

WANDSWORTH CHURCHWARDENS' ACCOUNTS FROM 1620 TO 1630.

COMMUNICATED BY CECIL T. DAVIS,
LIBRARIAN OF THE WANDSWORTH PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

These accounts are in continuation of those which have appeared in previous volumes.¹

On page 117 (1621-2), mention is made of the School. The "ould Register" on page 118 has unfortunately disappeared. In 1622-3 (p. 121), the treble bell is recast in London; in 1629-30 (p. 177), the treble, second and fourth bell (known also as the "Tenner," see p. 110), are recast at Chertsey, and a "great" bell added to the peal. The weights are given on pp. 177-8.

The steeple appears to have given considerable anxiety to the church authorities, for in 1622-3 (p. 122) the surveyors are sent for to examine it, they receive a fee, and wine, bread, and beer. The top is taken off and boards covered with lead are temporarily placed over the hole. Eventually, in 1629-30, the steeple is rebuilt. To help pay the expense, a brief is obtained, and on page 178 is a list of some of the fees paid.

On the 7th October, 1623, the parish shared the national joy shown when Prince Charles returned from Spain without a Spanish bride.

For the extinction of fire, the Churchwardens see to the buckets in 1624-5 (p. 136), and in 1626-7 overhaul the fire-irons (p. 147), which were used to pull down burning houses, and thus the fire was prevented from spreading.

The last item on page 149 is interesting. The deed which constituted the Select Vestry of Wandsworth is dated 20 Apr. 1627. It is printed at length in "Notes on Deeds relating to Charities of Wandsworth, by W. Rye, 1881." In the next year's accounts, further expenditure under the same heading is incurred.

On page 152 is the mention of Henry Smith's burial. It seems strange that the Dictionary of National Biography does not contain a life of this worthy, one of the greatest philanthropists of Stuart times. Nearly every parish in Surrey, as well as parishes in other counties, still share in his benefactions. The first payment received by this parish was on 7 Feb. 1628 (p. 153). Sufficeth it to say that Smith's monument, with his effigy robed as an Alderman, is in the north chancel aisle of Wandsworth Parish Church, where he was buried. On it is the following inscription with the Arms:—Quarterly, 1 and 4, Sable, a fesse between three saltires or, for SMITH; 2 and 3, Barry of six gules and argent, on a chief of the last three wolves' heads erased of the first, for . . .
