

INDEX.

A.

ÆTHELNOTH, Archbishop, writ by Cnut in his behalf, 61.
 Agilulphus, king of Lombardy, his crown preserved at Monza, 14.
 Aix la Chapelle, cope ornamented with bells there, 23.
 Albert, H.R.H. the Prince, gives his Patronage to the Institute, 98, 382.
 Aldworth, Berks, sepulchral effigies there, 144, 156; interment with box-leaves found there, 157.
 Alleluiah Victory, memoir on the, by Dr. Robson, 320.
 Allingham, Mr., document exhibited by, 277.
 Allington, Giles, cups presented by, to Lyons' Inn, 290; William, miniature portrait of, ib.
 Altar, frontal of, at Monza, 22.
 America, South, antiquities communicated by Mr. Squier, 70.
 Amphoræ, found near Kertch, 197, 202.
 Ampullæ, containing Holy oils, at Monza, 14.
 Amulet of silver, exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 288.
 ANGLO-SAXON Period:—documents, of the times of Eadgar and Cnut, 58; ornaments found in the Isle of Wight, exhibited, 74; memoir by Mr. Kemble on Notices of Heathen Interment in Charters, 78, 119; cinerary urns in Lincolnshire, 174, 177, 275; supposed traces of Varangians in the Crimea, 69, 206; royal residence at Yevering, in Northumbria, 286; early settlements in Lothian, 301, 312; establishment at Rome, 363.
 Archæology, memoir on Practical Advantages from the Study of, 1.
 Archer, Robert, his seal, 96.
 Archer, Mr. Wykeham, his drawings of ancient remains in Northumberland, 286.
 ARCHITECTURE:—memoir on the analogy between the architecture of France and of Scotland, 38; no example of Norman style in Scottish castles, 41; notice of the remains of the Lady Chapel at Sherborne, 70; proposed Publication on Edington Church, Wilts, 287; notices of St. John's church and the Cathedral, Chester, 293, 370; of Flixton church, Suffolk, 360; of Carnarvon Castle, 375, 379.

 Arm of iron, to replace a lost limb, at Venice, 96.
 Armlets, of cannel or Kimmeridge coal, 87; of gold, found in Lincolnshire, 92; of gold, found at Kertch, 199.
 ARMS and ARMOUR:—examples of the kettle-hat, 53; armour of the time of Edward III. illustrated by a sepulchral effigy at Aldworth, Berks, 145; sepulchral effigy at Chew Magna, Somerset, 158; remarkable representations of military costume on a brass triptych at Susa, 208; rondache formerly in Mr. Fenn's collection, 289; singular head-piece in possession of Hon. H. Walpole, 290; head-piece of brigandine armour found in Kent, 345; notices of brigandine armour, and of defences formed with whalebone, mail quilted in linen, &c., 346, 347. See Sword, Spear, &c.
 Arrow-heads, of flint, fabricated in Yorkshire, 171; of iron, forked, 289.
 Arthur, King, his connection with Lothian, 304.
 Astrolabes, exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 96, 289.
 Auditors, their Report, 181.

B.

Bainbridge, Archbishop, his monument at Rome, 93.
 Barrows, sepulchral, notices of, in Anglo-Saxon charters, 124, 130; in Germany, described by Mr. Kemble, 136.
 Battlefield church, Shropshire, proposed restoration of, 89.
 Bear-pit, supposed remains of one at Hackney, 176.

- Bellfomder, John Copgraf, bell bearing his name in Yorkshire, 284.
- Bells, appended to sacred vestments, 23 ; inscribed bell at Scawton, Yorkshire, 284.
- BERKSHIRE :—sepulchral effigies in Aldworth church, 144, 156.
- Bernard, St., his seals as abbot of Clairvaux, 50.
- Blore, Mr., communicates a drawing of an effigy at Aldworth, 144 ; of an effigy at Chew Magna, 158.
- Boulogne, antiquities in the Museum there, 87.
- Bow of horn, found in Cambridgeshire, 284 ; notices of bows used in India, ib.
- Bowl, of metal, found in Wiltshire, 93 ; at Caistor, Lincolnshire, 174 ; supposed to be the Anglo-Saxon gabata, ib.
- Brank, exhibited by Rev. T. Hugo, 288.
- Brass, sepulchral, at Braunton, Devon, 76 ; at St. Michael's Penkevil, Cornwall, 93 ; at Walsingham, Norfolk, ib. ; brass triptych at Susa, similar to Flemish brasses in its workmanship, 208 ; Flemish Brass ordered by the will of a senator of Lubeck, 210, n. ; inscribed plate at Usk, 289.
- Braunton, Devon, sepulchral brass there, 76.
- Brigandine armour, headpiece of, 345 ; brigandine coats in the Tower Armory, 347 ; at Goodrich Court, ib.
- Bright, Mr. B., exhibits a dodecahedron of black marble, 179.
- Bronze, antiquities of :—celt found in the Crimea, 91 ; scabbard and sword-hilt found near Lancaster, ib. ; coating of a shield and other relics found in the river Witham, 92 ; celt found near Staines, 279 ; spear-head found near Cardiff, 357.
- Brooches, found in the Crimea, resembling those of the Anglo-Saxon period, 69, 206 ; Anglo-Saxon, of scyphate and other forms, found in the Isle of Wight, 74 ; of silver, found with Roman remains at Great Chesterford, 85 ; Roman, found at Caistor, Norfolk, 176 ; in form resembling animals, birds, &c., ib. ; of silver, in form of a lion, 177 ; of lead, found in the Thames, ib. ; found at Winchester, 279 ; of bronze, found with Roman remains in Wiltshire, 287 ; found at Swaffham, 287 ; facsimile exhibited of the Hunterston brooch, inscribed with Runes, 359.
- Bruce, Rev. Dr. J. C., memoir on the Practical Advantages accruing from the Study of Archæology, 1.
- Buckingham, Duke of, his portrait by Gerbier exhibited, 358.
- BUCKINGHAMSHIRE :—notices of the Creslow Pastures, by Rev. W. H. Kelke, 173 ; of Choulesbury camp, 273 ; of Grymes Dyke, ib. ; of Camps near West Wycombe, 275.
- Buckman, Professor, his Report on the Museum established at Cirencester, 354.
- Buist, Dr., his observations on forms of ancient and of Indian bows, 284.
- Burges, Mr. W., his notices of precious gifts to the Cathedral of Monza, 8, 173 ; of an ivory tablet at Vercelli, 75 ; of an iron arm at Venice, 96 ; of an ivory mirror-case, ib. ; of Queen Theodelinda's hen preserved at Monza, 280.
- Burton, Mr. J. H., his Memoir on the Analogy between the Architecture of France and of Scotland, 38.
- Byzantine Art, remarks on its influence, 218.

C.

- Caistor, Lincolnshire, Anglo-Saxon relics found there, 174.
- Caistor, Norfolk, brooch found there, 176 ; speculum found there, 287.
- Calchihuis, precious stones from South America, exhibited, 70.
- Calthrop, of bone, found at Kertch, 205.
- Cambridge, impressions of seals, Corpus Christi College, 52 ; matrices of seals in the Fitzwilliam Museum, 77.
- CAMBRIDGESHIRE :—documents relating to the Chamberlayn family, 52 ; notice of an ancient line of road, 110 ; bow of horn found near Ely, 284.
- Camp, at Choulesbury, Bucks, 273 ; near West Wycombe, 275.
- Canistra*, of Kimmeridge coal found at Great Chesterford, 87.
- Carlebury, Durham, Roman remains found there, 78.
- Carnarvon Castle, notices of, 375, 379.
- Carne, Sir Edward, his monument at Rome, 76.
- Carrington, Mr. exhibits a rubbing from a sepulchral brass in Cornwall, 93.
- Carter, Mr. John, his drawings of architectural remains and antiquities, exhibited, 280, 285, 289, 358.
- Castles, in Europe, general observations on, 39 ; notices of Carnarvon Castle, 375, 379.
- Caythorpe, Lincolnshire, Roman antiquities found there, 140.
- Celt, of stone, found on Hounslow Heath, 82 ; from Jamaica, ib. ; found in Scotland, casts of various types exhibited, 279 ; found in considerable numbers at Hoxne, Suffolk, 287 ; of bronze, found in the Crimea, 91 ; found near Staines, 279.

- Celt-moulds, found in Scotland, 91, 278; in the museum of the Royal Irish Academy, 392.
- Chalice, in the Treasury at Monza, 22.
- Chamberlayn, Henry le, his seal, 52.
- Charles I., ebony cabinet for a painting, formerly in his collection, 280.
- CHESHIRE:—Journal and Proceedings of the Chester Archaeological Society, noticed, 290; Roman remains found near Kindertou, ib.; certificate by the Black Prince, regarding Thomas de Prayers, 349.
- Chester, Roman remains found there, 292; Report of the Meeting of the Institute there, 364; notice of the museum formed during the meeting, 369; notices of the Cathedral, 293, 373; of St. John's Church, 370.
- Chester, Rev. Greville J., exhibits disks of flint found in Yorkshire, 83; impression of a seal found at York, 179; disk of bone found in Ireland, 278; antiquities found at Bedford and Winchester, 279; flint weapon found at Hoxne, 287.
- Chesterford, Great, discoveries of Roman antiquities there, 63, 85.
- Chew Magna, Somerset, sepulchral effigy there, 158.
- Chichester, discovery of Roman conduit pipes there, 356.
- Choulesbury Camp, Bucks, notice of, 273.
- Cirencester, museum established there, 354.
- Clairvaux, seals of St. Bernard, abbot of, 50.
- Cnut, his writ in behalf of Archbishop Æthelnoth, 61.
- Coal, Kimmeridge, canistra or vessels of, found by Hon. R. Neville in Essex, 87.
- Coins, of Constantine and Valentinian, found at Great Chesterford, 64; Roman and Gaulish, found at Horley, Surrey, 74; Roman, found at Carlebury, Durham, 78; Roman, found in Lincolnshire, 141, 142; found in tombs at Kertch, 199.
- Comb of Queen Theodelinda, at Monza, 16; of St. Loup, at Sens, 17; representations of, amongst symbols on sculptured slabs in Scotland, 89, 192; found with Saxon interments in Lincolnshire, 275.
- Corbridge, gold ring found there, exhibited by the Duke of Northumberland, 357.
- CORNWALL:—sepulchral brass at St. Michael's Penkevil, 93; silver hurling-ball, exhibited, 96.
- Costume, female, peculiar details on a sepulchral brass at Walsingham, 93; military, see Arms and Armour.
- Crabbe, Mr. W. R., exhibits a representation of a sepulchral brass at Braunton, 76.
- Cremation, evidence of its practice supplied by Anglo-Saxon documents, 135.
- Creslow Pastures, Bucks, notice of, by Rev. W. H. Kelke, 173.
- Crimea, notices of researches by Dr. M'Pherson, near Kertch, 65, 196; bronze celt found near Kertch, 91; of a crucifix and devotional tablets, from Sebastopol, by Major Walker, 279.
- Cromlechs, allusion to, in Anglo-Saxon documents, 134; notice of one at Coldrum, Kent, 139.
- Cross, relic of wood of the Holy Cross, at Monza, 12; gold cross of Pope Gregory there, 13; processional gold cross formerly there, 16; pectoral cross of the kingdom of Lombardy, 20.
- Cross-slabs, sculptured, in Scotland, 186; inscribed with Runes, found in the Isle of Man, 263.
- Crowns, of Queen Theodelinda, at Monza, 14; iron crown of Lombardy, 14; crowns presented to churches, 15.
- CUMBERLAND:—Sword found at Embleton, in Keswick Museum, 92.
- Cumming, Rev. J. G., his memoir on sculptured crosses and Runes in the Isle of Man, 78, 263.
- Cumming, Mr., exhibits an ancient painting of Our Lord, 95.
- Cuxwold, Lincolnshire, gold armlet found there, 92.

D.

- Dagger, found in Lincolnshire, exhibited by Mr. Thorold, 92; found in the Thames, exhibited by Mr. Parkinson, 178.
- Danes, their incursions into Lothian, 312.
- Darnley, his betrothal ring, as supposed, found at Fotheringhay, 297.
- Davies, Rev. D., his investigations of Roman remains at Caersws noticed, 84.
- Davington Priory, Kent, brigandine head-piece found there, 345.
- De la Beche family, notices of, 148.
- Denham, Mr. M. A., his notice of Roman remains at Carlebury, Durham, 78.
- DEVONSHIRE:—sepulchral brass at Braunton, 76.
- Dials, exhibited by Mr. Octavius Morgan, 289.
- Diptychs of ivory, in the Treasury at Monza, 20.
- Disks, of pottery, found with Roman remains in Essex, 74; of flint, found in Yorkshire, 83; of bone, found in Ireland, 278; of bone, found at Lincoln, 279.
- DOCUMENTS, ORIGINAL:—Anglo-Saxon, of the reigns of Eadgar and Cnut, 58; relating to Lincolnshire, communicated by Rev. E. Jervis, 79; memoir

- by Mr. Kemble on Notices of Heathen Interments in Anglo-Saxon Documents, 119; Statutes by Richard Duke of Gloucester for Middleham College, 160; Bill of Medicines for Edward I., 267; licence to attend church-services in an adjacent parish, 277; warrant under Great Seal of Edward I., 290; certificate by the Black Prince regarding Thomas de Prayers, 348.
- Dodd, Mr., exhibits a portrait of Sir F. Drake, 84; of a personage unknown, 96; of Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth, 179; document with Great Seal of Edward I., 290.
- Doddington, Lincolnshire, documents there preserved, 79.
- DORSETSHIRE:—notices of Lady-Chapel and of other remains at Sherborne Abbey church, 70; of ancient objects formed of Kimmeridge coal, 87; of a line of causeway near Dorchester, 115; gold ring in possession of the Marquis of Westminster, 287.
- Dossels, of altars in Italy, 22.
- Dovor Castle, proposed desecration of the ancient church there, 276.
- Drummond, Mr. M., silver cups in his possession, 290.
- Dunn, Rev. J. W., his account of a sepulchral cist found at Amble, Northumberland, 281.
- Dunwich, matrices of seals found there, 77.
- DURHAM:—seal of Thor Longus in the Chapter Treasury at Durham, 48; Roman remains found at Carlebury, ib.; notices of the Wraken Dyke, 103, n.; Roman inscriptions at Durham, 280, 358.
- Dyson, Rev. F., his account of a discovery of bars of metal near Malvern, 81.
- E.
- Eadgar, observations on an impression of his seal at Paris, 57; document of his reign, relating to lands in Middlesex, 58.
- Edgar, King of Scotland, his grants to English adherents, 48.
- Edward I., medicines purchased during his last illness, 267.
- Edward II., observations on his supposed birth at Carnarvon, 379; his works at Carnarvon Castle noticed, ib.
- Edward IV., his seal for the Chancery of Monmouth, 55.
- Edward, the Black Prince, certificate by, regarding Thomas de Prayers, 348; notice of his various seals, 351.
- Effigy. See Sepulchral Effigies, Brass, &c.
- Egypt, Report by Mr. Rhind on his researches there, 84.
- Elephant, supposed representations of, on Scottish sculptures, 191.
- Ellacombe, Rev. H. T., his notice of an ancient bell at Scawton, Yorkshire, 284.
- Enamel, examples of:—cloisonné, on the crown of Lombardy at Monza, 14; champlevé at Monza, 21; on the frontal of the altar there, 22; Roman, found in Lincolnshire and Yorkshire, 75; scabbard of a sword in the Museum at Keswick, 92; the Rudge cup, in possession of the Duke of Northumberland, 283; candlestick, found at York, 289; case of a miniature of the Duke of Buckingham by Gerbier, 358.
- Ephesus, plans and views of, exhibited by Mr. Falkener, 279.
- Erming Street, notices of, 99, 111; course through Lincolnshire, known as The High Dyke, 140, 141.
- ESSEX:—Roman remains found by Hon. R. Neville at Great Chesterford, Quendon, and Hadstock, 63, 85; at Rickling, 74; pewter alms' dish at Heydon, ib.; stone maul or muller found near Audley End, 357.
- F.
- Fairless, Mr., exhibits an impression of a seal of the Hospital of the Holy Spirit at Rome, 363.
- Falkener, Mr., his proposed publication regarding Ephesus, 279; exhibits an ebony cabinet for a painting, formerly in possession of Charles I., 280.
- Fan of Queen Theodelinda, preserved at Monza, 17.
- Fibula. See Brooch.
- Fitch, Mr. R., exhibits a Roman brooch found at Caistor, 176; seal found at Wotton, 179; brooch or ornament found at Swaffham, 287; speculum found at Caistor, ib.
- Fitzwilliam Museum, matrices of seals there, 77.
- Flabellum, or fan, presented by Queen Theodelinda to the church at Monza, 17; representation of the flabellum in a Greek illumination, 19.
- Flanders, sepulchral brasses there engraved, 209, 210, n.
- Flint, antiquities of; fragment, found in a sepulchral cist at Amble, Northumberland, 281; weapon found at Hoxne, Suffolk, 287.
- Fosse Way, notices of the, 99, 105, 114.
- Fotheringhay, the Darnley Ring found there, 297.
- France, general observations on castellated

- buildings there, 44; architecture of, compared with that of Scotland, 38.
 Franks, Mr. A. W., exhibits a drawing of a sepulchral slab at Southwell, 76; celt from the Crimea, and sword from Worton, 91.
 Freeland, Mr., exhibits a conduit pipe found at Chichester, 356.
 Freeman, Mr., his notice of St. Mellon's church, Monmouthshire, 353.
 Frontal of the High Altar at Monza, 22; list of frontals in Italy, ib., n.

G.

- Gabatae, Anglo-Saxon vessels of sacred use, 174.
 Gerbier, miniature portrait of the Duke of Buckingham, painted by, 358.
 Germanus, St., his visit to Britain, 320.
 Glass, examples of; cup preserved at Monza, 15; vases found at Kertch, 68, 203; found with Roman remains at Kenchester, 83.
 — painted; Memoir by Mr. C. Winston on the North Rose window at Lincoln Cathedral, 210; remarks on colours anciently in use, 215; on ruby glass, 217, and additional notes.
 Gloucester, Richard Duke of, his statutes for Middleham College, Yorkshire, 160.
 GLOUCESTERSHIRE:—bars of metal found on Meon Hill, 82; Museum established at Cirencester, 354.
 Gold, ornaments of; armlet found in Lincolnshire, exhibited by Mr. Thorold, 92; corslet found at Mold, 93, 292; Irish ornament or fibula exhibited by Hon. R. Neville, 176; relics found in tombs at Kertch, 199; ring found in Dorsetshire, 287; ring found in co. Dublin, now in Capt. E. Hoare's collection, 355; ring of the Roman period found at Corbridge, 357.
 Goodrich Court, iron weapon found on Meon Hill, in the armory there, 82; bronze coating of a shield found in the river Witham, 92; iron arm to supply the loss of a limb, 96.
 Gregory the Great, precious objects sent by him to Queen Theodelinda, at Monza, 12, 13.
 Grimesby Abbey, Lincolnshire, seal of, 77.
 Grymes Dyke, Bucks, notice of, 273.
 Guest, Dr., his Memoir on The Four Roman Ways, 99.
 Gunner, Rev. W. H., his notices of MSS. at Winchester College, 78.

H.

- Hackney, notices of a building there, supposed to have been a bear-pit, 174.

- Hardwick, Mr. J., his account of Roman remains at Kenchester, 83.
 Hartshorne, Rev. C. H., notices of a bill of medicines for Edward I., 268, 376; of Carnarvon and other castles in Wales, 375, 379.
 Hauteville, Sir John, sepulchral effigy attributed to, at Chew Magna, 158.
 Hawkins, Mr., his notice of proposed restorations at Battlefield church, 89.
 Hayward, Mr., seal found at Lincoln in his possession, 363.
 Heraldry, proposed publication of an Ordinary of Arms by Mr. Papworth, 394.
 HEREFORDSHIRE:—Roman antiquities found at Kenchester, 83.
 Heriot's Hospital, Edinburgh, remarks on its plan and architect, 46.
 Hewitt, Mr., exhibits Anglo-Saxon antiquities found in the Isle of Wight, 74; iron metal-work, 178; an iron scourge, 290.
 Heydon, Essex, pewter alms-dish there, 74.
 Hinde, Mr. J. Hodgson, his Memoir on the position of Lothian prior to its annexation to Scotland, 301.
 Hoar-stones, mentioned in Anglo-Saxon documents, 132.
 Hoare, Capt. E., gold ring in his possession, 355; silver ornament with an episcopal seal found in Ireland, 356.
 Holy Island, inscribed leaden plate found there, 285.
 Horley, Surrey, coin of Faustina and a Gaulish coin found there, 74; document relating to, 277.
 Horn, stag's, ancient implements formed of, 82.
 Horse, remains of, found in tombs at Kertch, 68, 202, 204; teeth of, found near interments at Carlebury, Durham, 78.
 Hoxne, Suffolk, flint weapons found there, 287.
 Hoylake, notice of antiquities found there, 381.
 Hugo, Rev. T., exhibits a leaden brooch, 177; a brank, 288; a fragment of the gold corslet found at Mold, 293.
 Hume, Rev. Dr., his observations on antiquities found at Hoylake, 381.
 Hunter, Mr. J., his notice of a knife and fork formerly in possession of Mrs. Milton, 89; exhibits a brass ball or pomellum, 179; a knife with tortoiseshell handle, and a Spanish clasp-knife, ib.; his address on occasion of Mr. Kemble's decease, 272.
 Hurling, notices of the game so called in Cornwall, 96.

I.

Icknield Street, notices of its course, 99, 106, 116.

Ingham, Norfolk, paintings there representing the legend of St. Nicholas, 285.

Inscriptions: relating to Aliz Lestrangle, at Shrewsbury, 73; on sculptured stones in Scotland, 196; notice by Rev. Dr. M'Caul of a Roman tablet found at Bath, 172; Roman, found at Ismid, in Anatolia, 279; on the Rudge Cup, 283; leaden plate found at Holy Island, 286; Roman, found in Northumberland, 358.

Iona, sepulchral slabs stated to have been brought from, 88.

IRELAND:—impressions of seals amongst the Ormonde muniments at Kilkenny, 96; gold ornament found in co. Tyrone, in Mr. Neville's museum, 176; bone disk found in the Isle of Aranmore, 278; gold ring in Capt. Hoare's collection, 355; silver ornament bearing the seal of a bishop of Man, found in co. Dublin, 356; notice of the Catalogue of the Museum of the R. Irish Academy, 388; antiquities of stone found there, 390, 391; sepulchral urns, 393; crannoges in Irish lakes, 394.

Iron crown of Lombardy, noticed, 14.

Ivory, sculptures of; diptychs in the Treasury at Monza, 20; book-covers of perforated work, 21; fragments found at Kertch, 66; tablet at Vercelli representing the Morris Dance, 75; examples exhibited by Mr. Webb, 362; notice of casts of examples in Museums in Germany, ib.

J.

Jamaica, stone weapon found there exhibited, 82.

Jervis, Rev. E., documents relating to Lincolnshire communicated by, 79.

Jones, Mr. Wyndham, Mrs. Milton's knife and fork in his possession, 89; certificate by the Black Prince relating to Thomas de Prayers, 349.

K.

Kelke, Rev. W. H., his account of Creslow Pastures, Bucks, 173; of Choulesbury Camp, 273.

Kemble, Mr. J. M., his observations on documents of the times of Eadgar and Cnut, 58; on antiquities found near Kertch, 69; on the proposed Exhibition of Ancient Art at Manchester, 77; memoir on Notices of Heathen Interment in Anglo-Saxon Charters, 78, 119; remarks on stone weapons, 82; on antiquities formed of horns of the deer and elk, ib.; on sepulchral usages in Germany, 136; on remains of the horse occurring in ancient tombs, 202; address by Mr. Hunter on his decease, 272; the proposed publication of his "Horæ Ferales," 295.

Kenchester, Herefordshire, Roman antiquities found there, 83.

KENT:—notice of the cromlech at Coldrum, 139; of the discovery of a brigandine headpiece at Davington Priory, 345; drawing of a market cross formerly at Maidstone, 359.

Kertch, discoveries there by Dr. M'Pherson, 65, 196; bronze celt found there, 91.

Keswick, sword found in Cumberland, now in the Museum there, 92.

Kettle-hat, headpiece so called, 53.

Kimmeridge coal, canistra or vessels formed of, found in Essex, 87.

Kirk Braddan, Isle of Man, sculptured fragment inscribed with Runes found there, 263.

Kirk Newton, Northumberland, drawings of the ancient church there exhibited, 286.

L.

Labanoff, Prince, presents the Catalogue of his collection of Portraits of Mary Stuart, 277; his portrait of Mary Stuart privately engraved, 285.

Laing, Mr. H., exhibits facsimiles of stone antiquities found in Scotland, 278; of the Hunterston brooch, 359.

LANCASHIRE:—bronze sword-hilt and scabbard found at Worton, 91; cordial reception of the Institute by the Historic Society of Lancashire at Liverpool, 377; mazer-bowl presented on that occasion to Lord Talbot, 378.

Le Keux, Mr., his notices of ancient remains at Sherborne Abbey, 70; exhibits drawings of churches in Berkshire, 84; collection of illuminated initial letters from MSS., ib.; drawings by Mackenzie of buildings at Oxford, 179; drawings by Carter of Roman inscriptions at Durham, and of a Mosaic pavement at Leicester, 280; of paintings formerly in Ingham Church, Norfolk, 285; of various antiquities, from Mr. Britton's collections, 358; series of drawings by distinguished topographical draftsmen, 359.

Legions, Roman, notices of symbols assigned to, 359.

- Lestrangle, Aliz, inscription found at Shrewsbury, bearing her name, 73.
- LINCOLNSHIRE :—enamelled perfume-box found at Little Humby, 75 ; bronze box found at Lincoln, ib. ; seal of Wellow or Grimesby Abbey, 77 ; documents communicated by Rev. E. Jervis, 79 ; seal of Sixhille Priory, 81 ; dagger and gold armlet in Mr. Thorold's possession, 92 ; Roman remains found at Caythorpe, 140 ; Anglo-Saxon antiquities found at Caistor, 174 ; memoir, by Mr. C. Winston, on the North Rose window, Lincoln Cathedral, 211 ; Saxon urns and bone combs found at Kirton, in Lindsey, 275 ; urn found at Ancaster, 276 ; bone disks found in Lincolnshire, 278 ; seal of the Commissary of Lincoln, now in Mr. Hayward's possession, 363.
- Lombardy, iron crown of, at Monza, 14.
- Long, Mr. C. E., exhibits a pair of silver cups, formerly belonging to Lyons' Inn, 290 ; a miniature of William Allington, ib.
- Longstaffe, Mr. W. H., exhibits impressions of seals, from originals belonging to Sir W. Lawson, 181 ; his memoir on the connection of Scotland with the Pilgrimage of Grace, 330.
- Lothian, its Position prior to its annexation to Scotland, 301.
- Lows, heathen burial-places mentioned in Anglo-Saxon documents, 124, 130.
- Lyons' Inn, silver cups formerly there presented by Giles Allington, 290.
- M.
- McCaul, Rev. Dr., his remarks on a Roman Inscription found at Bath, 172.
- McPherson, Dr., his excavations at Kertch, 65, 196 ; deposits in the British Museum the antiquities there found, 199, 201.
- Maclean, Rev. H., his notice of Saxon antiquities found at Caistor, 174.
- Mail, notices of linen armour quilted with, 347.
- Malvern, Great, bars of steel found near, 81.
- MAN, ISLE OF :—sculptured crosses and inscriptions in Runes there, 78 ; observations on the peculiar character of its sculptured monuments, 186, 195 ; fragment of a cross found at Kirk Braddan, 263 ; cast from a seal of Thomas, Bishop of Man, found in Ireland, 356.
- Manchester, proposed Exhibition of Ancient Art there, 77 ; collections formed by Mr. G. Scharf and Mr. Waring, 371 ; visit of the Members of the Institute to the Exhibition, 372.
- Manning, Rev. C. R., exhibits an impression of the seal of Robert Archer, 96.
- Mary, Queen of Scots, Catalogue of portraits of her in Prince Labanoff's possession, 277 ; engraving from a portrait in his collection presented, 285 ; proposed exhibition of Portraits of her, 277, 353 ; encouragement given to that exhibition by Her Majesty and the Prince Consort, 382.
- Massie, Rev. W. H., his exertions to promote archaeology in Cheshire, 291, 294.
- Mayer, Mr., antiquities from his museum exhibited at the Chester Meeting of the Institute, 369 ; his Address on the presentation of a mazer-bowl to Lord Talbot, 378.
- MIDDLESEX :—Anglo-Saxon documents relating to Send and Sudbury, 58 ; stone celt found on Hounslow Heath, 82 ; account of a singular building at Hackney, 175 ; bronze celt found near Staines, 279.
- Middleham College, Yorkshire, statutes by Richard, Duke of Gloucester, for, 160.
- Milton, knife and fork formerly in possession of his widow, 89 ; remarks on the date of her decease, 90.
- Minty, Mr., remarks on a bow of horn in his possession, 284.
- Mirror, occurring as a symbol on sculptured slabs in Scotland, 192 ; Roman, found at Caistor, Norfolk, 287.
- Mitres, preserved in the Treasury at Monza, 21.
- Mold, notices of the gold corslet found there, 292 ; scene of the Allelujah Victory, 320.
- MONMOUTHSHIRE :—seal for the chancery of, found near Monmouth, 55 ; traces of Roman potteries near Chepstow, 276 ; inscribed brass plate in the church of Usk, 289 ; bronze spear-head found near Cardiff, 357.
- Monza, memoir by Mr. W. Burges on the gifts of Queen Theodelinda, and precious relics there, 8 ; reliquary there, enclosing wood of the Holy Cross, 12 ; gold cross presented by Pope Gregory, 13 ; iron crown of Lombardy there, 14 ; Theodelinda's Hen and Chickens, 16, 280 ; gifts of Berengarius there, 20 ; ivory diptychs, ib. ; the frontal of the High Altar described, 22.
- Morgan, Mr. Octavius, exhibits various Asrolabes, 96, 289 ; silver ring and reliquaries, 96 ; papal rings, 177 ; his notices of Eating and Drinking, 285 ; exhibits a silver talisman, 288 ; impression of an inscribed brass plate at

- Usk, 289; his observations on the Art of Watchmaking, 353.
- Morris Dance represented on an ivory tablet at Vercelli, 75.
- Mosaic pavements, found at Kenchester, Herefordshire, 83; at Rudge Coppice, Wilts, 282.
- Mother o'pearl, used in mediæval goldsmiths' work, 14.
- Museum, British; antiquities from Kertch deposited there by Dr. M'Pherson, 69, 199, 201; bronze celt found in the Crimea, there, 91; bronze sword-hilt and scabbard found at Worton, Lancashire, 91; fragments of the gold corslet found at Mold, 292; inscribed tablet found at Benwell, on the Roman Wall, there preserved, 359.
- of the Royal Irish Academy, notices of the Catalogue of, by Mr. Wilde, 296.
- established by the Earl Bathurst at Cirencester, account of, by Professor Buckman, 354.

N.

- Napier, Mr. M., his memoir on the Progress of Science in Scotland, with a comparison between Napier of Merchiston and Newton, 221.
- Neaves, Lord, his memoir on the Ossianic Controversy, 25.
- Nesbitt, Mr. A., his memoir on an engraved brass triptych at Susa, 207.
- Neville, Hon. R. C., his notices of Roman remains found in Essex, 63; exhibits a diminutive bronze bird found with Roman remains and other relics, ib. 74; silver brooches found at Great Chesterford, 85; Irish gold ornament in his museum, 176; stone maul or pestle found near Audley End, 357; rings of the Anglo-Saxon and other periods, ib.
- Nichols, Mr. J. G., his proposed publication on topographical and genealogical subjects, 296.
- Nightingale, Mr. J. E., exhibits a vessel of metal found near Wilton, 93; a silver ring found at Ugford, Wilts, ib.
- Noake, Mr., notices of his publications relating to Worcester and Worcestershire, 97.
- NORFOLK:—inscribed cross found at Islington, 74; sepulchral brasses at Walsingham, 93; seal of Robert Archer found at Diss, 96; Roman brooch found at Caistor, 176; seal in Mr. Fitch's collection, found at Wotton, 179; drawings of ancient paintings at Ingham, 285; ornament in Mr. Fitch's collection, found near Swaffham, 287; Roman mirror found at Caistor, ib.
- NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:—photographs of architectural examples in, 76.
- NORTHUMBERLAND:—Roman remains at Hunnum and at High Rochester noticed, 5; sepulchral cist and urn found at Amble, 281; cup found at Rudge, Wiltshire, with the names of stations on the Roman Wall, 283; inscribed leaden plate found at Holy Island, 285; drawings of ancient buildings and antiquities, 286; symbols incised on rocks near Doddington, ib.; fragment of a Roman Mirror in Mr. Clayton's museum 288; observations on Roman roads in Northumberland, 314; gold ring found at Corbridge, 358; inscribed legionary stone found at Benwell, ib.
- Northumberland, the Duke of, sepulchral urn in his museum at Alnwick Castle, 282, n.; exhibits the Roman bronze cup found at Rudge, 282; drawings of ancient buildings and vestiges in Northumberland, 286; gold ring found at Corbridge, 357; matrices of seals of the Percy family, ib.; miniature of the Duke of Buckingham, by Gerbier, 358.
- NOTTINGHAMSHIRE:—sepulchral slab at Southwell minster, 76.

O.

- Oakes, Capt., photographs presented by him, 363.
- Oghams, inscribed on sculptured slabs in Scotland, 196.
- Oils, sacred, preserved as reliques at Monza, 13.
- Ormerod, Dr., notice of Roman potteries near Chepstow communicated by him, 276; presents his memoir on the Cheshire Domesday, 293.
- Ossianic controversy, memoir by Lord Neaves, 25.
- OXFORDSHIRE:—Implement of stag's horn found in Wychwood Forest, 82.

P.

- Paintings, ancient, representing Our Lord, 95.
- Papworth, Mr., his proposed publication of an Ordinary of Arms, 394.
- Parker, Mr. J. H., his notices of St. John's Church, Chester, 370; of Chester Cathedral, 373.
- Parkinson, Mr. G. H., exhibits daggers found in the Thames, 178.
- Percy family, matrices of their seals, 357.

- Petit, Rev. J. L., his notices of Nantwich church, 380.
- Pevensy, proposed publication on the excavations there, 296.
- Piersbridge, Durham, Roman remains found there, 78.
- Pilgrimage of Grace, its connection with Scotland, 331.
- Pottergate, ancient road in Lincolnshire so called, 141.
- Pottery, Roman, found in Essex, by Hon. R. C. Neville, 63, 85; amphoræ and urns found in tombs at Kertch, 67; urns found in South America, 70; Roman urn and coins found at Caythorpe, Lincolnshire, 142; Anglo-Saxon urns found at South Willingham, 177; amphora of unusual size found in the Crimea, 197, 200; sepulchral urns found at Kirton in Lindsey, Lincolnshire, 275; traces of Roman potteries near Chepstow, 276; sepulchral urn found in a cist at Amble, 282; sepulchral urns found in Ireland, 393.
- Poynter, Mr. A., his appeal regarding the preservation of the ancient church at Dover Castle, 276.
- Prayers, or de Pratis, notices of the Cheshire family of that name, 349.
- Publications, Archæological, notices and announcements of:— Worcester in Olden Times; Notes and Queries for Worcestershire, by Mr. John Noake, 97; Ephesus and the Temple of Diana, by Mr. E. Falkener, 98; the Sculptured Stones of Scotland, 185; antiquities of Kertch, by Dr. McPherson, 196; Catalogue of the Antiquities in the museum of the R. I. Academy, by Mr. Wilde, 206, 388; Journal of the Chester Archæological Society, 291; Horæ Ferales, by Mr. Kemble, 295; Catalogue of materials for English History, ib.; Topographer and Genealogist, by Mr. J. G. Nichols, 296; Report on Excavations at Pevensy, by Mr. C. R. Smith, ib.; Ordinary of Arms, by Mr. Papworth, 394.
- Q.
- Quendon, Essex, sepulchral remains found there, 63.
- R.
- Raine, Rev. J., communicates the unpublished Statutes for Middleham College, 160.
- Ready, Mr., exhibits impressions of the seals of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and of Grimesby Abbey, 77.
- Rhind, Mr. A. H., account of his explorations in Egypt, 84.
- Richardson, Mr. E., exhibits photographs of Wells Cathedral and Glastonbury Abbey, 77; casts from seals at Kilkenny Castle, 96.
- Ring, with a key attached, found at Kertch, 68, 70; Roman, found at Chesterford, Essex, 74; of silver, found at Ugford, Wilts, 93; of silver, in Mr. O. Morgan's collection, 177; gold ring found in Dorset, in possession of the Marquis of Westminster, 287; the Darnley Ring, found at Fotheringhay Castle, 297; Saxon and other rings in the collection of the Hon. R. C. Neville, 357; Roman gold ring found at Corbridge, ib.
- Ring-dials, in possession of Mr. Octavius Morgan, 289.
- Roads, ancient, in Britain, 99; the Pottergate in Lincolnshire, 141.
- Robson, Dr., his Memoir on the Alleluiah Victory, 320.
- Rock, the Very Rev. Dr., exhibits drawings of sepulchral effigies at Rome, 93; his remarks on Anglo-Saxon vessels or Gabata, 174; on silver votive cups in the Collegio Romano, 283.
- Rogers, Mr. J., exhibits a silver hurling-ball from Cornwall, 96.
- Rolls, Mr., exhibits a bronze spear found near Cardiff, 357.
- ROMAN ANTIQUITIES:—memoir by Rev. Dr. Bruce, on the Advantages of the Study of, 1; remains found at Hunnum and High Rochester, 5; altars dedicated by Tungrians and Batavians in Scotland, 7; ivory diptychs at Monza, 21; sepulchral urn found in Essex, 63; interments and coins found at Carlebury, Durham, 78; reliques found at Kenchester, Herefordshire, 83; notices of roads and remains of a station at Caersws, Montgomeryshire, 84; memoir on the Four Roman Ways, 99; reliques found at Caythorpe, Lincolnshire, 140; notice by Rev. Dr. McCaul of an inscription found at Bath, 172; traces of potteries near Chepstow, 276; inscription at Ismid, in Anatolia, 279; drawings by Carter, of inscribed stones at Durham, and of a mosaic pavement at Leicester, 280; notices of the enamelled cup found at Rudge, Wilts, 282; fibula and coins found on the Downs, in Wilts, 287; fibula found near Swaffham, Norfolk, 287; mirrors found in England, 288; remains supposed to be of the station Condate, at Kinderton, Cheshire, 291; altars and various antiquities found at Chester, 292; tile bearing a representation of a Retiarius, ib.; notices of roads in Northumberland, 314; antiquities in the museum

- at Cirencester, 354; conduit pipes found at Chichester, 356; inscriptions found in Northumberland, 358; notices of legionary symbols, 359.
- Rome, monument of Sir Edward Carne there, 76; effigies of English dignitaries, 93; silver votive cups in the museum of the Collegio Romano, 283; seals of the Hospital of the Holy Spirit there, 363.
- Rotario, Bonifaccio, votive chapel built by him on Mont Cenis, 208.
- Rouen, seal of St. Bernard in the museum there, 51.
- Rudge, Wilts, enamelled Roman cup found there, 282.
- Runes, on a sculptured stone at Kirk Braddan, Isle of Man, 262; on the Hunterston brooch, 359.
- S.
- Salvin, Mr., his account of an inscribed leaden plate found at Holy Island, 285; of a singular interment and architectural peculiarities at Flixton church, 360.
- Samian ware, found in the Crimea, 67; at Kinderton, Cheshire, 291.
- Scarborough, Yorkshire, fabricated antiquities produced there, 172.
- Scarth, Rev. H. M., communicates remarks on a Roman inscription at Bath, 172.
- Scawton, Yorkshire, ancient bell there, 284.
- SCOTLAND:—altars dedicated by Tungrians and Batavians in the service of Rome, 7; memoir by Lord Neaves on the Ossianic Controversy, 25; memoir by Mr. J. H. Burton, on the analogy between the architecture of France and of Scotland, 38; general observations on Scottish Castles, 41; remarks on the building of Heriot's Hospital, 46; grant by Edgar to Thor Longus, 48; sepulchral slabs supposed to have been brought from Iona, 88; seal of Margaret, Duchess of Brittany, daughter of William the Lion, 181; Sculptured Stones, and peculiar Symbols found on them, 185; memoir by Mr. Napier on the Progress of Science, and comparison between Napier of Merchiston and Sir Isaac Newton, 221; casts from antiquities of stone and celt moulds, exhibited by Mr. H. Laing, 278; notice of the Darnley Ring, 297; memoir by Mr. H. Hinde on the Position of Lothian, prior to its annexation to Scotland, 301; connection of King Arthur with Scottish history, 304; connection of Scotland with the Pilgrimage of Grace, 331; cast of the Hunterston brooch exhibited, 359.
- SCULPTURE: fragments of a Roman statue found at Caythorpe, Lincolnshire, 142; sepulchral effigy at Aldworth, Berks, 143; effigy at Chew Magna, Somerset, 158; sepulchral slabs in Scotland, 194.
- SEALS, MEDIEVAL:—of Thor Longus, 48; of pointed-oval form, 49; of St. Bernard, his earlier seal, 50; matrix of his later seal in the museum at Rouen, 51; of Henry le Chamberlain, 52; of Louis of Savoy, 53; privy seal of Joan Beaufort, Queen of Scots, 54; a larger seal of that queen, 55; of Edward IV. for his chancery of Monmouth, ib.; of Edward IV., for his Earldom of March, 56; matrices sometimes altered, ib.; additional observations on the seals of Edgar and Offa, at Paris, 57; seal of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 77; of Grimesby Abbey, ib.; matrices found at Dunwich, Suffolk, ib.; seal of Alan de Sutton, 79; of Juliana de St. John, 80; of Sixhille Priory, Lincolnshire, 81; of Robert Archer, 96; of Gilbert de Clare, and other seals at Kilkenny Castle, ib.; of jet, fabricated in Yorkshire, 171; matrix found at York, in possession of Rev. J. Greville, Chester, 179; found at Wotton, Norfolk, in possession of Mr. Fitch, ib.; seal of Margaret, countess of Richmond, 181; of Roger Bertram, lord of Mitford, ib.; of Edward I., 290; of St. Mary's Priory, Chester, with singular reverse, 293; seal for Statutes Merchant at Chester, 294; mayoralty seal of that city, ib.; Remarks on the History of Seals, by Rev. W. H. Massie, ib.; seals of the Black Prince, 351; of Thomas, bishop of Man, 356; leaden matrix of the seal of Henry de Percy, found in the Thames, 357; silver seal of one of the Percy family, ib.; silver seal of Algernon, Earl of Northumberland, engraved by Simon, 358; official seal of James, Duke of York, as high-admiral, engraved by Simon, ib.; of the commissary of Lincoln, 368; matrix found at Peterborough, ib.; seals of the Hospital of the Holy Ghost, at Rome, ib.; collection of matrices at Nismes, noticed, ib.
- Sebastopol, relics from, exhibited by Major Walker, 279.
- SEPULCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—Roman interments in Essex, 63; infants buried adjacent to walls, 64; examination of ancient sepulchres in the Crimea, 66, 68, 198; notices of Heathen burials in Anglo-Saxon Charters, 78, 119; Roman remains at Carlebury, Durham, ib.;

- evidence regarding the use of cremation in England, 135 ; notice of sepulchral usages in Germany, 136 ; branches of box-tree found in graves, 157 ; walnuts found in tombs at Kertch, 202 ; seaweed found there, 204 ; cinerary urns found at Kirton, in Lindsey, 275 ; sepulchral cist at Amble, Northumberland, 281 ; singular grave found in the tower, Flixton Church, Suffolk, 360 ; interments found at Pytchley, 362.
- Sepulchral Brasses ; at Branton, Devon, 76 ; at St. Michael's Penkevil, Cornwall, 93 ; at Walsingham, Norfolk, ib. ; engraved triptych at Susa, resembling Flemish brasses in workmanship, 208.
- Effigies, of English dignitaries at Rome, 93 ; of the De la Beche family at Aldworth, Berks, 144, 146 ; at Chew Magna, Somerset, 158 ; at Warrington, 294.
- Slabs ; at Southwell minster, 76 ; in Scotland, sculptured with symbols, 88 ; at Chester, 294.
- Shakspeare, portrait of, exhibited by Mr. Westwood, 362.
- Sherborne Abbey, Dorset, notices of Architectural remains there, 70.
- Shire Lane, Bucks, ancient line of road, 273.
- SHROPSHIRE :—inscribed stone found at Shrewsbury, 72 ; proposed restorations at Battlefield church, 89.
- Sixhille Priory, Lincolnshire, seal of, 81.
- Sling-stones, anciently used in Ireland, 392.
- Smith, Mr. C. Roach, his proposed publication on Pevensey, 296.
- Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits an implement of stag's horn found in Wychwood Forest, 82 ; Persian and Turkish weapons, 280 ; a German mazouelle, 281.
- SOMERSETSHIRE :—sepulchral effigy at Chew Magna, 158 ; notice of a Roman Inscription found at Bath, 172.
- Southwell minster, sepulchral slab there, 76.
- Spalding, Mr. F., communicates a notice of a seal found at Dunwich, 77.
- Spear-head, of bronze, found near Cardiff, 357 ; found in the Severn, ib. ; mould for casting such weapons found in Ireland, 392.
- Specula*, Roman mirrors, found in England, 287.
- Spoon, found at Winchester, 279 ; found at Devizes, 280.
- Spur, Roman, found at Kenchester, 83 ; pryck-spur represented on an engraved triptych at Susa, 208.
- Squier, Mr., his account of precious stones, called Calchihuis, 70.
- Steel, bars of, found near Malvern, 81.
- Stone, antiquities of :—arrow-head of flint found near Piersbridge, 79 ; celt found on Hounslow Heath, 82 ; weapon brought from Jamaica, ib. ; use of stag's horn in hafting weapons of stone, ib. ; dishes of flint found in Yorkshire, 83 ; fabrications of weapons of stone in Yorkshire, 171 ; relics found in a sepulchral cist at Amble, 281 ; weapons found at Hoxne, Suffolk, 287 ; pestle found near Audley End, 357 ; objects of various classes found in Ireland, 390, 391.
- Strangford, the Viscount, Gnostic gem in his collection noticed, 190.
- Stuart, Mr. J., his work on the Sculptured Stones of Scotland, 185.
- SUFFOLK :—seals found at Dunwich, 77 ; ring in Mr. Whincopp's collection, found at Laxfield, 177 ; flint weapons found at Hoxne, 287 ; singular grave found within the tower of Flixton church, 360.
- SURREY :—coin of Faustina, found at Horley, 74 ; gold Gaulish coin found there, ib. ; singular licence to an inhabitant of Nutfield to absent himself from his parish church, 277.
- Susa, in Piedmont, engraved brass triptych there, 207.
- SUSSEX :—proposed publication on excavations at Pevensey, 296 ; Roman conduit found near Chichester, 356 ; pestle or muller of stone found at Pulborough, 357.
- Sword, its occurrence amongst symbols on Scottish sepulchral slabs, 88 ; with enamelled scabbard, in the Keswick museum, 92 ; found in the river Witham, near Lincoln, ib.
- Symbols on Scottish Sculptured Stones, 188 ; possibly of Gnostic origin, 190 ; of singular character incised on rocks in Northumberland, 286 ; adopted as distinctions of the Roman Legions, 359.

T.

- Talbot de Malahide, the Lord, his notices of the exhibition of portraits of Mary Stuart, 353 ; his address at the Chester meeting, 368 ; mazer-bowl presented to him by the Lancashire Historic Society, 378.
- Talisman, of silver, with Hebrew characters, in Mr. Morgan's collection, 288.
- Tesselated pavements found at Kenchester, 83 ; at Rudge Coppeice, Wilts, 282 ; at Cirencester, now preserved in the museum there, 354.
- Thau, its occurrence as a symbol on sepulchral slabs, 76.
- Theodelinda, Queen of the Lombards, her

- gifts to Monza, 8 ; her crown, 14 ; hen and chickens of silver, 16 ; her tomb, 24.
- Thor Longus, his seal, 48.
- Thorold, Mr., dagger and gold armlet in his possession, found in Lincolnshire, 92.
- Tiles, mediæval, found at Rochester, 289 ; at Chester, 294.
- Tingewicke, Nicholas de, physician to Edward I., 268.
- Torc ring, found in Dorset, 287.
- Traherne, Rev. J. M., his notice of the monument of Sir Edward Carne, at Rome, 76.
- Trollope, Mr. A., communicates impressions from seals found at Lincoln and Peterborough, 363.
- Trollope, Rev. E., his notices of an enamelled perfume box and a bronze relic, found at Little Humby, 75 ; exhibits a dagger and a gold armlet, found in Lincolnshire, 92 ; his account of Roman remains at Caythorpe, Lincolnshire, 140 ; of Saxon urns found in the same county, 177, 275 ; of a Roman urn found at Ancaster, 276.
- U.
- Urns, not invariably found in interments by cremation, 136 ; fabrications of imitative British urns in Yorkshire, 172 ; cinerary urns found in Lincolnshire, 177, 275 ; sepulchral urns found in Ireland, 393. See Pottery, and Sepulchral Antiquities.
- Usk, inscribed brass plate in the church there, 289.
- V.
- Varangians, supposed traces of, found in excavations at Kertch, 69, 206.
- Vernon, Mr. W. F., communicates a notice of a Roman inscription in Anatolia, 279.
- W.
- WALES :—notice of the monument of Sir Edward Carne, of Llandough, Glamorganshire, 76 ; map of Roman remains at Caersws, Montgomeryshire, exhibited, 84 ; bronze tripod pot found in Merionethshire, exhibited by Mr. Wynne, 177 ; notices of the gold corslet found near Mold, 292 ; observations on the castles of Carnarvon and Conway, 375, 379 ; memoir by Dr. Robson on the Alleluiah Victory, 324 ; pestle or maul of stone found in Holyhead Island, 357.
- Walford, Mr. W. S., his observations on mediæval seals, 48 ; on documents relating to Lincolnshire, 79 ; his memoir on an effigy in Aldworth Church, Berks, with notices of the De la Beche family, 144 ; his observations on a certificate by the Black Prince regarding Thomas de Prayers, 349.
- Walker, Major, Roman inscription found by him at Ismid, 279 ; Crimean relics in his possession, ib.
- Walker, Miss M., Roman antiquities found at Kenchester, exhibited by, 83.
- Walnuts, found with ancient interments, 69, 203.
- Walsingham, Norfolk, sepulchral brasses there, 93.
- Waring, Mr. J. B., his notices of the proposed Exhibition of Ancient Art at Manchester, 77.
- Warner, Rev. J. Lee, exhibits impressions of sepulchral brasses at Walsingham, 93.
- Watches, observations on their early construction, 353 ; watches supposed to have belonged to Mary Stuart, 354.
- Watling Street, observations on its course, 99, 104, 112.
- Way, Mr. A., his observations on mediæval seals, 48 ; exhibits a coin of Faustina found in Surrey, 75 ; his notices of sepulchral slabs in Scotland, 88 ; observations on a bill of medicines furnished for Edward I., 267 ; on the Rudge cup, in possession of the Duke of Northumberland, 282 ; on the Darnley Ring, 297 ; on a seal of the Black Prince, 351 ; on a head-piece of Brigandine armour, found in Kent, 345.
- Webb, Mr. G. Bish, exhibits a bronze celt found near Staines, 279 ; a Roman ampulla of glass, ib.
- Webb, Mr. J., exhibits sculptures in ivory, 362.
- WESTMORELAND :—enamelled box found at Kirby Thore, 75.
- Westwood, Mr., communicates Anglo-Saxon documents preserved at Lambeth, 61 ; exhibits illustrations of Celtic and ancient Irish ornamentation, 84 ; drawings of St. Wollo's Church, Monmouthshire, ib. ; his observations on sculptured monuments and symbols in Scotland, 87, 185 ; exhibits a portrait of Shakspeare, 362.
- Whincopp, Mr. W., exhibits Anglo-Saxon rings and other ornaments, 177.
- Wight, Isle of, Anglo-Saxon ornaments found there, 74.
- Wilde, Mr., his Catalogue of Antiquities in the museum of the Royal Irish Academy, 296, 388.
- Willement, Mr., exhibits a brigandine head-piece, found in Kent, 345.

- Wilton, Rev. E., exhibits a spoon found at Devizes, 280 ; a bronze fibula found near Great Cheverell, Wilts, 287.
- WILTSHIRE :—metal bowl found near Wilton, 93 ; silver ring found at Ugford, ib. ; notice of Cissa's Barrow near Overton, 129 ; supposed allusion to a Cromlech in Wiltshire, 135 ; spoon found at Devizes, 280 ; Roman cup and tessellated pavement found at Rudge, 282 ; proposed publication on Edington church, 287.
- Winchester, notice of MSS. in the college library, 78 ; brooch and other relics found there, exhibited by Rev. J. G. Chester, 279.
- Winston, Mr. C., memoir on the North Rose window, Lincoln minster, 211 ; his observations on ruby glass, 217, and additional notes.
- WORCESTERSHIRE :—steel bars found near Malvern, 81 ; works by Mr. Noake on the History and Antiquities of Worcester and the county noticed, 97.
- Worton, Lancashire, bronze scabbard and sword-hilt found there, 91.
- Wraken-dyke, Co. Durham, 103, n.
- Wyatt, Mr. T. H., exhibits plans of an ancient building at Hackney, 174.
- Wychwood Forest, relic of stag's-horn used for hafting a stone weapon, found there, 82.
- Wyndham, Mrs., communicates a notice of rings found in Dorset, 287.
- Wynne, Mr. W. W., exhibits a bronze tripod pot found in Merionethshire, 177.
- YORKSHIRE :—disks of flint found near Malton and Pickering, 83 ; original Statutes for Middleham College, 160 ; fabrications of imitative antiquities of stone, 171 ; fabrications of seals of jet, ib. ; seal found at York, in possession of Rev. J. G. Chester, 179 ; bell at Scawton, supposed to have been brought from Byland Abbey, 284 ; metal moriar of the Infirmary of St. Mary's, York, 285 ; enamelled candlestick found at York, 289.

END OF VOL. XIV.