

Gravestones at St. Peter's, Derby.

[SUPPLEMENTAL.]

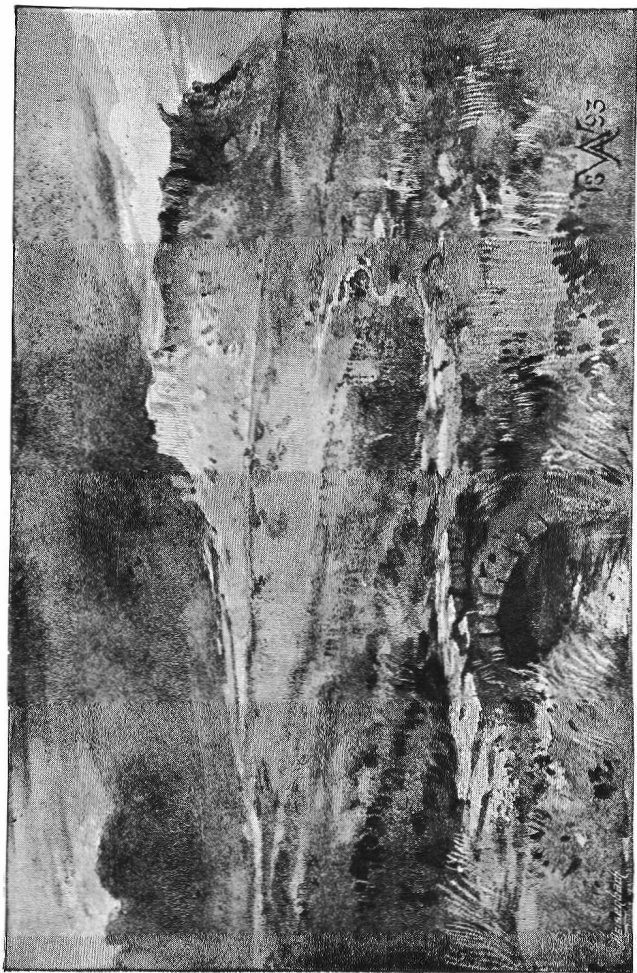

By GEORGE BAILEY.

It has been pointed out that the remarks in a note appended to the copy of gravestone of Elizabeth Eyre (No. ix., p. 53) in the last volume of this Journal, are wanting in clearness; and as there is some reason in this, the following supplementary remarks will perhaps remove the ambiguity, and make the note more easy to understand.

The Elizabeth Hickman (mentioned in the note) was the first wife of Henry Eyre, of Rowtor, and by her he had one child, a daughter, Elizabeth, who became the second wife of Viscount, afterwards Earl of, Massareene, and by her the Earl had six sons and two daughters. It may be added that Henry Eyre inherited the Rowtor estate from his distant cousin, Thomas Eyre, of Rowtor, who was the eldest son of Roger Eyre, of Rowtor, the fifth son of Rowland Eyre, of Hassop.

CARL'S WARK FROM THE MOOR PATH.