London Archaeological Prize 2004

Sponsored by the
STANDING CONFERENCE ON LONDON ARCHAEOLOGY
in conjunction with
LONDON ARCHAEOLOGIST

SCOLA and LONDON ARCHAEOLOGIST are proud to announce a prize for the best publication relating to archaeology in London that appeared in 2002 or 2003. The award, of £250 plus a certificate, will be presented at a ceremony in October 2004. The publication must be in letterpress or digital form; broadcasts and the like will not be eligible. It must relate to archaeology in the area of Greater London. But those will be the only limitations. There is no restriction on the type of publication that will be eligible – it may be a book, a journal article or the proceedings of a conference. It may be a professional, commercial or amateur publication. Nor is there any restriction on the target audience – scholars, the general public, or children. The judges will be looking for quality and excellence; they will want to know how well the publication succeeds in its aims, whatever those aims may be.

JUDGING

Entries will be assessed by a panel of judges appointed by the Executive Committee of the Standing Conference on London Archaeology in conjunction with the Publications Committee of London Archaeologist.

PROCEDURE

Anyone may make a nomination. The nominator(s) should name the publication and give on a single A4 sheet the reasons they believe the publication is worthy of the prize. It would be helpful, but not essential, to use the standard nomination form. There is no need to provide copies of the publication at this stage. The judges will select a short list out of the publications nominated, and will then ask for up to six copies of the publication; these copies will be returnable on request.

Nominations should be sent to: Peter Pickering
Assistant Secretary
Standing Conference on London Archaeology
3 Westbury Road
London N12 7NY
from whom nomination forms are available. (020-8445 2807; pe.pickering@virgin.net)

CLOSING DATE for receipt of nominations is: 15th May 2004
