INDEX TO VOL. I.

A.

ABBOT OF BATTLE, his residence at Horselydown, 159
Abbots of St. Augustine's, the house of, adjoining St. Olave's Church, 158
Abdy, Sir Wm., family of, at Horselydown, 166
Abel, John, grant of free warren to, 129; escheatment of his lands, 136
Adam, Abbot, of Chertsey Abbey, 91 n.
Adam, John, his possessions in the manor of Hatcham, 136, 137
Adam de Bavenst, grant of land to, 127; summoned to Parliament, ib.
Adam de Strattone, grant of land made by, 124; his lands forfeited, 126
Ælfric, Anglo-Saxon charter of, granted to Chertsey Abbey, 79, 82, 95
Ainslie, Mr., his account of a gold ring, xvi.
Alfred, the first king who parcellled the kingdom into counties, hundreds, &c., 7
Alianore de Bohun, monumental brass of, 226
Allhallows Church, Barking, Flemish brasses in, 222
Alnwick's Barn, locality of, 90 n.
Alynson, John, will of, 199
Anglo-Saxon annals, notices of the, 38
Anglo-Saxon kings crowned at Kingston, 53, 54
Anglo-Saxons, ancient charters of the, 77 et seq.; landmarks of the, 77, 78
Anne, duchess of Somerset, the manor of Hatchambarnes granted to, 138
Anthony St. Leger, Sir, proprietor of Horselydown, 158
Antiquities exhibited by Mr. Hart, viii.; collection of, contributed for exhibition, ix., xv., xvii., xxiv.
Appare, Wm., lessee of the manor of Hatcham, 138
Arbour Lawes, of Derbyshire, notices of the, 209 and n.
Archæological societies, their objects and importance, 213, 214
Archæology, real objects of, xi., xii.; of the county of Surrey, 1 et seq.; apathy of previous times upon, 1; true value of, ib.; societies for the promotion of, 2, 3; religious bearing of, upon architecture and art, 14 et seq.; promotion of the study of, through the means of learned societies, 214 et seq.
Architecture, religious bearing of archaeology upon, 14
Arderne, Thomas, gift to Priory of Bermondsey, 191
Armour, represented in monumental brasses, 226; its decadence illustrated thereby, 227; value of the representations of, ib.; of Sir John d'Aubernoun, 233
Arms, coat of, first quartered on monumental brasses, 227
Arms and armour, exhibition of ancient, xviii.
Art, religious bearing of archaeology upon, 14
Artillery Hall of the Southwark trained bands, 177; converted into a workhouse, 178; Mr. Webb's description of the, 178, 179
Athelstan, notices of, 46, 56
Austen, Mr. R. G., his paper on Guildford Castle, xxii.
Autographs, collection of, xxxv.
Aveley Church, Essex, Flemish brasses in, 222

B.

Bagot, Sir Wm., monumental brass of, 228
Bannok, John, will of, 183
Barrow, ancient British, excavated at Teddington, xvi., 74
Bartholomew of Winchester, abbot of Chertsey, 112
Bartilott, Stephen, of Horselydown, 162
Bartrop, Mr. T. R., the society's local secretary for Chertsey, xiv., xx.
Bataillbrigg, of Southwark, 163
Bavent, family of, connected with the manor of Hatcham, 123 et seq.
Beauchamp, Earl Simon de, monumental brass of, 231
Beddington, Surrey, monumental brass at, 235; family of Carew of, 240

2 K
SURREY COLLECTIONS.

Bell, Dr. W., paper read by, xv.
Benedictines, Chertsey Abbey assigned to, 100
Berkeley, Lord, monumental brass of, 228
Bermondsey Abbey, vii.; grants to the monks of, 191
Bermondsey House, Southwark, 172
Bermondsey Street, Horselydown, 159
Bethel, Slingsby, of Southwark, 178
Bethulia, ancient worship of the, 27; its etymology and origin, 49
Blackwood, Mr. W. M., xxii.
Bockett, Miss Julia R., her collection of wills, 180
Boseye, locality of, 87 n.
Bothenley, Ralph, of Horselydown, 165
Boutell, Rev. C., papers read by, xv., xvii.; his account of monumental brasses, 213—235
Brackett brasses, use of, in monuments, 224
Brasses, monumental slabs deprived of them, 219; the plate originally denominated "latten," 220; Flemish examples of, 220 n., 221. (See Monumental Brasses.)
British barrow and ancient weapon found at Teddington, 74, 75
Britons, their ancient characteristics, xiii.; invaded by the Romans, ib.
Britton, Mr. John, xxiii.
Brixton, origin of the name, 122
Brockett, Nicholas, possessor of the manor of Hatcham, 153; his deed of assignment, ib.
Brooke, Sir John, manor of Hatcham granted to, 140
Brooke, Cristofer, manor of Hatcham granted to, 141
Brookhall, munry of, 88 n.
Buckelew, Stephen, 234
Bullen, Sir T., monumental brass of, 228
Burcestre, John, will of, 195
Burcestre, Wm., will of, 192
Bures, Sir R. de, monumental brass of, 226
Burgh, Wm., of Horselydown, 163
Burgundy, Petty, its situation, 158
Burnel, Philip, his claims to land in Hatcham, 144; possessions of, 149; succeeded by his son Edward, ib.
Burnell, family of, possess the manor of Hatcham, 152
Butterworth, Mr. J.W., his contributions, xx.
Butts, parish, erected in Horselydown, 170

Callcva, ancient site of, 63
Calmar Union, the, 35
Camail, its adoption on monumental brasses, 227
Camys, Lord, monumental brass of, 228
Carew, of Beddington, pedigree of, 240
Cavendish’s Rents, in Southwark, 172
Cealwin, king of the West Saxons, 6
Ceroti Insula, ancient monastery of, 97, 99
Challoner, Col., C.B., vice-president of the society, xviii.
Chaucer, traditional notices of the, 32
Charles I., portrait of, exhibited, xxiv.
Charters, Anglo-Saxon, granted to Chertsey Abbey, 77, 92
Chaucer, Thomas, monumental brass of, 228
Chertsey, meeting of the society at, xvii., 77, 97, 115; ancient boundaries of, 79, 82, 101.
Chertsey Abbey, ancient fragments discovered on the site of, xvii.; visit to the site of, xviii.; Anglo-Saxon charters granted to, 77, 92; lands anciently attached to, 80, 81, 82, 83; its ancient boundaries, 81, 85; early origin and history of, 97 et seq.; the ancient “Ceroti Insula,” 99; rebuilt by King Edgar, and assigned to the Benedictines, 100; its extensive possessions and privileges, 102; one of the mitred abbeys, 103; historical incidents connected with, 101; its conventual buildings, 104 et seq.; its architectural formation, 112, 113; its foundations, 113; the completeness of its destruction, 114; encaustic tiles and stone coffins excavated on its site, 115 et seq.
Child, Alvin, his bequest to the monastery of St. Saviour, Bermondsey, 191
Church architecture, archaeological features of, 18
Churches, early formation of, 99; containing monumental brasses, 220—223
Civilians, monumental brasses of, 225
Clark, Rev. J. C., xvii., 80, 92
Cobham, Lady Anne Broke, manor of Hatcham granted to, 139
Cobham, Sir Reginald de, monumental brass of, 235
Cockaigne, Sir T., 160
Collins, stone, excavations of, 115 et seq.
Coins, ancient British, found in Surrey, 69
Cold Harbour, Croydon, notices of, 203 et seq.; etymology of, 207, 208
Colstone, Thos., bequest of, 200
Compton Church, visit to, xxv.
Convents of Chertsey Abbey, 105
Cooke, Cornelius, lease of St. Olave’s Grammar-school granted to, 177
Cope, Walter, manor of Hatcham granted to, 139

C A R A of Mecca, worship of the, 27; history of the, 49, 50
Cady, John, 140
Cairns, raising of, 31
INDEX.

Copley, Sir Roger, proprietor of Horselydown, 167, 168
Corner, Mr. G. R., papers read by, xv., xvii.; his essay on Anglo-Saxon charters granted to Chertsey Abbey, 77; his History of Horselydown, 156; his collection of ancient wills, &c., relating to Southwark, 190 et seq.
Coronation-stone at Kingston, 27
Coronations, ancient, historical notices of, 36
Costume of the period of monumental brasses represented, 231
Counties, division of, by Alfred, 7
Cowley House, Chertsey, visit to, xviii.
Cowmoor, locality of, 91 n.
Cranley, Surrey, monumental brass at, 235
Crew, Randolph, manor of Hatcham conveyed to, 154; his petition against the rating of the manor, ib.
Cromlechs, remains of, 32
Crossbow found on Bosworth Field, vii.
Crosses, monumental, in early use, 217; on brasses, 222, 223; with floriated heads, 224
Croney, Count de, anecdotes of, v.
Crowhurst, Surrey, monumental brass at, 235
Croydon, historical notices of, 11; meeting of the society at, 208; notices of, ib.; early history of, 204; antiquities of, 207, 211; its early importance, 212
Croydon Church, Warham monument in, 57 et seq.; notices of, 60
Cuvier, his geological discoveries, 18

D.
Dagger, ancient, found at Teddington, 75
Danes, conflicts with the, 6; their incursions, 100
D'Aubernoun, Sir John, ancient monumental brass of, 226; the earliest one known to be in existence, 232; preserved in the church of Stoke d'Abernou in Surrey, ib.; description of the monument, 232—235; Norman-French inscription on the, 232; genealogical and biographical notices of Sir John, 233, 234; his descendants, ib.; a remarkable suit against, 234; monumental brass of his son of the same name, 235
Daubes, John, lease of the manor of Hatcham granted to, 143
Deeds and grants, ancient, relating to Southwark, 190 et seq. (see Willis)
Designs adopted in monumental brasses, 221, 222
Digges, of Reigate, pedigree of, 239
Ditton, Surrey, monumental brass at, 235
Dioma, first prelate of Mercia, 100
Docwra, Sir T., prior of the hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, 165
Drawings contributed to the society, xxxi.
Druidecles, circles, 40
Druifs, remains of the, 21; three orders of, 210 n.
Drummond, Mr. Henry, vice-president of the society, i.; his inaugural address, ii.
Dunleigh, family of, in Horselydown, 161, 162
Dunstan, St., erects the first monastery at Glastonbury, 100; archbishop of Canterbury, 101
Duodecimal numeration, its influence in governing the Saxon annalists, 38
Durnford, locality of, 84 n.

E.
Ecclesiastics, monumental brasses of, 225
Edessa, the misshapen deity of, 28; its history, 51
Edgar, King, founder of the Benedictines' abbey at Chertsey, 100
Edward the Elder, the first Saxon king crowned at Kingston, 6
Edward I. of England, transfers the Scottish stone at Scone to England, 53
Edwardes, Wm., manor of Hatcham conveyed to, 153
Effigies, &c., on monumental brasses, 222—224; costume of the period represented, 231; of Sir John d'Aubernoun, 232
Eglesfield, Hugh, of Horselydown, 166; death of, 169
Elagabalus, worship of, 51
Emesa, sacred stone of, 28, 51
Enamel, colour introduced into brasses by means of, 220
Enamels of the twelfth century, 217
Encaustic tiles excavated on the site of Chertsey Abbey, 115 et seq.
Engraving on metals, invention of, 216
Engravings contributed to the society, xxxi.
Erich IX. of Sweden, election of, 34
Erkenwold, abbot of Chertsey, 80, 81; afterwards bishop of London, 99, 100
Ernyn Street, extending near Croydon, 211
Ethelbert, king of Kent, 6
Evelyn, Mr. W. J., vice-president of the society, xi.; his address at Kingston, ib.; his addresses at Guildford, xix., xxii.; vote of thanks to, xxi.
Evil, touching for the, xxiv.
Excleafe's Burn, locality of, 85 n.

F.
Farley Heath, Roman relics discovered at, xiii.
Fastolfe, Sir John, mansion of, 159; notices of, 159, 160; his possessions in Horselidown, 160
Feringelye, locality of, 83 n.
Felawe, Thomas, of Horselidown, 162
Felbrigge, Sir S. de, monumental brass of, 228
Field, Richard, curious document respecting, xxiv.
Finances of the Society, state of the, i.
Finiguerra, Maso, the inventor of metallic engravings, 216
Flemings, settlement of, in St. Olave's, 174
Flemish monumental brasses, 220 n., 221; specimens yet remaining in churches, 221, 222; a fragment in the British Museum, 221
Friæwald, Anglo-Saxon charter of, granted to Chertsey Abbey, 79, 88, 92
Frithwold, king of the SURREY, the founder of Chertsey Abbey, 99
Fulham Church, Flemish brasses in, 222
Fulbrook, locality of, 83, 86 notes
Fytheke Mere, locality of, 91 n.

G.
Gainsford, family of, Horselidown, 166
Geoffrey de la Croix, Sir, the heath of, 88 and n.
Geology, Cuvier's discoveries in, 18
Gilbert de Hachesham, 123
Gilbert de Maminot, the Norman baron, 122
Gilgal, meaning of, 52
Glenthyme, locality of, 89 n.
Goodear, Hugh, releases Horselidown to the governors of St. Olave's Grammar-school, 170.
Gorget, its adoption on monumental brasses, 227
Gough, Giffray, will of, 184
Gould, Mr. E., mayor of Kingston, xi.
Gower, John, will of, 193
Gregory de Rakesley, 127; his residence at Little Hatcham, 146; his death, 147
Grey, Sir A., monumental brass of, 228
Griffith, Mr. W. P., paper read by, xv.
Guildford, palace of, vii.; antiquities of, xii.; meeting of the Society at, xix., 213; antiquities of, xix.; visits to the antiquities of, xxii., xxiii., xxiv.; conversazione at, xxiii.; hospitable reception at, xxv.; historical notices of, 11

II.
Haddon, Walter, manor of Hatcham granted to, 139
Hakewill, Wm., manor of Hatcham granted to, 141
Haling, manor of, 207
Ham cott, locality of the, 87
Hanley, Sir J., monumental brass of, 230, 231
Hart, Mr. T., his exhibition of antiquities, vii.
Hart, Mr. W. H., his memoir of the manor of Hatcham, 122
Hastings, Sir H., monumental brass of, at Elsyng, 227
Hasulhurst, field of, 91 n.
Hat worn by Queen Elizabeth, ix.
Hatcham, manor of, in Surrey, memoir of, 122 et seq.; different possessors of the, 129 et seq.; after the dissolution of the abbey, 138 et seq.; copy of the deeds of sale to Garrard, Lowe, Offley, and Bond, 141, 143; became vested in the Haberdashers' Company, 146
Hatcham, Little, origin and history of, 116 et seq.; decision as to its being situated in Surrey, 154, 155
Hatfield, pictures at, 171
Hawthorns, reverence for, 84, 85 n.
Heliogabalus removes the sacred stone of Edessa to Rome, 28, 51
Henry VIII., his arbitrary proceedings for dissolving the monasteries, 102, 103
Hermitages, 176 and n.
Heron, Sir William, 123
History, national, illustrated by monumental brasses, 228
Hooar-stones, account of, 83 n.
Hod, William, of Normandy, his remarkable suit against Sir J. d'Aubernon, 234
Hore-thorn, one of the boundaries of Chertsey Abbey, 84, 85
Horselidown, history of, 156 et seq.; its locality, 156; meetings of the society at, 156, 213; different proprietors of, 160 et seq.; origin of the name, 167; one of the three manors of Southwark, ib.; picture of, 171; map of, ib.; the different localities of, 172, 173
Horsley, East, monumental brass at, 235
Hugh of Winchester, 113
Humfrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford, 124
Hundreds, division of, by Alfred, 7; those of Surrey, as given in Domesday, ib.
Hungerford, family of, possess the manor of Hatcham, 153
Husband and wife, monumental brasses to, 230, 231
Husebond, Roger, grant of land to, 132
Hutton, Richard, of St. Olave's, Southwark, 174

I.
L'Anson, Mr. E., his account of mural paintings formerly existing in Lingfield Church, 71
INDEX.

Inaugural address to the society, ii.
Incas of Peru, obelisks of the, 51
Inscriptions on monumental brasses, 223
Ipswich, Flemish brasses to be seen at, 222
Ireland, stone-pillar worship in, 52
Isabella de Heyham, 124, 125
Italy, roads in, 62

J.

Jacob and the sacred stones, 29, 30; history of the, 51
Jacob's Garden, Horselydown, 172
James de Vabadune, 123
Jessopp, Rev. J., paper read by, vii.; his essay on the religious bearing of archaeology upon architecture and art, 14 et seq.
Jesus House, its situation, 157
John, king of France, monumental brass of, 232
John Adam de Luk, grant of land to, 135
John de Drokensford, bishop, 149; grant to, 150
John de Fienes, the Norman baron, 122
John de Handlo, possessions of, 150; death of, 151
John de Medmenham, abbot of Chertsey, 112
John de Merkyngeford, grant of lands to, 132
John de Wynwyk, possessor of the manor of Hatcher, 135
John o' Great's House, 45, 54
Johnson, Mr. C. W., his notices of Cold Harbour, Croydon, 203
Julius Caesar, his invasion of Britain, xiii.
Jurymen, trial by twelve, 53

K

Kemble, Mr. J. M., his collection of Anglo-Saxon grants of land, 77, 78
Kew Palace, vii.
Kingston, Surrey, palace of, vii.; meeting of the society at, xi., 27; antiquities of, xii.; charters granted to, xv.; exhibition of antiquities at, xvi.; the kings of Wessex crowned at, 6; historical notices of, 8, 9; royal coronation-stone at, 27; general prevalence of the name, 46, 56; Anglo-Saxon kings crowned at, 53, 54; monumental brass at, 235
Kingston Bagpuse, town of, 46, 56
Kingston Morasteen, Dr. Bell's paper on, 27 et seq.
Knivet, Richard, will of, 180
Königs Stuhl, near Rheuse, 55

L

Ladies, monumental brasses of, 225
Lambeth Palace, meeting of the society at, 122
Lance, Mr. E. J., paper read by, vii.; his memoranda relative to the Roman road between Silchester and Staines, 66
Landmarks of the Anglo-Saxons, 77; of the Romans and Jews, 78; of Chertsey Abbey, 82, 94, 96
Lands, Anglo-Saxon grants of, 77
"Latten," the original name of a monumental brass plate, 220
Leeke, or Lecke, Henry, founder of St. Olave's Grammar-school, 168; bequests of himself and son, 201
Lever, Dr. J. C. W., ii.
Lewes, prior of, his residence, 157, 158
Library of the society, contributions to the, xx., xxvii.
Lingfield Church, Surrey, contributions to, xx., xxvii.
Lodderslake, locality of, 89 n.
London Stone, 42, 44, 45
Loseley Manuscripts exhibited, xxiv.
Loseley House, visit to, xxv.
Lovelace, Earl of, his address, xxii., xxiii.
Lutman, Harry, will of, 187
Lynn Church, Flemish brasses in, 221

M

M'Dougall, Col. P. L, his papers on the Roman road between Silchester and Staines, 61
Magna Charta, signing of, 8, 44
Manorial houses of Surrey, 11
Manors of Surrey, 7
Mansas contained in the boundaries of Chertsey Abbey, 92
Manuscripts contributed to the library of the society, xxx.
Marryatt, Richard, 161
Matilda, wife of John Lord Lovel, and afterwards of John de Handlo, succeeds to the estates of her brother, 150
Maton, Peter, will of, 198
Maze, manor of, in Horselydown, 159
Meetings of the society, and readings of papers: at Southwark, i., ii., vii., xxv., 14, 61; at Kingston, xi., 27; at Chertsey, xvii., 77, 97, 115; at Guildford, ix., 213; at Lambeth Palace, 122; at Horselydown, in Southwark, 156; at Croydon, 203
Members of the society, xiv.; increase of, xx.; list of, xxxvii., xlix.
Meryngfield, family of, grant of lands to, 132
Merstham, Surrey, monumental brass at, 235
Meteoric stones, notices of, 49
Minbridge, locality of, 90 n.
Minfield, locality of, 91 n.
Munchin's Road, locality and description of, 88 n.
Mixtenham, locality of, 86 n.
Mocknyng, John, will of, 191; Nicholas, Thomas, and Robert, wills of, 194
Monasteries, first establishment of, 100; dissolution of, 102
Monumental brasses, historical and descriptive notices of, 213 et seq.; explanation of the term, 216; in use very early in the thirteenth century, ib.; monuments in use anterior to the introduction of brasses, 217; numbers of them still in existence in our own country, 219; designs generally adopted in, 221, 222; Flemish ones yet remaining in our churches, 220, 221, 222; designs of, with the effigy, canopy, and other devices, 222; examples of foreign workmanship, 222, 223; with inscriptions and crosses, 223; use of bracket brasses, 224; effigies represented in, ib.; of ecclesiastics, 225; of ladies and civilians, ib.; armour represented in, 226, 227; figures thereon represented illustrative of our national and literary history, 228; the earlier examples the best as works of art, 229; the design and methods of executing, 229, 230; brasses to husband and wife, 230, 231; costume of the period represented, 231; earliest examples of, at Bedford, ib.; brass of Sir John d'Aubernoun, the earliest one known to be in existence, 232; those of Surrey to be noticed, ib.
Morasteen, the Kingston, Dr. Bell's paper read on the, 27 et seq.; the principal Swedish circle, 33, 48
Museum of the society, contributions to the, xx., xxvii., xxxii.
Mynar, Richard, will of, 200

N.
Negen Stone, locality of, 89 n.
Netleyge, locality of, 86 n.
Nevill, Sir John, his bond of indenture, vi.
Newark Abbey, vii.
Newark Church, Flemish brasses in, 221
Newcastle-on-Tyne, Flemish brasses to be seen at, 222
Nicoll, Alice, will of, 181
Nippenhale, locality of, 89 n.
Noviomagus, Roman station of, xiii.; the ancient city of, 4

O.
Oak carvings from Cardinal Wolsey's palace, exhibited, xvii.
Ockley, battle of, xiii., 6
Odin, mythological notices of, 32, 33
Odo, bishop of Bayeux, 122
"Old Posse," limit of the, 80
Olyver, family of, 162
Ottershaw, locality of, 84 notes

P.
Padwice Lanes, 47
Paintings, mural, formerly existing in Lingfield Church, 71, 72
Palaces of Surrey, 11
Papers read to the society, vii., xv., xvii., xxvi., 1, 14, 27, 57, 61, 71, 74, 77, 97, 122, 156, 180, 190, 203, 213. (See MEETINGS.)
Parish boundaries, custom of perambulating, 78 n.
Pedigrees, of Diggis, 239; of Carew, 240
Penda, king of Mercia, 99
Pepys, Thomas, resident at the manor of Hatcham, 145
Peru, roads in, 63
Peter of St. Olave's, his grant to the priory of Burmondey, 191
Phillip, king of France, monumental brass of, 232
Phillips, Mr., his proffered contributions to the society, xx.
Photographs contributed to the society, xxxi.
Picard, Nicholas, of Normandy, his seizure of the property of William Had, 234
Plate armour on monumental brasses, 226
Pocock, Mr. W. W., paper read by, xvii.; his paper on Chertsey Abbey, 97 et seq.; his account of the excavations on the site of Chertsey Abbey, 115 et seq.
Poughley, monastery of, 46
Pritchard, Mr. William, vice-president of society, xxv.
Proceedings of the society during the years 1554 and 1855, i.—xxvi.; in Southwark, i., xxv.; at Kingston-upon-Thames, xi.; at Chertsey, xvii.; at Guildford, xix. (See MEETINGS and PAPERS READ.)
Puck, of Shakespeare, his mythological origin, 47, 96

Q.
Quelmes, the, explanation of, 89 n.

R.
Ranyard, Mr. S., paper read by, xv.
Redewynd, the ancient river of, 106
Reginald de Cornhill, ransom paid for, 158
INDEX.

Regni, the ancient inhabitants of Surrey, 4
Reigate Castle, historical notices of, 8
Reigate, pedigree of the family of Digges of, 239
Reports of the society’s proceedings, i.—

Retherhethe, grant of land in, 124, 125
Rhese, meeting-stone at, for the imperial electors of Germany, 44, 45, 54, 55
Richard II. and his queen, monumental effigies of, 231
Richard de Boterwick, bequest of, 191
Richard de Dunle, grant to, 131
Richmond, palace of, vii.
Ring, an ancient signet one, of the Earl of Warwick, xv.; of massive gold, discovered at Mont de Marsan, xvi.
Rissarians, code of the, 38
Roads, the means of human civilization, 61 et seq.
Robert, bishop of Bath and Wells, possessions of, 148
Robert de Burton, grant of land to, 133
Robert de Retherhee, 124
Roche Abbey, dissolution and destruction of, 110, 111
Roger de Bavent, 123; connected with the manor of Hatcham, 130
Roger de Rislepe, owner of Little Hatcham, 147, 148
Rogers, Robert, bequest of, 198
Rolrich stones, 45
Roman roads, xiii.; Col. M’Doughall on the Roman road between Silchester and Staines, 61 et seq.; this road one of the most remarkable memorials of the Roman power in Britain, 61; memoranda relative to the Roman road from Silchester, 66; its geology, 67; ancient remains found on its site, 66.
Roman stations in Surrey, 5
Rome, her conquests and civilizing influence, 61, 62; centralization the principle of her power, 62; her formation of roads, 66.
Roots, Dr., his contributions to the society, xx.
Rosary, the, in Horselydown, 161
Rubblings of brasses contributed to the society, xxxii.
Rules of the society, xl.
Rumminede, signing of Magna Charta at, 8; stone of, 44
Rutherwyk, John de, abbot of Chertsey, 91 n.

St. Alban’s Church, Flemish brasses in, 221
St. John’s Church, Horselydown, 178
St. John of Jerusalem, liberty of, in Horse-

St. Mary Overie, church of, 11
St. Olave’s, Southwark, grammar-school of, xxvi., 168—170; parish of, 168; curious particulars respecting the grammar-

St. Olave’s Street, its situation, 157
St. Saviour’s Church, at Bruges, Flemish brasses in, 221
St. Swithin’s Church, Southwark, visit to, xxvi.

Salter, George, manor of Hatcham granted to, 140
Sampson, Master, bequest of, 202
Saxon Heptarchy, period of the, 6
Say, family of, connected with the manor of Hatcham, 123 et seq.
Scone, Scottish stone at, 35; legends connected with, 52
Serpent, ancient worship of the, 209 and n.
Shad-Thames Street, Horselydown, 166
Shere, Surrey, monumental brass at, 235
Shigtnre, one of the boundaries of Chertsey Abbey, 37 and n.
Shirehpol, locality of, 86 and n.
Shurlock, Mr. M., his notes on results of excavations at Chertsey, 115; credit due to, 120
Silchester, Roman road from, towards Staines, 61, 64; ancient site of, 63; memoranda relating to, 66; its situation, 68
Siören, explanation of, 85 n.
Skeletons, remains of, found on the site of Chertsey Abbey, 120
Slabs, monumental, in early use, 217; some of them despoiled of their brasses, 219; use of incised ones, 220
Smyth, Wm., will of, 187
Societies in union with the Surrey Archaeological Society, xl.

Southwark, inauguration of the society in, i.; meetings of the society at, i., ii., vii., xxv., 14, 61; antiquities of, xxvi.; historical notices of, 8; collection of ancient wills, &c., relating to, 190 et seq.
Staines, stone of Rumminede at, 44, 45; Roman road from, towards Silchester, 61, 64; memoranda relating to, 66
Standing Stone, the name of a parish boundary, 91 n.
Staney Street of the Romans, 21
Steinman, Mr. G. S., on the Warham monu-mement in Croydon Church, 57 et seq.
Stoke d’Abernon, monumental brasses at, 213
SURREY COLLECTIONS.

Stone of Rummimed, 44
Stone circles, 40 et seq.
Stone coffins, excavated on the site of Chertsey Abbey, 115 et seq.; used as monumental memorials, 217
Stone-pillar worship, in Ireland, 52
Stones anciently used for coronation and religious purposes, 27 et seq.; the stone of Jacob, 29, 51
Stoney Street, Horselydown, 159
Stonie Held, locality of, 89 n.
“Summinges,” limits of the, 80
SURREY, county of, rich in objects of archaeological research, vi.; its local characteristics, xii.; on the archaeology of, 1 et seq.; early history of, 4; sites of Roman stations in, 5; historical events of, 6, 8, 9; the hundreds of, 7; its manors, ib.; its population, 10; its manufactures, ib.; its mineral springs, ib.; its ecclesiastical edifices, palaces, &c., 11; full of historical records, 12; the largest artery emanating from the metropolis, ib.; ancient British coins found in, 69; wills of persons resident in, between the years 1497 and 1522, 180 et seq.; its monumental brasses hereafter to be noticed, 232; monumental brasses in, 235
SURREY ARCHEOLOGICAL SOCIETY, its inauguration in Southwark, i. et seq.; originated by Mr. G. B. Webb, i. n.; its meetings and proceedings: at Southwark, i. ii., vii., xxv., 14, 61; at Kingston, xi., 27; at Chertsey, xvii., 77, 97, 115; at Guildford, xix., 213; its library and museum, xx., xxvii.; its list of members, xxxvii.; its rules, I.; its collections and contributions, I et seq.; its successful progress, xx.; societies in union with the, xlix.; special objects for which it is formed, 3, 213; its meetings at Lambeth Palace, 122; at Horselydown, 156; at Croydon, 203
Sutton, Robert, will of, 185
Sweden, ancient mythology of, 33; election of their kings in early times, 3; elective principle of, 45; the Morasteen in, ib.
Swynborne, Sir R. de, and his son, monumental brasses of, 231

T.
Tabard Hostelry, 22
Taylor, W., paper read by, vii.
Teddington, barrow excavated at, xvi.
“Terminus,” ancient worship of, 78
Theodore, archbishop of Canterbury, promotes the formation of churches, 99
Thomas, family of, in Horselydown, 166
Thomas Atte Grene, grant of land to, 132
Thomas de Betoine, grant of land to, 133
Thomas de Heyham, grant of land to, 124, 125
Thorntrees, antiquity of, and reverence for, 84, 85 notes
Thorp, ancient boundaries of, 79; topographical boundaries of, 90 n.
Threm Burghen, one of the boundaries of Chertsey Abbey, 85 n.
Throckmorton, pedigree of the family of, 210
Tigeldedeburn, locality of, 89 n.
Tiles, encaustic, discovered on the site of Chertsey Abbey, xvii.; excavations of, 115 et seq.
Ting, meaning of, 34
Tingwalt, mound of, 34, 52
Tiptoft, Lady, monumental brass of, 226
Topcliffe Church, Flemish brasses in, 221
Turgis, Maurice, grants of land to, 133
Twelve, ancient importance of the number, 38; trial by twelve jurymen, 53

V.
Vabadune, family of, connected with the manor of Hatcham, 123 et seq.
Vaghan, Thomas, 136
Vanlore and Blake, manor of Hatcham granted to, 141
Vindonum, ancient site of, 63

W.
Wada, Ealdorman of Surrey, 6
Wadlon, hamlet of, 206; its derivation, ib.
Wandel, the river, its derivation, 206
Wapshote, locality of, 90 n.
Warham family, history of the, 57 et seq.; their pedigree, 69; monument in Croydon Church, 57 et seq.
Way, Mr. Albert, his letter upon mural paintings formerly existing in Lingfield Church, 72
Wealeslythe, locality of, 86 n.
Weale, explanation of, 86 n.
Webb, Mr. G. B., the originator of the society, i. n.; exhibits a collection of autographs, xxv.; his description of the Artillery Hall, Southwark, 178, 179
Webling, Vassal, his property in Horselydown, 161, 174
Webster, John, will of, 198
Wessex kings, crowned at Kingston, 6
Whesleythe, locality of, 90 n.
Whitster’s Ground, Southwark, 172
William de Billburgh, held a quantity of land in Hatcham, 132
William de Carleton, grant to him of the manor of Hachesham, 134
INDEX.

William the Conqueror, his invasion of England, 7
William de Hamelton, manor of Hatcham granted to, 129
William de Kaynes, grant of land to, 133
William de Peck, possessor of the manor of Hatcham, 135
William de Pyneebek, grant of land to, 132
William de Thorpe, possessor of the manor of Hatcham, 135
William de Wallowrorth, grant of land to, 136
William de Wymundham, holds Hatcham Barnes in custody, 129
Williams, John, manor of Hatcham granted to, 140
Wills and deeds of persons resident in Surrey, 180 et seq.; of Richard Knyvet, 180; of Alice Nicoll, 181; of John Bannek, 183; of Gyffray Gough, 184; of Robert Sutton, 185; of Harry Lutman, 187; of Wm. Smyth, 187; collection of, relating to Southwark, 190 et seq.; of Alwin Child, 190; of Peter of St. Olave's, Thomas Arderne, Richard de Boterwick, and John Mokyng, 191; of William Burcestre, 192; of John Gower, 193; of Nicholas, Thomas, and Robert Mockyn, 194; of William Wykes and John Burcestre, 195; of Robert Rogers, John Webster, and Peter Maton, 198; of John Alynson, 199; of Richard Mynar and Thomas Colstone, 200; of Henry Leke, or Lecke, and son, 201; of Master Sampson, 202
Wimbledon, battle of, 6
Wintredeshulle, locality of, 83 n.
Wipesdane, a parish boundary of Chobham, 62 n.
Wittenagemots, holding of, 46
Wifre, king of Mercia, 80, 81
Woden, worship of, at Croydon, 206; temple of, 207
Woodcote, ancient importance of, 212
Wotton, family of, in Horselydown, 162
Wulfere, king of Mercia, 6
Wykes, William bequests of, 195

Y.
YEVELE, Henry, of Horselydown, 162, 163

Z.
ZALFIELD, coronation ceremony on the, 36

END OF VOL. I.