WANDSWORTH CHURCHWARDENS' ACCOUNTS
FROM 1620 TO 1630.

Communicated by CECIL T. DAVIS,
Librarian of the Wandsworth Public Libraries.

These accounts are in continuation of those which have appeared in previous volumes.\(^1\)

On page 117 (1621–2), mention is made of the School. The "ould Register" on page 118 has unfortunately disappeared. In 1622–3 (p. 121), the treble bell is recast in London; in 1629–30 (p. 177), the treble, second and fourth bell (known also as the "Tenner," see p. 110), are recast at Chertsey, and a "great" bell added to the peal. The weights are given on pp. 177–8.

The steeple appears to have given considerable anxiety to the church authorities, for in 1622–3 (p. 122) the surveyors are sent for to examine it, they receive a fee, and wine, bread, and beer. The top is taken off and boards covered with lead are temporarily placed over the hole. Eventually, in 1629–30, the steeple is rebuilt. To help pay the expense, a brief is obtained, and on page 178 is a list of some of the fees paid.

On the 7th October, 1623, the parish shared the national joy shown when Prince Charles returned from Spain without a Spanish bride.

For the extinction of fire, the Churchwardens see to the buckets in 1624–5 (p. 136), and in 1626–7 overhaul the fire-irons (p. 147), which were used to pull down burning houses, and thus the fire was prevented from spreading.

The last item on page 149 is interesting. The deed which constituted the Select Vestry of Wandsworth is dated 20 Apr. 1627. It is printed at length in "Notes on Deeds relating to Charities of Wandsworth, by W. Rye, 1881." In the next year's accounts, further expenditure under the same heading is incurred.

On page 152 is the mention of Henry Smith's burial. It seems strange that the Dictionary of National Biography does not contain a life of this worthy, one of the greatest philanthropists of Stuart times. Nearly every parish in Surrey, as well as parishes in other counties, still share in his benefactions. The first payment received by this parish was on 7 Feb. 1628 (p. 153). Sufficeth it to say that Smith's monument, with his effigy robed as an Alderman, is in the north chancel aisle of Wandsworth Parish Church, where he was buried. On it is the following inscription with the Arms:—Quarterly, 1 and 4, Sable, a fesse between three saltires or, for Smith; 2 and 3, Barry of six gules and argent, on a chief of the last three wolves' heads erased of the first, for . . . .

Here Lyeth the Body of HENRY SMYTH Esquire Sometime Citizen and | Alderman of London, who departed this life the 3rd Day of January | No. Dni. 1627, being then near the age of 79 Years, Whome While he | lived gav unto these Severall Townes in Surr following; One | Thousand pounds a piece to buy Lands for perpetuity for ye Relief | and setting the poor People aworke in the said townes, viz., To | the town of Croydon one thousand pounds, to the town of | Kingston one thousand pounds, to the town of Guilford one thou- | sand pounds, to the town of Darkin one thousand pounds, to the | town of Farnham one thousand pounds, & by his last will & Testament | did further give & devise to buy lands for Perpetuity for the | Relief & setting their Poor aworke unto the town of Rye Gate | one thou- | sand pounds, and unto the town of Richmond one especialtye | or debt of a thousand pounds, and unto this town of Wandsworth | wherein he was born, the sum of five hundred pounds for ye same uses | as before, & did further will & bequeath one Thousand to buy | lands | for perpetuity to redeeme poor captives & Prisoners from | ye Turkish | Tyranie, & not here Stinting his charity & bounty, did also Give | and bequeath the most part of his estate being to a | great value | for the purchasing lands of Inheritance for ever for | ye Relief | of the poor and setting them aworke. A pattern worthy | the | imitation of those whome God hath blessed with the abundance of | the Goods of this life to follow him herein.
