale, Yorkshire, in the 16th century, came into possession of the Biggins estates by the marriage in 1680 of Simon Battersby (1660-1730) to Dorothy (1659-1717), daughter of Edward Lightbourne, of Biggins, and his wife, Isabella, daughter of George Bigland, of Bigland (q.v.). The estates descended to Simon's son, Edward Battersby (1685-1750), who married Margaret (1693-1770), daughter and heir of Anthony Ward, of Davy Bank, Firbank (see WARD). Their son Anthony (1727-89) died unmarried and left his Biggins estates to his nephew, Edward Tomlinson, son of his sister, Anne (1734-1803), and her husband, Thomas Tomlinson, of Arkholme, Lancashire (MS. pedigree at Biggins House; tombstone in Kirkby Lonsdale churchyard). Arms (as quartered by Tomlinson, of Biggins). Or a saltire paly of twelve Ermine and Gules a crescent for difference (Memorial tablet in Kirkby Lonsdale church; reproductions at Biggins and Summerfield).

BAYLIFF(E) — see BAILIFFE.

BUSKELL, BOUSKELL, BOWSKELL. On the dissolution of the monasteries, the manor of Heversham was purchased from the Crown in 1558 by Edmund Moyses, Richard Foster and Richard Bowskell, the latter later purchasing the others' share in it. At Richard Bowskell's death in 1602 it descended to his grandson, Jasper Bowskell, who in 1613/14 conveyed Heversham Hall and the manor to Edward Wilson of Nether Levens (Farrer, ii 142). Richard Bowskell was, according to notes from which the "Inventory of the Historical Monuments in Westmorland, 1936", was compiled, second son of . . . Buskill, of Milnhouse, Kirkby Lonsdale, and married Catherine Bindloss. Edward Conder records the Bouskells, of Middleton, as being one of the principal families in the parish of Kirkby Lonsdale in the 16th century (CW2 v 224). Arms. Argent a chevron between three fleurs-de-lys Sable (Stained glass in Heversham parish church). Bellasis (i 246) is wrong in recording the fleurs-de-lys as water bougets. Higgin, who records the Arms correctly, also ascribes the following Arms to BOUSKILL — Azure a chevron and a canton Ermine.

BECTIVE, Earl of — see TAYLOUR.

BEETHAM — see BETHOM.

BELL. Matthew Bell, of Bourne Park, Kent, M.A. (Cantab.), J.P., D.L. (born 1817), was son of John Bell, M.A., F.R.S., K.C. (1765-1836), Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, Senior Wrangler, 1786, who was educated at Queen Elizabeth School, Kirkby Lonsdale. John Bell was the son of Matthew Bell, of Kendal, grocer (1733-66), by his wife, Agnes, daughter of William Yeats, of Beetham; grandson of John Bell, of Kirkland, Kendal (1687-1740); and great-grandson of Matthew Bell, of Kendal (BLG 10; Pearson). Burke ascribes the following Arms to the BELL family, of Bourne Park — Sable on a chevron between three bells Argent as many lions' heads erased Gules. Crest. A lion's head erased (BGA).

BELLINGHAM, of Burneside. The Bellingham family, of Burneside, Westmorland (the elder branch of the family seated at Levens), owned the manor of Casterton from the 14th century until the 16th century when Katherine, eldest daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Bellingham, the last of Burneside, conveyed Casterton in marriage to Richard Assheton, of Middleton, Lancashire (Farrer). Arms. Argent a bugle or hunting horn Sable stringed Gules (NB).

BELLINGHAM, of Levens. The younger branch of the Bellingham family, seated at Levens, came into possession of Casterton Hall and other lands in Casterton when Sir James Bellingham and Sir Henry Bellingham, his son, bought these in 1638 from William Davenport (Farrer). Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Argent three bugle-horns Sable stringed Gules (Bellingham); 2 and 3, Burneshead (q.v.). Crest. A stag's head Or (Foster, Vis. CW). NB, however, give the following Arms. Argent three bugles or hunting horns Sable garnished and furnished Or. Crest. A buck's head couped Or (NB).

BENTINCK — see CAVENDISH-BENTINCK.

BETHOM. Sir Edward Bethom, of Beetham (died 1472), and his wife, Joan, daughter of William de Fauconberge, held lands at Lupton between 1446 and 1472. He was succeeded by his niece, Agnes, daughter of Roger Bethom and wife of Robert Middleton (Farrer). J. F. Curwen states that the de Beethams took the Arms of Lathom, viz. Argent a chief indented Azure. Crest. An eagle's head (CW2 iv 227). These, however, are the Arms of de Burton (q.v.), and NB quote West (Antiquities of Furness) as saying that the Arms of Beetham were — Argent a chief dancetté Sable; and also that the Arms of Beetham in the heralds' office were — Or three fleurs-de-lys Argent (NB i 628-629). Burke, however, ascribes the following to Sir Thomas Betham, of Betham, M.P. for Westmorland 30 Edward I to 4 Edward II — Lozengy Argent and Sable (BGA), as does Farrer, who also states that the Arms on the seal of Sir John de Betham in 1405 were — (Argent) a chief indented (Azure) over all a bendlet (Gules) (Farrer). Elsewhere he quotes The Beetham Repository as blazoning them — Or a chief indented Azure over all a bendlet Gules. See Ernest Betham, A House of Letters, 278-282.

BICKERSTETH, Lord Langdale. Henry, Lord Langdale (1783-1851), was the fourth son of Dr Henry Bickersteth (died 1821), of 4 Beck Head, Kirkby Lonsdale (formerly the Pack Horse Inn), who purchased the practice of a doctor called Newby in 1775, by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of John Batty, of Kirkby Lonsdale. Educated at Queen Elizabeth School, Kirkby Lonsdale, at Caius College, Cambridge, of which he was a scholar (B.A., 1808, M.A., 1811), and at the Inner Temple, he became K.C. in 1827, a Privy Counsellor and Master of the Rolls in 1836, and was created Baron Langdale of Langdale, Co. Westmorland, in 1836 (Pearson, Annals; GEC). Arms. Argent a cross flory Sable charged with four mullets Or on a chief Azure three roses of the third. Crest. A dexter arm embowed in armour Proper garnished Or about the elbow a wreath of oak Vert in the hand a roll of paper Proper. Supporters. Dexter, A female figure representing "Fortitude" vested Gold the zone and sandals Gules mantled Azure her anterior arm resting on a Tuscan column Proper; Sinister, A female figure representing "Prudence" vested Azure zone mantle and sandals Gules in the exterior hand a mirror entwined by a serpent all Proper. Motto. Suum cuique (BGA). BFR, however, charges the cross flory with five mullets Or and gives for Motto — Esto fidelis.

BIGLAND. The Bigland family had a number of connections with Kirkby Lonsdale. John Bigland, probably John Bigland, of Bigland Hall, Lancashire (1610-1670, son of George Bigland, of Bigland, died 1644), bought land at Mansergh and Kirkby Lonsdale in 1652 (Farrer). His sister, Isabella (died 1700), married Edward Lightbourne, of Biggins (died 1688), not . . . Battersby, as in the printed pedigree (see BATTERSBY). John Bigland's granddaughter, Dorothy (born 1700, daughter of Thomas Bigland, of Bigland), married Robert Thornton, of Lancaster, merchant, and is commemorated by a monumental inscription on the external west wall of Kirkby

Lonsdale parish church, where she was buried in 1768 (Foster, Lancs. Peds.). Arms. Azure two ears of big-wheat Or. Crest. A lion passant regardant Gules holding in his forepaw an ear of big-wheat as in the Arms. Mottoes. Above the Crest: Gratitude; below the Shield: Spes labor lavis (BGA).

BINDLOSS. Robert Bindloss, of Kendal, later of Borwick Hall, Lancs. (died 1595), and Agnes, his wife, owned land in Mansergh in 1576 when they sold it to William Burrow (Farrer; CW2 xxv). Arms. Qly. per fess indented Or and Gules on a bend Azure a cinquefoil between two birds Or. Crest. A demi horse rampant Argent ducally gorged Or (Raines, Vis. Lancs.). The Bindloss Arms are quartered by MIDDLETON (q.v.) where the birds are blazoned as martlets, as they are also in Northumbrian Monuments, which gives for Crest, A demi horse Argent murally gorged Azure.

BORRETT. John Borrett, of Shoreham, Kent, Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, was a native of Kirkby Lonsdale, being the son of Edward Borrett, mercer, of that town. He amassed a fortune as a lawyer of the Inner Temple in London and in 1680 bought Deansbiggin and in 1698 Thurland Castle and the manor of Tunstall, leaving these properties in his will (proved 1739/40) to his second son, Thomas Borrett, of Shoreham and of Serjeants Inn, London. Thomas Borrett in turn left them in his will (proved 1750/51) to his daughter and coheiress, Susanna, who in 1760 married William Evelyn, of St Clere, Kent, M.P. for Hythe and first cousin three times removed to John Evelyn, the diarist (see EVELYN) (Chippindall, Tunstall; BLG 17). Arms. Ermines three boars' heads erect and erased Or. Crest. A boar's head and neck erased of a sandy colour bristled Or laying hold of a broken spear which is thrust through the neck Gold (BGA).

BOUMPHREY. Robert Staveley Bouphey, M.B.E., M.A. (Oxon.), of Town End Cottage, Kirkby Lonsdale, formerly of the Colonial Audit Service in Nigeria, London, the Falkland Islands, Malaya, and Singapore, is Deputy Secretary and Establishment Officer of the University of Lancaster. Arms. Or a chevron between three dragons rampant Azure; on an inescutcheon of pretence the Arms of HOUSDEN (q.v.). Crest. A demi dragon Azure holding between the forepaws an eastern crown Or. Motto. Jure Vincimus. Badge. A ram's head cabossed Proper horned Or and crowned with an eastern crown Gold.

BOWRING. Henry Illingworth Bowring (only son of Henry Price Bowring, 1814-93, one of the original partners of the well-known firm of Bowring Bros., later Charles T. Bowring & Co.) bought Whelprigg, Barbon, from Major Joseph Gibson in 1924. On his death in 1934 he was succeeded by his son, Lt-Col. Henry Christopher Bowring, B.A. (Oxon.), F.L.A.S., now of Whelprigg, High Sheriff of Westmorland in 1955/56. Arms. Gules on a chevron Ermine between three lions rampant Or armed and langued Azure as many bezants. Crest. A demi lion Gules armed and langued Azure gorged with a collar of ermine spots Or. Motto. Nunquam mutans. Another version of the Crest is — A demi lion rampant Or holding in the dexter paw an arrow in bend sinister and in the sinister paw an oriental bow paleways.

BRABIN. The elder branch of the Brabin family was settled at Whittington Hall, Lancs., and the younger branch at Upper Docker Hall, also in Lancs., in the 16th and 17th centuries, but they also owned estates in Kirkby Lonsdale and Hutton Roof. The first of the family, Henry Brabin (will proved 1616/17), a lawyer who managed the estates of Lord Monteagle, bought the manor of Mansergh from Marmaduke Redmayne of Thornton for 260 marks in 1587 and acquired other lands in Mansergh, Kirkby Lonsdale and Hutton Roof, which he left (except for the Spital) to his elder son, Thomas Brabin, of Whittington Hall (1565-1638), who sold Mansergh to Josias Dawson of Kirkby Lonsdale c. 1630. Henry Brabin left the Spital Farm to his younger son, William Brabin, of Upper Docker Hall (1567-1617), who in turn left it to his youngest son, Henry Brabin (baptised 1609), a Notary Public of York, who was arrested in Kirkby Lonsdale by the Puritan soldiers in 1643 (Chippindall, Whittington; Farrer). Arms. Gules three leopards' faces Or (Raines, Vis. Lancs.).

BRITTANY, Counts of — see RICHMOND, Earls of.

BURNESHEAD. Part of the manor of Casterton came into the possession of the family of Burneshead, lords of Burneside, towards the end of the reign of Henry III, and passed to the Bellinghams by the marriage in 1358-60 of Margaret, daughter and heir of Gilbert de Burneshead, to Robert de Bellingham, of Burneside (Farrer). The Visitation pedigree, however, gives this as the marriage of Christian, daughter and heir of St [sic] Gilbert Burnishead, Knt., to Robert Bellingham, of Bellingham, and Owstrey, temp. Edward II

(Foster, Vis. CW). Arms. Argent three bendlets Gules on a canton of the second a lion rampant of the first (NB).

BURTON. Roger de Burton acquired a fourth part of the vill of Hutton Roof before the year 1303 from Adam Sturnel, son of Richard Sturnel and his wife Christiana, daughter and coheir of Gilbert de Hotonruf. He and his son, Sir Roger de Burton, also held lands in Mansergh and Lupton. Arms. Argent a chief indented Azure (Farrer; CW1 xiv).

CAMPBELL, of Dunstaffnage. The west window of the Church of the Holy Ghost, Middleton, was erected in 1878 by Sir Donald Campbell, of Dunstaffnage, 18th Hereditary Captain of Dunstaffnage and 3rd Baronet (1829-79), in memory of his daughter and of his wife, Eliza Mary Charlotte (died 1877), only daughter of William Moore, of Grimeshill, Middleton. Arms. Qly., 1, Azure a castle of three towers Argent masoned Sable standing on a rock Proper doors and windows Gules on the top of the centre tower a cock on each of the others an eagle Or; 2, Gyronny of eight Or and Sable; 3, Or a fess chequy Azure and Argent; 4, Gules a boar's head cabossed Or between a crescent and a spur rowel in fess Argent. Crest. An anchor in pale reversed Azure. Supporters. Two unicorns Argent horned Or gorged with an antique crown thereto affixed a chain of the last. Motto. Vigilando (BLG 17; BGA).

CARUS-WILSON, of Casterton Hall. The first of the Carus family to be connected with Kirkby Lonsdale was Thomas Carus, of the Middle Temple, a Justice of the Queen's Bench in the reign of Elizabeth I, who bought the chief manor of Kirkby Lonsdale from the Crown in 1558 and who died in 1571. In 1587 his son, Christopher Carus, of Halton, Lancs., and the latter's niece, Elizabeth, wife of Sir Nicholas Curwen, of Workington, conveyed part of the manor to William Thornburgh, of Hampsfield, Lancs., and to Thomas Curwen. The judge's descendant, William Carus, who resided in Kirkby Lonsdale, married in 1763 Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Roger Wilson, of Casterton Hall (1690-1755), and their son, William Wilson Carus, M.P., D.L., J.P. (1764-1851), assumed the surname and arms of WILSON in 1793 on succeeding to Casterton Hall; his son, the Rev. William Carus-Wilson (1791-1859), founded the Clergy Daughters' School at Cowan Bridge, now Casterton School (q.v.). Casterton Hall was acquired by Edward Wilson, of Dallam Tower, who died in 1707 leaving Casterton Hall to his younger son, Roger Wilson (1662-89). The present representative of the family is Cecil Caradoc Carus-Wilson, of Northwood, Middlesex, and St Bartholomew's Hospital, London, who sold Casterton Hall (Farrer; Pearson, Annals; BLG 17). Arms. Qly. 1 & 4, Argent three wolves' heads couped Sable vulned in the neck Proper (Wilson); 2 & 3, Azure on a chevron engrailed Or between nine quatrefoils Argent three mullets Gules (Carus). Crests. 1, A crescent Or issuing therefrom flames of fire Proper (Wilson); 2, A hawk rising Sable beaked belled and collared Or from the collar an escutcheon pendent Argent charged with a wolf's head Sable vulned Proper (Carus). Motto. Non nobis solum (BLG 17). The original Arms of CARUS were: Azure on a chevron Argent between ten cinquefoils of the second, 4, 2, 1, 2, 1, three mullets Gules (NB). Crest. A falcon with wings expanded Sable charged on the breast with a cinquefoil Argent (Foster, Vis. CW). The Arms of WILSON, of Dallam Tower, as claimed at the Visitation of 1664 (respite being given for proof) were: Argent three wolves' heads couped Sable imbraced Gules (Foster, Vis. CW).

CASTERTON SCHOOL. Casterton School was founded by the Rev. William Carus-Wilson as the Clergy Daughters' School at Cowan Bridge in 1823, and was moved to Casterton in 1833; it was reconstituted in 1923, since when it has been called Casterton School. The present Headmistress is Miss Rosamund Willson. Perhaps its greatest claim to fame is that it can count Charlotte and Emily Brontë among its old pupils, and as a result figures as Lowood Institution in Jane Eyre. Arms. Barry wavy Argent and Azure a cross Gules on a chief Argent between two falcons rising Sable beaked legged and collared Or the dexter contournée a pale Azure charged with a crescent Or issuant therefrom flames Proper. Motto. Cor unum via una.

CAVENDISH-BENTINCK, of Underley. Lady Olivia Caroline Amelia Taylour (born 1869), only child of Thomas, Earl of Bective (see TAYLOUR), succeeded to the Underley Hall estates on her father's death in 1893. She married in 1892 Lord Henry Cavendish-Bentinck (1863-1931), half-brother of the 6th Duke of Portland, and died in 1939 when the Underley estates passed to her cousin, Doris Madeline, wife of Philip Ivan Pease (see PEASE). Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Azure a cross moline Argent (Bentinck); 2 & 3, Sable three stags' heads cabossed Argent attired Or a crescent for difference (Cavendish). Crests. 1, Out of a ducal coronet Proper two arms counter-embowed vested Gules on the hands gloves Or each holding an ostrich feather Argent (Bentinck); 2, A snake nowed Proper (Cavendish). Motto. Craignez honte (BP 99).

CHARTERIS. Whellan and Bulmer state that there was formerly in the township of Hutton Roof an extensive park, the memory of which is preserved in the name Park House, which belonged to Judge Carus in the reign of Edward VI. It was purchased from the representatives of the Preston family by Colonel Francis Charteris, of Newmilns, Haddingtonshire, and Hornby Castle, Lancs., who was satirized in the following couplet by Pope who says that riches are "Given to the fool, the mad, the vain, the evil,

To Ward, to Waters, Charteris and the Devil."

Col. Francis Charteris (born 1672) was of the family of Charteris of Amisfield, and through his daughter, Janet (died 1778), who married in 1720 James, 5th Earl of Wemyss, was ancestor of the Earls of Wemyss and March (see WEMYSS) (BP 99; NB; Whellan; Bulmer). Arms. Argent a fess Azure. Crest. An arm issuing out of a cloud holding a sword aloft Proper. Motto. Non gladio, sed gratia (BGA). As a quartering of the WEMYSS family, however, the Arms are blazoned: Argent a fess Azure within a double tressure flory counter flory Gules (BP 99).

CONDER, of Terry Bank. This old local family has been settled at Old Town since the reign of Henry VII, Edward Conder of Old Town dying in 1542. His grandson, Edward Conder, bought Terry Bank in 1603 and this property still belongs to the family, the present representative being Edward Michael Conder, B.A. (Oxon.), formerly of the Burma Forest Service. Edward Conder, F.S.A., J.P. (1861-1934), was High Sheriff of Westmorland in 1922 (Conder Papers and pedigree at Terry Bank). Arms. Argent on a bend wavy Azure between two lymphads Sable sails furled flags flying and oars in motion also Sable an anchor entwined with a cable Or. Crest. In front of a lymphad as in the Arms an anchor fesswise the flukes to the dexter Or. Motto. Je conduis (FD). The Crest of a lymphad Or masts and oars Gules on a wreath Or and Azure with the Motto Je Conduis, the initials ESC (Edward and Susannah Conder), and the date 1869, appear in a stained-glass window at Terry Bank.

COPELAND. At least three generations of the Copeland family, of Bootle, Cumberland, Richard, living c. 1203-1235, Sir Alan, living 1289, and Richard, died 1298, held a fourth part of the manor of Kirkby Lonsdale (CW2 xxvi). Arms. Or two bars Gules over all a bend Sable (or Azure) and a canton of the second (Field).

COTTRELL-DORMER. The east window of the church of All Saints, Killington, commemorates Florence Anne (1837-1907), daughter of Thomas Upton, of Ingmire Hall (see UPTON) and wife of Clement Cottrell-Dormer, of Rousham Hall, Oxfordshire (1827-80). They assumed the additional surname and the Arms of UPTON when she succeeded to Ingmire Hall in 1876. Their fourth son, John Herbert (1865-1930), adopted the surname of UPTON only on succeeding to Ingmire Hall in 1907; he sold Ingmire in 1922. Arms. Qly., 1 & 3, Azure ten billets, 4, 3, 2, and 1 Or, a chief of the last issuant therefrom a demi lion rampant Sable (Dormer); 2, Argent a bend nebuly Sable guttée-d'eau between three escallops of the second (Cottrell); 3, (as for UPTON). Crests. 1, A fox statant Argent (Dormer); 2, A talbot's head couped Sable gorged with a collar with a chain affixed thereto between two crosses pattée palewise Or the collar charged with three escallops also Sable; 3, (as for UPTON). Motto. Semper paratus (BLG 17).

COWPER. A stained-glass window in the south wall of the Church of the Holy Ghost, Middleton, was erected by Frederick Carleton Cowper, of Carleton Derrick, later of Carleton Hall, Penrith (1858-98), and Ella Elizabeth, his wife (died 1941), only daughter and heir of William Middleton Moore, of Grimeshill, Middleton, in memory of Frederick Middleton Carleton Cowper, their first-born child, born 1887, died 1888. Arms. Azure a chevron paly Or and Ermine in chief an annulet between two martlets Argent and in base a caduceus of the second. Crest. A buffalo's head erased per fess Sable and Or armed of the last charged on the neck with a cross crosslet counter-changed in the mouth a slip of oak Proper. Motto. Industria et perseverantia (BLG 17).

GRESSON, Lt-Cdr. John Dennis Gresson, R.N.Z.N. (retired), of the Old Vicarage, Hutton Roof and of the Bookshop, Kirkby Lonsdale, is son of the Rt. Hon. Sir Kenneth Macfarlane Gresson, P.C., K.B.E., of Christchurch, New Zealand. Traditionally of Huguenot origin (Jacques Gresson and Sarah Erard were married at the French church of St Patrick in Dublin in 1683), the family traces a direct descent from John Gresson, of Augher, Co. Tyrone (died 1733, aged 72). Arms. Or a bend chequy Argent and Sable. On the tombstone of John Gresson (died 1733), however, is carved — On a pale three trefoils and three escallops in chief. Crest. A griffin's head erased Proper. This appears to be a Leslie Crest, and to have been assumed by the Gressons after the marriage in 1766 of William Gresson, of Swanlinbar, Co. Cavan (died 1802) and Margaret, daughter of Henry Leslie of Nutfield, alias Aghnamone, Co. Fermanagh (K. M. Gresson, A History of the Gresson Family).

HARINGTON. John de Harington, of Aldingham, Lancs., first Lord Harington of Aldingham, held the manor of Hutton Roof for a term of eight years at his death in 1347. His descendant, Sir James Harington, of Brierley (second son of Sir Thomas Harington, of Hornby), held lands of the yearly value of £3. 3s. 11d. in Mansergh on his attainder after the Battle of Bosworth in 1485, and these lands, with his other possessions, were granted to Sir Edward Stanley, later Lord Monteagle (Farrer; Grimble). Arms. Sable a fret Argent (NB); or, Sable fretty Argent.

HARLING. The surname Harling, commemorated in Harling Bank, is of some antiquity in Kirkby Lonsdale, an Edward Harlyng being fined 6d. at a court held at Casterton in 1560 for breaking the fences at Brattelakes (Farrer). Christopher Harling, of Kirkby Lonsdale, bought land at Whittington, Lancs., in 1621/2, and later the Holmehouse at Whittington, and was succeeded in 1654 by his only son and heir, Daniel Harling, who sold the property to John Foxcroft, of Kirkby Lonsdale (Chippindall, Whittington). The memorial tablet in Kirkby Lonsdale parish church to Christopher Harling, the last of a succession of the family to live at Chapelhouses (CW2 xxvii), born 1677, died 1748, bears the following Arms. Argent a unicorn sejant Sable horned Or. Crest. A swan at rest wings expanded Proper collared and chained Or.

The Motto is that of the MOORE family, of Grimeshill (q.v.), and the Arms appear to be a variant of their Crest.

MOORE, of Grimeshill. The Moore family, seated at Grimeshill, Middleton, since the estate was acquired in the 17th century by John Moore (died 1701), became extinct in the male line on the death in 1909 of William Middleton Moore, J.P., D.L. (born 1834); his only child, Ella Elizabeth (died 1941), married in 1886 Frederick Carleton Cowper, of Carleton Derrick, Penrith (died 1898 — see COWPER). The marriage of Giles Moore (son of John Moore, died 1701) with Mary, second daughter and eventually heir of James Cragg (see CRAGG), brought a portion of the manor of Middleton into the Moore family; and in the 19th century William Moore (1809-62) bought Middleton Hall itself from the Rev. Henry Askew, Rector of Greystock. Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Or on a chevron Pean between three Moors' heads in profile, couped at the neck Proper wreathed about the temples Argent and Sable a pheon of the field (Moore); 2 & 3 (as for CRAGG, q.v.). Crest. A swan wings elevated Argent charged on the breast with a pheon Sable in front of bulrushes Proper. Motto. Animum rege (BLG; Bulmer).

MORESBY. Hugh de Moriceby (Moresby) was Lord of the manor of Hutton Roof in 1375, and John de Moriceby in 1411. They were cadets of the Cumberland family of Moresby (Farrer). Arms. Sable a cross Or in the first quarter a cinquefoil pierced Argent (Field).

MORLAND. Thomas Heblethwaite, who was alive in 1692, sold Killington Hall to Jacob Morland (died 1751, aged 83), of Caplethwaite, Westmorland, whose grandson, Jacob Morland (died 1780, aged 40), owned the hall in 1778 (NB). There are a number of Morland memorial tablets in the church at Killington. Arms. Azure a griffin segreant Or. Crest. A falcon Proper belled Or (BGA).

MORLEY. The advowson of the chantry of St Columba at Casterton passed from the Wenningtons to the Morley family, of Wennington, Lancs., Joan, daughter of Gilbert de Wennington (died before 1329), and heir to her brother, William de Wennington (died before 1345), having carried it to her husband William, son of John de Morley. It remained in the family for 200 years, Francis Morley presenting Roger Otway to the chantry in 1531 (CW2 xxvii). Arms. Sable a leopard's face Argent jessant de lis Or (VCH Lancs.). The leopard's face is blazoned Sable in Raines, Vis. Lancs., which is an obvious error.

MUSGRAVE. Sir Christopher Musgrave, Bart. (died 1704), second son of Sir Philip Musgrave, Bart., of Hartley Castle (died 1678), by his wife, Julian, daughter of Sir Richard Hutton, of Lupton, bought the manor of Lupton in 1681 from his grandfather's trustees (Farrer). Arms. Azure six annulets Or, 3, 2, and 1. Crest. Two arms in armour the hands gauntleted Proper and grasping an annulet Or. Motto. Sans changer (BP 99).

NORTH. The North family, of Newton Hall, Lancs., has had many connections with Kirkby Lonsdale, and Miles North (1738-95), who in 1781 purchased Thurland Castle, resided at Jackson Hall which is now the Royal Hotel. His son, Richard Toulmin North, of Thurland Castle (born 1782), who built the houses 58, 62, 66 and 68 Main Street, Kirkby Lonsdale, sold Jackson Hall. On his death unmarried in 1865 the family became extinct in the male line but his great-nephew, North Burton (1824-1910), who sold Thurland Castle in 1885 to Lt-Col. Edward Brown Lees and lived at Newton Hall, assumed the name North. The present representative of the family is Richard Coulthurst North. Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Per pale Azure and Sable a lion passant between in chief two fleurs-de-lys and in base a quatrefoil Or (North); 2 & 3, Qly., 1 & 4, Argent a bend wavy Sable, 2 & 3, Azure a fleur-de-lys . . . (Burton). Crest. A dragon's head erased Sable guttée d'Or and collared and chained Or in front thereof three mascles interlaced fessways also Or. Motto. Animo et fide (Pearson, Annals; Chippindall, Whittington; BLG 17; BGA). It should be noted that the first six generations of the pedigree of this family in BLG 17 differ completely from the first five generations of what appears to be the more accurate pedigree in Chippindall, Whittington.

NOWELL. Alexander Nowell, M.P. (born 1761, died s.p. 1842), son of Ralph Nowell, of Gawthorp Hall, Yorks. (died 1780), a cadet of the ancient Lancashire family of Read Hall, formerly of the district of Tirhoot in Bengal and M.P. for Westmorland, 1830, bought the Underley estate in 1807 and in 1825 laid the foundation stone of the present Underley Hall which he sold in 1840 to Alderman William Thompson, Lord Mayor of London. Arms. Argent three covered cups Sable. Crest. An arm embowed in armour the hand holding a bomb fired Proper (Pearson, Annals; Raines, Vis. Lancs.; BLG 17; Lancs. Peds.).

OTWAY. Sir John Otway, of Ingmire Hall, Yorks., Vice-Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Chancellor of the County Palatine of Durham, who died in 1693 (M.I. in Sedbergh church), was born at Beckside Hall, Middleton, in 1619, and at Dugdale's Visitation of Yorkshire, 1665/6, he recorded three generations of his family as resident in Middleton. By his second wife, Elizabeth Braithwaite, he had issue a daughter, Catherine, who succeeded her brother, Braithwaite, and married John Upton, of Upton, Devon; their descendants owned land also at Killington (see UPTON). An earlier member of the family, Roger Otway, was presented to the Chantry of Casterton by Francis Morley, of Wennington, in 1531. Arms. Argent a pile Sable a chevron counter changed. Crest. Out of a ducal coronet Or two wings displayed Sable (NB; Clay, Vis. Yorks.; CW2 xxvii).

PAGET-TOMLINSON. Dr William Smith Paget, M.R.C.S., M.D., F.R.C.P. (Lond.), J.P., D.L. (1848-1937), High Sheriff of Westmorland, 1897, assumed by Royal Licence, 1890, the additional surname of Tomlinson on inheriting the Biggins and other estates from his distant relation, Elizabeth Tomlinson, of Biggins (see TOMLINSON). The present representative of the family is his grandson, Dermot Hugh Thomas Paget-Tomlinson, of Summerfield, Lancs. Arms. Gly., 1 & 4, Per pale nebuly Argent and Vert a tilting-spear fesswise between two greyhounds courant counterchanged a chief Azure thereon a greyhound courant of the first (Tomlinson); 2 & 3, Quarterly Sable and Azure on a cross Or between four eagles displayed Argent a cross engrailed of the first thereon an heraldic tiger's head erased between four lions passant of the third (Paget). Crests. 1, A man wreathed about the waist with oak supporting in the dexter hand a tilting-spear and resting the sinister hand upon an escutcheon per pale nebuly Argent and Vert charged with a greyhound courant counterchanged (Tomlinson); 2, Between two wings Gules a demi-heraldic tiger Sable holding in the mouth a lion's gamb Or (Paget). Motto. Vincit veritas (FD).

PARISH. The west window of St Bartholomew's Church, Barbon, was dedicated by Blanche Marian, Lady Shuttleworth (1851-1924), to her mother, Louisa (died 1888), widow of Sir Woodbine Parish, K.C.H. (1796-1882). Arms. Argent on a chevron Sable between ten cross crosslets 6 in chief and 4 in base of the last a cross crosslet fitchée of the first a chief Azure issuant therefrom a sun in splendour Or. Crest. On a rock Proper a cross crosslet Sable. Motto. Justem et tenacem (BLG 17).

PARR. A memorial inscription in Kirkby Lonsdale parish church records the death of John Parr, Esq., late Major, 22nd Regiment of Foot, who died at Burrow Hall in 1825, aged 61. Arms. Argent two bars Azure within a bordure engrailed Sable. Crest. An arm embowed and armoured and holding in the hand a pair of dividers Argent.

PEARSON. Members of this well-known local family lived in Kirkby Lonsdale from the year 1780 when Dr Francis Pearson settled there, buying Lune Cottage (now named Abbots Brow), until the death in 1954 of his great-grandson, Alexander Pearson, of 6 Main Street, formerly of Abbots Brow, author of Annals of Kirkby Lonsdale and Lunesdale in Bygone Days and The Doings of a Country Solicitor. The present representative of the family is Sir Frank Pearson, Bart., M.P., of Gressingham Hall, Lancs. (Pearson, Doings; Lancs. Peds.). Arms. Azure five fusils in fess Or within a double tressure flory counter flory Argent (BGA).

PEASE. On the death without issue in 1939 of Lady Henry Cavendish-Bentinck (see CAVENDISH-BENTINCK), Underley Hall was sold but the Underley Estates passed to Doris Madeline Pease, wife of Philip Ivan Pease, of Sledwich Hall, Co. Durham, daughter of Major Hubert Francis Crichton (killed in action, 1914), and granddaughter of the Hon. Charles Frederick Crichton (1841-1918) by his wife, Lady Madeline Olivia Susan Taylour (died 1876), eldest daughter of the 3rd Marquess of Headfort (see TAYLOUR). Their elder son, Nigel Crichton Pease, was High Sheriff of Westmorland in 1967, and their younger son, Simon Philip Pease, now resides at Underley Grange (formerly Lowfields), Barbon. Arms. Per fess Azure and Gules a fess nebuly Ermine between two lambs passant in chief Argent and in base upon a mount Proper a dove rising Argent holding in the beak a pea-stalk the blossom and pods also Proper. Crest. Upon the capital of an Ionic column a dove rising holding in the beak a pea-stalk as in the arms all Proper. Motto. Pax et spes (BLG 17; BP 99).

PICKERING. The Pickerings were originally a Yorkshire family, Farrer shewing John Pickering (died 1419) as of Ellerton (in Harthill), and the family recorded their arms and pedigree at Glover's Visitation of Yorkshire, 1584/5. In 1259/60 Peter de Brus granted the manor of Killington to William de Pickering, and it remained in the family's possession until the death in 1582 of Anne, only daughter and heir of Sir Christopher Pickering (died 1517); she married firstly, Sir Francis Weston; secondly, Sir Henry Knyvet, or Knevet; and thirdly, John Vaughan, of Sutton, Yorks. The manor of Barbon also passed to the Pickerings by the marriage before 1450 of Margaret, daughter and heir of Roger Lascells, of Escrick (died 1461 — see LASCELLS), with James Pickering, of Killington (died 1461) (Farrer). Arms. Ermine a lion rampant Azure crowned Or (Foster, Vis. Yorks.).

POLLOCK — see MONTAGU-POLLOCK.

PRESTON. George Preston of Holker died in 1640 possessed of the manor of Kirkby Lonsdale, Over Biggins Hall, and other lands in Kirkby Lonsdale, Hegholme, Mansergh, Middleton, Biggins, and Underley. Thomas Preston, his son, then aged "36 years and upwards" (he was aged 63 in 1664), later High Sheriff of Lancashire, suffered severely for his part in the Civil War and died in 1678. Either he or his son, Thomas Preston, sold the manor of Kirkby Lonsdale to Sir John Lowther, Bart. Towards the end of the 18th century Sir Thomas Preston, Bart., of Preston Patrick, a Roman Catholic Priest, sold Park House in Hutton Roof to Col. Francis Charteris (Farrer; Machell; Whellan; Bulmer). Arms. Argent two bars Gules on a canton of the second a cinquefoil Or pierced of the first (NB). Crests. 1, On a ruined tower Argent a falcon volant of the same beaked legged and belled Or; 2, On a chapeau Gules turned up Ermine a wolf Or. Motto. Si Dieu veult (BGA).

QUIN. Thomas Taylour, 1st Marquess of Headfort (see TAYLOUR), married in 1778 Mary (died 1842), only daughter and heir of George Quin, of Quinsborough, Co. Clare (BP 99). The Arms of Quin are quartered with those of Taylour on the ceiling of the dining-room (now the library) at Underley Hall. Arms. Vert a pegasus courant wings endorsed Ermine a chief Or a crescent for difference. Crest. A wolf's head erased Ermine. Motto. Quae sursum volo videre (BGA).

REDMAN. Various members of the Redman family of Levens, later of Harewood, Yorks., held land in Hutton Roof, Lupton and Mansergh in the 14th, 15th and 16th centuries. Later, in the 18th century, Marmaduke, the son of Marmaduke and Mary Redman, of Casterton Fell Gate, was baptised at Kirkby Lonsdale parish church, 1757; and Giles Redman (son of Alderman Gyles Redman, of Stricklandgate, Kendal), Mayor of Kendal, 1725/6, later resident in Kirkby Lonsdale, was buried there in 1778, aged 89 (Farrer; CW2 v; Bellasis). Arms. Gules three cushions Ermine tasselled Or (NB; Foster, Vis. Yorks.). Crest. Out of a ducal coronet a nag's head Gules (CW2 iii).

RICHMOND, Earls of. Col. W. H. Chippindall suggests that the reason why the de Kirkby family retained possession of the church of Kirkby Lonsdale as hereditary parsons so late as 1227, when John de Kirkby obtained a grant of a fair and a market from Henry III, despite the grant of the church by Ivo de Tailbois and the de Lancasters to St Mary's Abbey, York, was that their patrons and the re-builders of the church after the destruction caused by the invasion of King William the Lion of Scotland, 1173/4, were the powerful Earls of Richmond and Counts of Brittany, and that the checky pattern which decorates the third arch of the church's west door is derived from their Arms (CW2 xxxvii). Arms. Chequy Or and Azure a canton Ermine all within a bordure Gules powdered with eight leopards of England (Field).

RIGMADEN. The Rigmaden family held land in Mansergh between 1260, when Richard de Rigmaidin and Alice his wife released land to Nicholas, son of Roger de Manesergh, and 1546, when John Rygmayden and Mary his wife passed a tenement by fine to George Banebrygg (Farrer). Arms. Argent three stags' heads coupé Sable (NB). They may well have been the ancestors of the family of Rigmaidin, of Middleton, Lancs., whose Arms were: Argent three stags' heads cabossed Sable (VCH Lancs.).

ROWLEY. Sir Thomas Taylor, 1st Earl of Bective (see TAYLOUR), married in 1754 Jane, eldest daughter of the Rt. Hon. Hercules Langford Rowley, M.P. (BP 99). The Arms of Rowley are impaled with those of Taylour on the ceiling of the dining-room (now the library) at Underley Hall. Arms. Argent on a bend cotised Gules three mullets Or.

ST MARY'S ABBEY, YORK. Late in the 11th century Ivo de Tailbois had a grant from King William Rufus of much of the modern county of Westmorland, including what later became the Barony of Kendal in which the parish of Kirkby Lonsdale lies. Between 1090 and his death c. 1097 he gave, among other churches and land, the church of Kirkby Lonsdale with the lands and common which belonged to it to the Abbey of St Mary, York, which held it and the rectory-manor until the Reformation. The chief manor then passed to the Crown which gave the living and the tithes to Trinity College, Cambridge (Farrer; NB). Arms. Azure on a cross Gules a bezant charged with the demi figure of a king crowned and holding a sceptre, a key in the first quarter (CW1 i). Burke gives the following blazon — Argent on a cross Gules a bezant thereon a demi king in his robes all Proper in the dexter quarter a key in pale of the second (BGA).

ST MICHAEL'S COLLEGE, Underley. St Michael's College, which was founded in 1948 as a Junior Seminary of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Lancaster, was moved in 1960 from Thistleton Lodge, Kirkham, Lancs., to Underley Hall. The present Rector is Monsignor Basil Kershaw. The College uses the following Arms. Argent a cross pomel between five roses Gules, 2, 2, and 1. Motto. Quis ut Deus.

SANDEMAN ALLEN — see ALLEN.

SATTERTHWAITE. John Satterthwaite, of Lancaster, bought the joint manors of Rigmaden and Mansergh from Mrs Margaret Robinson and her niece, Mary Wilkinson, in 1784; they remained in the family until 1821 when Charles Satterthwaite sold them to Christopher Wilson, Kendal (CW1 xiv). The family is now extinct in the male line but is represented in the female line by the three daughters of Benjamin Satterthwaite, of Castle Park, Lancaster (died 1931) — Catherine, wife of Geoffrey Milne, of Northleach, Glos.; Margaret, wife of Jack Johnson, of Halton Green, Lancs.; and Pamela, wife of Edward Johnson, of Holly House, Hornby, Lancs. Arms. Gules two swords in saltire Proper hilts and pommels Or surmounted by a bishop's mitre Or in chief an Eastern crown Or. Crest. An arm in armour embowed holding a broken sword Proper dripping blood (painting at Holly House).

SHUTTLEWORTH. Sir Richard Shuttleworth, of Gawthorpe, Lancs., Serjeant-at-law and Chief Justice of Cheshire (died s.p. 1599), acquired the manor of Barbon and was succeeded by his nephew, Richard Shuttleworth, of Gawthorpe (died 1669); the manor has remained in the Shuttleworth family ever since, the present representative being the 4th Baron Shuttleworth, of Leck Hall, Lancs. (Farrer; Lancs. Peds.). Arms. Gily., 1 & 4, Argent three weaver's shuttles Sable tipped and furnished Or; 2 & 3, Argent three ermine spots within two bendlets Sable the whole between as many crescents Azure. Crests. 1, A cubit arm in armour Proper grasping in the gauntlet a shuttle as in the arms; 2, On a crescent Azure a goldfinch Proper. Supporters. On the dexter, A weaver Proper holding in his exterior hand a shuttle Sable tipped furnished and thread pendent Or; on the sinister, A sailor holding in his exterior hand a ship's lantern also Proper. Motto. Kynd Kynn Knawne Kepe (BP 99).

SIMPSON. Commander Hugh Martyn Simpson, R.N., of Abbots Brow, Kirkby Lonsdale (died 1970), was descended from a family which was formerly settled at Castle Bank, Grayrigg. His grandfather, Albert Simpson, was High Sheriff of Radnorshire in 1907 and 1917. Arms. Per bend Or and Sable a lion rampant counter changed. Crest. Out of a tower Proper a demi-lion rampant guardant per pale Or and Sable holding in the dexter paw a scimitar Proper. Motto. I byde my tyme.

SKIPWITH. Major John Granville Wemyss Skipwith, R.A., of Biggins House, Kirkby Lonsdale, is descended from Sir Grey Skipwith, 8th Bart. (1771-1852). Arms. Argent three bars Gules and in chief a greyhound courant Sable collared Or. Crest. A turn style Proper Motto. Sans Dieu je ne puis (BP 99).

SMYTH. John Upton, of Ingmire Hall and of Killington Hall (died 1832 — see UPTON), married in 1799 as his second wife Florence, daughter of Thomas Smyth, of Stapleton, Glos., and elder sister and coheir of Sir John Smith, 4th Bart., of Ashton Court, Bristol (BLG 17). The Smith Arms are impaled with those of Upton over the entrance to Killington Hall. Arms. Gules on a chevron between three cinquefoils Argent as many leopards' faces Sable (BGA).

STANLEY. Sir Edward Stanley, later Lord Monteagle (died 1523), second son of Thomas, 1st Earl of Derby, was granted lands in Mansergh which had belonged to Sir James Harington, of Brierley, following the latter's attainder after the Battle of Bosworth in 1485; his descendant, William, Lord Monteagle, sold them to the Redman family (Farrer). Arms. Qly., 1, Argent on a bend Azure three stags' heads cabossed Or, a crescent for difference (Stanley); 2, Chequy Or and Azure (Warrenne); 3, Or on a chief indented Azure three plates (Lathom); 4, Gules three legs conjoined in the fess point in armour Proper garnished and spurred Or (Man). Crest. On a chapeau Gules turned up Ermine an eagle wings extended Or preying on an infant in its cradle Proper swaddled Gules the cradle laced Gold (BGA).

The Arms of Stevenson are impaled with those of Taylour on the ceiling of the dining-room (now the library) at Underley Hall. Arms. Argent a chevron between three fleurs-de-lys Gules on a chief of the last as many mullets Or. Burke ascribes these Arms to Stevenson, of Hermishiels, Co. Lanark (BGA).

STOCKDALE. The Stockdale family flourished in Barbon, Mansergh, Casterton and Kirkby Lonsdale from the beginning of the 16th century until Leonard Stockdale (1578-1617) moved to Ireby, Lancs., and the family became extinct in the male line at Ireby on the death in 1678/9 of Leonard's son, Christopher Stockdale, who left only daughters. Leonard's father, Christopher Stockdale, of Barbon (1560-1622/3), is recorded in the Yorkshire Visitation of 1584/5 as descended from William Stockdale, of Beverley, Yorks., and Chippindall, in his pedigree of the family, shews the latter as his great-great-grandfather (Foster, Vis. Yorks.; Chippindall, Ireby). Arms. Ermine on a bend Sable three pheons Argent in sinister chief an escallop Gules. Crest. Out of a mural coronet Or a griffin's head Argent (Foster, Vis. Yorks.).

STORRS. Adam Storrs, of Storrs Hall, Lancs., died in the Market Place at Kirkby Lonsdale and was buried at Kirkby Lonsdale in 1701. His only daughter and heir, Anne, succeeded to Storrs Hall and transmitted it to her husband, Dr Anthony Askew, M.D., of Kendal, father of Dr Adam Askew, of Newcastle upon Tyne (see ASKEW). Storrs Hall remained in the Askew family until it was bought by Francis Pearson in 1848 (Pearson, Annals). Arms. Gules two bars engrailed Ermine on a chief Or a leopard of the first (information supplied by C. Roy Hudleston).

TAYLOUR, Earl of Bective. The Underley Hall estate came into the possession of the Taylour family by the marriage in 1842 of Thomas, 3rd Marquess of Headfort (then styled Earl of Bective) to Amelia (died 1864), only daughter and heir of William Thompson (see THOMPSON). Their son, Thomas, Earl of Bective (Lord Kenlis until his grandfather's death in 1870), M.P., J.P., D.L., was a great agriculturalist and a very popular landlord, and formed at Underley the finest herd of shorthorn cattle in England. Born in 1844, he married in 1867 Lady Alice Maria Hill, daughter of the 4th Marquess of Downshire, and died v.p. in 1893, when the Underley Hall estate passed to his daughter, Olivia Caroline Amelia, wife of Lord Henry Cavendish-Bentinck (BP 99; Pearson, Annals). Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Ermine on a chief Gules a fleur-de-lys between two boars' heads couped and erect Or (Taylour); 2, Vert a pegasus courant wings addorsed Ermine a chief Or with a crescent for difference (Quin); 3, Argent two bendlets Gules on a chief Azure a lion passant of the first. Crest. A naked arm couped at the shoulder embowed holding an arrow Proper. Supporters. Dexter, A lion guardant Or; Sinister, A leopard guardant Proper; both collared and chained Argent. Motto. Consequitur quodcunque petit (BP 99).

THOMPSON. William Thompson, M.P., Lord Mayor of London in 1828, who bought Underley Hall and the Underley estates in 1840, was descended from a family seated for four generations at Grayrigg, where he was born in 1792. He died in 1854, having married in 1817, Amelia, daughter of Samuel Homfray, and their daughter and heir, Amelia, who inherited the Underley estates, married Thomas, Earl of Bective and Marquess of Headfort (Pearson, Annals; BLG 10). Arms. Azure a lion passant Or a bordure Argent (BGA), impaling HOMFRAY (q.v. — M.I. in Kirkby Lonsdale parish church). Crest. A lion rampant (ditto, and various carvings on the Underley estate). Motto. Spectemur Agendo (Glass at Underley Hall).

THORNBURGH. In 1587 Christopher Carus, of Halton, Lancs., and his wife, Katherine, and Sir Nicholas Curwen, of Workington, and his wife Elizabeth (niece of Christopher Carus), conveyed part of the manor of Kirkby Lonsdale to Thomas Curwen and William Thornburgh, of Hampsfield, Lancs., son of Sir William Thornburgh, of Hampsfield, by his wife, Thomasin, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Bellingham, of Burneside. This William Thornburgh had married Etheldred, daughter of Judge Thomas Carus (Farrer; NB). Arms. Ermine a fret and chief Gules (NB); but Field blazons it, Ermine fretty and a chief Gules, as does Foster, *Vis. TULL. Maryllis Dora, wife of Edward Michael Conder, of Terry Bank, is the daughter of the late Frank Stuart Salisbury Tull (died 1955), of Hunter's Moon, Longworth, Berks., and belongs to the same family as the famous agriculturalist, Jethro Tull (1674-1741). Arms. Or on a cross Sable two wings conjoined of the field a chief Azure thereon three cocks Proper. Crest. In front of a dexter cubit arm in chain armour Proper the gauntlet holding a pair of scales Or a pair of dividers and a baton interlaced in saltire Gold. Motto. Sursum Virtus. Badge. Within an increscent moon Argent a horse's head erased Sable reined and bridled Or (Patent at Terry Bank).

TUNSTALL, of Thurland Castle. Sir Thomas Tunstall, of Thurland Castle, who was knighted in 1426 for his conduct at the Battle of Verneuil in 1424, or his father, Sir Thomas Tunstall, of Thurland Castle (died 1415), had before 1400 obtained the mesne lordship of the fourth part of the manor of Kirkby Lonsdale which was that part included in the barony of Kendal; it remained in the Tunstall family until Francis Tunstall in 1605 sold Thurland Castle to Nicholas Girlington, of Hackforth, Yorks., and himself moved to Yorkshire. William Tunstall, of Aldcliffe, Lancs. (grandson of the first-mentioned Sir Thomas Tunstall), obtained a lease of the parsonage of Kirkby Lonsdale in 1509 (Chippindall, Tunstall; Farrer). Arms. Sable three combs Argent (Clay, Vis. Yorks.).

UPTON. The Upton family, which for long owned lands in Killington, was descended from the ancient Devon family of that name, William Upton, who acquired Ingmire Hall, Yorks., by his marriage with Catherine, daughter of Sir John Otway and sister of Brathwaite Otway, being the third son of Arthur Upton (born 1614), of Lupton, Devon. The family became extinct in the male line with the death unmarried of Thomas Smyth Upton at the age of 18 in 1848, but his younger sister, Florence (1837-1907), and her husband, Clement Cottrell-Dormer, of Rousham Hall, assumed the name of Upton in addition to their own when she succeeded to Ingmire Hall on the death of her sister, Eliza Frances, in 1876 (see COTTRELL-DORMER). Arms. Sable a cross moline Argent. Crest. On a ducal coronet Or a horse passant Sable bridled saddled and accoutred also Or. Motto. Semper paratus (BLG 17). The Arms (incorrectly tinctured), with the initials I.U. (John Upton, died 1832) and date 1803, and impaling the arms of his second wife, Florence Smyth (see SMYTH), are carved over the entrance to Killington Hall.

VAUGHAN. The manor of Killington came into the possession of the Vaughan family, of Sutton-upon-Derwent, Yorks., by the marriage of Anne (died 1582), only daughter and heir of Sir Christopher Pickering, with John Vaughan, of Sutton-upon-Derwent. Their son, Francis Vaughan, who was killed at the Blackwater in Ireland in 1597, sold the manors of Killington and Firbank to the tenants in 1584/5, and Killington Hall and the demesne to Robert Wadeson (Farrer; Foster, Vis. Yorks.). Arms. Sable a chevron Argent between three children's heads couped Proper crined Or entwined round the neck with a snake Vert a crescent for difference. Crest. A child's head as in the Arms (Foster, Vis. Yorks.).

WARD, of Rigmaden. Thomas Ward and Maud, his wife, jointly held the manor of Rigmaden from William de Coucy in 1345, and on the death of Maud it passed to their son, Adam Ward, and continued in the WARD family until Henry Ward sold it to Thomas Godsalue in 1661 (CW1 xiv 454). Arms. Azure a cross botony Or (Higgin).

WARD. The Ward family was settled at Davy Bank in Firbank from early in the 17th century, Anthony Ward, yeoman, of Davy Bank (died 1634/5), leaving his lands there to his eldest son, Edmund Ward, then aged 15 (Farrer). Their descendant, Margaret (1693-1770), daughter and heir of Anthony and Dorothy Ward, of Davy Bank, married in 1723 Edward Battersby, of Biggins (MS. pedigree at Biggins House). Arms (as quartered by Tomlinson, of Biggins). Azure a cross flory Or voided Sable (Memorial tablet in Kirkby Lonsdale parish church, and engravings, etc., at Biggins House and Summerfield). Crest. A wolf's head erased Or (ditto).

WARE. Henry Ware, M.A., D.D., of How Foot (1830-1909), Bishop Suffragan of Barrow-in-Furness, 1889 to 1909, Proctor for the Archdeaconry of Westmorland, 1866 to 1888, and Canon of Carlisle, was Vicar of Kirkby Lonsdale from 1862 to 1888 (Leaders; CW2 ix). Arms. Argent on a bend wavy cotised also wavy Vert between six cross crosslets fitchée at the foot Gules three croziers in bend Or. Crest. In front of a demi-lion Azure between the paws a mullet within an annulet Or issuant from a basket Proper a cross crosslet fitchée at the foot of the second (BLG 15).

WASHINGTON. The baptisms, marriages and burials of fifty-three members of the Washington family, descended from the Washingtons of Tewitfield and Warton, Lancs. (to which George Washington, first President of the United States of America belonged), are recorded in Kirkby Lonsdale parish registers between 1606 and 1716 (Pearson, Doings). In 1543 Richard Washington of Grayrigg was granted lands in Middleton which had formerly belonged to St Leonard's Hospital, York (Farrer). Arms. Argent two bars Gules in chief three mullets of the second. Crest. Out of a ducal coronet Or a raven wings endorsed Proper. Another Crest. Out of a ducal coronet Or an eagle wings endorsed Sable (BGA).

WEMYSS, Earl of. Francis, de jure 7th Earl of Wemyss (1723-1808), inherited Park House in Hutton Roof from his grandfather, Col. Francis Charteris, of Newmilns, Haddingtonshire (NB). Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Argent a fess Azure within a double tressure flory counter-flory Gules (Charteris); 2 & 3, Or a lion rampant Gules armed and langued Azure (Wemyss). Crest. A dexter hand holding up a dagger paleways Proper. Motto (in an escrol above). This is our charter (BP 99).

WENNINGTON. The foundation before 1279 of St Columba's Chantry, Casterton, now Chapelhouse Farm, is ascribed to Adam de Wennington, son of Elias (or Ellis) de Wennington who held a moiety of the manor of Wennington in 1202. The advowson of the Chantry remained in the Wennington family until Joan de Wennington, as heir to her brother William (died before 1345), carried it to her husband, William de Morley (see MORLEY) (CW2 xxvii). Arms. Argent a bend between six lozenges Sable (VCH Lancs. viii).

WENTWORTH. In 1669 Sir John Wentworth, of Emsall, Yorks. (1644/5-1671), son of Thomas Wentworth, of Emsall (died 1653, aged 33), and his wife Agnes (died 1668, aged 51), daughter of Sir Henry Bellingham, of Levens, was admitted tenant of a tenement and certain cattle gates in Casterton, and in 1671 his heir, Thomas Wentworth (1669/70-1689), was admitted tenant of 23 cattle gates and other grounds and parcels of land and wood at Casterton (information from the Carus collection, supplied by T. G. Fahy). Arms. Qly. of 7; 1, Sable a chevron between three leopards' faces Or (Wentworth); 2, Paly of four Argent and Sable on a bend Gules three mullets Or (Dronsfield); 3, Gules three fleurs-de-lys Argent (Hutton); 4, Vert two lions passant guardant in pale Argent (Mirfield); 5, Gules on a bend Argent three escallops Azure (Bisset); 6, Azure a chevron between three birds Argent; 7, Argent a pheon Sable on a chief of the last a lion passant of the first (Bamburgh) (Clay, Vis. Yorks.; Foster, Vis. Yorks.).

WESTBY. George Westby, of Rawcliffe, Lancs. (son of Thomas Westby, of Molbreck, Lancs.), who recorded his pedigree at Dugdale's Visitation of Lancashire, 1664, shewed his brother, Robert Westby, as resident in Killington at that date (Raines, Vis. Lancs.). Foster shews this Robert Westby as having married Lucy, daughter of John Leyburne, of Cunswick, and widow of Thomas Kitson. Arms. Qly., 1 & 4, Argent on a chevron Azure three cinquefoils pierced of the first; 2, Argent on a chief indented Gules three cross crosslets Argent; 3, Or three garbs Vert. Crest. A martlet Sable holding in his beak a stalk of wheat with three ears (Foster, Vis. Yorks.; Lancs. Peds.).

WESTMORLAND COUNTY COUNCIL. The armorial bearings granted to the Westmorland County Council in 1926 are to be seen on Stanley Bridge, opened in December 1932 by the Rt. Hon. Oliver Stanley, M.P. for Westmorland. Arms. Argent two bars Gules over all an apple-tree with seven branches fructed and eradicated Or. Crest. A herdwick ram's head affrontée and erased Proper charged on the forehead with a shearman's hook Or (Farrer, iii).

WIDDRINGTON. Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Carus (died 1575), and widow of Sir Nicholas Curwen, of Workington, shortly before her death in 1611 conveyed a share in the manor of Kirkby Lonsdale to Sir Henry Widdrington, of Widdrington Castle, Northumberland, and his wife, Mary, her daughter and coheir (Farrer). From the Widdringtons it passed by sale to George Preston, of Holker (CW2 xxvi). Arms. Quarterly Argent and Gules a bend Sable (BGA).

WILSON, of Rigmaden. The Wilsons of Rigmaden are among the oldest families in the district, being descended from John Wilson, of Beathwaite Green, Heversham (died in 1612), and probably from the Edward Wilson who was born in Kirkby Lonsdale c. 1525. A branch of the family moved to Kendal and Christopher Wilson, of Abbot Hall, Kendal (1765-1845), bought the Rigmaden estate in 1825 and built the present house. The present representative of the family is Charles Eric Wilson (Brown, Ed. Wilson). Arms. Argent a wolf rampant Sable on a chief of the last a fleur-de-lys between two estoiles Or. Crest. A demi wolf rampant double queued Sable. Motto. Providentia et labore (BLG 17).

WILSON, of Underley. Respite was given for proof of the Arms claimed by Henry Wilson, of Underley, at Dugdale's Visitation of 1664, but no proof was made. Arms. A wolf salient in chief a fleur-de-lys between two roundles, no colours given (Foster, Vis. CW).

WOOD. Christopher Wood bought Egholm Hall, Mansergh, from William Baynes c. 1593, and at the same time bought the porch of Kirkby Lonsdale parish church as a burial ground and repaired it, as is recorded on an inscription on a wooden tablet preserved in the vestry. The date on the tablet, 1668, is clearly a mistaken version of 1596 or 1606 (Pearson, Annals). The Arms painted on the tablet, and now very faint, shew a shield bearing three men with shields and spears, and bear a close resemblance to the Arms of other families of the same name, e.g., WOOD, of the Ainsty of York — Azure three savage men each holding in his dexter hand a club and on his sinister arm a shield Argent charged with a saltire Gules and wreathed around the head and loins Vert (Foster, Vis. Yorks.).

WYATT. Brigadier-General Louis John Wyatt, D.S.O., D.L., of the Courtyard, Kirkby Lonsdale (1874-1955), formerly of the Prince of Wales' (North Staffordshire) Regiment, G.O.C. British troops in France and Flanders, 1920, was High Sheriff of Westmorland in 1948 (Who's Who). Arms. Gules on a fess Or between three boars' heads coupé Argent two lions passant guardant Sable (Higgin).

YEATS. John Yeats, of Liverpool, later of Beetham (1732/3-1813), son of William Yeats, of Nether Leck, Lancs. (1694-1770), by Agnes, his wife (died 1759, aged 66), daughter of John Johnson, of Beetham, owned land at Killington. Arms. Argent three gates Gules; impaling, Argent within two bendlets Gules three trefoils slipped Vert. The elder Yeats impaled, Gules three spear heads Proper a chief Ermine (for Johnson). Crest. A goat's head Or (Chippindall, Ireby; Memorial inscriptions at Beetham).
