North-facing entrance aligned with steps up wall facing platform. There is a stone enclosure uplope, also a terraced effect with garden plots set into the slope. A single stone clearance heap occurs just above the enclosure. To the west, below a rock outcrop, set amongst mature rowan birch and built against a single conifer, is a semi-circular dower chair in stone 4m in diameter, set into the slope, with an inscribed stone reading 'Fr Chas Farquharson's Seat 1785'.
