

Subsidy for the Hundred of Scarsdale, 1599.

By W. A. CARRINGTON.

SUBSIDIES, or Aids, were granted by Parliament to the Crown, on various occasions, for royal or imperial purposes, and were levied upon landowners in respect of the annual value of their lands at the rate of 4s. in the pound, and upon other persons in respect of their movable goods, including crops on the gross value, at the rate of 2s. 8d. in the pound. Persons having goods of less value than £3 were exempted.

The Subsidy Rolls for the county of Derby are very defective in comparison with many other counties. The first is for the first year of Edward III. It was granted by his Parliament, for the defence of the kingdom against the Scots, and is in a very imperfect condition; some of the membranes are missing, and many of the entries are illegible. Not until the 14th year of Hen. VIII are there any intervening rolls of importance, and again, after this period the collection is very imperfect.

3. September. 1599.
