

FWP12c

Revision of Feb. 1998, revised further 30. v. 98.

A LANDSCAPE PLOTTED AND PIECED

Landscape History and Local Archaeology in Fyfield and Overton, Wiltshire

P.J.Fowler

Contents

Frontespiece
List of illustrations
Acknowledgements
Editorial notes
Summary
Chapter 1 Introduction and setting

Part I: the evidence and its assessment

Chapter 2: aerial cartography

3: field survey: theory, method and execution

4: three excavations: strategies, sampling and summaries

5: documents and maps

Part II: a landscape and its interpretationThe northern downlands

6: Overton Hill: The Sanctuary, the Ridgeway and Headlands

7: the higher downs and their ancient fields

8: Overton Down, Down Barn and Pickledean

9: Fyfield Down and Wroughton Mead

The valley and its settlements

10: the Overtons

11: Lockeridge and Fyfield

The southern uplands

12: denes, downs and woodland

13: Shaw and East Wansdyke

Part III: synthesis and discussion

14: the changing environment of a Wessex landscape

15: an archaeology of a Wessex landscape

16: thematic interpretations of a Wessex landscape

17: a once and future landscape

Bibliography

Appendix: the Archive and its contents

Index