

FWP73

WAM refs

iwb 14/5/97, 16/5/97, 22/5/97

vol 2, no vi, 342

3 bells at Overton, one dedicated to St Margaret, 1 to Thomas Hall, Geo Browne, churchwardens 1683, 'Prayse God I.W. 1606'. 2 bells at Fyf; St Geo., other dated 1629 vol 6, no xviii, 327, 'Examination of Barrows on the Downs of North Wiltshire in 1853-57', J Thurnam. 'The most southerly of the ten [barrows on Overton Hill] is a low mound, not examined by Sir Richard, or numbered on his plan. It is situated in a ploughed land called 'Mill-field', where was the double circle of the 'sanctuary', which was enclosed in 1685, as we learn from the curious letter of Dr Tope of Marlborough. Here, close to the sacred circles, a large number of skeletons were found, with 'the ... see photocopy....'

Vol 6, xviii, 372, 'The Great Wiltshire Storm', by Rev ACSmith, cottages and barns at Glory Ann, storm 'merely giving a passing salute by scattering a little thatch here and there..'

vol 7, noXX, 227; 1670s, 'Seven burrowes Hill, 4 miles west of Marleburrow near London way' vol 28, no lxxxii, (1894) 72; 'Sarsen Rubber found with human bones under a large sarsen at Down Barn, Pickle Dean Bottom, Overton. Also hammer-stone of Oolite, and Sarsen Rubber.' Presented to museum by G Cartwright vol 32, xcvi, 291-2; Earl of Pem commissioners visited West Overton in 1566, East ov & Fyf in 1567

vol 33, no ci, 326, Roman Rd East of Ridgeway, causeway 5ft high, 18-20ft wide, ditches distinct in 1884. RCHoare's description in a book 'Roman Roads in Britain', Thomas Codrington 1903, reviewed in WAM

vol 33, cii, 416, Edmund Rebbeck died, 1904, aged 49 31st 1lb, heaviest man in England

vol 34, cvi, 447, Meux estate 2nd set of particulars of sale, 9200 acres in WOV, FYF Presh, Og ST Goe, Berw Basst, Broad Hinton, views of West Woods, Lock House, Fyf House & North Ov House. 1906

vol 35, cviii, dec 1907, 184-5,cos of Meux sale, worry over sarsen sin Lock & Piggle Deans, esp those near high roads, 20 acres sold by Alec Taylor for £500, Society is joined with Nat Trust to raise this money, will then be vested in NT, esp donation of Rev Goddard. Important for geologists & cos Lock Dean is possible origin of Stonehenge

36, cxi, (1909), 125-39, Maud Cunnington Notes on a Late Celtic Rubbish Heap near Oare, C1st BC - C1st AD

37,cxviii, (1912), 555-6, land at Lockeridge (Lokerigge) part of indenture of Chris Tropenell (John Kingsmylle mentioned), sept 16 1500

40, cxviii, (1918), 177, John Buckler water colour of West Overton church, 1807, SE view

41, cxxxiii, (1920), 189, Lockeridge & Hospitallers; L B Larking & J M Kemble 'The Knights Hospitallers in England', 1857, p187. Actual deed in The Malta 1338 Return

42, cxxxvii, (1922), 49-51 Passmore's notes on work in n wilts; 52-63, Crawford' work in N wilts

42, cxi, (1924), 427-9, 'The Wiltshire Lichens in the Dept of Botany at the british Museum', Cecil P Hurst; lichens, eg Physica fusca, found on sarsens in Valley of Stones, v inland for a mainly maritime species, rare Parmelia prolixa, var. isidiascens on stones in Fifield

42, cxi, (1924), 497-500, Albany Major's excavs of Wansd at New Buildings

43, cxlii, (1925), 140, Roman coin given to Devizes Mus, found by CEPonting, in Stanley Copse, Lockeridge (same entry again in 43, cxliii (1926), 251, same or were there two?)

44, cxlviii, 1928, 104, 'Pre-Roman Coffin Burials'; RCC Clay 101-5, 'Overton, West. Barrow 1. Skeleton in wooden coffin with bronze knife-dagger, crutched pin and flanged celt' ref; Arch XLIII, 121 & Ant of N Wilts, 167, xi, H, vi, k

44, cxlviii, 99, 'Polished Flint Knives', RCC Clay. 'The rectangular knife found at Overton, Wilts, beneath the roots of an ash tree on Pick Ridge Farm, and now in the Blackmore Museum, Salisbury, was definitely associated with a large barbed and tanged flint arrowhead. This might possibly be of early Bronze Age date'. Refs; Arch J, xii, 285 'The specimen in Mr Brackstone's collection, as also the arrow-head, was found in July 1848, on the farm of Mr. Pumphrey, at Pick Rudge, in the parish of Overton, Wilts, in grubbing up an old ash-tree on a piece of waste land'.

46, clx, 1934, 538-9, Who'd a thought is in book on Old Wilts Inns, in N Wilts Herald, 9th Feb 1934

47, clxii, 1935, 148 lecture by G M Young at Wilton House, on july 17th 1934, argued that the extent of jutish settlement stretched as far as the kennet valley cos of reference to 'silvae forinsecae' in overton charter

47, clxiii, 1935, 288 'At the end of the last century Sir Henry Meux, of Dauntsey House, carried out excavations in N wilts, none of which were recorded. It will be remembered that the writer (Passmore) recovered the story of the opening of the chambered long barrow in West Woods by a mere chance, as all this work was done with the greatest secrecy, as also was the removal of fireplaces and panelling from old farmhouses on the estate about the same time'

48, clxix, 1938, 371-86 'Savernake Forest in the Middle Ages' HC Brentnall

48, clxix, 395 Lockeridge Wayfarers Hostel (closed by 1938)

49, clxxii, 126, 1880 sarsens at lockeridge make bridges of midland junction railways

51, clxxxiii, 139, in 1566 W Ov had 2-field system, whereas at same time East Ov had 3

51, clxxxiv, 1946, 'The Wardens of Savernake Forest' Earl of Cardigan 271-339

51, clxxxv 1946, 419-439, 'Sarsens' HC Brentnall

51, clxxxvi, 555-583, 'Botanical References in the Saxon Charters of Wiltshire', J Donald Grose. Notes maple scarce on Totterdown (p558); notes willows at willow-hedge pond are Salix Caprea & S atrocinerea, reckons these are lineal descendants of Saxon ones (p576) as this is so isolated, Salix a is scarce, S.C. very scarce, elder abundant along Kennet & in Lock (567)

vol 52, clxxxix, (1948), 390-2, Stukeley's description of Devil's Den, by Piggott

53, cxc, 1949, 'The Wardens of Savernake Forest. Part IV: the Brudenell Wardens', Earl of Cardigan, Lord Bruce's land (Boreham not mentioned but look at Shaw map), Bruce replaced furze & heath with grass (5)

vol 53, cxci, (1949), 184 (SU103834) 'Dual-Period Stone Implement from West Kennet', WEV Young 184-190; EBA stone hammer head? found at West Kennet

vol 53, cxci, 191, venison trespass in Savernake, West Woods etc mentioned, in Chpt 9 already vol 53, cxcii, (1950), 306-8 Preshute & Clatford history, vol 53, cxcii, 328-331, The Beeches med settle on Manton Down - to add to Raddon

vol 53, cxcii, 374, Heathen burial near Manton Copse in Preshute

vol 54 cxcv, (1951), 201 font at Fyfield

vol 54, 228, skeleton on Tan Hill, found in IA or RB ditch (SU 077649)

vol 54, (1962) 269, Marlborough in Domesday, Marlborough was part of Preshute pre-1066

vol 54, (1952) 439-40, c12th pottery (baggy tripod pitcher & bowl) from Holly Lodge, Overton location not known

vol 55 (1953) 105, water meadows by Kerridge

vol 55, 119, east end of Wansdyke Crawford

vol 55, 176, flint dagger from Avebury, similar to one found at Lockeridge which was accompanied by a bell-beaker (type B1), info in VCH I

56, ccii, 1955, 60-1, Kempson argues AS & med alternative name for Avebury was Waledich, 'the ditch/dyke of the Britons'

56, cciii, 1955, A Neolithic Pit on Waden Hill, Avebury, N Thomas 167-71, similar to Windmill Hill

vol 57 (1958), 76, 2 barrows SU139672, SE of The Belt N of Lock Dene, we know about these vol 57 (1960), 200 Palaeolithic sarsen hand axe (SU113724) Winterbourne Monkton Down, c1km E of Ridgeway vol 59 (1964), 68-85; Smith & Simpson excav of mounds north of R road, 1962. Is this quoted in Chap 8? They appear 100-225AD RB, with pagan Saxon interments in 7, 6b, 6. One 5 year old (p81), adult. Is this info in later paper by S&S?

vol 59, 181-2, Clatford, 2 barrows, just N of A4. I think we've got these vol 59, 183-4, Rockley White Horse (SU 152732), PI XIV, looks Georgian to iwb

vol 60 (1965), 1-23, Knap Hill excavs

vol 60, 24-46, I Smith's excav of Bell Barrow, Avebury

vol 60, 57, 65; enclosures, Winterbourne Gunner (IA/RB) & one at Corton, similar to Down Barn

vol 61, 9-24, C1 AD well at Cunetio, Annable

vol 61, 25-30, Bonney's Saxon burials & boundaries

vol 61, 31 PJF's paper on Saxon domestic pottery

vol 61, 97-8, ?late RB interment in bank of Winterbourne/ Waden Hill, near Avebury SU10376855, farming in late RB period

vol 61, 98, scrub clearance at Bayardo Farm, Neo & RB stuff

vol 62, 51-66, Huish Church, origins early C13, rebuilt 1450s

vol 62, 127. Wansdyke at Red Shore investigation

vol 63, 1-11, PJF's 'Conservation & the Countryside'

vol 63, 19, periglacial report, notes of ODXII, Ov Hill bowl barrow

vol 63, 27-38, IA & RB settlements in Wilts, spacial analysis, D Bonney

vol 63, 110-1, Excavs at Wansdyke, description of bank and ditch, and fill

vol 64, 64 heathen burials at Collingbounre vol 64, 51-2, denier of Charles the Bald lateC9/earlyC10)(with a penny of Ed I !!) found at SU 143715, square pond/reservoir on Clatford Down, put into Chp 3? Or Saxon part of East Ov, or even Raddun ?? NB reservoir was dug 1951

vol 64, 126-7; 67, 112-131, NPThompson's excavs at Huish, c12/13 buildings, little evidence, but 1 bldg similar in size to B2 timber (though here stone -footed), a smithy & glass work area, surrounded by square enclosure ditch vol 64, 134, cutting edge partly polished flint axe at East Kennet (SU 121667), this point is just E of the West Ov boundary, by Lurkley vol 65, 199, coin hoards from Abvebury/Beckhampon area in 1870s, late C3, midC4 Constantine & Constans, also late C4 from W Kennet long Barrow.

Vol 65, 200 Savernake RB kiln summary

vol 65, 207, Stanchester field, Huish & Draycot Farm & RB settlements/finds vol 65, 206-7, RB settlement at Huish Farm

vol 65, 215, large collection of worked flints given to museum by Lacaille from fvf &ov downs when he was warden there

66, 59, RB midden W of Withy Copse, SE of Overton Heath (SU 170642), on 1:25k map, this paper gives a good intor to archaeology of Pewsey Vale. Large RB settlement just E of Draycot Farm (SU 14606320; p71)

66, 143, 'Wansdyke east of [Old Shaw House; SU 135653) was probably constructed primarily as a territorial boundary, although it may have had a second function as a military obstacle'.

66, 129-146. Stephen Green's Excavs at Wansdyke 1966-70.

66, 197, flint core at Red Shore SU120650

66, 197 Neo? flint core found in garden at Lockeridge (SU147678), iwb - NGR shows this to be where BA burial was found

67, (part B), 112-131 Huish excavs

67, 168, SU125725, nr Glory Ann Barn, large struck flake, Palaeolithic

67, 171, worked flints, nr Glory Ann, NGR as above

67, 173, Red Shore, Roman sherds & iron penannular brooch from excavs at Wansdyke, see vol 66, 71

67, 174, East Kennet Cow Down SU 121659, C1-4 sherds from small area of lynchet in ploughed-out Celtic fields

67, 175, SU125725, nr Glory Ann, late C1 to late C3/early C4 sherds in newly ploughed down W of Ridgeway, inc. samian, mortarium, flanged bowl, bead-rimmed vessel, with chisel-ended socketed iron object, pruning hook & other

67, 175, SU 117648, 450-1000AD sherds? At Red Shore

68, 71-78, Saxon church at Alton Barnes, NB C12-C13 pottery, with med & post-med remains close to church (68, 138)

68, 79-88 Minety pottery industry

68, 116-8, beaker sherds on Preshute Down, & Beaker sherds at East Kennet (SU 118654), just E of Ridgeway, by an enclosure noted, poss RB. O Meyrick

68, 120, environ evidence from Red Shore Bell Barrow, Alton (SU 11736488), just N of Wans, 500m SW of Shaw corner. Cereal grain in layer 4, a ploughsoil, evidence of cultivation in immediate locality in ?EBA. Barrow was sited on arable or recently arable field

68, 128, BA sherds collected SU 15037361, Rockley Down

69 (Part B), 183, flint core SU 128726, near Glory Ann

69, 186, ?Saxon iron spearhead found during ploughing, WOv Farm (SU 12756675). This is just NW of Hill Barn, near road vols 74/75, 59, Saxon material from Summerfield, Marlborough; pin, coin, padlock keys; suggestions of later Saxon period, along with defences of the Marlborough Mound, along side that of Silbury Hill ?in time of Aethelred II (978-1016).

74/75, 201, Palaeolithic small ovate hand axe, Old Totterdown, SU 13857185. Ovate hand-axe from Manton Down SU 168718.

74/75, 203, waster & flint flakes in Pickledean SU139689

74/75, 204, beaker sherd, 3 collared urn sherds, barrow by Ridgeway SU126710

74/75, 206, SU133682, bronze knife handle (RB?)