EXTRACT of a LETTER from Mr Thomas Randolph to
Sir William Cecil, dated Edinburgh, 18th April 1565.

The cave found bysyds Muskelbourge semeth to be some monument of the Romaynes, by a stone that was found, with these words greven upon hym. APOLLONI GRANNO Q. L. SABINIANUS PROC. Aug. Dyvers short pillers sette upright upon the grounde, covered with tyle stones, large and thyucke, turning into dyvers angles and certayne places lyke unto chynes* to avoid smoke. Thys is all that I cane gather therof.

* Can this be meant for chymes, q. chymneys? Edit.
