Extract from the Presentments made by the Jury of the Court Leet & Court Baron, Law Day, held May 22 1739 &c for the Town of Guildford in Surry
And lastly the said Jury do upon their Oath present, that the Boundaries of the said Town Corporate (particularly described in writing & now delivered into Court) are truly marked out & distinguished by the dotted Line in the Iconography or Ground-Plan of Guildford, surveyed by John Harris & Matthew Richardson, & now in print. To which Ground-Plan for greater certainty & perspicuity the said Jury refer themselves
Let this Presentment, and the Iconography therein referred to, be inserted at Large in the Constitution-Book of this Town, & remain on Record
