Hi Mel,

I don't work with the Youth Board but I spoke with Andrea and there is a general consent form that they all have to have signed for participating in Youth Board Activities. Therefore you will be fine to use any of these images.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Take Care,

Cat

Hi Cat,

I forgot to ask when we spoke whether you are responsible for the youth board as well? Sian wants to know if we have formal permission for their photo usage as well.

Photographic Permission Form

At YAC events we may take photographic prints and digital images of the children engaged in the activities. These may be used in future publicity by YAC, the Council for British Archaeology (CBA), Council for Scottish Archaeology (CSA), CBA Wales/Cymru and the CBA English regional groups to promote YAC holidays, Branch events and Club activities.

If you are content that your child may be photographed and appear in such material please sign below giving your approval. Please be aware that YAC has strict child protection policies on the use of such material, and although images may be used, personal information about children, such as names, will not be included. For further information regarding child protection contact the YAC Network and Events Officer at YAC HQ in York or the Scottish Co-ordinator at the CSA.

If you have any reservations about this, please contact the YAC volunteer or staff member organising the event/s before signing.

✎ Please add child's name

I give my permission for my child _____ to be photographed at the YAC events and have no objections to such photographs being used by the groups outlined above in publications and associated publicity.
