"In the name of oure Lord God Jhs. Amen. The xxijij day of Februare in the yere of our Lord God M^t CCCCC. and xvij. and in the yere of oure Soveraine Lord Kyng Henry the viijth the xth Thomas Babyngton of Dethyke beyng as I truely believe the servaunt of God, and of goode and parfite mynde, and in parfite love and charite with all the world, make my Testament and last will in this wise as follooth:—First, I bequeth my soule to God Almyghty, and to his blessid moder oure Lady Saint Mary, and to all the hooly company of heven, and Saint John Baptist, and Seint Thomas of Canterbury, to praye for me. And I will my body be buryed in my parish church of Ashover nere my wif Edith, if it fortune me to deceas within xx. myles of the same. And ellē in such place as shalbe thought by them that shalbe w^t me at the tyme of my diceas; But I will not that the Tombe which I have made in the Church of Ashover be broken or hurt for my carkas, but that it be leyde nere the same, and over that place that I shall lye in, a stone with a scripture after myne executo's and supervisour myndis or the more parte of them to be leyde. I bequeth my principall as the man^o and custome of the cuntry is. And as to wax to be brynned aboute my carkas, almes offering distribucion to prestis, clerke, and all oder necessarys for funerall expence, I remitt to the discretion of myne executo's and supervisoure or the most parte of them, requiryng them it to be doon honestly. Also I will that dette by me due be paid. And if any persone complaine of extorcion or wrong by me doon that upon due prove made of the same, that satisfaccion and recompens be made. Also that iij trentalle be said for my soule at the Savoy in London incontenent after my deceas. Also I will that viij. prestē the first yere after my diceas, such as myne executo's and supervisour or the more part of them shall name or apoynt, have every of them x. s. to this entent—that every of them shall ſōn daye in the weke saye Placebo, and Direge, and Masse of Requiem, for my soule, and all Xpen soules, and every of them to have a severall day apoynted. And the residue of all other my goodē not bequeathed, I will that myne executo's and supervisour dispose amongē poore people to pray for me, and to the fynding of such poore men and wymen as I have apoynted duryng theire lyves. And in exhibicion and fyndyng of poore scolers in both Universities of Oxenford and Cambryge after this maner; that every scoler of xv. scolers, besydis other scolers that I kepte before tyme, have yerely xxvj. s. viij. d. that is, quarterly to every of them vij. s. viij. d. chargyng them to pray for the soules of Sir John Babyngton of Chilwell Knyght, Henry Babyngton doctor in Divinite, my soule, Thomas Babyngton, Edith and Margery my wife, John Urmond* soule, Sir Robert Gregory prest, and all Xpen soules, saying every daye for the soules above reherssed De Profundis, and ones in a quarter, Placebo and Direge, and such as be prestis Placebo Dirige and Masse and maist Henry Bullock, to have the nomination of the same scolers in the said Universities w^t the advise of myne executo's and supervisour or the more parte of them. And the said Master Bullocke to have yerely for his labo^r xl. s. And this to be doon yerely as long as my goodē will serve for the same, havyng regard to oder dedis of charite aboute hye wayes and oder meritorious dedē, by the advise of myne executo's and supervisour, or the more parte of them to be doon. And thise I make myne executo's, Antoneye Babyngton my sonne and heire apparaunte, Maister Rauff Babyngton clerke,* George Chaworth† esquier Roger Grenehall ‡ and my sonne Sir John Babyngton supervisour. And to every of them takyng the business for execucion of this my will I bequest fyv marcs of money over and above theire coste. And I require my said sonne Sir John § to call upon them to execute this my will; for if he had capacite to sue and be suyd, he shuld have beyn oon of myne executo's. Also I will that my houshold shalbe kept by the space of oon yere or lesse by the discretion of myne executo's and supervis' or the more parte of them after my disease, at my coste and charge w^t servaunte of husbandry and nō oder. Also I bequethe to every servaunte in my houshold theire wagis due, and oon quarter wage in rewarde bothe to man and woman. Also I will that myn executo's oon yere after my dethe occupie all my boollis|| as well my boole at Rybar and Ashov^o as oder, to brynde all such wodd and ore as I have bought and as myne executo's shall bye the yere after my discease. And after the said yere so endid, I woll that then they sell all my said boolles by me bought except the Boolles at Ribar and Ashov^o which before this tyme I have gyven to my sonne Antoney, savyng to myn executo's leede ore and blakewarke for smylyng, savyng blakewerke for keveryng of the blocke of the said ij. boolles to my said sonne. And whereas I have moche ore owyng to me (as apperith as well by tailes as in my booke of ore not crossed nor drawen oute) I will that myn executo's and supervisour calle before them all the said detters and suche as be poore and wold gladly paye if they were able and labour to the same entent, to forgyve them all or parte by theire discretion. And at such tyme as my houshold shalbe broken upp, I woll that all such beddyng as was left for the said
