K.R. TENANTS OF THE MANOR FROM A RENTAL IN THE Misc. CHERTSEY CARTULARY,* 1498.

Books, Thomas Bukehurst ... A messuage and a virgate of land
No. 26. called Bukehurst.

Johne atte Ritchet† ... A field.

Peter Barbo A field called Rithers, Longcroft,
one acre in Whitynhull, three acres in le Hone, six acres in Wyndenershe and three acres of garden in Stopeshulle.

William Lyndenassh... Crofts called Trupphallond and Fishcroft and two acres in Wyndenershe.

Thomas Lydennashe... A cottage and curtilage.

William Stoppesaule... A messuage called Stoppesaule, twelve virgotes of land and a meadow called Risshgrove.

† "Hulle," of course, means "hill." "Halle" = "hale," dat. of "halh," a name applied especially to a flat piece of alluvial ground near a river. The different spelling may be due, however, to carelessness. Compare the two spellings of Cristeshulle and Cuissshulle lower down. The last is also found as Cristell, and later became Cresswell.

† Balestier = a cross-bow man.

* Rental revised by Brother John Bury in the time of Thomas Piggot, Abbot of S. Peter's Monastery at Chertsey, on December 17th, 1498, the 14th year of King Henry VII.

† Probably a form of Atte Ryd (a forest clearing which had been "ridded" of trees). The family now write their name Attride.

- William atte Grove ...A messuage and seven acres called Northgrove.
- Richard BanastreRent owed for le Waterlond.
- Henry SilhurstA messuage and a virgate of land called Absamideslond and land called Moreland.
