94 Charter of liberties and box of deeds at Westminster Abbey relating to tenements in B

In Lord Treasurer’s Remembrancers’ Office are the following:

Charter of the prior and convent of SSB of liberties granted by the king. Easter Rec.22 vel 23 Richard II [1399], rot 6

Prior of B charged with £40 12s 6d of goods and chattels of John atte See, forfeited. Hil Rec 3 Henry IV [1402], rot 25 vel 26

Letters patent of John Chandler re divers lands and tenements lately belonging to SSB. Mich Rec 32 Henry VIII [1540], rot 73

Royal letters patent concerning divers rents and services of divers lands and tenements in B made to Sir Thomas Pope and heirs, Easter Rec 36 Henry VIII [1545], rot 50.

Among the Harleian charters at the British Museum is 44H.16, an indenture between John abbot of B and the rector of SMCL re a tenement in Crooked Lane, 6 September 1439, 18 Henry VI.

95 In 1338 the church of this house appears to have been dedicated afresh, with several of its altars. Cloister and refectory either built or rebuilt by Prior Dunton in 1380, who covered the nave of the church with lead and made new with glass the windows in the presbytery in 1387. Abbot Thetford in 1430 covered the cloister with slate (cum petra vocata slat) (Chronicle).

Wilkinson [R, Londina illustrata ?] has given several plates illustrative of the remains of the this monastery, which have now almost all disappeared:

1. General view in 1805 from the steeple of St Mary Magdalene, with adjacent country.
2. East view of Gateway, near to the parish church
3. Inside a room adjoining under the hall, with several fragments of remains, capitals, mouldings, etc
4. Inside and outside of the Hall
5. Inside of one of the rooms under the Hall. But it is to be observed that this hall, in reality, was not a part of the abbey, but of the mansion which was erected upon its site by Sir Thomas Pope. Though Mr Wilkinson thinks that portion of the fourth plate, which is entitled 'Inside of the Hall', is probably of the hall or refectory of the monastery, as its appearance seems older than Sir Thomas Pope's time.
6. Arms and seal
7. Facsimile (apparently of same)
8. A Ground plan of the abbey of Bermondsey from an original drawing taken in 1679; with a view of the north and west gates of the abbey.

The Gatehouse, the last principal remain of this Abbey, was taken down in 1805

Richard pr of B built 1213, adjoining to the walls of this monastery, an almshouse or hospital for converts and poor boys in honour of St Thomas of Canterbury. It was under the government of the almoner of the priory and exempt from episcopal jurisdiction.

- 99 1338: the great altar in honour of SS and BVM and All Saints on 3 Ides January. On the 8th day altars of the Cross, Druett in honour of BM and St Thomas the martyr and the altar quod est iuxta ostium cimiterio monachorum in honore SS Andrew and James and all the apostles.

CALENDAR OF LETTER BOOKS A TO L

K (1911)

305–6 (following an item dated 15 January 1445): 'long list of names to each of which a sum of money (assessed upon tenements and lands) is appended, for what purpose is not clear.' Includes 'Ralph Elleswik, the prior of Bermondsey' [one person or two? <looks like two: no Prior Ralph recorded elsewhere at this date>] and several other local heads of houses.

CALENDAR PLEA & MEMORANDA ROLLS

1323–1364 (ed A H Thomas, 1926)

14 (13 January 1327) Oaths to safeguard Queen Isabella and her son Edward against Hugh le Despenser the younger and also liberties of the City, sworn by prior of Bermondsey along with the priors of St Mary Southwark, Holy Trinity Aldgate and Westminster.

101 (13 November 1338) collection of money from religious houses holding land in London but not paying scot or lot: from prior of Bermondsey 5m

(from Holy Trinity 10m; St Martin le Grand 40s; D&C St Paul's 10m; prioress of Clerkenwell 60s; St John of Jerusalem 5m; New Hospital without Bishopsgate 20m; St Bartholomew's 5m, St Giles 50s)

xviii Little evidence that the attitude of civic authorities towards the sokes was anything but friendly. In Husting in 1273 the mayor himself was sokereeve for Holy Trinity, Haliwell, Bermondsey and Westminster.

1437–1457 (PEJ 1954)

xi Prior of Bermondsey at once produces a grant from the king of the advowson of SMM dated 21 November 1234 (in response to a claim that SMM and other churches built in highways or on the walls) were in the gift of the king

1458–1482

65 22 December 1469: Thomas Throwe and his wife Elizabeth, late wife of Robert Sewale grocer deceased acknowledge by indenture of 11 September 1469 by themselves and John Grey grocer to Thomas Walker grocer of the lease of a tenement, shops, solar etc which RS once held and now occupied by TW in Bucklersbury in St Benet Sherhog for nine years at a rent of £18 and three peppercorns at Michaelmas, and 40s to the abbot of Bermondsey and the abbess of Stratford at Bow, with covenants to maintain the property in repair, pave streets, clean privies.

THE LONDON EYRE OF 1244, ed H M Chew & M Weinbaum, London Record Soc 6, 1970

- 199 Of churches they say that... the church of SMM, sited in the regis strata, is of the advowson of the abbot of Westminster and the prior of B, and that it is worth £20 pa, ought to be in the king's gift unless the abbot and prior can show any warrant for it.... and the prior of Bermondsey came and proffered letters patent of King Henry in which quitclaimed to the priory any interest in the advowson following his grant of land to the church for its enlargement, 21 November 1234.
- 216 The prior of Bermondsey holds a messuage in the City which was of William cum barba who was convicted of a felony. Let it be taken in hand, and let the moiety of the messuage which Osbert the clerk devised to the said William, his son, and to his other son Richard, during which term he was convicted of felony, be taken in hand until the tenants, etc

THE LONDON EYRE OF 1276, ed M Weinbaum, London Record Soc 12, 1976

116, 299, 613, 615

- 116 On Sunday 4 September 1261 Richard de Borham with many other people from London went to a wrestling match (luctus) at Bermundeseye outside the City and there wrestled with the men of the prior of Bermundeseye; a quarrel arose among them and Richard and his companions chased the prior's men into the priory; then came a monk called Arnulf and other monks from the priory who entered a solar above the gate and threw stones at Richard and his companions; Arnulf the monk threw a stone upon Richard and crushed him so that he quickly died. It is testified that Arnulf is still alive and living in the priory, so let him be arrested. Likewise the prior of Bermundeseye is to be distrained by all his lands. The mayor and alderman are told to enquire about the names of those who were present at the fight and death. Afterwards Arnulf comes and, asked how he wishes to clear himself of the death, says that he is a clerk and not bound to answer here. Thereupon Richard de Harwes, minor canon of St Paul's London comes and claims him as a clerk by to him his authority for claiming clergy; so that it may be it known for what he is to be handed over, let the truth be ascertained by the mayor and aldermen; they say in the faith in which they are bound to the king that he is guilty of death, so as such let him be handed over to the bishop. Thereupon it is testified that he had previously been arrested for the death and released on bail to William de Kent mercer, William de Laufar espicer [et al] to have him here on the first day and they did not have him. So they are all in mercy. Because Arnulf was harboured in the priory from the time when he killed Richard until the present and the prior and convent knew it well, to judgement on the prior for the harbouring.

- 613 Amercements, 1260–61: Pauper de Matheo de Pontefracto 100s because he did not have Arnulf monk of Bermund which he had arrested. (Paid 1278–82)
- 615 Breve de respectu De priore de Bermundesey pro receptamento Arnulphi monachi sui qui interfecit Richardum Borham £10. Writ attached, granting to the prior respite until the next parliament at Michaelmas.
- 299 Of churches they say (among other things) that the church of St Magnus the Martyr is worth £15 pa and Mr Geoffrey de la Wade holds it by grant of the prior of Bermundeseie and the abbot of Westminster to whom King Henry conferred the advowson by his charter [Cal Patent Rolls 1232–47, 82; 21 November 1234] as appears in the roll of the penultimate eyre.

REGISTRUM JOHANNIS DE PONTISSARA, 1282–1304, ed C Deedes (Canterbury & York Society, 19 (1915) and 30 (1924))

xxiv Priory claimed that by reason of papal privilege it was not obliged to pay an annual procuration to the bishop. Finally agreed that each new bishop should have a procuration of 5m on his first entry into office and thereafter 2½m a year. No further claims were to be made or allowed.

The manor of B was liable to occasional inundation, which very seriously impoverished the community. It is very likely that a papal indult for the appropriation of a benefice to a monastery which had recently suffered from inundation, the names for some reason being suppressed, was in favour of B. The bishop ratified this on 1 April 1292. In 1300 a grievous flood had turned the formerly prosperous condition of their monastery into one of extreme distress, threatening absolute ruin, and the bishop accordingly assigned to them the rectorial tithes of Chelsham and its chapel, of which they were already patrons.

10 29 November 1283: Admission of John son of Thomas de Widihull as rector of Warlingham with the chapel of Chelsham.

49 30 November 1292: custody of the rectory of SMMB entrusted to John de Ecclesia pending his immediate ordination

96 18 April 1300: appropriation of the church of Chelsham to prior of B

107 22 May 1301: Collation of Roger de Hertford to the vicarage of Camberwell, which for this turn was in the bishop's gift, the prior and convent of B, the true patrons, having presented an unsuitable man and being themselves under sentence of excommunication.

116 24 September 1301: bishop revokes the collation lately made in the Roman Court of Roger de Hertford to the vicarage of Camberwell at the instance of the patron of that vicarage, the prior of B.

- 117 26 September 1301: admission of Roger de Hertford to the vicarage of Camberwell
- 437 October 1276: composition made between Nicholas of Ely, bishop of Winchester and the prior and convent of Bermondsey concerning procurations.
- 592 Second copy of same.

Because in the aforesaid sum an allowance must be made for the flooding of the Thames of lands of the prior's whereon he is charged with the tenth.
- 954 6 March 1309: 6s raised from the goods of the parson of Ruthercherche and sent by bearer. The rectors of Codintone, Chalvetone, Wodetone and Okham have paid their money and hold acquittances. The rector of Camberwell, viz the prior of B, and the same prior for the pension of Beddington and also for the pension of the portions of Beddington, also the rectors of Fecham and Okkele, resist us and our servants as before, and we have therefore excommunicated them.

In the yeare 1122. the 22. of Henrie the first, Thomas Arden gaue to the Monkes of Bermondsey, the Church of S. George in Southwarke: and fiue shillings rent by the yeare, out of the land pertayning to London bridge

i.73

The third Schoole [after St Paul's and Westminster], seemeth to haue beene in the Monasterie of S. Sauour at Bermondsey in Southwarke: for the other Priories, as of Saint Iohn by Smithfield, Saint Bartholomew in Smithfield, S. Marie Ouerie in Southwarke, and that of the Holie Trinitie by Aldgate, were all of later foundation, and the Friaries, Colledges, and Hospitals in this Citie, were rayased since them in the raignes of Henry the 3. Edward the 1.2. and 3. &c. All which houses had their schooles, though not as famous as these first named.

ii.6

[Charter of William of Ypres to Holy Trinity, granting the farm of Queenhithe] that they shall send euery yeare twentie pound vnto the maintenance of the Hospital of St Katherens, which hospitall they haue in their hands, and 100. shillings to the monks of Bermondsey, & 60s to the brethren of the hospitall of saint Giles, and that which remayneth, the said Prior and Canons shall enioy to themselues: Witnesses Richard de Lucie, Raph Picot, &c.

Then haue ye from the entering towards the said Horsedown one other continuall streete called Bermondes eye streete, which stretcheth south, likewise furnished with buildinges on both sides, almost halfe a mile in length, vp to the late dissolued Monasterie of S. Sauour called Bermondsey. And from thence is one long lane (so called of the length) turning west to saint Georges church afore named. Out of the which lane mentioned, Long lane, breaketh one other streete for that it is the way leading into that countrie: and so haue you the bounds of this Borough.

The antiquities most notable in this Borough are these: first for ecclesiasticall, there was Bermondseye, an Abbey of Blacke Monkes...[churches include] saint Mary Magdalen by the Abbey of Bermondsey.

Next is the Bishoppe of Winchesters house, or lodging when hee commeth to this Cittie: which house was first builded by William Gifford Bishoppe of Winchester, aboute the yeare 1107. the seuenth of Henry the first, vpon a plot of ground pertayning to the Prior of Bermondsey, as appeareth by a writ directed vnto the Prior of Bermondsey, as appeareth by a writ directed vnto the Barons of the Exchequer, in the yeare 1366. the 41 of Edward the 3. (the Bishops sea being voyde) for 8.l due to the Monks of Bermondsey, for the Bishop of Winchester's lodging in Southwarke. This is a very fayre house wel repayred, and hath a large Wharfe, and landing place called the Bishop of Winchester's staires.

ii.60

Ouer against this Suffolke place, is the parrish church of S. George, sometime pertayning to the Priorie of Barmondsey, by the gift of Thomas Arderne and Thomas his sonne, in the yeare 1122.

ii.63

And then Theeues lane by S. Thomas Hospitall: the hospitall of Saint Thomas, first founded by Richard Prior of Bermondsey, in the selerers ground agaynst the wall of the Monasterie, in the yeare 1213. He named it the Almerie, or house of the Almes for conuarts and poore children, for the which ground the Prior ordained that the Almoner should pay ten shillings foure pence yearly to the Selerer at Michaelmas.

But Peter de Rupibus, Bishop of Winchester, in the yeare 1215 founded the same againe more fully for Canons Regular, in place of the first hospitall: he increased the rent thereof to three hundred fortie foure pound by the yeare: thus was this Hospitall holden of the Prior and Abbot of Bermondsey, till the yeare 1428, at which time a composition was made between Thomas Thetford, Abbot of Bermondsey, and Nicholas Buckland, master of the sayde Hospitall of Saint Thomas, for all the landes and Tenements which were holden of the sayde Abbot and Couent in Southwarke, or elsewhere, for the olde Rent to bee payd vnto the said Abbot.

Beyond this [Battaile] bridge is Bermondsey street, turning South, in the South end whereof was sometime a priory, or Abbey, of saint Sauior, called Bermonds Eye in Suthwarke, founded by Alwin Childe, a Citizen of London, in the yeare 1081.

[details of early arrangements, benefactions, including:]

In the yeare 1094. deceased Alwin Childe founder of this house. Then William Rufus gaue to the Monkes his manor of Bermondsey, with the appurtenances, and builded for them there a great new Church...

(67) In the yeare 1165. King Henry the second confirmed to them the hyde or territory of Southwarke, & Laygham Wadden, with the land of Coleman, &c.

In the yeare 1371. the Prior^{<ie>} of Aliens throughout England being seized into the kings hands, Richard Denton, an English man, was made Prior of Bermondsey: to whome was committed the custody of the said Priory, by the letters patents of king Edward the third, sauving to the king the aduowsons of Churches.

In the yeare 1380. the fourth of Richard the second, this priory was made a Denison (or free English) for the fine of 200. Markes, paid to the Kings Hanaper in the Chauncery. In the yeare 1399. Iohn Attelborough Prior of Bermondsey was made the first Abbot of that house by Pope Boniface the ninth, at the sute of king Richard the second.

In the yeare 1417. Thomas Thetford Abbot of Bermondsey, held a Plea in Chauncery against the king, for the Mannors of Preston, Bermondsey, and Stone, in the county of Summerset, in the which sute the Abbot preuailed and recouered against the king.

In the yeare 1539. this Abbey was valued to dispend by the yeare, foure hundred seuentie foure pound, fourteen shillings foure pence halfe penny, and was surrendered to Henry the eight, the 31. of this raigne: the Abbey church was then pulled downe by sir Thomas Pope knight, and in place thereof, a goodly house builded of stone and timber, now pertayning to the Earles of Sussex.

There are buried in that church Leofstane, Prouost, shriue or Domes man of London 1115. Sir William Bowes knight, and Dame Elizabeth his wife. Sir Tho. Pikeworth knight, Dame Anne Audley: George sonne to Iohn Lord Audley, Io Winkefield Esquier. Sir Nicholas Blonket knight, Dame Bridget wife to William Trussell, Holgraue Baron of the Exchequer, &c.

Next vnto this Abbey church, standeth a proper Church of saint Mary Magdalen, builded by the priors of Bermondsey, (68) seruing for resort of the inhabitants, (tenants to the prior or Abbots neare adioyning) there to haue their diuine seruice: this Church remayneth and serueth as afore, and is called a parish church....

But in the yeare 1550. King Edward the 6. for the summe of 647. pound two shillings and one penny, payd into his Court of Augmentations, and reuenewes of his Crowne, granted to the Mayor and Comminalty, all his lands and tenements in Southwarke, except and reserued the capitall Messuage, two mansions called Southwarke place, late the Duke of Suffolkes, and all the gardens and lands to the same appertaining: the Parke and the Messuage called the Antilope. Moreouer he gaue them the Lordship and Mannor of Southwarke, with all members & rights thereof, late pertayning to the Monastery of Bermondsey...

- 5 Order had 35 subordinate houses in England, and three affiliated in Scotland. Barnstaple the first established. The Vicar-General in every instance was the prior of St Pancras of Lewes, notwithstanding the Cluniac abbeys of Bermondsey and Paisley.
- 13 (1262 Visitation) 'cell of Bermondsey'... having ascertained the exact truth as to the observance of the convent's statutes and rule, the result of such enquiry showed that all devotional offices and rites were most properly and becomingly (14) performed; that silence, the correction of what is amiss or required reform rigidly obeyed, and that almsgiving and hospitality are there carried out according to established customs. The indebtedness of the house amounts to 266m. There are 32 monks and one lay-brother.
- 16 (1275) 29 December made visitation of the cell of B, where there are 20 monks. House is burdened with debt to the extent of 1000m silver owing to different creditors. In addition to this it pays an annuity of £100 to one of the king's chaplains in perpetuity, viz to himself, his successors; irrespective also of five estates alienated by one of its priors: Towic (?Todwick, Yorks), Habingeburi (Hallingby, Herts); Wideford (Widford, Essex, Herts), Richemunt (Surrey), Benenio (? Bennington, Herts). The visitors on the part of la Charité have already made their visitation of it before we came, and had corrected everything that was to be amended.
- 20–22 (1279) by the priors of Mont-Didier (Amiens) and Lenton (Notts). On 29 July arrived at B in which cell, as a rule, there ought to be 32 brethren but at this time not more than 18. Asked the prior and convent why the number had diminished; prior said they were overwhelmed with debt and so by orders of diocesan and wish of abbot some the monks had withdrawn. 'Original' debt of house was 1700m; now 2300m. Prior told that in view of fewer monks should have diminished debt not increased it. Convent admitted it receives 100m plus pa from official receivers and rent collectors from properties, done with a view to reducing the debt; 'a thing never heard of before'. So they had received 400m and almost another 100m (21) and prior had sold property called Ompton (Hampton?), which the purchaser was to hold in fee, and for this he received upwards of 500m. Prior John also received 700m from Adam de Straton for a wood called Chavor, and something 'underhand or not straightforward' about this. Also received 600m for sale of other woods, and £8 for sale of rents, property at Richmond worth 600m, and he purchased a property called Bearmont (? Beaumont, Essex), which he afterwards sold for 500m.

The brethren live correctly and in accordance with the rule of the order, and their sacred and devotional offices are becomingly performed. The necessities for subsistence of the fraternity, in grain and stock, were sufficient until the time of the next harvest.

Prior, after assuming temporalities in succession to his predecessor Gilbert appears to have administered the convent's affairs and its property badly enough, taking over the house at that time with a debt of 300m to 400m, but subsequent to the time of Prior Henry, things went from bad to worse; he augmented the pecuniary obligations of the convent by 2300m on his own showing and admission (22). The state of this house is simply deplorable. Whatever the said Prior John might say, or promise, there are four properties or manors entirely made over to this same Adam de Straton, and he is only under obligation to reduce the convent's debt by 1500m.

- 29–30 Re Wenlock (25 August) complaints about difficulties in getting the truth about debts out of English monks. Greater loss and complications will arise at Wenlock and Bermondsey if the present prior (apparently of Wenlock) remains at his post. He sells and alienates what he can. In an underhand way is manoeuvring to get himself elected to Rochester and make himself independent of Cluny.

St James of Derby, a cell subordinate to Bermondsey. Prior and two monks. Prior good and exemplary, and one of his colleagues chaste and honest, but not the other one, whom we have expelled and sent to do penance at B, and another substituted in his place. When the prior first came the debt was 40s and is now (31) £4 10s because the house had no assets of its own. On the point of getting in the harvest, which will support him till next season. The conventual buildings are sufficiently good, but the roof of the church is in bad repair, and we have told him to get a new roof on it.

- 39 (Collation of undated references to visitations in the period 1298–1405)

At Bermondsey the number of monks should not be less than 24. Five masses are celebrated daily, as set forth in the table of lessons; three of them with chant and two said, though in former times there were six. Hospitality, almsgiving, silence, and all other monastic obligations and duties, as enjoined by the rule, are well observed.
