NEW WORK ON MONUMENTAL BRASSES.

MONUMENTAL BRASSES IN THE BEDFORDSHIRE CHURCHES.

By GRACE ISHERWOOD.

With illustrations drawn by KITTY ISHERWOOD from Rubbings by the Authoress.

There has been so little written about Bedfordshire that the Author feels confident this work will meet a long-felt need in bringing before the residents in Bedfordshire an account of the Brasses of their own County, and opening up to those who are not acquainted with such studies the rich harvest of interest and information which lies at their doors, and which should engage their careful attention. The names of the Churches in the County which contain Brasses, supplied in this work, will no doubt be welcomed by students, and especially those who are given to antiquarian and ecclesiological study. Although the work is popularly written, and is intended for general reading, the student of antiquities and the genealogist will find it a useful companion in their researches.
