INDEX.

Beads, of glass, found in Hampshire, 89; in tumuli in Somerset, 149; in the Scilly Isles, 356.

Beck, Rev. J., exhibits stamped leather hangings, 91; letter padlock, ancient keys, glass bottle, &c.; jeweled morse from Hereford Cathedral, 182; stone celts from Ireland, 124; gold torc ring from Hayling Island, 194; specimens of iron-work, 356.

Belle, of Scotch and Irish Saints highly venerated, 42; of St. Pillan, 52; of St. Govan in Pembrokeshire, 361.

Berlin, notices of Museums and works of art at, 238, 241.

Bingham, Rev. C. W., communicates notices of Roman remains found at Dorchester, 82, 183; of a gold brooch found at Sydling, 181; inventory of effects of Robert Bingham, 211.

Boat, ancient found in the River Avon, 97.

Bolney, Sussex, notices of the church at, 94.

Bosbury, Herefordshire, sepulchral slabs at, 84; remarkable tombs of the sixteenth century there, 86.

Brackstone, Mr., exhibits a dish of English Delft-ware, 91; a portion of one of the Coway stakes, 202; a talismanic stone from Ireland, 203; a celt found on Haldon, near Exeter, 211; a metal vase, 212.

Brasses, Sepulchral:--in Wiltshire, proposed publication of, by Mr. Kite, 91, 207: palimpsest at Echingham, 104: brass at Ringsted in Denmark, 138: in Belgium, 174, 195, 210; at Adderbury, Oxfordshire, 182: proposed publication on examples in Denmark, &c., by Mr. Weale, 394.

Braybrooke, the Lord, exhibits a brass key found in Essex, 202; notices of his excavations at Chesterford, 297; exhibits a Samian bowl, 302; Roman and other rings, 358.

British Museum, see Museum.

Bronze, ancient fabrication of, 15; ingot from Livonia in the British Museum, 39; statuettes and other relics found at Wroxeter, 68; armlet found in Yorkshire, 83; capsule or arm-purse found in Northumberland, 84; arrow-head in a tumulus in Somerset, 151; various relics found in Norfolk and Suffolk, 180.

Brooch, of gold, found at Sydling, Dorset, 181; near Kimbolton, in possession of the Duke of Manchester, ib.

Bruce, Rev. Dr. J. C., exhibits a bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Birdoswald, 84.

Bullinger, silver cup given to him by Queen Elizabeth, 164.

Burges, Mr., his notices of mural paintings at Charlwood, Surrey, 89; exhibits Italian hangings of leather, 178; mediaeval iron-work, 182.

Burgh-on-the-Sands, Cumberland, notice of the fortified church at, 319.

Burningham, Bev. T., communicates discovery of mural paintings at Charlwood, Surrey, 89; Roman mosaic and remains at Crondall, Hants, 298.

Cætraps, found in a castle in Switzerland, 212.

Calvert, Mr., his memoir on a tumulus in the Troad, 1.

Cambridge, proposed formation of an Historical Society at, 306.

CAMP, on the Wrekin, Shropshire, 56.

Campion, Mr., portrait of Edward Honing, exhibited by, 211.

Cardinals' Rings, notice of by Mr. Waterston, 280.

Carlisle, annual meeting of the Institute held there, 208, 264; memoir on the Parliaments held there, 236; architectural notices of the Castle, 334; of the Cathedral, 372.

Carrington, Mr., his notices of popular customs in Monmouthshire, 88.

Cassiterides, tin obtained from the, 10.

Catton, Rev. R. B., exhibits a carving in graphite from Melbourne, 213.

Celts, remarks on their manufacture, 16; of flint, in Rev. Greville J. Chester's collection, 180; of stone found in Ireland, 194; found on Haldon, near Exeter, 211.

Censer, of brass, found at Corwen, 205.

Charlwood, Surrey, mural paintings found at, 89.

CHESHIRE:—pig of lead at Eaton Hall, 27; pigs described by Camden as found near Runcorn, 28; pig found in Chester, 31; wooden bowls from Delamere House, 304.

Chester, Rev. Greville J., exhibits antiquities found in Suffolk, &c., 180.

Chessmen, of silver, exhibited by Mr. Tite, 90; of ivory at Copenhagen, 143.

Clayton, Mr. W., communicates the discovery of Roman urns at Dover, 297.

Clibborn, Mr., communicates an intaglio found in Ireland, 203.

Cluny, Musée de, at Paris, gold crowns of the Gothic race there, 253.

Crodington, Rev. R. H., his account of Roeskilde Cathedral, 135.

CORNs:—Roman, found near Coleraine, 40; found at Wroxeter, 60, 271; coin-moulds found there, 62, 273; aureus of Tiberius found there, 69; called Dindens there, ib.; found at Charterhouse, Somerset, 163; of Trajan, found at Savery's Weir, near Staines, 179; Cufic and Saxon, found at Goldsborough, Yorkshire, 187; Roman found near Rathfarnham, Ireland, 204.

Copenhagen, the cross of the Bishops of Roeskilde preserved there, 187; notices of Art Collections there, 139; of historical and antiquarian Museums, 140; the cross of the Princess Gunhilde, ib.; carvings in ivory, MSS., &c., there, 145; portion of the Brehon Laws in a MS. there, 250; Irish Poetry there, 251.

Copper, rarely if ever found pure with early remains, 15; cast of, found in Northumberland, ib. note.

Cork, Rev. T., exhibits a document regarding lands in Cumberland, 362.

CORNWALL:—block of tin found near Penzance, 38; block of tin in the Truro Museum, 39; proposed publication of the Domesday of, 216.

Cory, Mr. J. A., his account of fortified churches in Cumberland, 315.

Costume, military, examples of ailettes, 175; curious figure at Königsfelden, 339; shoes of the Princess Hildegard, 353.

Coway Stakes, Middlesex, notices of, 202.

Crania, remarkable, found at Wroxeter, 273.

Cremation, remarks on burial by, 154.

Cromwell, Hants, Roman mosaic at, 298.

Crosier, of St. Fillan, 41; of St. Moloc, 46, 49; various types of in Ireland, 50; of the bishops of Roeskilde, 187; in the Copenhagen Museum, 143.

Cross patee, attributed to the Templars, 265, 267.

Cross, of Gunhilde at Copenhagen, 140; of brass, found at Llanaber, Merionethshire, 304.

Cross-slab, sepulchral, at Bosbury, Herefordshire, 84; at Loon, 85, 304; at Great Salkefield, Cumberland, 328.

CUMBERLAND:—Memoir on the Early History of, by Mr. Hodgson Hinde, INDEX.

217: account of fortified churches by Mr. Cory, 318; memoir on the Parliament of Carlisle, 326; notices of Carlisle Castle, 334; document regarding lands near Wigton, 362; notices of Carlisle Cathedral, 372; Proceedings at the Annual Meeting of the Institute at Carlisle, 384.

Dax, in France, its Roman Walls threatened with destruction, 188.

Deane, Rev. J. B., exhibits drawings of an effigy in Devon, 182.

Derbyshire:—Ancient lead works at Wirksworth, &c., 20; pig of lead found at Matlock, 25; at Cromford, 31; at Castleton, 36; uninscribed, found near Wirksworth and Darley, 37.

Devonshire:—Sepulchral effigy of a lady at Harwood, 182; stone celt found on Haldon, 211.

Dorchester, Roman remains found at the Castle, 82, 183.

Dorsetsire:—Mosaic found at Dorchester Castle, 82, 183; gold brooch at Sydling, 181; mosaic at Frampton, 186; interment, pottery, &c., at Wyke, 201; proposed new edition of Hutchins' County History, 216; notices of relics of Kimmeridge coal, 290.

Dovern, Roman urns found there, 297.

Dusseldorf, notice of Art Collections there, 244.

Eagle stone, exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 203.

Effigy, sepulchral, of a lady at Harwood. Devon, 182; incised tomb of a bishop at Lund, in Sweden, 238; tombs of Otho and Editha at Magdeburg, 242; of Henry the Lion, and Matilda, sister of Richard Cœur de Lion, 181; of Thomas de Caldebeck, at Great Salke, 324 note.

Elizabeth, Queen, presents a silver cup to Bullinger, 164.

Enameled:—exhibited by Mr. Webb, 90; armorial roundels on silver cups at Zurich, 164; by Penicand, in Mr. Webb's possession, 207; casket exhibited by Mr. Jones of Clytha, 164.

Essex:—brass key found at Hempstead, 202; Samian bowl found at Chesterford, 302; Roman and other rings found there, 388.

Ewers, of pottery in forms of animals, 103.

Evans, Mr., exhibits a pyx, ivory casket, and a Venetian mirror, 90; medieval iron work, 304.

Faulkner, Mr. C., his notices of a sepulchral brass at Adderbury, 182; of an effigy and mural painting at Deddington, 164; exhibits the seal of John Blaket, 183; a misericorde found at Deddington, 356.

Farringdon, Miss, exhibits gold and silver rings, found in Lancashire and elsewhere, 302.

Fibula, enamelled, found at Lincoln, 209.

Fillan, St., his crosier now in Canada, 41; veneration towards his relics, 48, 51; his bell, 52.

Flint, arrow-head found in Somerset, 151; flakes or knives found in France presented by Mrs. Kerr, 179.

Frampton, Dorset, Roman mosaic there, 186.

France, antiquities found in, presented to the Institute by Mrs. Kerr, 179; threatened destruction of the Roman walls of Dax, 188; sepulchral slabs at Laon, 85, 301; gold Gothic Crowns at the Hotel de Cluny, 253.

Franks, Mr., exhibits a gold brooch belonging to the Duke of Manchester, 181; his account of a gold armlet found near Kertch, 181, 354; exhibits a salver of Venetian glass, 195; a watch made by Edward Bysse, 195; his account of one of the Coway stakes in the British Museum, 203.

Freeman, Mr., remarks on Llanaber church by, 204.

Fromond, John, his will, 166; letter of William of Wykeham appointing him his bailiff, 164.

Gild merchant at Southampton, ordinances of, 283, 343.

Glass, used in Roman times for windows, found at Wroxeter, 209.

Glass, vessels of, found in tombs in the Troad by Mr. Calvert; in a Roman tomb near Chichester, 101; fragment of rich blue glass from Lausanne, 179; Roman, found at Lincoln, 208.

Glass, beads of, found in Hampshire, 89; in a barrow in Somerset, 149; beads and bugles found in the Scilly Isles, 356.

Glass, medieval, Venetian salver, 195; singular bottle, exhibited by the Rev. J. Beck, 91.
Glass, painted, at Konigsfelden, in Switzerland, 340; heraldic, with a collar of SS., in a church near Thun, 355.
Gloucester, proposed meeting of the Institute there, 391, 393.
Godfrey, Sir Edmund, medals relating to his murder, 91, 175; portraits of him, 178.
Gold, found in South Wales in Roman times, 17; torc ring found near Elgin, 209; armlet found at Kertch, 354; penannular torc ring, found in Hayling Island, 194; other examples in Essex, Ireland, &c., 358.
Goldsborough, Yorkshire, Saxon and Cufic coins found there, 197.
Goths, crown of Reccesvinthus, king of the, found with other crowns near Toledo, 253.
Graphite, carved human head of, found at Melbourne, 213.
Grey, Lady Jane, seal attributed to her, 196.
Guest, Dr., his Memoir on the Boundaries between the Welsh and English races in Somerset, 105.
Gunner, Rev. W., communicates the Will of John Fromond, 166.
Hampshire: — pig of lead found near Stockbridge, 26; glass bead found near Twyford, 89; gold torc ring found at Hayling Island, 194; mosaic pavement at Crondall, 298; ring found at Exton, 362; County History, by Mr. Woodward, noticed, 393.
Hamburgh, MSS. in the library there, 132.
Hanai Tepeh, in the Troad, account of a tumulus there by Mr. Calvert, 1.
Hartshorne, Rev. C. H., his Memoir on the Parliaments held at Carlisle, 326; his account of Carlisle Castle, 334.
Hawkins, Mr., exhibits medals of Sir Edmund Godfrey, 175; his remarks on Treasure Trove, 197; on Cufic and Anglo-Saxon coins found with Saxon relics, 198.
Hawkins, Mr. Robie, exhibits the chapter seal of Udina, 91; a casket of damascened work, 182.
Head, Sir Edmund, Bart., communicates photographs of the Crossier of St. Fillan now in Canada, 44.
Heraldry, observations on the arms of the Earls of Eu, 96; proposed publication of a roll of arms at Zurich, 104, 212; escutcheons of arms of Bishop Horn and Bishop Jewel on plate at Zurich, 165.
Hertfordshire:— sepulchral slabs and tombs at Bosbury, 84; jeweled ornamen found in Hereford Cathedral, 182.
Hewitt, Mr., his remarks on doddaines or bolt-heads, 212; on a remarkable flint-lock birding-piece, 355.
Hinde, Mr. J. Hodgson, his Memoir on the Early History of Cumberland, 217; takes part in the Annual Meeting at Carlisle, 369, 392.
Honning family, portraits of the, 211.
Horn, Bishop, presents a silver cup now preserved at Zurich, 163.
Horn, Rev. G. H., exhibits a glass paste representing Sk. Demetrius, 90.
Horne, Dr., librarian at Zurich, 165.
Hospitellers, seals of the, 357.
Howlett, Mr., exhibits photographs of views and buildings in China, 804.
Huntingdonshire:—gold brooch found near Kimbolton, 181.
Hut-circles, in Somerset, ancient dwellings described by Mr. W. Long, 157.
Innes, Mr. C., his notices of St. Govan's cave and relics, 198, 361.
Inscriptions, Roman, found at Wroxeter, 62, 66, 277; found at Bath, 85; proposed publication on those found near the Roman Wall, 371, 387.
Ireland:—silver ingots and Roman coins found near Coleraine, 40; reliquary of Irish character at Copenhagen, 143; stone celts found in Ireland, 194; talismanic or eagle stone exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 203; engraved gem found near Rathfarnham, 203; Roman coins found there, 1b.; Irish MS. of part of the Brehon laws, and of Irish poetry at Copenhagen, 250.
Iron, singular pigs or blocks of, found in Switzerland, 200.
Ivory Carvings: hunting-horn, dagger-hilt, &c., exhibited by Mr. Webb, 90; pyx, casket and mirror-case exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 203; at Hamburgh, 138; cross of the Princess Gunhilde at Copenhagen, 140; chasmsen and other objects there, 143; pin found in a tumulus in Somerset, 153; carved objects at Berlin, 238; consular dip tych there, 240; at Brunswick, 242; at Hanover, 243; at Xanten, 244; at Arnheim and the Hague, 258; mirror-case and hunting-horn, 260.
Johnson, Dr., his reports on Excavations at Wroxeter, 174, 211, 302.
Jones, Mr., of Clythia, enamelled casket exhibited by, 207.
Keller, Dr., his account of silver cups at Zurich, 158; of iron pigs or blocks found in Switzerland, 203; of painted...
INDEX.

399

glass at Konigsfelden, 339; of shoes of the princess Hildegard at Zurich, 339.

Kerr:—Transactions of the Archaeological Society of, 216; Roman urns found at Dover, 297.

Kerr, Mrs. Alexander, presents antiquities to the Institute, 179.

Kertch, gold armlet found there, 181, 351.

Kimmeridge coal, notices of, 299; vessels, &c. of, 302.

Kite, Mr., exhibits specimens of his proposed publication on the Sepulchral brasses of Wiltshire, 91, 207.

Konigsfelden, Switzerland, painted glass there, 339.

Laing, Mr. D., exhibits a portrait of Roger Honing, 211.

Lancashire:—Roman ring found near Leyland, 362; gold ring found in Cuerdale, ib.

Lawrie, Mr., exhibits the guard of a weapon found in Norfolk, 303.

Le Keux, Mr., exhibits copies of initial letters from a MS. at Florence, 207.

Lead, ancient workings for, in Spain, Gaul, and Britain, 16; Roman pigs of, found in Shropshire, &c., 17; worked in Derbyshire in Saxon times, 29; list of inscribed Roman pigs found in England and Scotland, 22—40; cake of, found in the Thames, 38; pigs of, found on the continent; 40; lead mines on the Mendip Hills, 111; objects of, found at Wroxeter, 269.

Leather, stamped hangings of, exhibited by Rev. J. Beck, 91; by Mr. Burges, 178; notices of other examples, ib.

Long, Mr. W., his remarks on Entrance-ments and interments on Walton Down, Somerset, 157.

Long, Mr. H. L., exhibits pottery from Wagden Common, Surrey, 179; fragments of rich blue Roman glass, and of fictile ware, from Lausanne, 179.

Museum, British, Roman pigs of lead there preserved, 24, 26, 28; ingot of bronze from Livonia, 39; pig of lead from Spain, 40; bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Hoddam, 84; gold armlet found at Kertch, 181, 354; one of the Coway stakes, 203.

Museums, at Copenhagen, 140; Hanover, 203; Berlin, 240.

Morgan, Mr. O., his remarks on gilt leather hangings, 178; on a quadrant belonging to Mr. Greville Chester, 180; on a Sutton's quadrant, 181; exhibits a papal ring, &c.; enameled casket with bacchanalian subjects, 207; pewter vessels made at Nuremberg, 212; a pitched wooden tankard, ib.; ecclesiastical rings, 362.

Museum, British, Roman pigs of lead there preserved, 24, 26, 28; ingot of bronze from Livonia, 39; pig of lead from Spain, 40; bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Hoddam, 84; gold armlet found at Kertch, 181, 354; one of the Coway stakes, 203.

Museums, at Copenhagen, 140; Hanover, 203; Berlin, 240.

Narval ivory, sculptured tablet of, at Copenhagen, 142.

Nesbitt, Mr., his account of slabs and monuments in Bosbury church, 84, 86; of slabs at Laon, 304; exhibits damascened metal work, 361; an ewer with Arabic inscriptions, 362.

Newton, Mr., proposed publication of his discoveries in Asia Minor, 305; his discourses at the Carlisle meeting on the Mausoleum and his various researches, 376, 380.
INDEX.

Niebois, Mr. J. B., exhibits portraits of the Honing family, 211.

Niello, medallions enriched with, exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 90; Italian rings ornamented with, in Mr. Waterton’s collection, 316.

Norfolk.—Roman pigs of lead found at Saham, 37; antiquities from Reedham, &c., exhibited by the Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180; guard of a sword or dagger found at Downham Market, 303.

Northumberland, the Duke of, gold posy.

Northumberland.—singular bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Birdswood, 84; gold ring found at Corbridge, 308, 317; Survey of the Eastern Walling Street or Devil’s Causeway, 368.

Nottinghamshire:—Roman pig of lead found near Mansfield, 36.

Oxfordshire:—sepulchral brass at Adderbury, 182; effigy and mural painting at Deddington, ib.; misericorde found at Deddington, 306.

Paintings, mural, in Charlwood church, 89; in Roehilke Cathedral, 134; in Deddington church, 182.

Palstave, bronze, at Shrewsbury, 68.

Parkhurst, Bishop, silver cup presented by him at Zurich, 168.

Parliaments of Carlisle, memoir on the, by the Rev. C. H. Hartshorne, 326.

Peterborough Cathedral, painted glass formerly there, representing a knight Templar, 88.

Phillips, Professor, memoir by, on Ancient Metallurgy, 7.

Pigs, of lead, Roman, found in Britain, 17, 19; inventory of such relics, 22; pig found near Bladon, Somerset, 23; at Matlock, 25; Pulborough, Sussex, 26; near Stockbridge, Hunts, ib.; near Chester, now preserved at Eaton Hall, 57; at Hints, Staffordshire, now in the British Museum, 28; twenty, found on the coast of Cheshire, as stated by Camden, ib.; pigs found on Hayshaw Moor, Yorkshire, 29, 30; pig found in Chester, 31; near Matlock, now in the British Museum, ib.; at Shelve Hill, Shropshire, 32; at Shrewsbury, 38; at Sned, Shropshire, 34; at Bath, ib.; at Bruton, Somerset, ib.; at Matlock Moor, 35; in Hexgrave Park, Nottinghamshire, 36; at Castleton, ib.; in Perthshire, ib.; in Dumbartonshire, 37; at Saham, Norfolk, ib.; in Derbyshire, possibly not Roman, ib.; at Flint, 38; pigs found in France and Spain, 40.

Pigs of tin, found in Cornwall, 39.

Pigs, or masses of iron, found in Switzerland, 40.

Pigou, Mrs. H. C., her account of an interment found at Wyke, Dorset, 201.

Plate, specimens of; silver cups at Zurich, 168; cup presented by Queen Elizabeth to Bullinger, 164; tankard presented by Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, preserved at Sudbury, 178.

Pliny, his statements regarding metals and metallurgy, 7.

Portraits of Sir Edmondbury Godfrey, 178; of Queen Mary I. and Philip of Spain, 306.

Portsmouth, discoveries in dredging there, 199.

Posy Rings, Memoir on, by Mr. Waterton, 307.

Pottery:—Sepulchral jars found in the Troad, 2; Roman, found near Chester, 101; medieval ewers in form of animals, 105; cup with knobs on its surface, found in a tumulus in Somerset, 149; numerous fragments found on Wadgen Common, Surrey, 179; Roman, found at Dorchester, 185; Roman and Medieval found in the silt of Portsmouth Harbour, 199; curious cup found with an interment at Wyke, Dorset, 201; Roman, found at Wroxeter, 270; Roman, found at Dover, 297; Samian bowl found at Chesterford, 302; Italian Majolica painted with portraits and mottoes, 315.

Publications noticed:—Sussex Archæological collections, vol. x., 93; proposed Cornish Dictionary, by Rev. R. Williams, 104; ancient Roll of Arms at Zurich, ib., 212; Roman London, by Mr. C. Roach Smith, 215; Sepulchral Antiquities in France, by the Abbe Cochet, ib.; the Domesday of Cornwall, by the Rev. F. C. Hinges ton, 216; Description of Ancient Seals at St. Omer, ib.; proposed new edition of Hutchins’s History of Dorset, ib.; Transactions of the Kentish Archæological Society, ib.; Mr. Newton’s Discoveries in Asia Minor, 305; Mr. Woodward’s Archæological Maps, ib.; Guide to the Ruins of Wroxeter, by Mr. T. Wright, 306; Memoir on the Romans in Gloucestershire, by INDEX.

Rev. S. Lysons, 393: Mr. Woodward's History of Hampshire, ib.; Scotland in the Middle Ages, by Mr. Cosmo Innes, 394; Sepulchral Brasses in Denmark, &c., by Mr. Weale, ib.

Purday, Mr., his observations on Carlisle Cathedral, 372.

Quadrant, in possession of Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180; a Sutton's quadrant exhibited, 181.

Quigrich, or crosier of St. Fillan, 41; privileges enjoyed by its custodian, 48.

Ready, Mr., exhibits a singular ovoid stone found at Athelney, 90; seals of the Hospitalers, 387.

Reccesvinthus, Ring of the Goths, his gold crown discovered near Toledo, 254; notices of him in Spanish Chronicles, 262.

Richard II., quadrant engraved with his badge of the hart lodged, 180.

Ring, of silver with monogram IHS., presented to the Institute by Mrs. Kerr, 179; various examples in the collection of the Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180; papal ring in Mr. Morgan's collection, 181; talismanic and other rings in the Rev. J. Beck's collection, 182; Rienzi's nuptial ring, 192; Etruscan, Roman, and other rings in Mr. Waterton's collection, 193; inscribed with the name Allistan, 194; the Darnley ring and others, ib.; gold torc ring found in Hayling Island, 194; account of Cardinals' rings, by Mr. Waterton, 280; various rings in his collection, 302; Saxon and other rings in Mr. Whincopp's collection, 302; Memoir on Posy Rings by Mr. Waterton, 307; Jewish nuptial rings, 314; various rings exhibited by Lord Braybrooke, 359; by Miss Farington, 362; by Mr. O. Morgan, ib.

Ringsted, Zealand, tombs of the Danish kings there, 138.

Roscilde, the cathedral built by an English bishop, the Rev. R. Codrington, 135; seal of the Cathedral, 135.

Roman Antiquities:—pigs of lead found in Britain, 29—57; copper cake found near Conway, 40; silver ingot found at the Tower of London, ib.; coins and ingots found in Ireland, ib.; relics found at Wroxeter, 63; 70; coin moulds, 62; inscriptions at Wroxeter and at Bath, 62, 66; mosaic floor and other remains at Dorchester, 188, 189; tomb with pottery and glass at Densworth, near Chichester, 101; mosaic pavement at Danny, Sussex, 104; station at the mouth of the River Axe, Somerset, 146; amphitheatre at Charterhouse, Somerset, 153; coin of Trajan, found at Savery's Weir, near Staines, 179; roofing tiles of stone, 185; mosaic pavement at Frampton, Dorset, 186; walls of Dux, in France, 188; pottery found in Portsmouth Harbour, 200; coins found at Rathfarnham, Ireland, 204; enamelled fibula, inscriptions, and other remains found at Lincoln, 208, 209; Illustrations of Roman London, by Mr. C. Roach Smith, 215; consular diptych at Berlin, 240; Christian sarcophagus at Leyden, 248; recent excavations at Wroxeter, 254; urns found at Dover, 297; mosaic pavement at Crondall, 298; potters and ambermerge coal-money, 300; Samian ware at Chesterford, 302; rings found in Lancashire, 362; rings found by Lord Braybrooke at Chesterford, 358; villa and mosaic floor found at Carisbrooke, 383.

Runic inscriptions: at Copenhagen, 145; on marble lions at the Arsenal, Venice, 185; at Lund, 238.

Russell, Mr. W., exhibits a portrait of Edward Horing, 211.

Russell, Rev. J. F., exhibits a painting by Hans Memling, 296.

SS. collar of, example found in Switzerland, 359.

St. Fillan, his crosier and bell, 41, 52.

St. Govan, his cave in Pembrokeshire, 198; his bell, 361.

Salisbury, tolls on merchandise brought there, 348.

Samian Ware, found at Chesterford, 302.

Scarth, Rev. H. M., his memoir on Wroxeter, 58; on tumuli on the Mendip Hills, 146; Report on recent discoveries at Wroxeter, 264.

Scilly Islands, glass beads and bugles found on their shores, 366.

Scotland:—pig of lead found in Perthshire, 36; in Dumbartonshire, 37; crosier of St. Fillan called Quigrich, 41; veneration of the relics of St. Fillan, 52; bronze capsule or arm-purse found at Hoddam, 84; bronze armlet found in co. Kirkcudbright, 194; proceedings regarding Treasure Trove, 196; gilt torques found near Elgin, 209; tumulus there, examined, 210; Gallery for the Museum of the Society of Antiquaries granted by Government, 306.

Scott, Hon. Mrs., exhibits a coin of Trajan found at Savery's Weir, Surrey, 179.
Sculptures, see Effigy, Ivory, &c.

Seals,—of iron, found at Wroxeter, 59; chapter seal of the Cathedral of Uzma, 91; seal of the Templars, 96; of William de Fezhalde, 97; of Roesschilde Cathedral, 138; of the Nunnery of St. Clare at Roesschilde, 140; of the commissary of the bishop of Winchester, 173; of John Blaket, 183; of stone attributed to Lady Jane Grey, 196; proposed publication on seals of St. Omer, 216; privy seal with an antique intaglio found near Fernham, 357; seals of the Hospital of Jerusalem, 1b.; signet with a crowned initial L, 365.

Sepulchral Antiquities:—account of the tumulus of Hanti Tepesh in the Trond, 1; interments found at Wroxeter, 62; tumuli now in the School Library there, 68.

Shropshire:—Roman pig of lead found at Snailbeach, 32; near Aston Farm, 33; at Snead, now in Mr. Mayer's Museum, 34; Memoir by Rev. H. M. Scarth on Wroxeter, 68; camp on the Wrekin, 56; Recent excavations at Wroxeter, 174, 215, 387.

Silchester, silver perfume-box found there, 182.

Skinner, Bev. J., his investigations of Slabs, with incised crosses, at Bosbury, 38; near Aston Farm, 33; at Snead, now in Mr. Mayer's Museum, 34; Memoir by Rev. H. M. Scarth on Wroxeter, 68; camp on the Wrekin, 56; Recent excavations at Wroxeter, 174, 215, 387.

Smi'ke, Mr. 15., communicates the Ordinances of the Gild Merchant there, 283, 343; tariff of tolls on merchandise at Salisbury, 343.

Smith, Mr. C. Roach, his notice of the Roman Walls of Dax, 188; his illustrations of Roman London, 215.

Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits a tilting helm, 182; cup-hilted rapier, brass stirrups, &c., 1b.; wooden bowls from Delamere House, 304; glass beads and bugles from the Seilly Islands, 356; processional axe of a Builders' Gild, 383.

Sneyd, Rev. W., exhibits miniature portraits of Queen Mary and Philip of Spain, 356; ivory sculpture, 1b.

Somersetshire:—Roman pig of lead found on the Mendip Hills, 23; pig mentioned by Camden, 1b.; pig found at Bath, 84; pig found at Bruton, formerly at Longleat, 1b.; singular ovoid stone found at Athelney, 90; account of tumuli on the Mendip, 146; investigations of tumuli there by the Rev. J. Skinner, 147; amphitheatre at Charterhouse, 153; remains on Walton Down, 157; stamped leather hangings at Dunster Castle, 178.

Southampton, Ordinances of the Gild Merchant there, 283, 343; oath of the Mayor, 206.

Spear of bronze, found in tumuli in Somerset, 149, 152.

Staffordshire:—Roman pig of lead found on Hints Common, 28.

Stone, antiquities of; ovoid stone found at Athelney, 90; &c. Arrow-head, and Celt.

Stuart, Mr., communicates documents regarding the Quirich or crosier of St. Fillan, 52.

Suffolk:—antiquities found in, exhibited by the Rev. Greville J. Chester, 180.

Surrey:—mural paintings found in Charlwood church, 85; coin of Trajan found at Savery's Weir, near Staines, 179; ancient pottery found in Wadgen Common, 1b.; privy seal with an intaglio found near Fernham, 357.

Sussex:—Roman pigs of lead found near Pulborough, 29; Archæological Collections, vol. x., noticed, 93; Anglo-Saxon features in Bolney church, 94; Sele Priory, 96; ancient boats found in the river Arun, 97; examples of Elizabethan Architecture, 98; Roman tomb found at Densworth near Chichester, 101; portrait of Edward Honing at Denny, 211.

Switzerland, silver cups, gifts of English bishops, at Zurich, 153; cup given by Queen Elizabeth to Bellinger, 164; fragments of Roman pottery and glass found near Lausanne, 179; pigs or blocks of iron, 200; caltraps and bolt-heads from the castle of Russikon, 212; painted glass at Konigsfelden, 339; shoes of the princess Hildegard at Zurich, 353; example of the collar of SS. in a church near Than, 359.

Talbot de Malahide, Lord, communicates the discovery of St. Fillan's crosier, now in Canada, 44; his appeal to the Duke of Cleveland regarding the excavations at Wroxeter, 279; his addresses at the Carlisle Meeting, 365, 367.

Talismame ring, 303.

Tariff of customs at Southampton, 343; of tolls on merchandise brought to Salisbury, 348.

Templars, the knights, cross slabs supposed to be their memorials, 85, 87.

Tessellated pavements, at Wroxeter, 61, 68; at Dorchester, 82, 183; at Frampton, 186; at Crondall, 298; at Carisbrooke, 388.

Thames, the river, cake of lead marked with a Christian monogram found in, 39.

Thurnam, Dr., his account of a bronze armlet found in Yorkshire, 83.

Tiles, tombs formed of in the Troad, 3; Roman, for roofing, formed of stone, 186; found at Wroxeter, 369.

Tin, notices of, by Pliny, 8, 10; produced in Britain, 38, 39; pigs of, found in Cornwall, &c.; objects of, found at Wroxeter, 269.

Tite, Mr., exhibits illuminated MSS., 90; silver chess-men, &c.

Toledo, gold crowns found there, now in the Hotel de Cluny, 253.

Treasure-trove, proceedings relating to, in Scotland, 196, 386.

Treasure, magical practices for its discovery, 72.

Troad, researches in the, by Mr. F. Calvert, 1.

Trollope, Mr. A., his account of Roman remains at Lincoln, 208; of an enamelled fibula and inscriptions lately discovered there, 209.

Tymms, Mr., exhibits a cast of a medalion relating to the Sacheverel party, 369.

Urioconium, account of, by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 53; excavations recently made there, 174, 211, 302, 376, 357; Report on the discoveries, by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 264.

Urns, see Pottery.

Utrecht, notice of objects in the Museum there, 244.

Vaux, Mr. W., his account of Saxon and Cufic coins found in Yorkshire and in Scandinavia, 197.

Venice, Runes inserted on the marble lions at the Arsenal there, 198.

Wales:—gold found in Roman times, 17; pig of lead found at Flint, 38; cake of copper found near Conway, 40; notices by Mr. Carrington of customs at baptisms, &c., 88; leather hangings at Caem Mably, 178; St. Govan's cave and bell in Pembroke shire, 198, 361; bronze cross found at Llanaber, 204; censer found at Corwen, &c.

Walford, Mr. W. S., his remarks on royal collars of ivory, 361.

Waller, Mr. J. G., exhibits sepulchral brasses from Belgium, 175, 183; from Ypres, 210.

Wansdike, notices of the, 109.

Waterton, Mr., exhibits the ring of Cola di Rienzi, 192; various other valuable rings, 193, 194, 302; his Memoir on Cardinal's Rings, 280; on Posy Rings, 307.

Way, Mr. Albert, his account of Roman and other pigs of lead, tin, &c., found in Great Britain, 22; his account of the Quiigrich or crosier of St. Fillan, 41; exhibits a quadrant made by Sutton, 181; his remarks on Runes inserted on marble lions at Venice, 188; exhibits a gold tore found near Elgin, 209; his account of portraits of the Honing family, 211; exhibits caltraps and bolt-heads found in Switzerland, 212; his account of the Gothic crowns found near Toledo, 253; of an example of military costume in painted glass at Konigsfelden, 359; of a collar of SS. given by Henry VI. to a Swiss knight, 359.

Webb, Mr. J., exhibits sculptures in ivory, enamels, &c., 90; a fine enamel by Penicaud, 207; specimen of Byzantine mosaic, &c. 358.

Webb, Mr. G. Bish, exhibits a silver perfume box found at Silchester, 182.

Weights, Roman, found at Wroxeter, 270.

Westwood, Mr., his observations on the style of Irish metal-work, 49; his Memoir on an Archæological Tour in the north of Europe, 132, 236.

Whinecup, Mr., exhibits various rings, 302.

Will of John Fromond at Winchester, 166.

Wiltshire:—proposed publication on Sepulchral Brasses in that County, by Mr. Kite, 91, 207; tariff of tolls on merchandise at Salisbury, 348.

Winchester, benefactions by John Fromond to the College there, 166.

Wright, Mr. T., his investigations at Wroxeter, 264; publication of his Guide to the Ruins there, 306.

Wroxeter, account of the Roman remains there, by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 53; inscriptions found there, 92; coinlist's stamp found there, 66; account of the progress of the late excavations, 174, 211; auxiliary Excavations Committee formed in London, 215; Report on the discoveries by the Rev. H. M. Scarth, 264; facilities granted. by the Duke of Cleveland, 279; Guide to the Ruins, published by Mr. T. Wright, 306.

Wykeham, William of, his letter appointing John Fromond his bailiff, 166.

Wynne, Mr. W. W E., exhibits a bronze cross, found at Llanaber, 204; bronze censer, found at Corwen, 92.

YORKSHIRE:—Memoir by Professor Phillips on metallurgy in Roman times among the Brigantes, 7; notices of lead workings in Swaledale and in the West Riding, 18, 22, 29; proceedings regarding a charge of sorcery near Halifax, 69; bronze armlet found near Driffield, 83; Saxon and Cufic coins, ornaments, &c., found at Goldsborough, 197.

Zurich, proposed publication of a Roll of Arms preserved there, 104, 212; silver cups in the library there, presented by English Bishops in the time of the Reformation, 158; shoes of the Princess Hildegard there, 353.

END OF VOL. XVI.