

A.D. 1611-5. Index Locorum to the Calendar, 9 to 12 James I., in this volume. (IBID., vol. 64, fo. 761.)

A.D. 1618-25. Index Locorum to the Calendar, 16 to 22 James I. (IBID., vol. 65, fo. 623.)

A.D. 1625-39. Index Locorum to the Calendar, 1 to 14 Charles I., in vol. 24. IBID., vol. 129.)

A.D. 1625-41. Calendar, 1 to 16 Charles I. (IBID., vol. 22, fo. 1.)

A.D. 1660-62. References to Grants of Lands, Offices and Presentations, 12 and 13 Charles II. (IBID., vol. 48, ff. 1, 117.)

A.D. 1660-62. Index Locorum to the Calendar, 12 and 13 Charles II., in vol. 14. (IBID., vol. 153, fo. 616.)

A.D. 1660-67. Abstracts of Grants, 12 to 18 Charles II. (IBID., vol. 86.)

PEDIGREES.

Pedigrees of Berkshire families. (BRITISH MUSEUM, Harl. MSS. 5819, 5822 ; ASHMOLEAN LIBRARY, Oxford, MS. 852 ; HERALD'S COLLEGE, Philpot MS. 3 P.)

Berry's Berkshire pedigrees. (BRITISH MUSEUM, Add. MS. 15445.)

[Printed in 1837, folio.]

Hunter's Berkshire pedigrees. (IBID., Add. MS. 24457, fo. 4.)

Richards's Berkshire pedigrees. (IBID., Add. MSS. 28668-9.)

(To be continued.)

KENDRICK FAMILY.—I was much interested in the article on this family, but take exception to the statement that Philip Henry and Matthew Henry were noted Unitarian clergymen. Both were distinctly orthodox, particularly on the Holy Trinity and the Atonement. I have heard that the Chapel at Liverpool where they preached afterwards was occupied by Unitarian preachers.—A CORRESPONDENT.