

Data Table 25 Comparative details of small square-headed brooches from Cemetery II

Gr/object no.	Headplate	Bow	Footplate	Punchmarks	Material	Position/usage
814/3	central panel with two S-scrolls in notched frame; plain raised outer panel; outside frame decorated with dot-in-triangle punchmarks	plain, panelled	undivided foot; plain raised frame around central lozenge with notched border; side and terminal lobes missing; relief-cast animal ornament in upper borders of eye and ?jaw	dot-in-triangle; notching	mercury-gilded silver; Fe pin/spring	R side of waist area, near knife; with iron pin at R side of upper chest and silver-gilt button brooch in centre of lower chest
843/2	central panel with symmetrical animal ornament of foot and curved bars inside plain frame; raised outer border with double row of punched triangles with niello inlay and plain outer frame	panelled, with animal ornament of ribbon body with thigh/hip at each end	undivided foot; central lozenge shape has bent leg with feathered foot inside ridged border; footplate frame has single row of punched triangles with niello inlay; upper border with animal-head ornament including eye and jaw; rectangular side lobes with double rows of nielloed triangles; rectangular terminal with frame with double rows of nielloed triangles around panel with three raised vertical bars	triangles	mercury-gilded silver; Fe pin/spring	R side of upper chest, diagonal with foot towards head; pair with 843/3; also iron pin on R side of chest below 843/2
843/3	as 843/2 but not identical		animal ornament on foot slightly different from 843/2	triangles	mercury-gilded silver; Fe pin/spring	L side of upper chest, diagonal with foot towards head; pair with 843/2
906/3	plain recessed central panel with plain frame and outer border with five lobes with ?cast dot-and-circle motif	ridged	undivided foot with plain central lozenge shape inside plain frame; circular side lobes and similar lobe in upper border, both with dot-and-circle motif		copper alloy; Fe pin/spring	R side of upper chest, foot upwards; with disc brooch at L shoulder
936/1	plain panel with plain frames	panelled, with raised ridge in each panel	central lozenge shape inside plain frame; animal ornament of ?eye in upper borders; terminal lobe with four raised bars inside plain frame		mercury-gilded copper alloy; Fe pin/spring	R side of central chest area, diagonal with head towards head; pair with 936/2, lying parallel to it
936/2	as 936/1		as 936/1 except three raised bars on terminal lobe		mercury-gilded copper alloy; Fe pin/spring	R side of central chest area; pair with 936/1, lying below it