LAMAS

London & Middlesex Archaeological Society

promoting London's unique heritage and historic environment

With over 600 personal members, including many archaeologists, historians and conservationists, LAMAS plays a leading role in the protection and preservation of London's heritage. Through its publications, lectures and conferences the Society makes information on London's past accessible to a wide audience.

As a member of LAMAS, you receive a copy of the widely respected Transactions each year, and also three issues of the Newsletter. In addition, you have the opportunity to attend two full day conferences and enjoy a programme of lectures from October to May.
