

THE CHURCH REGISTERS AND PARISH ACCOUNT BOOKS OF OCKLEY, Co. SURREY.

BY ALFRED RIDLEY BAX.

THERE must be few, if any, parishes whose records extending over several hundred years fail, if carefully examined, to afford some curious or interesting particulars illustrative of the past.

The Registers, and especially the Parish Account Books of the picturesque and somewhat sequestered village of Ockley, in the Weald of Surrey, although not containing many remarkable entries, yet afford interesting glimpses of the life of its inhabitants and recall manners and customs now utterly changed.

THE REGISTERS.

The earliest Register is of paper, bound in leather, having a narrow gilt line round the upper edge: it has a rather elegant, lozenge-shaped design embossed in gold in the centre; the corresponding one at the back has apparently been cut out. It measures $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in., begins on the first page in black letter: "The Register of Ockley anno Doñi 1539 and in the one & Thirtyeth yeare of o^r souaigne lorde Kinge Henrye the Eighte of England ffrance and Ireland Defender of the faith &c."

The first entry is a burial: "William Stapter was buried the xxvth Daye of Maye 1539." In this book the baptisms, marriages, and burials are all mixed.

There is a gap between 1554—1562 (but not so in the large Register to be described hereafter); probably a leaf has gone; and again a gap occurs between 1643—1646, where portions of the torn leaf remain: it is continued down to 1663, after which are some entries, very badly written up, of births and baptisms of the Margesson family: the book would seem to have remained for some years in possession of William Margesson, who used it apparently to make notes of occurrences on his farm, domestic aphorisms, &c.

In an early part he has transcribed the following lines, probably not original, except in the spelling:—

“ The new born infant in the Cradle lies, And when it sleeps not, fills
 Our ears with cries. Being grown big with foolish Spoorts (sic) and play
 The first ten years of life are thrown away : yet he Injoyes [more
 Till those ten years are over ; That Inocence (sic) which he must boast no
 Poor man when Three score winters he has told Now places all his hops (sic) in Bags of Gold ; who can but this strange vanity admire : The less
 We want the more we still desire ; He has to (sic) much and yet he would Have more ; Starving himself in midst of all his store ; what can more
 Vain than a Rich miser be ; Or more emphatically poor than hee (sic)
 Now the last sands of man’s short life are run ; Death strikes his Dart home and his work is done : He has run untill he is allmost
 Out of breath ; now see how he on crutches creeps to death : of all he Toil’d for he can onely haue, A sad cold coffin and a gloomy graue
 Then cease your tears for ’tis in vain to cry, Heaven’s Great decree is past
 And man must die.”

II.

Next to the paper Register is the large principal one, written on parchment and bound in leather; it measures 16 in. by $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. The early part is evidently a transcript from the original paper book, with this difference, that the baptisms, marriages, and burials have all been sorted and written up separately. Inside the cover is written, "The Register Book of The Parish of Ockley, In the County of Surrey." The greater part of it has been most carefully kept and is in admirable condition, but there is a falling off in the writing about 1700, when it would seem as though the duty of posting up the entries had devolved upon the clerk.

There are but few unusual christian or surnames: the only Puritan ones are those of Godhelpe Cooper (1631, 1633) and Deodate Coxhill (1630): the surname of Pricklowe or Pricklove is also uncommon.

The baptisms and burials extend from 1539—1812, and the marriages, 1538—1754.

At the end of this Register is a Table of the Surplice Fees due to the Rector of Ockley, List of Church Furniture belonging to St. Margaret's, Ockley, and St. John's, Ockley Green (the latter mainly built by the exertions of the present Rector, and consecrated 1872); both made out at Easter, 1878, and Mortuary Memoranda, of which some specimens are subjoined.

Mortuary fees, 16 May 1777, of M^r Mitchel of Ewhurst.

William Mitchel lately buried at Ewhurst.

15 Dec. 1777, M^r Borer of Leigh parish, on the death of M^r Wakeham, lately (sic) deceased.

14 Jan. 1778, of Sarah Puttock, due on death of her late father.

Rec^d of the Executors of John Mills of Capell, buried here, ten shillings mortuary, by me. D. E., Curat.

Memor. I rec^d of Mr. Worsfold, nephew of M^r Worsfold of Lye field, ten shillings for a mortuary, on the 26th of August 1733, on account of the Death of His Uncle who was buried at Ewhurst.

“Received, March 10th 1779, ten shillings mortuary six and eight-pence breach of ground and one guinea for a funeral Sermon and on account of the burial of William Margesson, Esq^r, an ornament to his good family.
DAN EVANS, Curate.”

There are notes of the formation of vaults for the families of Steere, of the Jayes, and Arbuthnot, of Elderslie (1832).

Then follow some memoranda which recall the much-vexed question of proprietorship in pews.

“N.B. The Pew in the Chancel opposite to the Rector’s Seat and now occupied by M^r Steere of Jeyes, is the sole exclusive property of the Rector.
T. WOODROOFFE, Rector, 1798.”

“N.B. The Pew in the Chancel between the Rector’s pew and the railing of the Altar on the south side of the aisle, is the sole and exclusive property of the Rector, who receives from John Sykes, Esq^r, of Elderslie Lodge, an annual payment as a consideration for allowing him to occupy it.
JOHN COOK, Rector, 1818.”

“Received this tenth day of May, 1782, of M^r John Margesson one pound and one shilling for setting up tomb stone over M^r William Margesson.
by me DAN EVANS.”

There are also receipts for stones to “M^r Boorer, 10 Dec. 1783.”

“Sent an Account of this Register and that of Oakwood Chapel to M^r Langley, at Dorking, amounting from Oct^r 1st 1783 to Oct. 1st 1784, as follows:

Weddings 6	Oakwood Chapel
Christenings 4	Christenings 5
Buryings 4	Buryings 1
14	6
3s. 0d.	1s. 6d.

Paupers excepted in both.”

“On Easter Monday in the year 1730 John Longhurst of the Parish of Ockley was chose (sic) Churchwarden by me.

W. STOCKWOOD, Rector.”

“None under age are to be married without their Parents' Consent.”

The earliest names in the Register of Baptisms are the following:—Ayleward, Ashwen, Bax,¹ Boughton,

Richard Bax, of Pleystowe in Capel, was the head of one branch of the family, and Edward Bax, of Ockley Court, of the other.

For an account of the conversion of Richard Bax to Quakerism, see Sussex Arch. Coll., Vol. XVI, p. 70.

Before the meeting-house was erected in the village of Capel, meetings were held for many years at Richard Bax's house, Pleystowe in Capel, where a register was set up, and most carefully kept, of all the births, marriages, and burials of Members of the Society in the district. (Vide Early Friends in Surrey and Sussex, by T. W. Marsh, London, 1886.) He was visited by George Fox, in 1670. (Vide George Fox's Journal, 1st Edition, 1690, p. 342.)

For some curious particulars, see Notes and Extracts from the Account Book of Richard Bax, a Surrey Yeoman, kept between 1648-1662; by the present writer, in the Antiquary, October, 1882, Vol. VI.

Sir William Duncombe sold the manor and lands of Ockley about 1694 to Edward Bax, who almost immediately afterwards conveyed them to Mr. John Evershed, of Eversheds (Manning and Bray, Vol. II, p. 163).

In the Pleystowe Register, the births of many members of the family are recorded as taking place at Ockley Court.

The Court and land attached were sold by Thomas Bax and Margaret Bax, widow, his mother, in 1744, to Mr. W. Tash. (Fines for Trinity Term, 18-19 George II, 1744. Public Record Office.) Edward Bax was Overseer in 1683, 1691, 1699, 1706, 1717, 1718, 1722, 1727, 1737, 1763.

Edward Bax signs the accounts in 1683, 1695, 1699, 1706, &c.

Thomas Bax was Overseer in 1713, 1714, 1724, 1744, 1746, 1752, 1757.

He signs the accounts in 1695.

Many of the family suffered severely, even to imprisonment and loss of their goods, for their religious views and for their conscientious objections to the payment of tithes. (See Joseph Besse's Sufferings of the Quakers, London, 2 vols., 1753, which contains only a selection from many more detailed in the large series of MS. volumes of Sufferings preserved in the Record Room at Devonshire House, Bishopsgate Street.)

Branches are to be traced at Ockley, Capel, Abinger, Ewhurst, Horley, Charlwood, Newdigate, Wootton, Dorking, Ashtead, Epsom, Ryegate, Horne, Lingfield, Oxted, Shere, Godalming, Send, Egham, Mitcham, Streatham, Southwark; and Burwood, Crawley, &c., &c., in Sussex.

Thomas Constable	was Overseer in	1664, 1683.
William Constable	„ „	1665.
Richard Constable	„ „	1668.
John Constable	„ „	1679, 1698, 1702.
Joseph Constable	„ „	1691.

² EVERSHEDED. This family gradually rose into importance in the 16th and 17th centuries, until in 1706 John Evershed became an Esquire. He was Sheriff of Surrey (10 Anne 1712).

The Arms of Evershed are tricked in the Visitation of Surrey, Add. MS. 5,533, Brit. Mus. Argent, on a chief sable, 3 pieced mullets of 6 points or; Crest, a pieced mullet of 6 points or, between a pair of wings displayed argent.

Confirmation of Arms by Sir Thomas St. George, Garter, and Sir Henry St. George, Clarenceux, to John Evershed, of Evershed, 1696, is printed in full, with plate, in Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica, O.S., Vol. II, p. 191.

³ LONGHURST. They were at Ockley at an early period.

Will of John Longhurst, of Howbroak, Ockley, was proved in A. C. S., 8th June, 1546.

John Longhurst was Overseer in 1665, 1686, 1699, 1733; Churchwarden, 1678, 1698, 1728, 1729, 1730, 1754, 1755, 1756, 1757, 1758, 1770, 1771, 1782, 1783, 1797, 1805, 1812.

Thomas Longhurst was Overseer in 1689, 1712; Churchwarden, 1713.

Richard Longhurst was Overseer in 1703 (?), 1715, 1723; Churchwarden, 1695.

William Longhurst was Churchwarden in 1815, 1816, 1817.

⁴ MARGESSON. Many of the members of the Margesson family are buried in Ockley Churchyard.

The pedigree of Margesson, of Ockley, co. Surrey, and Offington, co. Sussex, is to be found in W. Berry's County Genealogies, Surrey, p. 17, London, 1837.

⁵ PETER. This name is found very early in Surrey. It occurs in Ockley at least as early as 32 Henry VIII (Subsidy Roll).

⁶ STEERE. This family is found largely represented in the Registers. Other members were established in the adjoining parishes of Capel, Wootton, Newdigate; also at Crowhurst, Lingfield, Dorking, Ashtead, Ewhurst, Leatherhead, Mitcham, Southwark; and at Rudgwick and Rusper, in the adjacent county of Sussex.

Most of these represent substantial yeoman families, some of whom rose to considerable local importance in the County as landed gentry.

The first entry of baptism is—

Thomas Hitchcocke baptized January the 2^d day, 1538-9.

The first marriage recorded :—

1538. Christopher Haylwarde & Annes Arysse marr'yd Nov^r 6 day.

The first burial:—

1539. William Stapter was buried May 25th day.

The following are among the interesting entries in the Register; wherever possible, I have added a footnote in illustration of the extract:

- 1576.¹ John Morgan, Rector of Ockley & Newdigate, } buried at Newdigate July } 30th day.
1587. Michaell Ward, Rector of Ockley, buried Septemb. 9th day.
1615. Morris Sackvill, Rector of Ockley, was buried Septemb. 13th day.
1616. Nicholis Culpeper, Rector of Ockley, was buried October 5th day.
- 1710-11. Elizabeth, Daughter of John Gardiner, Buried March 7.
1712. Edward, son of M^r Will. Haines of Wotton, was buried June 21.
1713. Mary, Daughter of John Gardiner, was buried Ap. 6.
 Memorandum y^t y^e said Mary Gardiner was not buried by any Minister of y^e Church of England beeing baptiz^d by ye dissenting Minister only.
1714. Thomas, son of Laurence Cobbet, buried June 2.
- 1716.² James, son of John Gardiner, buried March 1.
 Note y^e said James was baptized by a Dissenting Minister.

The pedigree of Steere (partly worked out), for Capel and Ockley, is given in W. Berry's County Genealogies, Surrey, p. 24 (pub. 1837).
Arms.—Per pale sable and gules, three lions passant argent.

Crest.—Out of a mural crown per pale gules and sable, a lion's jamb erect argent, armed of the first.

¹ To my disappointment, after careful search in the Indices to the Registers of P. C. C. and Archdeaconry and Commissary of Surrey, I have failed to find any testamentary dispositions by these four clergymen, whose burial entries are here given.

² From this and a subsequent entry, it would seem that the Gardiners were Nonconformists.

1716.¹ Mr Edw^d Evershed buried May 8.

1716.² John Evershed, Esq^r, buried Aug. 1.

1716.³ Mr Edmund Steere of Capell buried Sept. 6.

¹ Admon. of the goods, &c. of Edward Evershed, late of Ockley, co. Surry, bachelor, was granted in P. C. C., 10th August, 1716, to John Evershed, his cousin and next-of-kin.

² Admon. of the goods of John Evershed, late of Ockley, co. Surrey, bachelor, was granted in P. C. C., 14th September, 1716, to John Young, Esq., cousin and next-of-kin. In the floor of church is an inscription, on blue marble ledger, to "JOHN EVERSHED, ESQ^r, | dyed the 28th day of | July 1716 | Aged 62 years."

³ His Will is dated 25th January (1st Geo. I), 1714, and begins: "I Edmund Steere, now of the parish of Capell in the County of Surrey gent. being in bodily health and of sound and disposing mind and memory (I praise God for itt) but being in yeares (vizt. full sixe and fifty yeares old if I live to the 20th day of next Aprill) and considering the uncertainty of this transitory life," &c.
"first and principally I comēd my soule into the hands of Almighty God hoping for Salvacon in and through the meritts of Jesus Christ my Saviour and Redeemer. My body I comitt to the Earth to be buried by mine Executors hereafter named in the Churchyard of the pish of Ockley in the said County of Surrey in manner following (that is to say) I will and appoynte to be buried in Linnen and to lye as near to my late father as Conveniency will admitt of. Item I will and appoynte a Tombstone to be putt upp over my Grave like unto my fathers with this Superipeon) or some other w^{ch} may be judged more proper) ingraven upon itt, vizt:—'Here lyeth the Body of Edmond Steere (who was the sixth sonne of John Steere th' elder late of Jayes in the pish of Wootton in this County Steere.) who departed this life the [] day of [] Anno Dni 17 , and in the [] year of his Age.' Item I will & appoynte the sūme of Three pounds to be laid out for Gold Rings to be given to Sixe Batchellours, that shall bear upp the pall att my ffunerall. As for all other provisions for my ffunerall I leave the same to the discrecon of mine Executors, together with the advise and approbacon of the Overseers to this my Will. Item itt is my will & desire that none shall come to my ffunerall but such as shall be invited and because I am only a Boarder (that soe the flamily where I shall Dye may be putt to as little trouble as may be) I desire to have but few psons invited to my ffunerall; however I leave itt to mine Executors and the Overseers to doe therein as they shall thinke meete. Now As touching that Worldly Estate which itt hath pleased God of his goodness to blesse me withall I doe hereby give and dispose thereof as followeth (that is to say) Imprimis I give and bequeath to the poore of Three of the flower pishes of Ockley, Wootton, Dorking and Capell the sūme of Seaven pounds and Tenne shilliges (that is to say) to the poore of each pish

Item Itt is my will that the poore of that pish who shall have a right to fifty shillings upon the account of my being to be buried in Linnen shall have noe pte of the Seaven pounds and Tenne shillings before mencoed. And the reason why I have express'd my Legacy to the poore in manner as aforesaid is because I am not certaine whether the fifty shillings to be paid to the poore for my being to be buryed in Linnen will be due to the poore of Ockley (where I am to be buryed) or whether it will belong to the poore of that pish where I shall dye. If the fifty shillings to become due to the poore upon the account of my being buryed in Linnen shall belong to the poore of that pish where I shall dye and the providence of God shall soe order it that I shall not dye in any of the said flower pishes but in some other pish. In such case I give and bequeath to the poore of euy one of the said flower pishes the sume of fifty shillings to be paid in manner as aforesaid. Witnesses—Ann Wright, Moses Wright, Thos. Constable. Proved Arch. of Surrey, 14th August, 1773, by oath of Marten Swayne.

Elizabeth Marten, of Capell, widow, in her Will, dated 11th September, 1741, and proved 30th May, 1744, in Arch. C. S., mentions her "Daughter Sarah, wife of Mr. John Swayne, Grand dau. Sarah Swayne, Grand dau. Eliz. Swayne, Marten Swayne, son Thomas Agate, dau. Elizabeth Weller, son-in-law John Agate."

I am indebted to the kindness of the Rev. T. R. O'Fflahertie, Vicar of Capel, for the entry of her marriage from the registers of that parish.

"John Marten & Elizabeth Agates (sic), widdow, both of this parish, ware married In Capell Church the 28th day of June 1709."

The following, in the burials at Capel, seems to refer to her:—

"Elizabeth Marten was buried the 27th day of July, 1743. Died 24th."

Woodroffe, with Memorials and Notes, collected by S. M. Woodroffe. London, printed by Mitchell and Hughes, 24, Wardour Street, W., which would seem to have been originally published in Miscellanea Genealogica Heraldica, N.S., Vol. III, p. 65, from which we learn that he was the eldest son of the Rev. John Woodrooffe, A.M., Rector of Cranham, Essex, 1734—1786, by Catharine, daughter of the Rev. Oliver Pocklington, Rector of Chelmsford.

Thomas (the subject of our text) was born 5th March, 1750, at Cranham; educated at Charterhouse; B.A., 1770. 1st Sen. Optime, Fellow of Clare College, Cambridge; Rector of Ovington, Sussex, 1799—1814; J.P. for County of Surrey and Rector of Ockley; died 8th March, 1817.

He married firstly, 21st June, 1787, at Wandsworth, Catharine, 5th daughter of Richard Barber, Esq., of Brentwood, Essex, and Sarah his wife, daughter of Edmond Cooke, Esq., of East Hanney, Berkshire. She was born 17th July, 1760, and died as mentioned above.

Married secondly, 6th February, 1800, at Dorking, Sarah, daughter of Barnard, Esq., of Westcott, Dorking. She died without issue.

By his first wife he had two sons, who apparently left no descendants.

Amongst the loose documents in the Parish Chest is one of more than usual interest, being the original bond for building the tower of St. Margaret's Church. It seems of sufficient importance to print; it is impressed with two sixpenny stamps.

OCKLEY PARISH BOOKS.

There is a series of these books, extending from 1683 to quite a late period; the earliest of them is inscribed—

(1) "OCKLEY PARISH BOOK, 1683."

It is in a very shaky condition, the edges of the leaves mouldering away. The first entry runs thus:—

“It is mutually agreed by the Parishioners of Ockley at a meetinge the 9th Aprell 1683 that the Accts. of all overseers for y^e poore and the churchwardens of the said parish of Ockley shall from yeare to yeare make a due and true entry of theyr Accts. in this booke and that neyther of them shall allow any howse rents for y^e poore w^hout a meetinge of the parishioners and theyr Consent thereunto.

The next extract evidently relates to the division of labour between the senior and junior Overseer.

“A mutuall agreement made the 25th day of March 1695 that every overseere shall sarue the ofese (sic) to (sic) yeare, and that one man shall pay all and the other Gether the new one to gether and the old one to pay. Witness our hand at the Easter Meeting.”

The following entry refers to the gift of a Rent-charge of £10 to the poor by Mr. Henry Spooner, by his Will, dated 5th January, 1613, and proved in Arch. of Surrey, April, 1614.

“ July ye 16, 1703. R^d of M^r (sic) John Spooner the sum of four pound for Eaight years Gift Money of M^r Hendrey Spooner Deceased wich (sic) was Dew December 1702 p William Margesson

There is a very complete list of "The Names of the Overseeres for the Parish of Ockley According to their Turnes by their Hhouses," from 1663—1769. Elsewhere these are continued from 1770 to 1830, and fill two pages.

In another part of the same book, are the "Churchwardens for the Parish of Ockley written by me William Butler out of Ann (sic) Old Booke in the first yeare of the Raine (sic) of King William and Queene (sic) Mary Anno Dominij 1689 As ffolloweth."

This list is continuous from 1667 to 1829, with the exception of the years 1709, 1724, 1734, 1735, 1739, 1740, 1747, 1748, 1776, 1777.

The catalogue of "Waywards According to their Turnes by their Houses," extends from 1664 to 1737.

The following resolution is curious for its quaint phraseology and queer grammar:—

"Memorand at a Generall Meeting held on Aprill ye 18th 1715 being Easter Monday it is mutually Agreed and Consented to by us whose names are hereunto subscribed to Agree that if any Tradesman of any kind so ever or shop keeper Yeoman and Farmer Shall Trust any poor Body that shall receive weekly pay or any other Relief to above y^e value of ffive shillings all such Debts as shall be contracted above y^e said sum of ffive shillings shall not be paid by any overseers nor Entred into no book of Accompts that shall belong to our Parish of Ockley. Witness our hands ye Day & Year above."

[Then follow the names.]

After the resolutions given above the regular accounts begin, occasionally intermixed with new resolutions: these accounts present entries of the most varied kind. Sometimes it is payment of rent for poor inhabitants (p. 56); minute particulars as to the sickness, medicine, and all the details of the funeral of some destitute parishioner (pp. 59, 64); lodging and food for indigent persons, unable through age and infirmity or from mental weakness to provide for themselves (p. 58); expenses for pipes, beer, bread and cheese at funerals ; this seems to have been a regular custom, grief for the loss of the departed not precluding conviviality on the part of the living (p. 59); payment for garments of every kind for poor persons (pp. 56, 57, 60); for a pair of leading strings, for a pair of garters (p. 61); for a pair of spectacles (p. 67); for faggots, a regular item, for certain needy inhabitants (p. 62).

At other times there is a long list of "Weekly Payes" for children "put out," with allowance for clothing, and for poor widows and aged and infirm men, which was the method adopted with persons chargeable in a district before the "Unions" were established (p. 57).

Then there are interesting items relating directly to the machinery of the Parish: such as payment for constables and headborough's Staff (p. 56); for writing up the Accounts (p. 54); for sewing on y^e Badges (p. 58); for the Clarks salary (p. 58).

There are constant entries of sums expended on the Almshouse (pp. 59, 61, 65, 66); of money laid out in connection with Mrs. Evershed's gift; at social meetings for parish business (pp. 56, 64); for women likely to become chargeable (p. 63); to the Parish Doctor (p. 77); incidental allusions to the old inns of the village, some of which are not now in existence (pp. 62, 71, 78).

Another class of entries refer to the Church, for ringing money, and wine for the sacrament (p. 63); for clearing the Church windows of ivy and pulling out the roots (p. 64); for hanging and mending the Church gate (p. 66); to the Clerk for washing surplice, and for Communion Bread (p. 67); for repairing the Church chest (p. 68); for putting up a post in the Churchway (p. 70); for ringing money at Gunpowder Plott [commemoration] (p. 71); for thatching the Parish Shop and Stable (p. 66); for the expenses at Boundwalking, and for Brandy on the occasion (p. 67); for the use of a woman's saddle (pp. 67, 69); often for flax (p. 58); and tire (p. 68); to Coll. Folliot for 19 shrouds (p. 68); for a pound of candles to lay among the shrouds (p. 69); for killing a fox (p. 66); for sending H.

Rapley to the sea when bitten by a mad dog (p. 74); for making a new horse block (p. 74).
