

Recording your results

You will find your context number on your bag of soil – this is the number given to the archaeological feature in the trench. It will be four digits long and will start with a 1.

Context number	pH