FURTHER INVENTORIES OF THE GOODS AND ORNAMENTS OF THE CHURCHES IN THE COUNTY OF SURREY IN THE REIGN OF KING EDWARD THE SIXTH.

COMMUNICATED BY

R. A. ROBERTS,

SECRETARY OF THE HISTORICAL MANUSCRIPTS COMMISSION.

THIS, the fourth instalment, completes the series of Inventories of Church Goods preserved in the Collection of Loseley MSS., and printed by the kind permission of Lieutenant and Mrs. More-Molyneux McCowen.

Besides the Inventories proper it comprises, amongst other miscellaneous papers more or less connected with them, a copy of the Commission issued in the 7th year of Edward the Sixth, and a copy of the Instructions issued to the new Commissioners. In addition, there is a Petition from the parishioners of St. Nicholas, Guildford, to the Commissioners, pleading that they should not make good the loss the king had sustained by their having sold the plate, etc., for the repair of their church.

As these returns are distributed over five volumes<sup>1</sup> of the Society's Collections, are not in chronological order, and are the answers to several distinct Commissions issued during the reign of Edward the Sixth, it has been thought advisable to give, at the end, an alphabetical list of the parishes, together with a note of the volume and page where the returns relating to each will be found. A return of some kind has now been published for every parish except Hascombe and Wisley.

For the transcripts from the original manuscripts, the Secretary of the Historical MSS. Commission and the Society are again wholly indebted to Mr. Theodore Craib, of the Public Record Office.

[PETITION OF THE PARISHIONERS OF ST. NICHOLAS, GUILDFORD, TO THE COMMISSIONERS.]

To the right worshipful the Kynges Majestes comysioners assigned within the county of Surrey for the collection and sale of churche goodes within the same county.

In moste humble wyse sheweth unto your worshipfull mastershipes your pore orators the parishoners of the parishe of Saynte Nycholas in Guldeforde that where your orators hadd within ther parishe churche serteyne plate as crosses and censors which were not to be used by reason of the godly alteracon of our relygyon and also pereevynge the coman robberyng of churches that of late was used within the saide shere and nere unto your orators (as your good masterships doth well kno) and ther parishe churche then beyng not only in greate ruyn and decay, but also framed and faeyoned verylye lyke a papystycall cell of Rome. and your orators not knowynge or conceyvynge any restraynt or com[and]ment not to sell the same plate (although an inventory was before taken therof) which inve[ntory] your orators thought to [be] done only as a restraynt that churche wardens and others the parishoners [should] not imbesell the same to ther private uses. They your orators of ther coman assent, beinge specially moved therunto for the causes abovesaide, dyd sell ther saide churche plate partly to repayre reforme and alter ther sayde churche, and partly to put the overplus therof into saf custody.....the same churche this done sodenly came forth the severall proclamacons for the abaten.....of the kynges majestes coyne. wherby the money taken for the saide plate (other then that which... ..was leyd out uppon ther saide churche) was dymynyshed and abated to the half w.....ment and losse yf your orators sholde restore and make good to the kynges majesti, it wolde be to ther utter undoyng, and of the resydue therof together with ther belles copes and vestmentes your orators have fully and truly brought in ther accompt and are redy to delyver the same to the kynges majestes use. In consideracon wherof (the small number of your orators, the causes that moved them to sell, and ther povertye and inablenes to make good to the valure of the fyrst inventory) consydered, yt may please your mastershipes to dyscharge your orators of the fall of money and of ther charges leyde out uppon the churche uppon ther saide accompt and your orators shall dayly pray for the kynges majesti, his honerable conncell and your good mastershipes in helth and prosperyte longe to endure.
