Here also lyeth Martha his Beloved Wife who died January the 19th 1735 Aged 42 Years.

As likewise Dorothea their Daughter who died September the 23rd 1735 Aged 6 Years.

LEDGER TO
JAMES BONWICKE, Esq., COUNSELLER AT LAW, 1729, AND WIFE MARTHA, 1735.
MICKLEHAM CHURCHYARD, SURREY.
ON A LEDGER
TO THE MEMORY OF
JAMES BONWICKE, ESQ., IN MICKLEHAM
CHURCHYARD, SURREY.

WITH SOME ACCOUNT OF THE BONWICKE FAMILY.

BY ALFRED RIDLEY BAX, F.S.A.

The ledger (of which the accompanying plate is a reduced representation) covers a low tomb in the churchyard of Mickleham, immediately beneath the east window. It is a slab measuring 71 by 35 inches, with chamfered edge; the shield of arms in the upper part seems to have been untouched since the date when it was placed there, but the inscription has been recut of late years. It is to the memory of James Bonwicke, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, to his wife Martha, and their infant daughter Dorothea. He was a Member of the Middle Temple, and of the yeoman family of Bonwicke, of Surrey. The Subsidy Rolls of 18 Eliz. (1576) show that there were Bonnykeses or Bonwicks living at Lingfield, Burstow, Horley and Betchworth, at that period.1 This branch appears to be the only one which rose to any importance, producing several able scholars; some of the family became clergymen and suffered for their sympathy with non-juring principles, others adopted the profession of the law. They almost alone retained the final e in the name. It is hard, with our modern views of constitutional monarchy, to understand (however much we may respect) the scruples of the non-jurors and their idea that they remained bound by their oaths in their fealty to a sovereign who had entirely disregarded his own vows and was trampling systematically on the liberties of his people.

The Grant of Arms issued from the Herald's College, 3rd February, 1671, was "to John Bonwick of Mickleham in Surrey Bachelor in Divinity and Benjamin Bonwick one of the Captains of y'e Trained Bands sons of Benjamin Bonwick of Rigate." Chequy, or and sable, on a chief gules, two estoiles of the first. Crest, a Lion's head erased gules, charged on the neck with an estoile as in the arms.

Probably the descent and connections of James Bonwicke will be better understood when set forth in the following pedigree:

The earliest ancestor who has been identified at present is—

(I) Richard Bonwicke, of Horley, yeoman, who in the 44th Elizabeth (1602) settled Erbridge Manor on his son Benjamin, then of the Inner Temple. He is probably identical with Richard Bonwicke, of Horley, who married Joan — , and by her had a numerous family, of whom (although his baptism is not recorded at Horley) Benjamin Bonwicke was probably one. He may have been born at Horne.

(II) Benjamin Bonwicke became of Reygate.

In the books of the Inner Temple he is stated to have been admitted in November, 1595, and is described as then of Horne, in the same county. By his wife Katharine, daughter of the Rev. Richard Day, of Chipstead, co. Surrey, he had—

(III) John Bonwicke, born 3rd November, 1622, of Christ's College, Cambridge, curate of Reigate; instituted Rector of East Horsley by the Archbishop of Canterbury, 5th February, 1662-3; resigned it in 1669, apparently on his presentation to the Rectory of Mickleham, which he held from 23rd June, 1669, to his death in 1698.

Among the Domestic State Papers of King Charles II, under date Dec. 4 (?), 1660, is the following Petition endorsed—

In response to this appeal we find among the Domestic State Papers, 1662, Dec. 4, Whitehall, The King (Charles II) to the University of Cambridge. Requests them to confer on John Bondwick (sic) rector of Newdigate, Surrey, and 3 others, the respective degrees which they were prevented from taking by their loyalty in the late unhappy times, all statutes to the contrary notwithstanding.

He died at Mickleham, and was buried there beneath a black marble gravestone, on the south side of the altar, having the following inscription:—

HIC POSITÆ SUNT RELIQUIÆ JOHANNIS BONWICKE S.T.B. ET ISTIUS ECCLESIE PER ANNOSS XXIX RECTORIS QUI NATUS EST III° NOV. MDCXXXII SEPTULUS IIII NOV. MDCCCLXI ET CONJUGIS DOROTHEÆ QUÆ OBIT IX FEB. AN. ÆT. XC. SAL. MDCCXI.

This stone and those to his children are not now to be found; I was informed by the Rector that they are either covered or were removed when it became necessary, on sanitary grounds, to refloor the Church.

By his wife Dorothy, daughter of John Myles, of Rygate, Gent., he had—

(1) John Bonwicke, of whom nothing more seems known, and who probably died young.

(2) Ambrose Bonwicke, b. 29th April, 1652, educated at Merchant Taylors' School; chosen Scholar of St. John's College, Oxford, 11th June, 1669; appointed Librarian, 1670; B.A., 1st February, 1672; M.A., 18th March, 1675; B.D., 21st July, 1682; incorporated at Cambridge, M.A., 1678; ordained deacon, 21st May, 1676; priest, 6th June, 1680 (Trinity Sunday); became Master of Merchant Taylors' School, but was removed for non-juring scruples in 1691. After his ejection he established a private school at Headley, and had Mr. William Bowyer (the famous printer) as one of his pupils. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Philip Stubbs, Citizen of London, sometime of St. Peter's, Cornhill. He died 20th, and was buried 26th October, 1722, in the chancel of Mickleham Church. In the Register of Burials at Mickleham there is the following entry:—

"1722 The Rev'd Mr Bonwick of Hedley Octbr ye 26th."

Abstract of the Will of Rev. Ambrose Bonwicke.

(P. C. C., 3 Richmond.)

I Ambrose Bonwicke an unworthy Priest according to the Admonition of our Church in her Order for the visitation of the Sick being now by the blessing of God in good health do by this my last Will and Testament dispose of that Temporall estate he has been pleased in much mercy to bestow on me. I have been a miserable sinner God he knows and unworthy of the least of those many mercies he has vouchsafed me all my life long yet humbly hope for the greatest of all even the salvation of my poor soul thro the merits of our Blessed Redeemer Jesus Christ In prospect of whose coming to judgment and of the general Resurrection I desire (if it may be done without too great Charge and Trouble) that my Body may ly among those of my dear Relations particularly in Mickleham Churchyard at the east end of the Church and near the South wall of the Chanceell—to my dear wife all that my Messuage or Tenement and ffarm And all those Lands Tenements and Hereditaments . . . .

I bequeath all my other goods and chattells whatsoever (sic) I appoint her likewise Exeuntix . . . . in which if any doubt shall arise I humbly desire my Dear Brother James Bonwicke Esq? to Determine it to whose determination I charge all my Dear Children upon my Blessing to submit and whosoever will not acquiesce therein shall Loose all Right and Title to any of the aforementioned Bequests I desire my said Dear Brother to accept a poor Legacy of £5 which I hereby bequeath him.

26 July 1722.

Witnesses—William Crawthorpe, Nicholas Williams, Robert Arthur.

“18 Jan. 1722 Commission issued to John, Elizabeth, and Dorothea Bonwicke his children to administer the Will left unproved by Elizabeth Bonwicke his widow she having died before taking upon herself the burden thereof.”

Mrs. Elizabeth Bonwicke, his widow, died 3rd December, 1722, and was buried at Mickleham 7th of same. Adnion of her goods was granted to her children a few days earlier than they proved their father’s Will, but in the same month, viz., on 8th January, 1722-3.

They left—
(a) Ambrose Bonwicke, eldest child, born 30th September, 1691 (2), at the Master’s House, near the Merchant Taylors’ School; baptized at St. Laurence Pountney. “Ambrose Bonwick, son of Ambrose and Elizabeth Bonwick, was baptized October ye 18th, 1691.” He was admitted to the School 11th January, 1702-3; became Captain in 1709; would have been elected to a Scholarship at St. John’s College, Oxford, but for his scruples in declining to read the prayers in the School for the Queen (Anne) from the Communion Service. He was admitted to St. John’s College, Cambridge, on 25th August, 1710, and afterwards chosen Scholar of his house. He died (leaving behind him a high reputation for piety), from the bursting of a blood-vessel, 5th May, 1714, at the age of 23.6 A sketch of his life, with extracts from his correspondence, was published after his death anonymously, being ascribed to Mr. Wm. Bowyer, but, as was afterwards discovered, really from the pen of his father, under the title of—

“A PATTERN for Young Students in the University set forth in the Life of Mr. Ambrose Bonwicke sometime Scholar of St. John’s College in Cambridge. London Printed J. and J. Bonwicke and Stephen Austen. 1729.”

A second edition was published at Oxford by J. H. Parker in 1846.

A more recent edition, with copious notes by Professor J. E. B. Mayor, M.A., appeared at Cambridge in 1870.

A monument was erected to him in the chancel of All Hallows Church. An Ode to his memory, by his friend Launcelot Newton, Fellow of St. John’s, is preserved in Nichols’ Lit. Anecdotes.

(c) Philip Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 12th December, 1697; was elected a Scholar of St. John’s, Cambridge, 10th July, 1713. He died of the small-pox 14th March, 1714-15, at the age of 18, only surviving his brother eight months. A few lines added to the epitaph to his brother commemorate him.
(d) Elizabeth Bonwicke, b. . . . . . . .
She appears to have married the Rev. Thomas Cockrill, father of the Rev. John Cockrill. By the Will of her brother James, she takes £20 at his death and £40 on the birth of her first child.

(e) Dorothea Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 20th May, 1699; called "Thea," by her brother James in his Will; by it she takes a bequest of £60; married a Mr. Wildman.

(f) Henrietta Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 9th January, 1701, "youngest of the Twins." Became of Leatherhead. She also received a legacy under the Will of her brother James.

Abstract of Will of Henrietta Bonwicke.

(P. C. C., 184 St. Eloy.)

I Henrietta Bonwicke of Letherhead in the County of Surry, Spinster being mindful of the mortality of this Life . . . . . . I give to my Brother in Law the Reverend Thomas Cockrill one Guinea for a Ring—to my nephew the Reverend John Cockrill and to my Cozens William Stubbs Philippa Maria Stubbs and Philippa firminger £5 each for mourning—to my Nieces Elizabeth Cockrill, Elizabeth Jones, Mary Cooke and Thea Cooke £20 each and to the said Elizabeth Jones the Box of Linnen in my Garret (except the pair of sheets therein) and I release my nephews what they owe me—to my friend Gerrard Dutton fretwood Esquire all my Household Linnen china and pictures and my wearing apparel to be equally divided between my sisters hereinafter named—to my fried Mrs. Wood wife of Mr. Nicholas Wood my spark Diamond Ring as a token of my Respect—appoint my conen James Bonwicke Bookseller Executor of this my Will and do desire and direct him to be a Trustee for my sister Cooke—do give to my said Cozen James Bonwicke Twenty Guineas for his trouble in the execution thereof and if my said Executor shall die before my said sister Cooke becomes perfectly recovered then I do appoint my said Cozen William Stubbs to act as a Trustee for my sister Cooke in the same manner until she recovers from her Insanity to whom I direct my sister Cooke's money to be paid over in trust for her and I desire they will take the advice and assistance of the said Gerrard Dutton fretwood in the execution hereof. All the rest and residue . . . . . . to my two sisters Mary Jones and Winifred Cooke equally to be divided between them . . .

15 Oct. 1760.

H. Bonwicke.

Proved at London 13 May 1762 . . . by the oath of James Bonwicke the cousin and sole Exor.
(g) Winifred Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 18th January, 1702; married — Cooke. Took like bequest to her sister Dorothea.

(h) James Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 21st December, 1703; admitted to Merchant Taylors' School (?). Took a bequest of books and cabinet of medals under his father's Will; aged 18 at the time of his father's death. Entrusted with the superintendence and publication of the memoir of his brother Ambrose by his father.

Abstract of Will of James Bonwicke.
(P. C. C., 149 Romney.)

"I James Bonwicke being now by the blessing of God in good health"—[opens with similar pious expressions as used by his father]——I give and bequeath to my Sisters Thea and Winny to each of them the sum of £60 . . . . . To my sister Molly the like sum to be disposed for her own private advantage in a small settlement—to my Sister Betty the sum of £20 at my Death and £40 more at the birth of her first child—to my Sister Henny the like sum to be paid at my Decease and the other at the Day of Marriage one moiety if they marry with Consent of my uncle James Bonwicke Esq—to my Br. John £40 to be paid when he shall have been settled one whole year in some business with the approbation of my uncle—to my grandmother Stubs (sic) and uncle Mr Sa. Stubbs and my Godson James Jones to each of them 40li and to Mr Sarah Norton 10li to be laid out for her private use I desire also that 20li may be laid out in the building a monument for my dear fl: and son? I desire that £100 may be disposed of to augment two poor livings particularly where my friends Mr B. C. Mr G. H. Mr R. N. or Mr M. B. may be incumbent and one other £100 whose annual produce for 8 years may be given to two poor children born in the year of my Decease in the parishes of Mickleham and to be nominated by the Vicar of Leetherhead and the Rectors of Mickleham and Headley. I leave my Cab. of Medals to my Dear friend Mr N. Bowyer Jun to whom I bequeath all my other goods and chattells whatsoever I appoint him likewise Executor . . . .

25th February 1724 Appear'd personally James Bonwicke Senior of the parish of St Gailey's in St Paul's Churchyard London Stationer, James Bonwicke Junior of the same place Stationer, and William Cawthorpe of St Ga Mary le Bow London Gentleman and deposed to the genuineness of the handwriting of the above Will on oath.

The Will was proved 24th July, 1725, by the oath of William Bowyer, the Executor named.

(i) Margaret Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 1st December, 1705; married Edward Andrews.
(k) John Bonwicke, query if identical with John Bonwicke, born . . . . , admitted to Merchant Taylors’ School, 11th September, 1700. An attorney. Received a legacy of £200 under the Will of his father, on condition that he took himself to business, and would not return.

Abstract of Will of John Bonwicke.

(P. C. C., 4 Boycott.)

I John Bonwicke of Dorking in the County of Surrey—12 December 1737—I give unto my loving Brother-in-law “James Bonwicke All and singular my goods chattels and Personal Estate of what nature or kind soever . . . . In trust and to . . . . pay and apply the Interest thereof and so much of the principal as he” [or his Executors] “shall think proper” . . . . . “for the use and benefit of my dear and loving wife Philippa during the Term of her natural Life and from and after her decease then in Trust to and for the use and benefit of my daughter Philippa . . . . And I desire to be buried in the most private manner that is possible without any supporters to the pall. And I hereby make my said Brother James Bonwicke sole Executrix.”

On 28th January 1742-3 Appeared Personally Julius Caesar of Doctors Commons gentleman and John Caesar of the same place gentleman and made oath as to their acquaintance with John Bonwicke late of Dorking . . . gentleman deceased and as to the genuineness of the handwriting.

Will was proved at London same day by the oath of James Bonwicke, sole Exor.

(l) Augustina Bonwicke, baptized at Headley, 2nd February, 1708. Probably died young.

We now return to—

(3) Henry Bonwicke, third, and second surviving, son of the Rev. John Bonwicke. He was a Bookseller in St. Paul’s Churchyard, “a man of great piety and probity” (Nichols’ Literary Anecdotes, V, 119), served his time with Mr. Benjamin Took (Life and Errors of John Dunton, Lond. 1705). The Greek Spicilegium in usum Scholae Felstediensis sub. S. Lydiat Gymnasiarcho, 12mo, was printed in 1698 for H. Bonwicke, at the Red Lion, St. Paul’s Churchyard, and the edition of 1738 for J. & J. Bonwicke, at the same place and sign.
He appears to have married Rebecca . . . . They had James Bonwicke and Philippa Bonwicke, who seems to have married her cousin, John Bonwicke, and had a daughter of her own name.

He died in 1706, and the entry at Mickleham is as follows:—

"Mr. Henry Bonwicke Bookseller of London was buried March ye 18th 1706."

Administration of his goods granted in P. C. C. to his wife Rebecca:—

"April 1706 Henry Bonwicke On 18th day Commission issued to Rebecca Bonwicke Relict of Henry Bonwicke late of the parish of St Gregory's London deceased to administer the goods &c. of the deceased."

His Widow was buried with her husband in 1726.

"1726 Rebecca Bonwicke of London Dec'dr ye 24th." (Mickleham Regr.)

Will of Rebecca Bonwicke. (P. C. C., 251 Plymouth.)

I Rebecka Bonwicke of London widow being at present somewhat indisposed but of sound and perfect mind, memory and understanding . . . . . . . considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being willing and desirous so to order and settle my affaires and Estate in my lifetime as to prevent (as much as in me lies) all disputes and controversys which may happen or arise touching the same after my death . . . . . . it is . . . . my will and earnest desire that all my just debts shall be paid with what speed they can after my death. And it is also my will and desire that my soon James Bonwicke and my now partner and kinsman James Bonwicke should be and continue partners in the Trade of a Bookseller dureing the remainder of the terme to come in the house called the Red Lyon in St. Paul's Church yard wherein I now live under the termes and Agreements in the Articles of Copartnershipp betwenee me and my said kinsman regard being had to the indorsement thereon made subscribed with my owne hand. And to that end I give and bequeath the said house unto my said soon and my said kinsman to be by them enioyed in common dureing so long of the said terme therein to come as they shall continue in Copartnershippe together. (4) Benjamin Bonwicke, born . . . . , chosen Scholar of St. John's College, Oxford, 19th May, 1675; B.C.L. 11th May, 1681; LL.B.; was Second Under-Master of Merchant Taylors' School.
Buried in the Chancel of Mickleham Church.
His father makes the following entry in the Mickleham
Register:—“My son Benjamin Bonwicke LL.B. and Fellow of St. John Baptist's College in Oxon. was buried under ye steps and entrance from y° Church into y°
Chauncell Decembris 14tho 1687.”
The slab, according to the County historians, bore this inscription:—

H. S. E. BENJAMIN BONWICK LL. B. S. JOH. BAPT. Oxon. SOcius ET filius JOANNIS BONWICK ISTIUS ECCLESIE RECTORIS EX DOROTHEA CONJUGE. (5) James Bonwicke, born . . . . , of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, and of Mickleham. He died 14th May, 1729. His wife Martha, who survived him, took out administration of her husband’s goods:—

“June 1729. James Bonwicke. On the 5th day Commission issued to Martha Bonwicke widow, Relict of James Bonwicke late of Mickleham, deceased, to administer, &c.”

Mrs. Bonwicke died on the 19th January, 1735, at the early age of 42 years. They appear to have had, besides a daughter Dorothea—who with her father and mother is commemorated on the ledger represented at the beginning of this paper—an only son, James Bonwicke, who is principal and residuary legatee in the Will of his mother.

Abstract of Will of Martha Bonwicke.

(P. C. C., 124 Derby.)

Martha Bonwicke late of Mickleham in the County of Surrey Widow, now residing in London being Indisposed and very weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory . . . . Item I give to my loving Brother James Braee and my good Sister his wife my Brother and Sister Bryon my kind and good friend Miss Sarah Dee Mrs. Lodge wife of the Reverend Mr. Henry Lodge and her sister Mrs. Jane Lodge, Mrs. Tooth and Mrs. Calverley To each and every of them a ring of one guinea value—to six poor widows at Mickleham aforesaid or within that parish such as my Executors shall judge most fit and proper twenty shillings each. All the rest and residue of my Goods Chattells and Estate whatsoever . . . . unto my Dear Son and only Child James Bonwicke . . . . at his age of Twenty-one years And I commit the Guardianship of him during his Minority to my said loving Brother James Brace . . . . appoint my said Brother James Brace and my said kind and good friend Sarah Dee Joynt Executors . . . . And I will that my Body shall be buried at Mickleham aforesaid as near to my late Dear Husband James Bonwicke deceased as conveniently may be. And I beseech Almighty God to have mercy on my Soul through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ my Lord and Saviour to whom with the Father and Blessed Spirit the Holy and undivided Trinity be all Honour, Glory, Praise and Dominion now and for evermore Amen.

Dated 9 January 1735. The mark of Martha Bonwicke.

Witnesses—Wm. Wigan, Sam Ashurst jun.

Proved at London 2 June 1736 by the oaths of James Brace and Sarah Dee spinster Excentrixes (sic).

Their son is probably the James Bonwicke, of whose Will the following is an abstract:—

Abstract of the Will of James Bonwicke.

(P.C.C., 98 Pinfold.)

I James Bonwicke of the parish of St Faith London Citizen and Stationer of London. I desire to be privately buried in the Vault under St Paul's Church belonging to the parish of St Faith according to the discretion of my Executor hereafter named. I give and bequeath all my personal Estate whatsoever and wheresoever . . . . unto my kinsman James Bonwicke son of Henry Bonwicke deceased who is in Copartnership with me and make him the said James Bonwicke sole Executor . . . .

20 December 1749. James Bonwicke.

Witnesses—J. Caesar Drs Commons John Caesar Doctors' Commons.

Proved at London 8 April 1754 by the oath of James Bonwicke the sole Exor.

(6) Augustine Bonwicke, baptized at Newdigate, 4th June, 1665. Buried at Mickleham thus:—

"1683. Augustine (y° 6th and youngest son and y° 8th and youngest child) of John Bonwicke, B.D., and Dorothy his wife, was Buried January 25th, 1683."

A third black marble slab, formerly in the Church on the south side of the altar, had as follows

---

(7) Elizabeth Bonwicke. (I know nothing about her beyond her name.)

(8) Philippa Bonwicke, baptized at Newdigate 1st August, 1662, as "Philippa D. of John Bonwicke (Rect) of Newdigate) and Dorothie his wife was baptized August 1st 1662."

Her demise is thus recorded at Mickleham:—

"Philippa Daughter of John Bonwicke, B.D., R of y Pish of Mickleha and of Dorothy his wife who depted this life Junij 25 was Buried Junij 27th 1688 in her Bf Augustine's Grave i'th Chauncell under y upmost south window."

We now revert to the issue of Benjamin Bonwicke, of Reygate, and his Wife Katharine (Day).

Besides the Rev. John Bonwicke, they had a son:—

Benjamin Bonwicke, of Rygate, who was "one of y Captains of ye trayned Bands." Manning and Bray, in their History, Vol. II, p. 197, under Horley, write:— "Kinnersley Manor, Horley. In 1675 Kettleby and Petty conveyed to Benjamin Bonwick who was a Captain afterwards Major of the Train bands in this County. In 1708 Bonwick settled it on his intended marriage with Sarah . . . ."

He married first, Sarah, daughter of Thomas Blatt, of Reygate, gent., and by her he had—

Benjamin Bonwick, baptized at Reigate, 10th September, 1657; buried 9th October, 1661.

Sarah Bonwicke.

Elizabeth Bonwicke.

Katherine Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 28th September, 1659.
He married secondly, Mary, daughter of John Wal-tham, of Shalford, in Surrey, gent. The Rev. John Bonwick has recorded this marriage in the Registers of Newdigate, when he was Rector there, as follows:—

“My Bro. Benjamin Bonwick of Reigate gent. and Marie Relict of Wm Woodman of ye same pish were married May 9, 1661.”

They appear to have had (with perhaps others):—

John Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 7th February, 1661–2.
William Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 2nd May, 1663.
Mary Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 15th April, 1664.
Richard Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate, 11th May, 1666.
Rachel Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 14th July, 1667.
Sarah Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 20th July, 1668.
Benjamin Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 6th January, 1669.
John Bonwicke, baptized at Reigate 29th April, 1672.

This list of the children, gathered from the Parish Register of Reigate, differs from those enumerated in the pedigree recorded at the College of Arms. Only one John is named, and Susan is given instead of Sarah in the latter record—but perhaps the others died young.

Major Bonwicke died in 1707, as appears from the inscription on a high tomb of Sussex marble close to the east wall of the chancel of the Church there:—

Here lyes buried the Body of BENJAMIN BONWICKE, Esq and Mary his Wife. She departed
this Life ye 6th day of Decem
Ao DNI 1705
ÆTATIS SUE 72
And he died ye 13 day of
Novembr Ao DNI 1707.
ÆTATIS SUE 81.
A son of the second marriage of Major Bonwicke and Mary, his second wife—Benjamin Bonwicke—would appear to have married Sarah . . . . It is probably to him and not to his father that the County historians Manning and Bray refer, in the note under Kinnersley Manor, Horley (Vol. II, p. 197), where they remark that "In 1708 Bonwick settled it on his intended marriage with Sarah . . . ."

He was a Barrister-at-Law. They seem to have had two daughters, viz:—

(1) Sarah Bonwicke, b. . . . . , married Charles Mason, gent. and Lieutenant R.N., who pre-deceased her. She dying his widow, 18th December, 1801, aged 91 years.

(2) Mary Bonwicke, b. . . . . , married Samuel Duplock.

Besides the family of whom we have been treating there were several others of the same name living in Reigate and its neighbourhood, the baptisms of the children of Richard Bonwick and Mr. John Bonwick being entered in the Parish Register of that place. That there was a connection between the families seems likely, as in the Will of Richard Bonwick, of Reigate, gent. (an abstract of which is given below), Benj. Bonwick is one of the witnesses.

Abstract of the Will of Richard Bonwick.

(Commissary Court of Surrey, vol Chapman, fol. 17.)

16 September 1678. 30th Charles II. "I Richard Bonwick of Reigate in the County of Surrey, gent. being sick and weake in body but of good and perfect memory . . . . . I bequeath my soule unto the hands of Almighty God my Maker hoping assuredly through the mercyes and the only meritts of Jesus Christ my Saviour and Redeemer to be made partaker of everlasting life And my body unto Christian buryall—Unto my soune Charles and unto my Daughters Mary, Sarah, Alice, Elizabeth and Anne five pounds . . . . a piece to each of them . . . . within one yeare next after my decease. All the rest of my goods and chattells whatsoever . . . . unto my wife Isabell and unto my soune Richard who I make joynt Executors . . . .

The marke of the said Richard Bonwick.

Witnesses—Ben. Bonwicke, the marke of George Dewdney, John Ladd.
Proved 24 October 1678 by the oath of Isabella Bonwick Relict of the deceased and one of the Exors—power being reserved to Richard Bonwick the other Executor.

In concluding this paper, I regret that my account of the descendants of Major Bonwicke is so imperfect, owing to the unwillingness of the Rev. J. N. Harrison, Vicar of Reigate, to allow a careful examination of the Registers; my warm acknowledgements are due for access generously accorded to the Registers of Newdigate and Mickleham, for the purposes of this pedigree, by the Rev. Launcelot S. Kennedy and the Rev. W. H. Harké, and to the Rev. L. J. Chamberlen for kindly searching the Registers of Headley for such of the children of the Rev. Ambrose Bonwicke who were baptized there, and the Rev. G. F. Wright, Rector of St. Laurence Pountney and St. Mary Abchurch, for permission to search the Registers for the entry of Ambrose Bonwicke's baptism; also to C. H. Athill, Esq., F.S.A., Richmond Herald, for kind assistance, and R. Garraway Rice, Esq., F.S.A., for some extracts from his MS. Collections relating to Surrey and Sussex.

NOTES.

1 Alan de Bonwigh was witness to a grant of land called Brokefeld, in Billingshurst, co. Sussex, in an undated deed about 1302, and in another deed about the same date, when the name is spelt Alan de Bonwyk. Alan de Bonwike was witness to the grant of a virgate of land in Westgrenestede about 1305. ("Itchingfield," by Percy S. Godman, Esq., Sussex Arch. Coll., Vol. XL, pp. 101 and 102.)

2 The Engagement. "I do declare and promise That I will be "true and faithful to the Commonwealth of England as it is now "established without a King or House of Lords." On 2nd January, 1649-50, an Act was passed by the survivors of the Long Parliament, that every person, being either a Minister of Justice or exercising any judicial functions, or occupying any place of trust, or holding any office whatever, should sign a solemn Engagement to be true and faithful to the Government as then established. On 19th January, 1653-4, Cromwell, by an ordinance issued on that date, repealed the Act. In accordance with the requirement of the Act of 1649-50, the Engagement was taken freely throughout England. (See "Rye under the Commonwealth," by F. A. Inderwick, Q.C.; Sussex Arch. Coll., Vol. XXXIX.)
