Not long ago I was looking through some Court Rolls in the Library of Sherborne School; these Rolls refer to the School Estate at Gillingham, and sewn up with these I found the following Draft of Minutes of a Governors’ Meeting. This Draft is all in the handwriting of Thomas Wynnyff the Steward, except a few alterations, which are in another hand. The Minutes run as follows:—

On the next page follows a list of rents and fines due and a rough sketch of the School Seal. This makes us ask whether we have actually before us the original sketch of it? Turning over three leaves we come to the following entries made the

"‘ xxx\(^m\) Die Octobris Anno Regni Dicti Domini quarto’: Itm paid to the Skolemaster for iii quarters wages endyd at Mich’as xvii\(^i\). Itm to the Usher for iii quarters wages ended at the said feaste vi\(^i\), Itm paid for the Seall xx\(^s\).

These entries teach us a good deal that we did not know or were not certain of before: we get the name of the man who was the last Headmaster under the old system and the first Headmaster under the Charter of refoundation of King Edward. As he is paid a year’s salary on the 30th October, 1550, it follows that he was Master before the refoundation in May, 1550; under the old scheme, too, there was evidently an Usher as well as a Master. It seems also probable that this Usher left in October, 1550, as one of these ordinances quoted above provides that the Master shall aid the Governors in the election of an Usher.

It is now proved without a doubt that Mr. A. F. Leach was quite right in his view (which he put forward in his paper read before the Archæological Institute in March, 1898) that there had been no break in the continuity of Sherborne School in spite of the dissolution of the Monastery. No doubt, however, the School suffered by that; it must have lost, for instance, the Exhibitions which the Abbot and Convent had, according to the Valor Ecclesiasticus, given to the School.
