

SURREY WILLS.

COMMUNICATED BY FREDERICK ARTHUR CRISP.

(Continued from page 107.)

Thomas Loviband, of Southwark, 30 September, 1606.

‘Thomas Loviband of the parishe of Sainte Saviours in Southwarke.’

Nuncupative will. To my own mother ‘my weddinge ringe.’ To my son William Lovibande, all my goods, my debts being paid. My brother Richard shall bring up my said son, and my father-in-law shall have nothing to do with him.

My brother Richard Loviband and my son William to be exōrs.

Witness John Tyckner, Thomas Bromeley, Elizabethhe Tyckner, Gartrid Bromley and Thomas Harman.

Dat. 30 Sept. 1606.

Proved 6 Oct. 1606 by Richard Lovibande. Power reserved, &c.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 71.)

James Chibball, Citizen and Leatherseller of London,
9 James I.

‘James Chibball Cittizen and Leatherseller of London.’

Jane my wife shall hold during her life ‘my two meadowes grounde and walles’ in the parish of S^t Mary Magdalen at Barmondsey co. Surrey now in the tenure of Jacob Hoste, whereof I have two several leases; at her death I give the same to my son John Chibball.

To my son Thomas Chibball, my lease which I bought of John Pygeon, of messnages and teñts ‘in the churchyard within the parish of Saint Marie Magdalen,’ my wife taking, for life, the profits of the said lease.

I give one third-part of my personal estate to my wife Jane, and one other third-part amongst my sons John, William, and Thomas, my son John’s share being less 200^l already given him.

To the poor of S^t Mary Magdalen’s parish, wherein I dwell, 10^l.

‘I give and bequeath vnto and amongst the Lyverye of the Company of Leathersellers of the Cittie of London whereof I am a member fortie shillinge for a godly meetinge amongst them.’

My son Thomas’s portion to be paid him at his age of 21 years.

I make Jane my wife my eñtrix, and ‘my loving brother and good frende Nicholas Blincoe’ overseer.

As concerning my freehold lands and teñts, I give all the same to my wife for life ; and at her death I give to my son John Chibball, my house, late purchased of George Slater, in Chersam co. Bucks ; and also the messuage and lands in Egerton and Clavering co. Kent, late purchased of Robert Nine gent, to my said son and his heirs male, rem^r to my sons William and Thomas in tail male, rem^r to my right heirs.

To my son William Chibball 6 acres and one rood of land in Chesthunte in the church-field, and 12 acres of land in [blank] co. Kent, late purchased of George Burwash, to him and his heirs male, rem^r in tail male to my sons John and Thomas.

To my son Thomas Chibball, the land late purchased of John Edwardes in Camberwell and Peckham, co. Surrey, and in West Grenewich co. Kent, to him and his heirs male, rem^r in tail male to my sons John and William.

Witness [none].

Dat. [blank] 9 Jac. I.

Pd 7 Oct. 1606 by Jane the relict.

Admon. d. b. n. granted Sept. 1650.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 71.)

Richard Sampson, of Southwark, Blacksmith, 19 July, 1606.

‘Richarde Sampson of the parish of Saint Olave in Southwark in the County of Surrey Blacksmith of London.’

If my wife Joane discharge my eñor of all her interest in my lands or goods, other than what I bequeath to her, then I give her for life all the rent of the houses and lands she brought me. I give my said wife for life my teñts at Lambeth Marsh, and ‘my great house at Blackwall that stande nexte to the Silekweaver (videlicet) that my greate house wherein the victualling wife dwelleth.’ My wife shall have her dwelling in the house wherein I dwell in Saint Tooley’s Street, so long as she keep sole. I give my wife all such plate and stuff as was hers before marriage, and ‘my two Buttrees with turned pillars th’ one standinge in the hall, And thother in the chamber above in the nowe dwellinge house of Mr. Marshall at Lymehouse, And also a paincted story hanginge in the same hall, And the back of the chimney being Ironc.’ All these legacies to be void if she will not make a release as aforesaid.

To the poor of my parish of St Olave, 20^l, and to the poor of 'Old Parrys Garden' 8^s yearly out of my rents and houses in the liberty.

To my brother John Fox, 'one of my best gownes.' To widow Selby 'fower piece of gould of tenn shillinge.'

To the 'companie of Blacksmithes of London whereof I am free fortie shillinge for a drinckinge.'

To my godchildren Thomas Selby, Peter Powell, and Richard Vidgdowne of Towne Mallinge, to each a silver spoon of 10^s price.

To my daughter Elizabeth Snellinge, three of my teñts [specified] in Old Parris Garden in St Saviour's parish—To my daughter Alice Kennet six of my teñts [specified] in the said liberty—To my daughter Mary Garth 'my greate tenement yard and workhouse with the two cottages which were in lease to John Medcalf.'

To my son John Sampson, four teñts [specified] at Lymehouse, and six teñts [specified] in Old Parrisgarden.

To John Stapers, 'Purveyour of the Bridghouse' 10^s—To Richard Mardley, 'Vssher of the free Schoole of the parische of Sainte Olave' 10^s—Marie Larrington—My cousin Margaret Charles and her husband—Elizabeth Norris, late my servant—John Brewton. To M^r Fowler, 'Purveyour of the chamber of London my goulde ringe of the gymmalle'—My servants John Wenham and Cristofer Backhouse.

To my son Kennett 'my Turkey gowne furred with budge and layed on with lace,' and to my daughter Kennett 10^l.

I make my sons-in-law Thomas Kennet and Thomas Garthe my overseers. The residue of my goods and possessions (except plate, ready money and leases) I give amongst my said children Alice Kennet, Marie Garth, John Sampson and Richard Sampson, desiring them to be charitable to my daughter Snellinge. I make my son John my eñor.

Witness Richard Hall, 'clerk of the Sewars Surř,' Richard Lucas, Richard Brabrooke, joiner.

Dat. 19 July 1606.

Proved 23 Oct. 1606 by eñor.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 76.)

Henry Inwoode, of Chertsey, Yeoman, 4 July, 1606.

'Henry Inwoode of the parish of Chutsey in the County of Surrey yeoman.'

To my wife Elizabeth Inwoode, my freehold lands in Chutsey for life, with rem^t to William Inwoode, second son of my brother Thomas Inwoode.

To Françe Inwoode, daughter to my brother Thomas Inwoode 50^l at 21 years or marriage, by the hands of my brother-in-law Françe Barneham, citizen and draper of London. To Joane Stynt, my god-daughter 10^l at marriage or 21 years.

Poor of Chutsey, Wabridge, Walton-vpon-Thames, Cobham and Byflitt.

To my cousin Elizabethhe Sliceres, 5^l at 21 years or marriage.

To my brother Barhames children 10^s each. To my son-in-law John Horton 10^l at 21 years. I forgive my brother Thomas his debts to me. To John Inwoode of Chutsey 40^s—My tenant Elizabeth Cluter, widow.

Residue to wife Elizabethhe Inwoode, eñtrix.

My brothers Franneç Barneham and Thomas Inwoode, overseers.

Witness Richard Buttç the elder, John Porter of Byflyt, Richard Buttç, Thomas Warde, Henry Inwoode.

Dat. 4 July 1606.

Proved 31 Oct. 1606 by eñtrix.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 76.)

William Muschampe, of Godalming, 1601.

‘William Muschampe of Godalming in the Countie of Surrey esquier.’

I give the use of my fee-simple lands &c. to my wife Marie for life, rem^r to my daughter Anne Pickayes for life. At the death of my said daughter, I give the same to Agmondisham Pickayes her son and heir and to his heirs for ever, rem^r to my right heirs.

I give my wife Marie all my plate, household stuff, money and goods, and I make her my eñtrix.

I make my nephews Thomas and Edward Muschampe my overseers.

Witness [none.]

Dat. [blank] 1601.

Proved 29 Oct. 1606 by eñtrix.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 72.)

John Lingarde, of Croydon, Gent., 20 October, 1606.

‘John Lingarde of Croydon in the Countie of Surrey gen^t.’

My wife Elizabeth shall have the use of my house and garden in Croydon during her widowhood, with rem^r to my son Richard Lingard for the rest of the lease; and I give her all other my lands and teñts in Croydon for life. At her death I give my said son Richard, a messuage in Croydon in tenure of Humfrey Stiche butcher, and the freehold teñts and land there which I bought of William Morton esq. and Richarde Bettç carpenter. And at my wife’s death I give to my son Hughe Lingarde, the messuage and garden in the tenure of Widow Boden, and ‘a lytle shoppe lienge and beinge in the Corne Markett in Croydon.’

If my wife marry, my son Richard shall have the said messuage and teñts at his age of 21 years, and my son Hughe the said message &c. at his age of 26 years.

My will is that 'all the wainescotte, settles, shelves, eubbordꝑ in the walles, paynted clothes, one fayre bedsteed and one drawinge table in the greate chamber and one greate presse and a cubborde in the Hall, one fayre payre of andyrans, fier shovell and tonges sutable vnto them, one fayre wainescotte cheste wth fower drawers in yt, sixe joyned stooles, one Carpet of dornixe worcke, sixe loomewoorecke eushshins, and the greate lyned tapistrye Coverlette which my Father gave me together withe one featherbed fullie furnished in all respectes withe the best furnyturē that at my deathe I shall leave to my wife, shall remayne and be after the deathe of his said mother to my said sonne Richard and shalbe leftē as hierlooms and standardes in the howse wherein I nowe dwell to his use and behoof.'

To my daughters Ellen and Elizabeth, 10^l each at 25 years or marriage.

To John Monek, son of Thomas Monek of Godstone, and to Hughe, son of William Stedman my brother-in-law, 20^s each at 21 years.

Residue of goods to wife Elizabeth, eñtrix.

I make the said Willyam Stedman, and my friend Thomas Wood of Croydon, my overseers.

Witness John Lysney clerk, Thomas Wood, Richarde Bettꝑ.

Dat. 20 Oct. 1606.

Proved 6 Nov. 1606 by eñtrix.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 83.)

Vincent Dove, of Southwark, Goldsmith, 21 October, 1606.

'Vincent Dove of the parishe of Saynete Sauyour in Southewareke in the Countie of Surrey Goldsmithe.'

To my two daughters Lucrece and Elizabeth Dove, my lease of all those teñts which I have in Lymehouse co. Mx. at their ages of 18 years.

My sister Margaret Welshe, and Julian Barefoote her mother, and [blank] Welshe her husband.

Residue to wife Elizabeth, eñtrix. For supervisors I appoint my kinsman Nicholas Jurden esq. and friend Xpofor Thacker gent. and my brother Robert Cordell clerk, and Drue Stapley, grocer.

Will of lands.—I give to my sister Anne Aldersey, a yearly rent for life of 6^l, out of my lands &c. in Kentishestreete in St. George's parish, late purchased of Richard Sayer, gent.

To my wife Elizabeth Dove, I give all my lands and teñts in Camberwell and Peckham Rye, in the tenure of William Poole and [blank] Rawlyns, and my lands and teñts in S^t Bennett Finke in London, for her life, and I give her for six years, my said lands &c. in Kentishestrete. At my wife's death I give my son Thomas Dove, all my said lands and teñts in Camerwell and Peekham Rye, and S^t Bennet Finck parish, and also the reversion of the premises in Kentishestrete, at his age of 21 years.

My wife to sell the messuages and lands I purchased in Willmyngton and Dartford co. Kent, of the said Alexander Welche and Margarett his wife and of my cousin Roberte Ratland.

Memorandum that before the ensealing of this will, the testator gave to his brother-in-law John Aldersey 'his blaekc gowne laced, his beste hatte, and Fortye shillinge in money.'

Witness Ri. Johnson Sc̄r.

Dated 21 Oct. 1606.

Item I give to the poor of S^t Sauyo^{rs} 20^s in money and 10^s in bread, and to the poor of Bleachingley 10^s. To the poor of Lympsfeild 10^s.

Proved 13 Nov. 1606 by c̄xtrix.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 78.)

Robert Parson, of Cobham, ats Coveham, Yeoman,
20 October, 1606.

'Roberte Parson of Cobham ats Coveham in the County of Surrey yoman.'

To be buried in the church of Coveham, or elsewhere.

To James Parson my eldest son, my yearly rents due to me within the town of Guldeford. To Robert Parson my son 50^l, and a little teñt, and a barn with a backside near the river in Coveham, being freehold. To Henry Parson my son 50^l, and all other my freehold lands in Coveham. If the said Henry die without issue, then the teñt or house where I dwell, with 'all ioyned bedsteadc formes tables shelves and windescotes' in the same house, and one acre of land in the common field, which I purchased with the house, shall remain to my son James Parson, and the rest of the freeholds shall remain to my son Robert Parson.

To my daughter Fraunce Parson 100^l, and all her mothers apparel. (Said Robert, Henry, and Fraunce all minors.)

Residue to said James, Roberte, and Henry Parson my c̄xors.

Thomas Sutton, Edward Masters, overseers.

Witness Nicholas Parson, Richard Ancell.

Dat. 20 Oct. 1606.

Proved 18 Nov. 1606 by c̄xors.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 87.)

Sybell Jenkyn, of St. Oliff, Widow, 25 November, 1606.

‘Sybell Jenkyn of the parish of Sainte Olliff near the Bridgefoote in the Countye of Surř wydowe.’

To be buried in the churchyard there.

To James Powell, my eldest son, 4^l now in the hands of John Phillippes in Landilowe co. Radnor, yeoman. To my youngest son Lewis Powell ‘thre kyne and two heyffers’ and ‘twelve sheepe,’ all of which are in the hands of the said Phillippes and of Thomas Mathewe of Landilowe.

To my sister Cicelye Jenkin ‘my beste gowne and my beste peticoate.’

Margaret Lewes, servant of said John Phillippes.

Residue to son Lewes Powell, eñor.

Witness Robert Phillippes and Rose his wife.

Dat. 25 Nov. 1606.

Pd 4 Dec. 1606 by Lewes Powell, son and eñor.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 97.)

Katherine Powell, of Southwark, 16 November, 1606.

‘Katherine Powell late wief of Ellis Powell deceased of the parishe of Saint Olaves in Southwarke.’

To be buried in the parish church near my husband.

My cousin Vaughan, and his wife and two children—Marmaduke Slather—My cousin Fludd’s wife—My sister Alice [blank] of Rickson—To Edward Darvell ‘one Ringe with three Jemmollē’ and to his daughter one dollar.

To John Stable ‘my husbandē Seale Ringe,’ and to Elizabeth Stable ‘one hoope ringe.’

Mistris Gosson—Mistris Jarvis—Mistris Johnson—George Cooper—John Rawlingson—My cousin at Barkingē—John Hollandē—M^{ris} Walker—Hugh Hale’s wife—M^{ris} Rewe.

To my husband brother Morris Powell, dwelling in Gothland, ‘one gowne furred one doublet and one paire of breeches.’

To my god-daughter Frissenfield’s daughter’s daughter 5^s—William Ryve—Cousin Roger Hughes.

Residue to ‘my sonne John Pylson bace-begotten’ my eñor.

Edward Darvell and John Stable, overseers.

Witness Mistres Walker, Mistres Darvell.

Dated 16 Nov. 1606.

Proved 10 Dec. 1606, by eñor.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 96.)

Raph A Stone, of Capel, 9 July, 1606.

‘Raph A Stone of Capell in the County of Surr’ [yeoman].

James Longhurst—Edward Ellys my servant—My servants Thomas Steere and Joane Neeles—Rose Ellys—‘My Tendor the goodwife Nie’—Alicc Carter.

To my three sons-in-law William Bowell, Edward Bowell, and John Bowell 15^l amongst them at their age of 24 years.

To Rebecca A. Stone my younger daughter 40^l at 18 years, which, if she die before then, I give to my daughter Elizabeth A Stone.

As concerning the lands and teñts given or assured to me by my father Roberte A Stone of Capell, yeoman, I will all my lands, which I have in possession or reversion in Capell, to Henrie A Stone my brother, paying my dans. Elizabethe and Rebecca 400^l, viz., to Elizabethe 240^l at 18 years, and to Rebecca 160^l at 18 years, payable at his dwelling house in Capell called Clark’s.

Residue to wife Elizabeth A Stone, eñtrix.

Friends Josephie Browne, parson of Rasper, and John A Stone of Rasper, co. Sussex, my brother, overseers.

Witness [none].

Dat. 9 July, 1606.

Proved 18 Dec. 1606 by eñtrix.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 90.)

Nicholas Sibson, of Southwark.

‘Nicholas Sibson of Saint Olaves in Southwarke.’

Nunenpative will. ‘He took of a ringe of his finger and gave the same unto his sonne William Sibson, beinge a ehilde, and saide, I wyll that my wief shall have all that I have.’ And I make my son William my eñor.

Witness Alice Sibson (the mother), Elizabeth Stafford.

[No date.]

Admōn (with will annexed) granted 18 Dec. 1606 to Barbara Sybson the relict.

(P. C. C., Stafford, fo. 94.)

Francis More, of Southwark, Hatband Maker,
15 January, 1606.

‘Francis More of the parish of Saint Olaves in Southwarke in the County of Surrey Hatband-maker.’

I give to my wife Margaret the lease which I hold of Copley of two houses at the Mazegate at Battle Bridge in South-wark, and a lease of a 'Tiplinghouse' at the lower end of Myll Lane, and all her apparel, rings, and jewels.

Humfrey Fleetwood to have the teñt he dwells in during four years at his former rent, and the lease thereof I give to my cousin William More.

To my cousin Ellen 'my night gowne and xl^s—My godson John Monck—My sister Margery. To my brother Thomas More 'my worst night gowne.' To my younger brother Thomas More 'my purple cloake with buttons.' To my wife one hundred pounds, and xxx^l in household stuff.

I make my son and dan. James Makin and Agnes his wife my eñors.

To Mr Lyndsey our parson for a sermon xx^s.

Witness Nicholas Reeve servant to Thomas Hill sc̄r, Humfrey Fleetwoode, Richard Chilton, Edward Standon.

Dat. 15 Jan. 1606.

P^d 20 Jan. 1606 by eñors.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 4.)

Robert Johnson, of Southwark, 7 March, 1606.

'Memorandum that Robert Johnson whilst he lyved of the parishe of Saint Olave in Southwarke deceased' made his muncupative will in manner following.

He gave to Thomas Johnson his brother 'his best hatt' and to George Hawkes his brother-in-law 'his workingdaie cloake.'

Residue to Agnes Johnson his wife and eñtrix.

He acknowledged debts to Maister Hungate, Maister Arnold, Maister Roberte, and to James Jhonsen.

[No date or witness named.]

Adñion (with will annexed) granted 7 March 1606 to John Stickley of Saint Olave's Southwark, feltmaker, Agnes the relict having died without proving the will.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 21.)

Nicholas Holden, of Camberwell, Gent., 11 May, 1606.

'Nicholas Holden of Camerwell in the County of Surrey gentleman.'

To be buried in the church-yard, at the west end, 'under the greate glasse windowe there.'

To my wife Alice my leases in Camerwell, the house wherein I dwell, with all household stuff, plate, &c. for life. At her death I give to my daughter Elizabeth Poole 'a silver Pott with eares guilt and a pownst bowle all guilt,' and the said leases I give to Richard Holden my son.

I give to my dau. Elizabeth wife of William Poole for life a rent of 8^l yearly out of my teñts in S^t Gyles'-in-the-fields parish, with rem^r at her death to the said William Poole, if not one of her sons Nicholas, Richard and John Pitcher be of full age.

I give my lands and teñts in S^t Giles's to my son Richard, my eñor.

Wife Alice and said William Lorde overseers.

Witness William Poole, Edward Wilson, S^tc Kerkham.

Dat. 11 May 1606.

Proved 21 April 1607 by eñor.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 34.)

John Astreate, of Tangley, Yeoman, 18 Jan., 1604.

'John Astreate of Tangley in the Countie of Surrey yeoman.'

Poor of Wolnshe and Stoke by Guildeford. To Dorothe Astreate, daughter of Henry Astreate my eldest son, 10^l at 21 years or marriage. To John, Anne, Johan, Judith, Elizabeth, Thomas, and Sara How my grandchildren the children of Thomas How and Judith his wife, 5^l each at 21 years or marriage. To John Worsfold my grandchild, son of Thomas Worsfold and Sibill, 5^l, and to Elizabeth their daughter 5^l, each at 21 years or marriage, and the same to Thomas Worsfold, youngest child of the said Thomas and Sibill. To Henrie my son 40^s and the discharge of his debt to me—Thomas Worsfolde my son-in-law—My brother Nicholas Astreate—My son-in-law Christopher Taylor—William and Richard Smither and Thomas Seager my old workmen—George, Thomas and Anne Astreate, children of Richard Astreate my brother dec^d—Sara and John Tayler, dau. and son of Christopher Tayler of Stoke next Guildeford.

I give my messuage and garden in Wolnshe, now in the tenure of William Steere, to Thomas Howe my son-in-law and Judith his wife, with rem^r to my grandchild, their son and heir.

I give my messuage and meadow ground in Godalminge to Henrie Astreate my son and heir for life, with rem^r to Thomas, son of said Thomas and Judith Howe.

I give my messuage, garden &c. in the parish of Holy Trinity, Guildford now in tenure of William Yonge, and my teñt and garden in the said parish in the tenure of the said Henrie Astreate, to the said Henrie Astreate, with rem^r to Anne his wife, rem^r to Anne and Elizabeth Astreate their daughters.

I give my messuage and garden in Stoke, wherein Nicholas West lately dwelled, to the said Henrie Astreate my son, with rem^r to Dorothe Astreate his eldest daughter.

I make the said Thomas Howe and my dan. Judith his wife, my eñors ; and I make my friend George Duncombe of Bramley gent. and my brother Thomas Astreate of Guildeford, clothier, my overseers.

Residue to my said eñors to perform my will.

Witness George Duncumbe, William Stinte, John Stinte, William Joeclin, John Cokes.

Dat. 18 Jan. 1604.

Proved 22 April 1607 by Thomas Howe. Power reserved &c.
(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 30.)

William Wrighte, of Lyne, 26 March, 1607.

‘William Wrighte of lyne in the parish of Newdigate in the Countye of Surrey.’ Nuncupative will.

To his wife Alice, three kine. To his son Henry Wrighte ‘all his brewing vessell’ and 10^l. His two daughters Alice and Blanche to have their cattle in his keeping made up to the worth of 20^l each.

To his wife Alice and to his said daughters the one half of his household stuff. Thomas Wrighte his son, to be eñor.

Witness Joseph Browne, and Agnes Stere wife of Thomas Stere.
Dat. 26 March 1607.

Proved 8 May 1607 by exor.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo 45.)

Nicholas Darcy, of Saint Martins-in-the-Fields, Middlesex, Esquire, 26 May, 1606.

‘Nicholas Darcy of Saint Martins in the Feilde within the Countie of Middlesex Esquire.’

Whereas together with one William Blower of London gentleman, I mortgaged my estate and term in the manor and borough of Kenne co. Devon, the which I obtained from our late sovereign Queen Elizabeth under the great seal, to one Francis Butler of Croyden, gent. for 1270^l to be paid about 20 July now next ensuing. And whereas I did in like sort for the sum of 300^l mortgage to Peter Blower of London gent. the reversion of certain lands and teñts occupied by Arthur Goodaye gent. and Anne his wife (late wife of William Hughes of Higham Ferrers esq. dec^d), in right of the said Anne (which reversion is to take effect after the death of the said Anne), purchased by me of Robert Margetts of Rushden co. Northants gent. Now I appoint my brother Sir Francis Darcy knight, and Sir Euseby Isham of Pittesley co. Northants to be my attorneys to pay the said sum of 1270^l, and 330^l to satisfy the other mortgage before-named, and to sell the said term and reversion for benefit of my wife Jane and my only son Devorey Darcy.

To my said brother 'all my Armor pistolle and strickinge clock.' To my cousin Sir Euseby Isham "my best taffety wascoate wroughte and imbrodered with gold." Residue to wife Jane Darcy. My said brother and cousin, and my said wife to be my exors.

About three or four years last past, I delivered to the Lord Crompton 'a faire watch with a larm,' for which he promised to pay me 40^l at the birth of his next child. And about the same time I delivered to the now Earle of Sussex 'one peece of Coyne in gold called a Twentie shillinge peece' for which he promised to pay me 5^l at the birth of his next child—I give the said sums to my wife.

Witness Robert Wright, Marmaduke Ward, Phillippe Leland.

Dat. 26 May 1606.

Proved 23 May 1607 by Jane the relict, the other exors renouncing. (The testator is described in the probate act as of Richmond co. Surrey.)

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 43.)

Anthony Vaux, of Lambeth, Citizen and Vintner of London, 20 May, 1607.

'Anthony Vaux citizin and vintener of London' [of Lambeth co. Surrey].

To my sister Elizabeth wife of Raphe Collidge 260^l. To my brother John Vaux 'a seale ringe of golde w^{ch} was my Father's.'

To the poor of Lambeth 55^s.

To Grace Mansfeilde 5^s.

Residue to my sister Elizabeth Collidge, my ex̄trix.

Witness William Gregoris, Mich. Hawarde, Will. Manbye.

Dat. 20 May 1607.

Proved 26 May 1607 by ex̄trix.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 43.)

Eustace Bristowe, of Horley, Yeoman, 19 May,
5 & 40 James I & VI.

'Ewstace Bristowe of Horley in the County of Surrey yeoman.'

To be buried in the church-yard.

To Richard Payne of Ardingley co. Sussex, Henry Bonwick and John Burgis of Horley, and Roger Kempe of Newdigate, yeomen, all my teñts and lands called 'the weeke,' and all my goods, in trust to sell the same.

To Mercye my wife 120^l—To Henry Bristowe my son 100^l.
 To Richard and John my sons, and to Elizabeth my dau. 30^l each.

To Jane and Mercie my daus. 40^l each.

Residue, if any, to my said wife and children.

Witness Beniamyn Coop, John Heaver, Richard Fenner.

Dat. 19 May 5 & 40 Jac. I & VI.

Admōn (with will annexed) granted 9 June 1607 to Roger Kempe a trustee named in the will.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 55.)

Henry Roome, of Southwark, Waterman, 30 March, 1607.

‘Henry Roome of the parish of Sainte Olave in the Borrough of Southwareke’ waterman.

‘To my loving mistres Suzan Hitch widowe’ 9^l.

To Elizabeth Cooke widow, of S^t. Olaves parish 5^l.

To my brother William Roome, my legacy left me by my brother
 Thomas Roome dec^d.

Residue to Richard Saunders of S^t. Olave’s, waterman, my eñor.

Witness Roberte Brighte, William Peaseley, Henric Roome (sic), Thomas Bursey, Nicholas Bateman, Mary Cunstable.

Dat. 30 March 1607.

Proved 10 June 1607 by eñor.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 56.)

William Fromoundes, of Cheam, Gent., 10 October, 1606.

‘William Fromounde of Cheham in the Countie of Surrey geñt.’

To be buried in the church near my father.

To each of my younger sons, Robert, William, Henry, Richard,
 John and Gregory Fromounde 100^l each at 21 years.

I will that my son and heir Bartholomew Fromounde, shall pay to such of my sons or his issue, as after my decease shall by the custom of the manor of East Cheham be heir to such copyhold lands as I hold in East Cheham, the sum of 100^l at his age of 21 years, if my said son or his issue then inheriting the said lands shall surrender the same to such of my said sons as shall be heir to my fee simple lands, which copyhold lands ‘are descendable to the youngeste sonne.’ And in default of such surrender I will the said hundred pounds to such of my said sons as then shall be my heir. And I will to such of my sons or his issue inheriting the said copyholds, as after my death shall come to 21 years, all my lands &c. in West Cheaham in the tenure of John Caustyn, sometime in tenure of Octavian Gawen of West Cheaham. And also I give to my said son a teñt and piece of land next the teñts in West Cheaham, now in tenne of Owen White, with two acres in Cokefould, and a house wherein John Evans dwelleth in West Cheaham, upon condition that he make the said surrender.

To my son Bartholomew Fromounde 'one maltinge house' in West Cheaham with its ground in the common field.

To my daughters Anne, Margaret, and Elizabeth Fromounde 250^l each at 18 years or marriage.

To my son Bartholomew, my lease held of the Lord Lumley, and all my plate and household stuff.

My brothers Thomas, Nicholas, and Arnold Fromounde.

Son Bartholomew Fromounde eñor.

S^r William Mynne Knight, my brother Thomas Fromounde, Phillip Moyse, Richard Benson, and John Shelberry gent., overseers.

Witness William Mynne, Richard Benson, Thomas Benson.

Dat. 10 Oct. 1606.

Proved 11 June 1607 by eñor.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 52.)

Sir Robert Clarke, Knt., of Southwark, 10 December,
4 James I.

'Roberte Clarke Knight one of the Barons of the Kinge Maiesties courte of Exchequer' [of S^t Saviours parish in Southwark].

To my wife Dame Joice, all my lands, houses, and teñts in Sandon, Danbury, and Baddowe co. Essex, and all other my lands in the tenure of Gregorie Coek; and my capital messuage with cellars and warehouses, and the house wherein Bringborne dwelleth, all of which last are in the parish of S^t Dionize Backehurch, for her life; and I give her the half of my household stuff in my house in London, and the use of the remainder, and I give her 800^l owing her and me by divers persons, whereof 300^l is owing by Sir William Wray Knight; and I give her all the household stuff, plate, jewels &c. which were hers before I married her, and the goods in her house at Parris Garden co. Surrey, and 200^l more in meney.

To my daughter Easter Clerk 400^l at marriage or 21 years.

To my Daughters Sara and Clemence, my house, lands and teñts in Thaxted, Wimbish, and Boxted co. Essex, viz. the houses and lands in tenure of Thomas Holland, and 4^l rent out of my manor of Giperake and the lands called Inmans co. Essex to my daughter Sara for life, if she so long live unmarried; and my house and lands in the tenure of Smith and Byatt, and 4^l rent out of my said manor and lands to Clemence my daughter for life, if she so long live unmarried.

My daughter Clemence and her portion shall be in the keeping of my daughter Kinge, and my daughter Sara in that of my daughter Still, and after the deaths of my daus. Kinge and Still, then they shall be both in keeping of my daughter Nightingale.

I give to my daughters Kinge and Styll and their children, my manor called Giperake and my lands called Immans, for ten years after my death.

To my son Jeremy Clerk and his heirs male, my capital messuage called Sainte Lawrence with its lands in Dengye hundred co. Essex, paying 17^l yearly to the corporation of the Merchant Taylors, to the use of Garson Hill, in discharge of my bond made to them for the payment of the same for the term of his life, the which charge I had by the marriage of his mother.

I leave to descend to my son Robert Clerk, my manor of Newerke, and all my lands &c. in Goodeaster, Newland, Wryttell, Margaret Rotinge, and Norton co. Essex, for a full third of all my lands and teñts. And I give him the residue of my lands and teñts, and the reversion of my messuages, lands &c. called Borehams, Mextsall, and Shepeotte, and all other my lands in Sandon, Danbury, and Baddowe, which I have given to my wife for life.

I give the reversion of my manor of Giperake and my lands called Immans, to my son Jeremye; and the reversion of my houses in London to my son Robert, to whom I give my lands in Pressly, Mueh Waltham and Higheaster.

To William Carter late of Cogley x^l in discharge of my bill, and to Roberte my godson, son of John Clarke of Plegden vj^l xiiij^s for my bill made to his father long since. To my son in-law Edmond Chapman, all the leases I had by his mother in Southwark—Son Jeremy's lands and my dau. Easter's portion to be in the hands of my brother-in-law Sir Henrye Mayde and my son-in-law Still, until my daughter come to 21 years or marriage, and my son to 26 years.

I make the said Sir Henry Mayde, and my son in law William Still, and my wife, exors.

To son Robert, my wife and my daughters Still, Kinge, Cuttinge, and Joyner 20^l each, out of 100^l in my hands.

[No witness.]

Dat. 10 Dec. 4 Jac. I.

Proved 16 June 1607 by Sir Henry Maynard Knight, and William Still. Power reserved &c. to Dame Joyce Clerke the relict.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 49.)

John Perkinson, of Croydon, Yeoman, 21 June, 1607.

‘John Perkinson of Croyden in the Countye of Surrey Yeoman.’

To my son Henrie Perkinson (now under 10 years old) 200^l, with rem^r, if he die within age, to my brothers and sister Henry and Stephan Perkinson and Elizabeth Parker. If my wife Anne be with child, the child shall have 100^l at 21 years.

Residue to wife Anne, c̄trix. I make my neighbours Thomas Wood, Edward Arnolde and John Lystney, overseers.

Witness Samuel Fynche vicar, Thomas Wood, Edward Arnold, Richard Jones, John Lystney.

Dat. 21 June 1607.

Proved 2 July 1607 by c̄trix.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 69.)

Richard Askewe, of Southwark, Gent., 21 May, 1607.

'Richard Askewe of Southwarke in the Countie of Surry gentleman.'

Anne Vawse ats Hopkyns—Thomas Humfrey of White Chappell, vintner—My cousin 'Mistris Newton the wiffe of master John Newton the younger'—My niece Pullyn and Marye Nelson, the daughters of William Askew my brother—My niece Martha, wife of Thomas Humfrey—My servant Alice Rony.

Residue to brother William Askewe, c̄xor.

Witness Erne Askewe, Alyce Rony, 'and Nicholas a duche man whoe lyeth in the same howse for he dyed betwixt one and two in the nighte.'

Dat. 21 May 1607.

Proved 3 July 1607 by c̄xor.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 69.)

Nicholas Miller, ats Richardson, of Croydon, Collier,
2 June, 1607.

'Nicholas Miller ats Richardson of Croyden in the Countie of Surrey Collier.'

To Joane my eldest daughter, the messuage wherein I dwell with its orchards, gardens, &c., and the messuage and gardens in the tenure of Robert Ingram I give to my daughter Agnes—To Alice my dau. the messuage and gardens in Croydon in tenure of Henry Aire. But if my wife be with a man-child, he shall have the messuage, &c. given to my dau. Joane, to whom I give in that case 60^l, which I give to the child, if my wife bear a woman-child. My wife shall have the said messuages until my children come to 18 years.

To Thomas Miller ats Richardson, I give a debt of 4^l:10^s, now owing to me from John Rennet of Newington—My sisters Jane and Anne—My brother Thomas.

Residue to wife Alice, my c̄trix.

Edward Arnold, beerbrewer, and Nicholas Ladd of Whorne, yeoman, to be overseers.

Witness Henry Kinge, Thomas Wood, Garrett Wanaway.

Dat. 2 June 1607.

Codicil dat. 3 June 1607.

Proved 17 July 1607 by c̄trix.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 66.)

Richard Windmill, of Southwark, Shipwright, 23 June, 1607.

‘Richard Windmill of the parish of Saint Sauour in Southwarke in the Countye of Surreye Shipwright’ (dwelling in ‘parishe garden’).

To my son Robert Windmill 40^l at 21 years, and to my eldest dau. Susan Windmill and to my youngest dau. Sara Windmill 40^l each at 18 years or marriage.

My mother Elizabeth Windmill—My brother Nicholas Windmill and my three sisters Isabell, Añe, and Jane.

Residue to wife Anne, c̄trix. Overseers my friends Isaack Towell, Thomas Dymmocke, and William Erberrye, overseers.

My servant Richard Mitchell—To the children of my wife’s brothers and sisters.

Witness E. Johnson, Robert Eyves, Henry Reynoldes, William Erberry, Thomas Dimocke.

Dat. 23 June 1607.

Proved 23 July 1607 by c̄trix.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 65.)

Nicholas Vinck, of Southwark, 5 June, 1607 (?)

‘Nicholas Vinck’ [of S^t Thomas’s, Southwark].

I give to my wife the fourscore and five ‘Gildrens,’ which Everard van Schuere, ‘as attorney in Amerfort hath in handes of Nicholas vyneke,’ and the fourteen which he hath received I give them all to my wife Jorina Vyneke. I acquit my mother-in-law of ten ‘gyldren’ and a half.

‘I have understoode that my Grandmother is deceased and that the goodes for the Mortuarye howse are solde, the whiche aswell be belonginge vnto me as to any boddie ells whoesoever.’

‘By me Nicholas Heynderyxen Vyneke.’

Witness Peter Peteres, Cornelis Stevens, Willam Bosch of Amersfoerd, Nicholas Geewlen, Amersford.

Dat. 5 June [blank].

‘Ex teutonica lingua in Anglicam conversum.’

Adm̄on. (with will annexed) granted 28 July 1607 to Jorina Vyncke the relict.

(P. C. C., Hudleston, fo. 66.)