

How-To Make Pottery Using Archaeological Designs

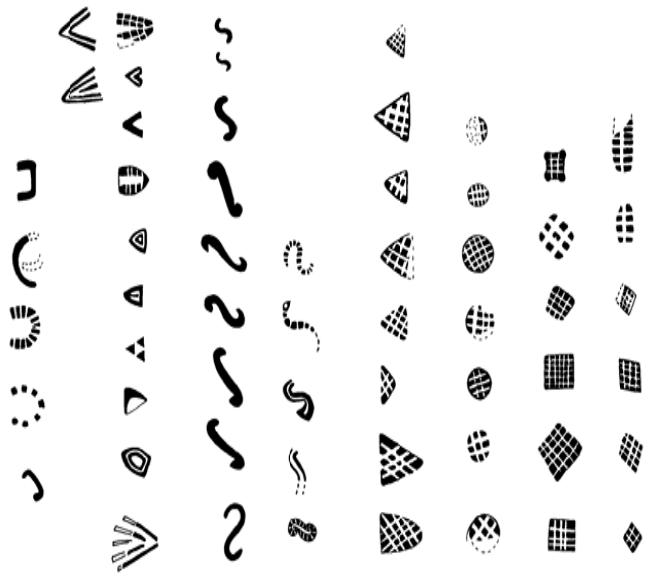

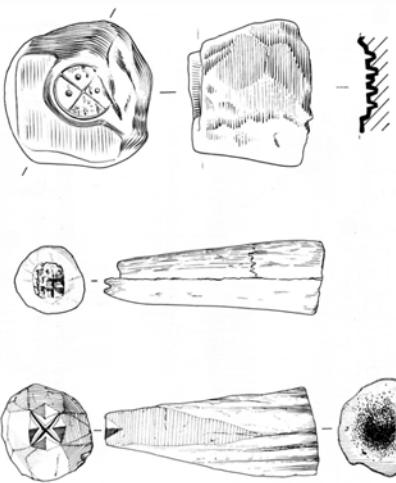

A step by step guide

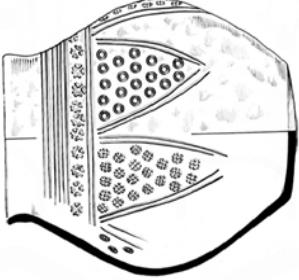

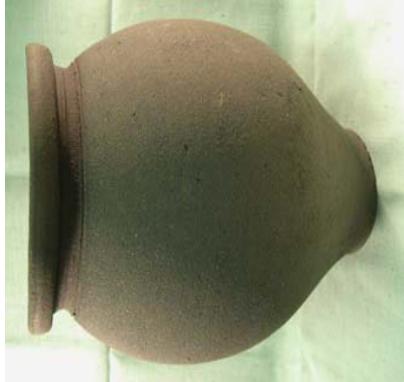

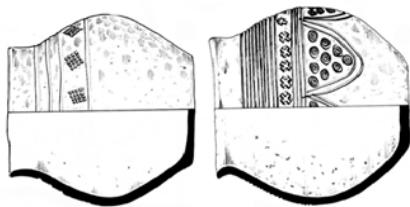

Roll out sausages of clay and build them up, smooth the coils together as you go.

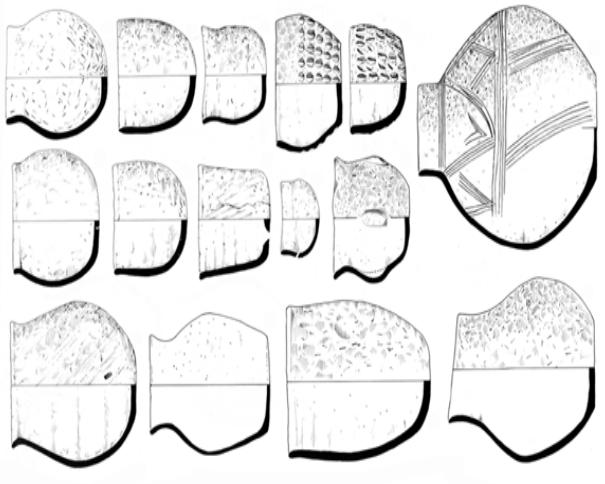

Bone Pottery
stamps from
West Stow

Stamps used to decorate Anglo-Saxon pottery at West Stow.

You could decorate your pottery using stamps and lines, as illustrated in our archaeological pottery resource packs

Allow the pottery to dry thoroughly before firing. If you would like us to come and help you fire your pots in the traditional way contact Duncan Allan 01473 583288 duncan.allan@et.suffolkcc.gov.uk
