

INDEX.

A.

ADEANE, Mr., bronze lituus exhibited by, 411.

Akerman, Mr., excavations at Caerwent under his direction, 91.

Amber, cup of, found in a tumulus at Hove, 184; bead of, found in Ireland, 407.

Amphoræ, stamped handles of, found in Calymnos, 21.

ANGLESEA:—bronze palstave found at Rhos-y-Gad, 85; gold ornaments found at Gaerwein, 295.

ANGLO-SAXON Antiquities:—iron axes exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 87; brooches, tweezers, &c., found at Fairford, 87; gold ring ornamented with niello, ib.; iron boss of a shield, from Fairford, 96; iron arrow-heads, found in the Isle of Wight, 181; charters to Hyde Abbey, ib.; iron sword with hilt enriched with gold, found in the Isle of Wight, 188; architectural vestiges at Worth church, 198; beads found in Norfolk, 296; seals of Offa and Eadgar, 355; remains of pottery, &c., found at Mereworth, 403; urns found in Lincolnshire, 410; iron spears found at Finchbrook, Herts, 413.

Animals, remains of, accompanying ancient interments, 100.

Antefix, Roman, found near Monmouth, 188; found at Caerleon, Chester and York, ib.

Anvils, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 3.

Archer, mounted, 112.

ARCHITECTURE:—remains of ancient Greek structures in Calymnos, 25, 28; photographs of portions of the palace of the Dukes of Burgundy, at Brussels, 182; vestiges of Anglo-Saxon date, at Worth in Sussex, 197; Historical Sketch of, in Scotland, 288; sketches of buildings in Somerset, exhibited by Hon. W. Fox Strangways, 280; sketches by Deebie, of buildings in Kent, &c., exhibited, 414.

Armlets, of bone, found at Lincoln, 85, 86; of glass and Kimmeridge coal, found in Ireland, 408.

Arms and Armour:—sword handle found in Calymnos, 25; contracts for the supply of General Fairfax's forces, 94; Treatise on, by Mr. Hewitt, noticed, 107; brigandine cap, found at Davington, 185; Anglo-Saxon sword found in the Isle of Wight, 188; cetra, or buckler of bronze, found in Ireland, 187. See Spear, Sword, &c.

Arrow-heads, bronze, found in Calymnos, 20, 27; flint, from Yorkshire, of doubtful character, 85, 104, 411; iron, exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 87; Anglo-Saxon, found in the Isle of Wight, 181.

Auditors, their Report, 190, 393.

Austen, Rev. J. H., excavations by, in the Isle of Purbeck, 94; his notice of mural paintings in Wimborne Minster, 103.

Axe, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 3; iron, exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 87.

B.

BANBURY, iron weapons found near, 87.

Banks, Rev. S., bronze ornament exhibited by, 180.

Baptist, St. John, seal with device of his head in a charger, 74.

Barrows, sepulchral, Scandinavian usages regarding, 93, 100; in the Isle of Purbeck, 94; on Charlton Downs, Wilts, 96; at Hove, Brighton, 183; supposed site of one near Mereworth castle, 403; on Petersfield Heath, 412.

Baths, Roman, discovered at Caerwent, 91; at Colerne, Wilts, 330.

Beads, Roman, found at Lincoln, 85; exhibited by Rev. W. Sneyd, 289; of glass and rock-crystal, found at Northwold, Norfolk, 296; of glass, amber, &c., found in Ireland, 407.

- Beauvais, ancient mitre at, 94, 139.
- Bedford, Mr. C. D., exhibits a gold ring found at Wapping, 98; the Tutbury horn, 174.
- BEDFORDSHIRE:—seal found at Great Barford, 280.
- Beldam, Mr., his notice of remains of a pier at Dover, 101; exhibits antique bronzes, 188; customers' seals for Lincoln and Carmarthen, 190.
- Bell-founders established at Gloucester, 73.
- Berkhampstead, palimpsest sepulchral brass at, 181.
- BERKSHIRE:—gold ring found at Lamborne, 105; painted glass in Moreton church, 275.
- Berlin, casts of ivory sculptures at, exhibited, 97, 105.
- Blashill, Mr., exhibits a sketch of a sepulchral slab at Mansell Gamage, 418.
- Blencowe, Mr., communicates notices of the Rooper family, 293.
- Bloxam, Mr., exhibits a bronze helmet found in the Tigris, 273.
- Boase, Mr. J., seal found near Penzance, in his possession, 297.
- Bockett, Miss, exhibits a medal of the Elector of Saxony, 290.
- Bone, Roman reliques formed of, 81; armlets of, found at Lincoln, 85; discs of, found at Cirencester, 188; sculptures in, 416.
- Bow of horn found in Cambridgeshire, 412.
- Brackstone, Mr., exhibits iron axes, arrowheads, and spear, 87; beads found in Norfolk, 298; seal found at Bridgewater, 420.
- Brank, memoir on the, 256; in possession of Mr. Carrington, 257; in Scotland, 264; in the Ashmolean Museum, 265; in Staffordshire, 266.
- BRASSES, Sepulchral:—at Verden and Brunswick, 82; palimpsest at Berkhamstead, 181; at Upminster, 105, 181; of Sir John Giffard, at Bowers Gifford, 189; of John Wybarn, at Ticehurst, 192; at St. Ives, Cornwall, 297.
- Brechin, chapter seal of, 204.
- Bristol, documents relating to fairs at, 285.
- British Museum. See Museum.
- Broke, Sir A. de Capel, presents documents regarding Rockingham Forest, 97.
- Bronze, Antiquities of:—Greek arrowheads, 20, 27; palstave found in Anglesea, 85; dagger found in a barrow at Hove, 184; cetra, or buckler, 187; swords, scabbard, &c., found in Scotland, 203; Greek helmet found in the Tigris, 273; dagger found in a barrow at Teddington, 305; Roman vessels found at Cranoe, 409; celts found in Scotland, 412; spear found in Morayshire, 413; Roman lituus, 411.
- Bruce, Rev. Dr., gold ornaments found in Anglesea, in his possession, 295.
- Buckler, bronze, found in Ireland, 187.
- Brooch, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 86, 173, 188; enamelled, found near Amiens, 180; in Throgmorton street, London, 274, 288; of bronze tinned, found on the Wiltshire Downs, 96; Saxon, found at Fairford, 87; penannular, found in Ireland, 188.
- BUCKINGHAMSHIRE:—seal of the Prioress of Ivingho, 290.
- Buckman, Professor, exhibits Roman objects of bone, &c., found at Cirencester, 81; Saxon brooches, tweezers, &c., from Fairford, 82; Roman stilyard, 178; discs of bone, glass, and terra cotta, 188; his memoir on the removal of tessellated floors, 183; notices of Roman and other remains at Lidney, 281; directs the arrangement of the Museum at Cirencester, 394.
- Burges, Mr. W., his account of a mitre at Beauvais, 94, 139; exhibits ancient Italian paintings, 181; silver betrothal ring, 297; carvings in bone, 416.
- Burt, Mr. J., communicates a letter of James V. of Scotland, 270; documents relating to fairs at Bristol, 285.

C.

- CAERLEON, Roman antefix found at, 188.
- Caerwent, excavations of Roman baths, &c., at, 91.
- Calpe Carteia, ancient glass found at, 99.
- Calymnos, discoveries at, by Mr. Newton, 14; inscriptions, &c. found at, 29.
- CAMBRIDGE:—artistic notes on painted glass in King's College Chapel, by Mr. Scharf, 44; seals attached to documents in the College treasuries, 75, 91; seal of jet, in the Fitzwilliam Museum, 280.
- CAMBRIDGESHIRE:—coin found near the Fleam dyke, 87; model of Sawston Hall exhibited, 98; Roman interment discovered at Meldreth, 291; bow of horn found near Ely, 412.
- Cards, playing, with scientific subjects, 89.
- Carmarthen, seal of Henry, Prince of Wales, for the lordship of, 189; customers' seal for, 190.
- Carrington, Mr. F., his memoir on the brank, 256.
- Carruthers, Mr., his account of supposed Roman reliques in Ireland, 407.
- Carthew, Mr., exhibits silver ornaments found at Northwold, 296.
- Cary family, documents in their possession, 414.
- Caskets, of wood, &c., exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 97; of ivory in the Douce Museum, Goodrich Court, 134.

Caton, Mr., his notices of a sun-dial at Park Hall, 417; of a brass key found near Wat's Dyke, ib.

Celts, bronze, found in Scotland, exhibited by Mr. Wardlaw Ramsay, 412.

Chessmen, of ivory, at Berlin, 27; of jet found at Warrington, 180.

CHESHIRE:—branks at Macclesfield and Chester, 263; the Institute invited to meet at Chester, 397.

Chester, Rev. G. J., his notices of ancient urns found near Scarborough, 85; of a discovery of silver pennies at York, 283; of fictitious arrow-heads, &c., of flint, circulated in Yorkshire, 83, 411.

Chesterford, Great, memoir on a discovery of Roman iron remains there, by Hon. R. C. Neville, 1; bronze brooch, urns, coins, &c., found there, 86, 172, 188; Roman cemetery there, 171.

Cirencester, Roman reliques of bone, glass, &c., found at, 81, 188; removal of the tessellated floors found there achieved by Professor Buckman, 215.

Cist of lead, with Roman remains, found at Meldreth, 291.

Classification of primæval relics, memoir on the history of, 210.

Clayton, Mr. W., communicates a document bearing the seal of W. de Yspania, 62; notice of the site of the Templars' church at Dover, 85.

Clocks, exhibited by Mr. Octavius Morgan, 98.

Coins, British or Gaulish, found near the Fleam Dyke, 87; of gold found in Surrey, 304; of Illiberis illustrating the use of the round buckler, 187; Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 13, 172; at Prinsted, Sussex, 96; near Reigate, 276; at Northwold, 296; at Colerne, 328, 331; Saxon pennies found at York, 87; of Alfred, found in London, 287; gold coin of Edward III. found on the Chesil Bank, 90.

Colerne, Roman villa found at, 328.

Collar, or neck-ring, of bronze found at Piersbridge, 96.

Comb, ivory, exhibited by Mr. Tite, 290.

CORNWALL:—sepulchral brass at St. Ives, 297; seal found near Penzance, 297; proposed publication on ancient monuments of, by Mr. Blight, 314.

Coronation stone, documents and evidence relating to, 245; expenses of painting the coronation chair, 252.

Coventry, tapestries there described, 177.

Coulter, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 6.

Cranoe, Leicestershire, Roman reliques found near, 409.

Crimea, reliques from the campaign there, exhibited by the Rev. J. Hopkinson, 98; discoveries by Dr. Mc Pherson, at Kertch, 314.

Cromlech, called Coldrum Stones, Kent, excavations at, 404.

Cross, sepulchral slab carved with, at Darley le Dale, 413; at Mansell Gamage, 418.

Crystal, spoon and fork, in possession of Hon. R. C. Neville, 86; bead of, found at Northwold, 296; divination by, 373.

Cucking-stool, latest instances of its use, 256.

CUMBERLAND:—Roman inscriptions at Coome Crag, 403.

Cumming, Rev. J. G., casts from reliques of stone found in the Isle of Man, presented by, 104.

Cunobeline, supposed coin of, found near the Fleam Dyke, 87.

D.

DAVINGTON Priory, Kent, brigandine head-piece found at, 185.

Davis, Mr. J. B., his memoir on the bearings of Ethnology on Archaeological Science, 315; notice of his "Crania Britannica," 415.

DENBIGHSHIRE:—wooden font at Pen-gwern, 291.

Denham, Mr. M. A., his notices of a bronze neck-ring found at Piersbridge, 96; of Roman remains found there, 101.

DERBYSHIRE:—sepulchral slab at Darley le Dale, 413.

DEVONSHIRE:—bronze palstave found there, 85; accounts of the churchwardens of Woodbury, 97; documents in possession of the Cary family, at Tor Abbey, 414; municipal seals of Exeter, 418.

Dials, portable, exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 280; by Mr. Tite, 290; inscribed sundial at Park Hall, Salop, 417.

Die, Roman, found in Hertfordshire, 287.

DOCUMENTS, ORIGINAL:—in possession of Mr. Lowndes, 63; relating to the first Russian embassy to England, 77; regulations for the Office of Arms, t. Hen. VIII., 164; charters to Hyde Abbey, 181; publication at Paul's Cross on occasion of a pestilence, 186; relating to divination by a crystal, 373; relating to Devon and Dorset, at Tor Abbey, 414.

Dodd, Mr., exhibits a Subsidy Book for Wiltshire, 88; miniature portraits of Milton and Cromwell, 189.

DORSETSHIRE:—half-noble of Edward III., found on the Chesil Bank, 90; mural paintings at Wimborne, 103; publication at Paul's Cross on occasion of a pestilence, found at Sherborne, 186; documents relating to, exhibited by the Hon. W. F. Strangways, 276; fragment of the effigy of Clement, Abbot of Sherborne, 288 ; seal of the Prioress of Ivingho, found at Worth Matravers, 290.

Dover, appeal to the War Department in behalf of the Pharos, 84 ; reply from Lord Panmure, 98 ; remains of a wooden pier found at, 101.

Durer, traces of his designs in the painted glass, King's College, Cambridge, 59.

DURHAM:—bronze neck-ring found at Pierse-bridge, 96 ; Roman interments, &c., found there, 101.

E.

EADGAR, his charter to St. Denis, and his seal, 355.

Edinburgh, inventory of valuables in the Castle, 1296, 247 ; brank found at, 268 ; report of the meeting of the Institute there, 375 ; discourse on the ancient buildings there, by Mr. R. Chambers, 381 ; on Edinburgh Castle, prior to 1573, by the same, 390.

Edward I., his spoiliations in Scotland, 245.

Effigy, sepulchral, at Haseley, Oxfordshire, 111 ; of Clement, Abbot of Sherborne, 288. See Brasses.

Egypt and Nubia, memoir on the condition of ancient remains there, 154.

Ellacombe, Rev. H. T., exhibits the accounts of the churchwardens of Woodbury, 97.

Elsted, Mr., his notice of remains of a wooden pier at Dover, 101.

ENAMEL, ART OF:—enamel distinguished from niello, 87 ; on a gold ornament found at Matlask, Norfolk, 88 ; enamelled candlesticks, exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 97 ; cloisonné, on orphreys of vestments at Palermo, 144 ; enamelled brooch, late Roman, exhibited by Rev. W. Sneyd, 180 ; enamelled stand, and a badge with the arms of Toulouse, 287 ; badge with the arms of De Lara, 289 ; enamelled ornament, in possession of the Mr. C. Roach Smith, ib.

Erasmus, his visit to Walsingham, 120.

ESSEX:—Roman antiquities found by Hon. R. Neville at Great Chesterford, 1, 86, 171, 188, 409 ; notices of the De Yspania family, 62 ; silver Greek seal found at Maldon, 98 ; sepulchral brasses at Upminster, 105, 181 ; sepulchral brass of Sir John Giffard, 189.

Ethnology, memoir on its bearings on Archaeological science, 315.

Ew. r., brass, 73, 74.

Eyton, Rev. R. W., memoirs by, on Haughmond Abbey, 145 ; on the origin and early history of the Fitzalans and Stuarts, 333.

Exeter, municipal seals of, and seal for Statutes Merchant, 418.

F.

Fabrications of antiquities. See Flint.

Fairfax, Sir T., contracts for his forces, 94.

Fairford, Gloucestershire, Saxon reliques found there, exhibited by Professor Buckman, 87 ; iron boss of a shield, 96 ; painted glass and architectural decorations in the church, 274.

Fairless, Mr., his notice of a tomb found near Hexham, 410.

Falkner, Mr., his notice of a mural painting at Horley, Oxon, 416.

Farrer, Mr., exhibits a sculpture in ivory, 97 ; reliquary with the jaw of St. Mark, nuptial casket, &c., ib.

Fibula. See Brooch.

Finchlinbrook, Herts, iron spears found there, 413.

Fitch, Mr., notice of a gold ornament found at Matlask, in his collection, 88 ; exhibits a seal found at Happisburgh, 90 ; a gold signet ring found at Pulham, 420.

Fitzalan family, memoir on their origin, by Rev. R. W. Eyton, 333.

Fleam Dyke, Cambridgeshire, coin of Cunobeline found there, 87.

Flint, arrow-heads of, found in Yorkshire, 85 ; lance-head, specimen exhibited by Lord Londesborough, 104 ; fabricated reliques of, noticed by Rev. G. J. Chester, 85, 411.

Font, of wood, at Pengwern, Denbighshire, 291.

Fork, of crystal, exhibited by Hon. R. C. Neville, 86.

Fortoul, M., Minister of Public Instruction in France, letters from, 99.

FRANCE:—enamelled brooch found near Amiens, 180 ; Anglo-Saxon charters to St. Denis noticed, 355.

Franks, Mr. A. W., his remarks on Ethelwulf's ring and on early enamels, 87 ; exhibits a sculpture in ivory belonging to the Dean of Llandaff, 88 ; seal with the device of the Temptation, 183 ; enamelled four-footed stand, pilgrim's signs, &c., 287 ; his notice of an oculist's stamp found at Lidney, 282.

Fylingdales, Yorkshire, sepulchral urn found there, 95.

G.

GIFFARD, SIR JOHN, sepulchral brass of, at Bowers Gifford, 189.

Glass, Greek, found in excavations at Calymnos, 18 ; Roman, found at Great Chesterford, Essex, 1 ; at Tartessus, 99 ; at Meldreth, Cambridgeshire, 291 ; at Hallaton, Leicestershire, 409.

— ancient beads of, found at Lincoln,

- 85; in Rev. W. Sneyd's collection, 289; at Northwold, Norfolk, 296; in Ireland, 407.
- Glass, painted, in King's College Chapel, Cambridge, artistic notes on, 44; arms of the last Prior of Walsingham, 127; appeal for preservation of a window at Moreton, Berks, 275.
- GLOUCESTERSHIRE :— bell-founders established at Gloucester, 73; Roman remains found at Cirencester, 81; Saxon brooches, &c., found at Fairford, 87, 96; bronze stilyard, found at Watermoor, 178; memoir on the removal of tessellated floors at Cirencester, 215; antiquities found near Lidney, 281; oculist's stamp found at Lidney, 282; poniard found at Gloucester, 416.
- Godwin, Mr., his memoir on the discovery of a Roman villa at Colerne, 328.
- Gold, ornaments of, found at Calymnos, 16, 35, 37; found in Anglesea and in Ireland, 295; attached to the hilt of an Anglo-Saxon sword, 188.
- Goodrich Court, casts from ivory sculptures there, exhibited, 96; memoir on a casket there, bearing the royal arms, 134.
- Gordon, Rev. R., exhibits spurs found near Oxford, 179; his notice of a bronze key-ring in the Ashmolean Museum, 413.
- Grazebrook, Mr., his proposal for a Visitation of arms, 411.
- Greaves, Mr., exhibits the horn of the Honor of Tutbury, 174.
- Greek antiquities, found in Calymnos, 14; bronze helmet found in the Tigris, 273.
- Guildford, brass figure found near the Castle, exhibited, 89.
- Gunner, Rev. W. H., his notices of the library of Winchester College, 176; exhibits Anglo-Saxon charters to Hyde Abbey, 181.
- H.
- HAMMERS, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 6.
- Harston, Rev. E., communicates a document found at Sherborne, 185; his notices of the effigy of Abbot Clement found there, 283.
- Haughmond Abbey, Salop, memoir on its origin and founders, 145.
- Hawkins, Mr., his notices of the mint at Shrewsbury, 38.
- Henderson, Mr., exhibits a privy seal set with an intaglio, 189.
- HERALDRY :—arms of Walsingham Priory, 127; Royal arms on a casket at Goodrich Court, 134; arms attached to the Tutbury Horn, 175; proposed publication of an Ordinary of Arms, by Mr. Papworth, 424.
- Heralds, proposed regulations for the Office of Arms, t. Hen. VIII., 164.
- HEREFORDSHIRE :—sepulchral slab found at Mansell Gamage, 418.
- HERTFORDSHIRE :—palimpsest sepulchral brass at Berkhamstead, 181; Roman die of bone found at Ashwell, 287; Anglo-Saxon spears found at Finchinbrook, 413.
- Hewitt, Mr., exhibits Anglo-Saxon arrowheads, 181; Anglo-Saxon sword found in the Isle of Wight, 188; sketch of a sepulchral slab at Darley le Dale, 413.
- Hexham, interment and urn found at, 410.
- Hill, Rev. J. H., his notices of Roman reliques found at Hallaton, Leicestershire, 409; of sepulchral slabs there, 410.
- Holy Island, restorations there, under Mr. Salvin's direction, 283; inscribed plate found there, 411.
- Hone, of stone, found in a barrow near Brighton, 184.
- Hopkinson, Rev. Francis, exhibits reliques from the Crith-an campaign, 98; French seal with a figure of St. Denis, 189.
- Horley, Oxfordshire, mural painting of St. Christopher there, 416.
- Horn of the Honor of Tutbury, exhibited, 174.
- Horneastle, urn found near, 86.
- Horse, tooth of, used as an amulet, 27; remains of, found with Scandinavian interments, 93, 100; in graves, near the Roman station at Piersebridge, Durham, 101.
- Hove, Sussex, barrow and reliques found there, 183.
- Hughes, Mr. T., exhibits a gold ring found at Chester, 413.
- Hugo, Rev. T., exhibits pilgrim's signs, 105; bronze figure of Hercules, 188; fragments of painted glass from Clerkenwell, 189.
- Hunter, Mr., his memoir on the spoiliations of Edward I. in Scotland, and on the coronation stone, 245.
- I.
- IGHTHAM, Kent, monument of Lady Selby there, 416.
- Impey, Mr. W., his notices of Roman and other reliques found in London, 274.
- Infants, interments of, found at Great Chesterford, 172.
- Inscriptions, Greek, found by Mr. Newton, at Calymnos, 29; mediæval, remarkable example on the effigy of Abbot Clement, at Sherborne, 283.
- IRISH ANTIQUITIES :—bronze falc exhibited by Lord Londesborough, 104; casts

- from antiquities in the Museum of the R. I. Academy, exhibited, 178; bronze buckler exhibited by Lord Londesborough, 187; penannular brooch, 188; bronze spear in Mr. Brackstone's collection, 296; bronze reliques found at Ferney, exhibited by Mr. Shirley, 296; Transactions of the Kilkenny Archaeological Society noticed, 305; Ogham inscriptions, 310; supposed Roman reliques in Mr. Carruthers's Museum, 407.
- Iron, remarkable deposit of Roman implements, found at Great Chesterford, 1, 13; Anglo-Saxon arrow-heads, and weapons of, noticed, 181, 188, 413.
- Ivory, sculptures in:—crosier at Newcastle noticed, 85; casts from examples at Goodrich Court exhibited, 96; at Berlin, &c., 97, 105; tablet exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 97; example exhibited by Rev. W. Sneyd, 180; casts from examples at Paris, 416.
- J.
- JACOBS, Mr. B., exhibits a silver ring, 90.
- JAMES V., king of Scots, letter from, to Henry VIII., 271.
- Jar, interment in a, 20.
- Jet, chessmen of, found at Warrington, 180; seal of, in the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge, 280.
- Johnson, Mr., his notices of sepulchral brasses at Upminster, Essex, 105, 181, 182.
- Jones, Rev. Hugh, D.D., exhibits a bronze palstave, found in Anglesea, 85.
- K.
- Kemble, Mr., his memoir on burial and cremation, 81; on the mortuary customs of the Scandinavians, 92, 100, 181, 291; on house-urns, 273; his notices of excavations at Mereworth, Kent, 403; at Coldrum, 404; of the monument of Lady Selby, at Ightham, 416.
- KENT:—brigandine cap found at Davington Priory, 185; enamelled badge, in the Rev. W. Sneyd's collection, 289; excavations at Mereworth, 403; at the Cromlech, called Coldrum Stones, 404; notice of the monument of Lady Selby, at Ightham, 416.
- Kertch, recent discoveries there, by Dr. M. Pherson, 314, 397.
- King, Mr. H. W., exhibits the seal of Henry, Prince of Wales, for Carmarthen, 189; rubbing of the sepulchral brass of Sir John Giffard, ib.
- King's College, Cambridge, artistic notes on painted glass in the Chapel of, 44.
- Kymer, Miss, exhibits drawings of painted glass, &c., at Fairford, 275.
- L.
- LAMPS, found in tombs at Calymnos, 23, 37; pateræ of granite, &c., to serve as lamps, found in the Isle of Man and Scotland, 104, 202.
- LANCASHIRE:—chessmen of jet, found at Warrington, 180.
- Le Keux, Mr., his notices of seals of the Percy family, 84; exhibits drawings of ancient buildings in Kent, &c., 414.
- Lee Warner, Rev. J., his memoir on Walsingham Priory, 115.
- Lichfield, brank preserved at, 266.
- Lidney, Gloucestershire, ancient vestiges there, described by Professor Buckman, 281; Roman oculist's stamp found there, 282.
- LINCOLNSHIRE:—armlets, beads, &c., found at Lincoln, 85; sepulchral urn, at Horn-castle, 86; silver ring, near Thornton College, 90; examples of Roman glass, at Lincoln, 100; pierced quarry of lead, at Haverholme Priory, 105; Roman pottery of peculiar manufacture, at Lincoln, 173; customers' seal for Lincoln, 190; brank preserved at Doddington Park, 265; interments in hair-cloth garments, at Lincoln Cathedral, 284; Anglo-Saxon urns found at South Willingham, 411.
- Lindisfarne, restorations at the Abbey Church, 283, 394; inscribed plate of lead found there, 411.
- Lituus, of bronze, exhibited, 411.
- Locks, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 7, 9; fragment of, found in Wilts, 96.
- Londesborough, Lord, exhibits an Irish bronze fulx, 104; a flint lance-head, from Yorkshire, ib.; portion of a war-saddle, of chased steel, 181; bronze buckler, found in Ireland, 178; silver mathematical instruments, 189.
- London, Antiquities found in:—reliques discovered in Mincing Lane, 274; fictile urn, in Fleet Street, 276; proof piece of a penny of Alfred, in St. Paul's Churchyard, 287; bronze Roman brooch, &c., in Throgmorton Street, 288; enamelled ornament, in possession of Mr. Roach Smith, 289.
- Lowndes, Mr. Alan, document relating to the De Yspania family, in his possession, 62.
- Ludlow, engine of torture in the Museum there, 269.
- M.
- MADDEN, SIR F., his memoir on charters and seals of Offa and Eadgar, 355.

Malta, account of Megalithic remains there, by Mr. Rhind, 397.

Man, Isle of:—antiquities of stone found there, 104; proposed publications relating to, by Rev. J. G. Cumming, 314.

Manchester, notice of the exhibition of art-treasures at, 424.

Manning, Rev. C. R., his notice of a seal found at Ashwicken, 280.

Mansell Gamage, Herefordshire, sepulchral slab there, 418.

Mark, St., reliquary enclosing a relique of, exhibited, 97.

Master, Rev. G., exhibits playing cards bearing scientific devices, 89.

Maughan, Rev. J., his notices of Roman inscriptions in Cumberland, 404.

Medal, of Sir Giles Strangways, by Rotier, 182; of John, Elector of Saxony, 290.

Meetings of the Institute, monthly, 81, 171, 273, 403; annual, in London, 190; in Edinburgh, 375.

Meldreth, Cambridgeshire, Roman interment found there, 291.

Mereworth Castle Kent, notice of excavations there, by Mr. Kemble, 403.

Millstones, vestiges of their manufacture in Gloucester-hire, 281.

Mint at Shrewsbury, notices of, by Mr. Hawkins, 38.

Minty, Mr., exhibits a bow of horn, 412; pebble found in a barrow on Petersfield Heath, 412.

Mitre, preserved at Beauvais, described by Mr. Burges, 94, 189.

MONMOUTHSHIRE:—account of excavations at Caerwent, 91; Roman antefix found near Monmouth, 188.

Moreton, Berks, appeal for preservation of painted glass there, 275.

Morgan, Mr. O., his account of Roman baths, &c., discovered at Caerwent, 91; exhibits ancient clocks, 97; model of Sawston Hall, Cambridgeshire, 98; portable dial and pedometer, 280; papal ring, 290; silver porringer, 297; Gothic reliquary, 297; ecclesiastical and other rings, 297.

Mosaic floors, memoir on their removal, by Professor Buckman, 215.

MUSEUM, BRITISH, NOTICES OF ANTIQUITIES THERE:—gold ring found near Peterborough, 87; ivory sculpture presented by the Dean of Llandaff, 88; antique glass, 100; matrices of customers' seals, 190; Roman enamel, pilgrims' signs, &c., in Mr. Roach Smith's collections, 287; recent acquisitions noticed, 395.

N.

NELSON, Rev. G., exhibits a perfume bottle, and a gold inscribed ring, 105.

Nesbitt, Mr. A., his notice of sepulchral brasses at Verden and Brunswick, 82; exhibits casts from ivory sculptures at Goodrich Court and in foreign collections, 96, 97; penannular Irish brooch and bi-cornute pin, 188.

Neville, Hon. R. C., his memoir on a discovery of Roman implements of iron, at Great Chesterford, 1; exhibits a bronze fibula found there, 86; crystal fork and spoon, ib.; British coin found near the Fleam Dyke, 87; gold and silver rings, 90; Greek or Russo-Greek seal found in Essex, 98; his notices of a Roman cemetery excavated at Great Chesterford, 171, 409; of a Roman interment at Meldreth, Cambridgeshire, 291; exhibits a Roman die of bone, found in Herts, 287; gold ring, with a rebus, 297; bronze spoon found at Chesterford, 413; iron spears found at Finchbrook, 413.

Newton, Mr. C., his memoir on excavations at Calymnos, 13.

Niello, examples of, on a gold ring found near Peterborough, 87; on Eihelwulf's ring, in the British Museum, 87; on an Anglo-Saxon sword found in the Isle of Wight, 188.

NORFOLK:—gold reliquary found at Matlask, noticed, 88; seal found at Happisburgh, 90; memoir on Walsingham Priory by Rev. J. Lee Warner, 115; seal set with an intaglio, found at Ashwicken, 280; beads found at Northwold, 296; silver fragments, ornament set with a Roman family coin, &c., found at Northwold, 296; gold signet ring, found at Pulham, 420.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:—gold ring found in river Nene, 87; documents relating to Rockingham Forest, presented, 97.

Northumberland, the Duke of, Heraldic MS. in his library at Syon House, 164; Survey of the Roman Wall, by his direction, 394.

NORTHUMBERLAND:—restorations at the Abbey Church, Lindisfarne, 283, 394; inscribed leaden plate found there, 411.

Nubia and Egypt, memoir on the condition of their monuments, 154.

O.

OFFA, his charter to St. Denis, and his seal, 355.

Oliver, Rev. Dr., communicates documents preserved by the Cary family, 414.

Onslow, Hon. Col., brass figure in his possession, found at Guildford, 89.

Ordinary of Arms, proposed for publication by Mr. Papworth, 420.

OXFORDSHIRE:—sepulchral effigy at Haseley, 111; spurs found near Oxford, exhibited by Rev. R. Gordon, 179; mural painting of St. Christopher, at Horley, 416.

P.

- PADLOCKS, Roman, found at great Chesterford, 7.
- Painting, Mural, at Wimborne Minster, 104; of St. Christopher, at Horley, Oxfordshire, 416; executed by Master Walter, to decorate the coronation chair, 252.
- Palstave, found in Devonshire, 85; found in Anglesea, ib.
- Panmure, Lord, his communication regarding the Pharos at Dover, 98; his instructions for the record of ancient remains through the Ordnance Survey in Scotland, 378.
- Papworth, Mr., his proposed publication of an Ordinary of Arms, 424.
- Peterborough, gold ring enriched with niello found near, 87.
- Petersfield Heath, remarkable pebble found in a barrow there, 412.
- Piersebridge, Durham, bronze neck-ring found there, 96; Roman interments, &c., 101.
- Pilgrims' signs, found in the Thames, 105; distributed at Walsingham, Canterbury, &c., 132; found at Cirencester, 133; found in France, exhibited by Rev. W. Sneyd, 180; Canterbury bells, ampullæ, &c., in Mr. Roach Smith's collection, 288.
- Pits filled with rubbish, found near Roman stations, 1.
- Pollard, Mr. J., his account of interments in hair-cloth at Lincoln, 284.
- Pottery, Greek, found at Calymnos, 20, 23; sepulchral urn found near Scarborough, 85; at Horncastle, 86; at Fylingdales, Yorkshire, 95; vase of peculiar Roman ware, at Lincoln, 173; sepulchral house urns, described by Mr. Kemble, 273; mediæval vessel found in Fleet Street, 276; Samian, found at Great Chesterford, 86, 172; money-pot of green glazed ware, found in Dunster Court, London, 288; specimens of Roman Upchurch ware, 296; wine bottles of white enamelled pottery, 297; fragments of various periods found in excavations at Mereworth, Kent, 403; Anglo-Saxon urns found in Lincolnshire, 410.
- Powder Plot, allusion to, on an engraved tablet at Ightham, Kent, 416.
- Primæval Antiquities, memoir on their classification, 209.
- Prinsted, Sussex, Roman family coin found there, 96.
- PUBLICATIONS, ARCHAEOLOGICAL, noticed:—
Types and figures of the Bible, by

Louisa Twining, 106; Ancient Armour and weapons, by John Hewitt, 107; Roman London, announced for publication by Mr. C. Roach Smith, 114; Sussex Archaeological Collections, vol. viii. 192; Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland, vol. i., 199; Reliques of the Celtic, Romano-British and Anglo-Saxon periods, announced for publication by Mr. Akerman, 207; Manual for the Genealogist and Topographer, &c., by Mr. R. Sims, 207; Transactions of the Essex Archaeological Society, 208; Inventorium Sepulchrale, edited by Mr. C. Roach Smith, 298; Transactions of the Surrey Archaeological Society, 303; Transactions of the Kilkenny Archaeological Society, 305; announcement of Horæ Ferales, by Mr. Kemble, 314; of Antiquities discovered at Kertch, by Dr. M'Pherson, ib.; of works on the Isle of Man and its Runic monuments, by Rev. J. G. Cumming, ib.; of Ancient Crosses, &c. in Cornwall, by Mr. Blight, ib.; of Examples of architecture, &c. in Italy, by Mr. Goldie, ib.; Crania Britannica, by J. Barnard Davis and Dr. Thurnam, 421.

Purbeck, Isle of, remarkable interment discovered by Rev. J. Austen, 94; seal of the Prioress of Ivingho, found there, 290.

Q.

QUARRY, of lead, pierced for ventilation, found in Lincolnshire, 105.

R.

- RAINE, Rev. J., jun., communicates a document regarding divination by a crystal, 373.
- Randal, Mr., presents a cast from an inscribed stone, found at Shrewsbury, 296.
- Rapiers, exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 280.
- Ready, Mr., exhibits seals obtained at Cambridge and at Winchester, 91; seal of Richard Fitzalan, Earl of Arundel, 182.
- Reliquary, containing the jaw of St. Mark, exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 97; exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 297.
- Rhind, Mr. A. H., his memoir on the condition of monuments in Egypt and Nubia, 154; on the history of the systematic classification of primæval relics, 209; on megalithic remains in Malta, 397.
- Richard I., observations on his great seals, 111.

Ring, of lead, found at Stratton, Gloucestershire, 87; of gold, found in the river Nene, ib.; of Allstan, in the British Museum, 88; of gold with device of a pelican, and one of silver, both in Mr. Neville's collection, 90; of silver, found near Thornton College, Lincolnshire, ib.; of gold, found in Wapping, 98; of gold, inscribed with a posy, found at Lamborne, Berks, 105; called St. Martin's Rings, 186; of gold, found on the Banstead Downs, ib.; Papal, in Mr. Morgan's collection, 290; silver betrothal ring, exhibited by Mr. Burges, 297; of gold, engraved with a rebus, in Mr. Neville's collection, ib.; ecclesiastical, exhibited by Mr. Morgan, ib.; Roman key-ring found near Scarborough, 413; of gold, inscribed, found at Chester, 413.

Robertson, Mr. J., communicates documents regarding the first Russian embassy to England, 77; his Sketch of the history of Architecture in Scotland, 228.

Rogers, Mr. J., his notice of a sepulchral brass at St. Ives, 297.

Rooper family, letter relating to their history, 294.

ROMAN ANTIQUITIES:—deposit of iron implements, &c., found at Great Chesterford, by Mr. Neville, 1; reliques of bone, &c., found at Cirencester, 81, 188; fibula, pottery, &c., at Great Chesterford, 86, 413; mosaic floors, baths, &c., excavated at Caerwent, 91; bronze neck-ring, interments, &c., at Piersebridge, Durham, 96, 101; glass of remarkable fabrication, found at Tartessus, 99; cemetery excavated by Mr. Neville, at Great Chesterford, 171, 409; pottery of peculiar kinds, found at Lincoln, 173, 174; bronze stilyard, found at Watermoor, Gloucestershire, 178; spurs from various localities, 179; antefix found near Monmouth, 188; antiquities found in Scotland, 203; tessellated floors, their construction and removal, &c., by Professor Buckman, 216; reliques found in London, 274; at Lidney, Gloucestershire, 281; oculist's stamp found at Lidney, 282; villa discovered at Colerne, Wilts, 328; vestiges of Roman medicine and surgery, noticed by Professor Simpson, 387; inscriptions on Coome Crags, Cumberland, 404; supposed reliques of Roman date in Ireland, in Mr. Carruthers' collection, 407; reliques of bronze, glass, &c. found at Hallaton, Leicestershire, 409; bronze lituus exhibited by Mr. Adeane, 411.

Russia, embassy to England from, in the reign of Mary, 77.

S.

SALVIN, Mr., restorations of Lindisfarne Abbey church, under his directions, 283, 394, 411.

Samian ware, found at Great Chesterford, 86, 172; in London, 274; at Mere-worth, Kent, 403.

Scarborough, urns and flint arrow-heads, found in its neighbourhood, 85; Roman bronze ring found there, 413.

Scharf, Mr. G., his artistic notes on painted glass at King's College, Cambridge, 44; his observations on the Coventry tapestry, 177; exhibits drawings of painted glass at Fairford, 274.

Scold's bridle, or brank, memoir on its use, and existing examples noticed, 256.

SCOTLAND:—documents regarding the Russian embassy wrecked on the Scottish coasts, 77; proposed exhibition of Scottish portraits, 171, 401; antiquities of stone, bronze, &c. noticed, 201, 203; sculptured slabs and crosses, 204, 383; capital seal of Brechin, 205; sketch of the history of architecture in Scotland, by Mr. J. Robertson, 228; spoiliations of Edward I., and documents relating to the coronation stone, 245; bronze celts exhibited by Mr. Wardlaw Ramsay, 412; bronze spear found in Morayshire, 413.

Sculptures, Greek, found in Calymnos, 27, 29.

Scythes, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 10.

SEALS, MEDÆVAL, examples of, 62; seal of William de Yspania, ib.; of scyphate form, 64; of William de Vipont, 65; of Margaret de Uvedale, 70; of Sandre de Gloucester, 72; seals with device of the head of St. John Baptist, 74; seals of the Percy family, 84; of Adam de Stoddone, found in Dorset, 90; with device of a lion, found in Norfolk, ib.; of the vicars choral, Wells, ib.; of Humphrey, Duke of Gloucester, 91; of Richard II. as Prince of Chester, ib.; of Isabella de Fortibus, ib.; Greek or Russo-Greek seal, found in Essex, 98; great seal of William the Conqueror, 109; of Richard I., 110; seals of Walsingham Priory, 126; of Richard Fitzalan, Earl of Arundel, 182; of Thomas Gyffard, 183; seal with device of the Temptation, ib.; Italian matrix, exhibited by Rev. W. Sneyd, ib.; privy seal set with an antique gem, exhibited by Mr. Henderson, 189; with representation of St. Denis, exhibited by Rev. F. Hopkinson, ib.; seal of Henry, Prince of Wales, for Carmarthen, ib.; customers' seals for Lincoln and Car-

- marthen, 190; customers' seals in the British Museum, ib.; seal of the abbot of Robertsbridge, Sussex, 194; of Robertsbridge Abbey, 195; of Ralph de Issodun, Earl of Eu, 194; of Sir William de Hoo, 196; of the chapter of Brechin, 205; with Hebrew legend, found near Edinburgh, ib.; other examples with Hebrew legends, ib.; of Margaret, queen of Scots, 271; of Philip de Columbaris, 277; of William, son of Robert de Canneswelle, ib.; of John Sonynghulle, 278; of Drogo de Warcies, ib.; of the mayoralty of the staple at Westminster, ib.; of Sir Ivo Fitz-Wareyn, 279; of Robert de Sambourne, ib.; of Sir John de Meryet, ib.; of John de Chidioke, 280; privy-seal with an antique gem, found at Ashwicken, Norfolk, ib.; of Henry de Shornne, found in Bedfordshire, ib.; of jet, in the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge, ib.; of Ivingho Priory, Bucks, 290; of Fulbert Rooper, 295; of Sir Robert de Furneaux, ib.; of the fraternity of the Conception, Paris, 297; of John Thyngul, found at Youghal, 313; of Offa and Eadgar, attached to charters to St. Denis, 355; of Radulf de Buvile, 414; of Gilbert Bondi, 415; of John de Cary, 416; of the city and mayoralty of Exeter, 418; for Statutes Merchant, at Exeter, ib.; notice of the king's seals for Statutes Merchant, 420; love-seal found at Bridgwater, ib.; signet ring found at Pulham, Norfolk, ib.
- Self-immolation, in ancient mortuary usages, 184.
- SEPUCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—Roman interments found in Essex, 1; Greek, in Calymnos, 13; tomb of clay shaped like a shoe, 17; terra cotta bas-relief, found in a Greek tomb, 19; singular interment in a large jar, 20; discourses by Mr. Kemble on the mortuary customs of Scandinavia, 92, 100, 181, 291; interments found at Piersebridge, Durham, 101; Roman cemetery at Great Chesterford, 171; interments of infants in Roman times, 172; barrow containing an amber cup, &c., excavated near Brighton, 183; observations by Mr. Kemble on sepulchral urns in form of a tent or house, 273; interments in hair-cloth at Lincoln Cathedral, 284; Roman interment at Meldreth, 291; sepulchral cist, urn, &c., found near Hexham, 410.
- Sepulchral brasses, at Verden and Brunswick, 82; at Upminster, Essex, 105; palimpsest, 192; at Berkhamstead, 181; of John Wybarn, at Ticehurst, Sussex, 192; at St. Ives, Cornwall, 297.
- Shackles, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 9.
- Shears, Roman, 10.
- Sherborne, Dorset, singular document found there, relating to a pestilence, 186; effigy of Abbot Clement there, 288.
- Shirley, Mr., exhibits bronze pail-handles found in co. Monaghan, 296.
- Shrewsbury, notices of the mint there, by Mr. Hawkins, 38; inscribed stone discovered there, bearing the name of Alice Lestrangle, 296.
- SHROPSHIRE:—memoir by Rev. R. W. Eyton, on the origin and founders of Haughmond Abbey, 145; notice of a sun-dial at Park Hall, by Mr. Caton, 417; brass key found near Wat's Dyke, exhibited, ib.
- Sicily, notice of reliques of the Norman kings, preserved at Palermo, 143.
- Silk, notices of oriental tissues of, 142.
- Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits an iron boss of a shield from Fairford, 96; Roman antefix found near Monmouth, 188; his notice of an engine of torture in the Ludlow Museum, 269; exhibits rapiers of various periods, 280; a Roman urn of Upchurch ware, 296; poniard found at Gloucester, 416.
- Smith, Mr. C. Roach, notices of the "Inventorium Sepulchrale," edited by him, 114, 395; enamelled object in his possession exhibited, 289; pilgrims' signs, proof piece of a coin of Alfred, and other antiquities in his collection, 287.
- Sneyd, Rev. Walter, exhibits an enamelled brooch, sculpture in ivory, and a pilgrim's sign, 180; Italian seal, 183; enamelled badge, with the arms of De Lara, beads, &c., 289; a cup of rhinoceros' horn, 297; knife and fork, silver mounted, ib.
- SOMERSETSHIRE:—seal of the vicars choral at Wells, 90; seal of Adam de Stoddone, ib.; documents relating to the county, communicated by the Hon. W. Fox Strangways, 279; seal found at Bridgwater, 420.
- Spear, Roman, found at Great Chesterford, 12; Anglo-Saxon, with transverse bar, 88, 169; of bronze found in Ireland, 296; of iron found at Finchbrook, 413; of bronze found in Morayshire, ib.
- Spurs, Roman and Mediæval, found near Oxford, exhibited by the Rev. R. Gordon, 179.
- STAFFORDSHIRE:—horn of the Honor of Tutbury exhibited, 174; branks, at Lichfield and Hamstall Ridware, 266, 267.
- Stilyard, Roman, of bronze, found at Watermoor, Gloucestershire, 178.
- STONE, ANTIQUITIES OF:—pateræ found in the

- Isle of Man and in Scotland, 104, 202; hone found in a barrow near Brighton, 184; mould for celts (?), and other objects, found in Scotland, 201; arrow-heads, &c., of flint obtained in Yorkshire, of doubtful authenticity, 85, 104, 411; large ovoidal pebble, found in a barrow on Petersfield Heath, 413.
- Strangways, Hon. W. Fox., exhibits the seal of Adam de Stoddone, 90; gold coin of Edward III., ib.; photographs of the palace of the dukes of Burgundy at Brussels, 182; medal of Sir Giles Strangways, ib.; documents relating to Dorset and Somerset, 276; architectural sketches in Somerset, 280; transcript of the homage of John Balliol, 289; German architectural examples, 290.
- Stuart and Fitzalan families, memoir by Rev. R. W. Eyton, on their origin and history, 333.
- Stucco, remains of, in a Roman villa in Wilts, 323.
- SURREY:—brass figure found near Guildford Castle, 89; Roman family coin found at Red Hill, 276; gold signet ring found on Banstead Downs, 290; notice of the Transactions of the Surrey Archaeological Society, 303; of gold coins discovered at Farley Heath, &c., 304; of a barrow excavated at Teddington, 305.
- SUSSEX:—Roman family coin found at Prinsted, 96; barrow containing an amber cup, &c., at Hove, near Brighton, 183; notice of the Proceedings of the Sussex Archaeological Society, 192; sepulchral brass of John Wybarn, at Ticehurst, 192; rush candlestick, 193; Roberts-bridge Abbey, and conventual seals, 194; supposed vestiges of Saxon architecture at the church of Worth, 197.
- Swan-marks, roll of, exhibited, 90.
- Sword, Anglo-Saxon, found in the Isle of Wight, 188; basket hilted, exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 296.
- T.
- TALBOT, DE MALAHIDE, THE LORD, exhibits casts of Irish antiquities, 178; his address at the Edinburgh meeting, 375.
- Tapestry at Coventry, notices of, by Mr. G. Scharf, 177.
- Taylor, Mr. Weld, his notice of mural paintings at Wimborne Minster, 103.
- Tessellated pavements, memoir on their removal, by Professor Buckman, 215; materials used in their construction, 218; suggestions by Mr. Digby Wyatt in regard to their removal, 226; floors discovered at Colerne, Wilts, 328, 331.
- Tigris, the river, bronze helmet found in its bed, 273.
- Tiles, a grave lined with them found in Calymnos, 18.
- Tissues, mediæval, notices of, 142, 205.
- Tite, Mr., exhibits MS. service books, 290; portable dials and a sculptured ivory comb, ib.
- Tools, of iron, Roman, discovered by Mr. Neville, at Great Chesterford, 2, 10.
- Trollope, Mr. A., his notices of bronze armlets, &c., found at Lincoln, 85; of an urn found at Fylingdales, 95; of Roman pottery of peculiar ware, a remarkable potters' mark, &c., at Lincoln, 173.
- Trollope, Rev. E., his notices of antique glass found at Carteia, 99; of a pierced quarry of lead found in Lincolnshire, 105; of Anglo-Saxon urns found in Lincolnshire, 410.
- Tucker, Mr. C., exhibits impressions from the municipal seals of Exeter, 418.
- Tutbury, horn of the Honor of, exhibited, 174.
- U.
- UPMINSTER, Essex, sepulchral brasses there, 105, 181.
- Urns, sepulchral, found near Scarborough, 85; Horncastle, 86; Fylingdales, 95. See Pottery.
- V.
- VERDEN, sepulchral brass there, 82.
- Vestments, remains of ancient, 142.
- Vipont, notices of the family, and of the seal of William de Vipont, 65.
- Vitreous pastes, set in Greek ornaments of gold, 17. See Beads.
- W.
- WALES:—seal of Henry, Prince of Wales, for the lordship of Carmarthen, 189; customers' seal for Carmarthen, 190; notice by Mr. Wynne of a wooden font found in Merionethshire, 292.
- Walford, Mr. W. S., his memoir on a casket at Goodrich Court, 134.
- Walsingham Priory, Norfolk, memoir by Rev. J. Lee Warner, 115; conventual seals, 126.
- Waring, Mr., exhibits drawings of painted glass in Italy, 181.
- Warren, Mr., exhibits a bronze palstave, found in Devon, 85.
- Warrington, chess-men of jet found there, 180.
- WARWICKSHIRE:—notice by Mr. Scharf of the Coventry tapestry, 177.
- Way, Mr. A., exhibits part of a roll of

- swan-marks, 90; a Roman family coin found at Prinsted, 96; impression from the seal of Thomas Gyffard, 183; his notes on the use of the brank, 263; exhibits a Roman family coin, found at Red Hill, 276; sketches of gold ornaments found at Anglesea, 295; sack-bottle of white enamelled ware, 297; notice of a bronze spear found in Morayshire, 413.
- Webb, Mr. G. B., exhibits a brass figure found at Guildford, 89.
- Wells, seal of the vicars choral, 90.
- Westwood, Mr., exhibits casts from chessmen and sculptured ivories at Berlin, in the Louvre, &c., 97, 105, 416; fictile vessel found in Fleet Street, 276.
- White, Mr., exhibits ancient altar paintings on panel, 181.
- Wight, Isle of, Anglo-Saxon arrow-heads, sword, &c., found in barrows there, 181, 188.
- Willement, Mr., exhibits a brigandine cap, found at Davington Priory, Kent, 185.
- Willson, Mr., exhibits an ivory object used in games of chance, 182.
- Wilton, Rev. E., exhibits Roman fibulæ, &c., found in Wilts, 96; rubbing from a sepulchral brass at Upminster, Essex, 105; iron knife found in Wilts, 189.
- WILTSHIRE:—Subsidy Book for, exhibited, 88; fibulæ of tinned bronze found on Charlton Downs, 26; seal of Thomas Gyffard, 183; iron knife in Rev. E. Wilton's possession, 189; Roman villa at Colerne, 328.
- Wimborne minster, mural paintings there, 103.
- Winchester College, notice of the ancient library there, 176.
- Winston, Mr. C., his appeal for the preservation of painted glass at Moreton, Berks, 275.
- Worcester, engine of torture in the Guild Hall at, 262.
- Worth, Sussex, supposed vestiges of Anglo-Saxon architecture there, 197.
- Wyatt, Mr. Digby, his suggestions regarding removal of mosaic floors, 226.
- Wynne, Mr. W. W., his notice of a wooden font found in Wales, 291.

Y.

- YATES, Mr. J., exhibits a carved box of with sacred emblems, 297.
- YORKSHIRE:—urns found near Scarborough, 85; arrow-heads and weapons of flint, of doubtful authenticity, 85, 104, 411; urn found at Fylingdales, 95; tessellated pavements removed to the York Museum, 227; silver pennies found at York, 283; document regarding divination by a crystal, practised at Wombwell, 373; proposed Fasti of the see of York, by the Rev. James Raine, Jun., 373.

END OF VOL. XIII.