CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS.

Page 80. Sir Henry Ellis observes, in his "Original Letters," vol. iii. p. 47 (1st series), that the Cottonian MS., Nero B. viii. fol. 3, preserves the Latin letter from K. Philip and Q. Mary to the Czar, in favour of mutual commercial intercourse; dated at Westminster, in April, 1557.

Copia semitæ inter Priorem et Stephanum Blac. Ad curiam tentam apud Walsingham, xv°. die Junii, anno regni regis Ricardi Secundi post conquestum x°. coram Roberto Hethe tunc ibidem Seneschallo, Dominus concessit Johanni Priori Ecclesie de Walsingham, et ejusdem loci conventui, quandam semitam ducentem de communi via versus quendam fontem vocatum Cabbokeswell, in communi villata de Walsingham parva, ut unum purprise quod non est ad nocumentum aliquorum Communarum ibidem, ut testatum est per homagium. Reddit inde domino per annum obolum in festo Sancti Michaelis. Et dat domino de fine vj. denarios.

[Notes.]

Et nota, quod ista semita jacet sub fovea aquilonari tenementi vocati Blakkes, juxta cruftam vocatam Powerscroft. Et Cabbokeswell jacet in angulo Australi foveæ de Powerscloos, videlicet juxta prædictam foveam de Blakkes.

Et nota, quod Dominus Richardus Dux Eboraci postea, tempore Thomæ Hunt Prioris, confirmavit prædictum, et super hoc etiam dedit Prioratui totam parcellam terræ ex parte occidentali vocatam Eleemosinariam, quæ jacet inter semitam et prædictam Eleemosinariam.

[Endorsements.]

Semita subtus Blackes. Item pars terræ vacuæ inter semitam, et vetus Eleemosynarium Prioratus.

Ista Billa facit mentionem de quadam semita ad finem aquilonarem hujus villæ, subtus tenementum quondam Nicholai Blac, postea Jacobi Cawnoel [or Cawmel?]

Page 295, line 10, an impression from the seal here noticed having since been obtained, the name appears to be Fulbert.
