

INDEX.

- Acton, Mrs. Stackhouse, gems exhibited by, 303.
- Africa, leaf-shaped iron sword used there, 168.
- Airy, Dr. (Astronomer Royal), his remarks on Cæsar's march over the Cevennes, 369.
- Aix-la-Chapelle, precious objects in the cathedral there, 218—225.
- Albemarle, William, Earl of, grant of land in Cumberland by, 55; his seals, 56, 58.
- Alexander the Great, supposed traces of Greek Art through his campaign in India, 377.
- Amulets, boars' tusks used as, 146, 147.
- Anglesea, stone mould for bronze weapons found in, 166; recovery of the Skerries, or Isle of Seals, by the Bishop of Bangor, 258.
- ANGLO-SAXON PERIOD :—weapons, &c., found near Lanchester, 67; interment with a bronze basin, bone dice, &c., at Keythorpe, 76; iron arrow-head found in the Isle of Wight, 83; MS. leaves found in the Cathedral library at Gloucester, 92; bronze ornaments found at Fairfield, 168; brooches in the Museum at Brussels similar to those of Anglo-Saxon type, 217; proposed publication of ornaments, &c., from illuminated MSS., by Professor Westwood, 306.
- Antiquaries, Society of, Registers of Peterborough in their library, 209; bronze hand-bell in their Museum exhibited, 277.
- Arabesque work (rabasco), mentioned t. Henry VIII., 137.
- ARCHITECTURE :—memoir on remains of buildings found at Lichfield Cathedral, by Professor Willis, 1—24; architectural history of Lichfield Cathedral, 17; rude dwellings of dry masonry in Cornwall, 39; example of Domestic architecture at Colerne, Wilts, 87, 125; proposed demolition of the Abbey Gate, Reading, ib.; churches of circular form in England noticed, 97; memoir on circular churches by Mr. Petit, 101—115; proposed publication on architectural examples in Worcestershire, 192; notice of the cathedral at Aix-la-Chapelle, 218; circular church at Orphir, Orkney, 227; memoir on churches in Cornwall by Mr. E. W. Godwin, 231—252; 325—341; notice by Professor Willis of the fall of the spire at Chichester, 269; notices of churches, &c. in Northamptonshire, 386, et seq.
- ARMS and ARMOUR :—Anglo-Saxon weapons found near Lanchester, 67; armour from the Arsenal at Constantinople exhibited, 78, 291; military costume illustrated by a sepulchral brass at Bowers Gifford, 98; armour, shields, &c. from the Middle Temple Hall exhibited, 154; fashion of, illustrated by a brass ewer in form of a knight, 159; dagger used by Prince Charles, formerly at Rûg, 289.
- Arrow-head, of flint, 75; Anglo-Saxon, found in the Isle of Wight, 83; bronze, found in Babylonia, &c., 163; bronze, found in Ireland, 167.
- Auditors, their Annual Report, 192.
- Axes, found near Lanchester, 67; remarks on early forms of, 69.
- Badges used by the house of Lancaster, 52.
- Bailey, Mr., work on antiquities in the Crimea exhibited by, 82.
- Baker, Mrs. T. L. Barwick, agate presented to Queen Elizabeth exhibited by, 304; carved ivory comb, 374.
- Bale, Mr., antique bronzes exhibited by, 90; intagli and gems, 304.

- Barrows, sepulchral, in Westmorland, 36; in Cornwall, 42; in Derbyshire, opened by Mr. Greaves, 69; at Penhow, Monmouthshire, opened by Mr. Morgan, 71; on the Wiltshire Downs, ib.; copper ingots and an urn found in a barrow near Royston, 86; near the Wrekin, Salop, 163.
- Basin of brass curiously engraved, found at Haw Passage on the Severn, 72.
- Bateman, Mr., his Ten Years Diggings in Derbyshire, &c., noticed, 406.
- Beck, Rev. J., fetter-locks, keys, Nuremberg tankard, &c., exhibited by, 78; gold ring found at Sullington, Sussex, 84; miniature of Anne Hyde, Queen of James II., ib.; Assyrian gem, 305.
- Becket, Thomas a, mitre used by him exhibited, 182; apparel of his amice, 183.
- Beldam, Mr., copper ingots found near Royston exhibited by, 86.
- Bells, hand, various specimens noticed, 91, 277; one of silver, formerly belonging to the nuns of Syon, 276.
- BERKSHIRE:—iron spears found at Cookham, 76; painted glass at N. Moreton, 152; barbed bronze spear found at Speen, 161.
- Berners, Lady, Anglo-Saxon relics found at Keythorpe Hall exhibited by, 76.
- Besborough gems, notices of by the Rev. C. W. King, 313; catalogue of by Natter, 314.
- Blackmore, Mr., leaf-shaped African sword exhibited by, 168.
- Blight, Mr., memoir on a British village in Cornwall by, 39; his proposed publication on the Land's End, 100.
- Blore, Mr., Chinese enameled vases exhibited by, 90; cinque-cento bronzes, ib.; figure of St. George, ib.; cameo found in Nottinghamshire, 304.
- Blount, Sir E., Bart, vestments exhibited by, 187.
- Brackstone, Mr., flint flakes, arrow heads, &c., exhibited by, 75; brass hand-bell, 91; numerous antiquities of bronze, 164; singular stirrups, 166.
- Boars' tusks, used as an amulet, found in Wilts, 146; other examples noticed, 147.
- Bohn, Mr. J. H., book-bindings exhibited by, 286.
- Boileau, Sir John, Bart., his notice of mural paintings at Easton, Norfolk, 269.
- Book-bindings, Special Exhibition of, 277, 289.
- Boone, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 286.
- Bowl or basin of brass, found in the Severn, at Haw Passage, 72; found with Anglo-Saxon interments, 77.
- BRASSES, SEPULCHRAL:—palimpsest at Constantine, Cornwall, 80; remarks on Flemish style of engraving, 81; palimpsest at Topcliffe, Yorkshire, 82; of a knight at Bowers Gifford, Essex, 98; of Archbishop Dene, formerly in Canterbury Cathedral, 260.
- Braybrooke, Lord, his investigations in Essex, 96; notice of his decease, 146.
- Bridle-bit, bronze, found in Lincolnshire, 159; in Ireland, 165.
- Bristol, misereres in the cathedral noticed, 273; documents relating to property in that city, 375.
- BRITISH PERIOD:—Avenue and circles of stones near Shap, 25; village and subterraneous galleries in Cornwall, 39.
- Brodie, Sir Benjamin, Bart., portrait of Fox exhibited by, 378.
- BRONZE, antiquities of:—weapon found in Westmorland, 37; weapon found in a barrow in Derbyshire, 70; in a barrow in Monmouthshire, 71; in Wiltshire, ib.; Special Exhibition of antique bronzes, 84; discourse on, by Professor Westmacott, ib.; traces of manufacture of, in Britain, 87; general notice of, by Mr. Albert Way, 147; trumpet found in Lincolnshire, 150; moulds for casting weapons, 151, 166; celts, weapons, spears, swords, &c., exhibited, 156—167; shields found in Northumberland, 157; sword found at Bath, 160.
- Brooch, with a talismanic inscription in Mr. Waterton's collection, 64; Irish, of bronze, 164, 165; Anglo-Saxon, found at Fairford, 168; in the Brussels Museum, resembling those of Anglo-Saxon type, 217.
- Browne, Right Rev. Bishop, the Syon cope exhibited by, 183; rich chasuble, 184; cope for a boy-bishop, ib.
- Brussels, MSS. in the library there noticed, 213; Museum of paintings, 215; of antiquities, ib.
- Burges, Mr., communicates a notice of a barrow in Wilts, 71; of ancient tissue found at Bayonne, 174; of do. in Sicily, 175.
- Burningham, Rev. T., pewter chalice and paten found at Charlwood exhibited by, 276.
- Burt, Mr., his account of the reproduction of Domesday by Photozincography, 128, 170; brings for exhibition the ancient binding of Domesday, 182; the Indentures between

- Hen. VII., the Abbot of Westminster, and others, ib., 278.
- Caldron, of bronze, found in Ireland, 168.
- Calthrop, barbed, from Perugia, 158.
- Calvert, Mr., his remarks on the site of Troy, 363.
- Calvert, Mr. F., his notice of the site of Larisa, 252, 268.
- CAMBRIDGESHIRE:—Matrix of a seal found at Hadstock, in Lord Braybrooke's museum, 78; chapter seal of Ely, 79; oval bronze vase found at Linton, 90.
- Canada, ancient pottery found in, 374.
- Canning, Mrs. Gordon, enameled reliquary exhibited by, 373.
- Castellani, Signor, his Discourse on the Goldsmith's Art, 365; jewelry, antique gems, &c., exhibited by, 373.
- Castle Hedingham, Essex, monument of John de Vere, Earl of Essex, there, 98.
- Catt, Mr., chamberlain's steel key exhibited by, 78; portrait of Henry IV. King of France, 191; of Edward VI. and Elizabeth, ib.; needlework executed at Little Gidding, ib.; Nell Gwynne's mirror, ib.; bronze bust of Charles I., 377.
- Cazenove, Rev. A., alabaster tablet from Lima exhibited by, 374.
- Celts of bronze, remarks on, 151; various examples exhibited, 156, 167.
- Chalice of pewter found at Charlwood, Surrey, 276.
- Charlton, Dr., his account of weapons, &c., found near Lanchester, 67.
- Charlemagne, his tomb and precious relics at Aix-la-Chapelle, 219, 222.
- Charms, on mediæval rings, &c., 64; on a ring found at King's Weston, 92.
- Charles I., purse which belonged to him exhibited, 189; portraits of him in needle-work exhibited, 190; dagger used by, when Prince of Wales, 288; gloves given by, to Bishop Juxon, 291; his signet ring, 300, 311; brass bust of him in Mr. Catt's collection, 377.
- Charles II., signet ring used by him as Prince of Wales, 310.
- Chasuble, exhibited by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Browne, 184; by Mr. Bowyer Nichols, ib.; by Sir Piers Mostyn, 187; by the Very Rev. Canon Rock, ib.
- CHESHIRE:—bronze celt found at Grapenhall, 158.
- Chester, Rev. J. G., his account of an urn and Roman coins found near Sheffield, 71.
- Chichester, memoirs read at the Institute's meeting there, 100, 306; Prof. Willis' remarks on the fall of the spire, 269.
- Churches of circular form, notes on by Mr. Petit, 101; example at Orphir in Orkney, 227.
- Chinese vases, of bronze, exhibited by Mr. Henderson, 88; by Mr. Fortnum, 89; statuette of bronze, ib.; bronze crab exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 90; enameled metal vases, ib.
- Circles, of erect stones, in Westmoreland, 30, 32, 37; in Cornwall, 44.
- Clocks, list of, belonging to Henry VIII., 137, 142; diminutive, exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 168.
- Coins, Roman, found near Sheffield, 71; found in the Punjab, &c., 373.
- Colchester, Roman remains found there, 94, 96.
- Colerne, Wilts, example of Domestic Architecture there, 87, 125.
- Collar, beaded, of bronze found in Lancashire, 167.
- Colnaghi, Mr., miniatures of James II. and his Queen exhibited by, 84; specimens of book-binding, 286.
- Comb, Anglo-Saxon, found in Leicestershire, 76; of ivory, probably Pontifical, exhibited by Mrs. T. L. Barwick Baker, 374.
- Coningham, Mr., cameo exhibited by, 304.
- Constantine, Cornwall, sepulchral brass there, 80.
- Cooke, Mr. P. B. Davies, the Liber Landavensis exhibited by, 269; MS. of the Wicliffite New Testament, 280.
- Cope, formerly belonging to the nuns of Syon, 183; hood of a cope, 184; cope for a boy-bishop, ib.; of rich tissue with badges of Henry VII. at Stonyhurst, 186.
- Copper, ingots of, found in a barrow near Royston, 86.
- Cornthwaite, Rev. T., Egyptian bronze of a shrew-mouse exhibited by, 90; Roman antiquities, Irish celts, bronze caldron, &c., ib.
- CORNWALL:—British village at Chysauster, 39; subterranean galleries there, 42; cromlechs, 44; Chun Quoit, 66; palimpsest sepulchral brass at Constantine, 80; proposed publication by Mr. Blight on the Land's End, 100; Domesday for the county reproduced by photozincography, 132; Roman remains at Carminow, 168; notices of churches in the Deaneries of Kerrier and Kenwith, by Mr. E. W. Godwin, 231—252; 325—341.
- COSTUME:—brass at Bowers Gifford, Essex, 98; effigies of John, Earl of Oxford, and his Countess, at Castle Hedingham, ib.; specimens of Tun-

- sian, 191; court dress of 1750, exhibited, ib.; christening wrapper, embroidered aprons, &c., ib.; military, illustrated by a figure at Liège, 217.
- Coverdale, account of his edition of the Bible, 116; list of copies, 123.
- Crimea, representations of tombs and antiquities there exhibited, 82.
- Cromwell, the Protector, bronze medallion of him exhibited by Mr. Murray, 91.
- Cross, processional, found at Hereford, 77; fragment of the true cross worn by Charlemagne, 218; Charlemagne's cross, preserved at Aix-la-Chapelle, 222; of Lothaire I., ib.; gable-crucifix at Germoe Church, Cornwall, 250; pectoral, found in the tomb of Johanna, Queen of Sicily, 302; jeweled, found with Gothic crowns at Guarrazar, 371.
- Crowns, discovery of at Guarrazar in Spain, 369.
- Cuirbouilli, specimens of exhibited by Mr. Slade, 281.
- CUMBERLAND:—grant of land near Papcastle, 55.
- Curzon, Hon. Robert, jun., casket covered with embroidery exhibited by, 190; portrait of Charles I., in needlework, ib.; portrait of Lady Ann Luttrell worked by Miss Linwood, ib.; specimens of bookbinding, 285.
- D'Azeglio, the Marquis, Italian embroidery and tapestry exhibited by, 186.
- Dagger used by Charles I. when Prince of Wales, 289.
- De Vere, John, Earl of Essex, his tomb at Castle Hedingham, 98; seals and heraldry of the family, 100.
- Dearden, Mr., bronze-beaded collar exhibited by, 167.
- Dene, Archbishop, memoir of, 256; his will, 261; letter from him to the University of Oxford, 267.
- DERBYSHIRE:—barrow near Ashbourn opened by Mr. Greaves, 69.
- DEVONSHIRE:—barbed bronze spears found near South Brent, 160; stone moulds for bronze weapons, 166; inscribed slab, with Oghams, found at Fardel, 175.
- Devonshire, collection of gems exhibited, 300; gold medallion of Henry VIII., 301; catalogue of the collection by Natter, ib., 305; choice examples engraved by Gosmond, 302.
- Dexter, Mr., Venetian candlesticks exhibited by, 90; bronze horses, ib.
- Diamonds, examples of engraved, 303.
- Dice, Anglo-Saxon, found in Leicestershire, 76; various other examples, 77.
- Dinant, bronze fonts cast there, 216—218.
- DOCUMENTS:—grant of land near Papcastle, Cumberland, 55; relating to Yorkshire exhibited by Mr. Wentworth, 60, 61; relating, as supposed, to early iron works in Yorkshire, 61; relating to Byland Abbey, 63; general pardon to Henry Vernon of Sudbury, 77; inventory of valuable effects of Henry VIII., 134; extracts from the Black Book of Peterborough, 210; will of Archbishop Dene, 256; indentures between Henry VII. and the Abbot of Westminster, &c., preserved at the Rolls, 278; one of the like indentures in possession of the chapter of St. Paul's, 279; another indenture exhibited by Mr. Toovey, ib.; grant of land at Shreshill, Staffordshire, 359; miscellaneous, relating to houses, &c., in Bristol, 375.
- Dodd, Mr., portrait of the President de Thou exhibited by, 191; specimen of book-binding in tortoise-shell, 289.
- Domesday, proposed facsimiles of by photozincography, 128, 192; ancient binding of exhibited, 182.
- Donaldson, Professor, his remarks on the special exhibitions of the Institute, 170.
- DORSETSHIRE:—stone mould for celts found at Milton, 166.
- Dovor, remains of the round church of the Templars there, 97.
- Draughts, bone pieces for playing, found in Leicestershire, 76.
- Dundas, Right Hon. Sir D., a fine copy of Worlidge's gems exhibited by, 305.
- DURHAM:—weapons, &c., found near Lanchester, 67; bronze figure of Mercury found at Piersbridge, 90.
- Dykes, Mr., Frecheville, his remarks on a grant of land near Papecastle, 59.
- Eagle, royal signet of the, used by Hen. V. and Hen. VI., 49; the double-headed, observations on, 54.
- Earle, Rev. J., his memoir on Anglo-Saxon MS. leaves found at Gloucester, 92; his memoir on local names in Gloucestershire, 342.
- Ear-ring, worn by Charles I., 378.
- Edward VI., his portrait in needlework, 191.
- Effigy, sepulchral; of wood, at Little Leigh, Essex, 73; list of other effigies of wood, 74; of the Earl of Oxford at Castle Hedingham, 98. See Brasses.
- Elizabeth, Queen, her portrait in needle-

- work, 191; cameo portraits attributed to Vincentino, 297; agate presented to her by Archbishop Parker, 304; cameo portrait of her in the Royal Collection, 310.
- Ellacombe, Rev. H. T., documents relating to houses in Bristol exhibited by, 375.
- Ellis, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 288.
- Embroideries and Textile works, special exhibition of, 182—191.
- ENAMELS:—portraits of Queen Anne and the Duke of Gloucester exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 78; champleve, on the cover of a MS. exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 83, 280; crossier found in a tomb at Bayonne, 175; bosses on the books of indentures between Hen. VII. and the Abbot of Westminster, 182; mounting or frame of a hawking pouch in Lady North's possession, 188; on the corona over Charlemagne's tomb, 225; champlevé, exhibited by Mr. Slade, 281; on a copy of Hours which belonged to Mary I., Queen of England, ib.; gold reliquary in possession of Mrs. Gordon Canning, 306; jewel in the Royal Collection at Windsor with a portrait of Francis I., 309; miniature of the Duke of Tyrconnel by Petitot, 377; of the Duke of Shrewsbury by Huant, 377.
- ESSEX:—wooden effigy of a priest at Little Leigh, 73; Transactions of the Archaeological Society noticed, 93; Roman remains, 94, 96; sepulchral brass at Bowers Gifford, 98; monument of the Earl of Oxford at Castle Hedingham, ib.; carved bedstead there, 100.
- Ewer, brass, in form of a mounted knight, 159.
- Exeter, John de Shareshill, precentor of, his seal, 359.
- EXHIBITIONS, SPECIAL:—of antique and miscellaneous bronzes, 88—91; of early relics of bronze weapons, implements, &c., 156—168; embroideries and needlework, 182—191; book-bindings, 277—289; gems, 299—305; account of the collection of gems, by the Rev. C. W. King, 307.
- Falkner, Mr., diminutive bronze head found at Pompeii exhibited by, 90; drawings of bronze weapons, 160; antiquities found in a barrow in Wiltshire, ib.; iron key found near Abury, ib.
- Fanshawe, Mr., court dresses exhibited by, 191; specimen of book-binding, 288.
- Fardel, Devon, inscribed slab with Oghams found at, 175.
- Farrer, Mr. H., Italian candlesticks wrought by Picinino exhibited by, 83; MS. of Bonaventura with an enameled plaque on its binding, ib., 280.
- Farrer, Mr. J. his investigations in the Orkneys, 353.
- Ferrar, Nicholas, embroidery worked at his house at Little Gidding, 191.
- Flint, flakes of, found in a barrow in Monmouthshire, 71; arrow-heads, flakes, &c., exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 75; natural specimens resembling artificial ancient relics, 75; diagram showing forms of weapons, &c., 76.
- Font, ancient one dug up at Lichfield Cathedral, 8; brass, at Brussels, 215; at Liège, 217; cast at Dinant, 218; in churches in Cornwall, Ruan Minor, 238; Cury, 243; Germoe, 251; Zennor, 326; Madron, 327; Ludgvan, ib.
- Fould, M. Edouard, vase of jade exhibited by, 305; presents the description of M. Louis Fould's cabinet of antiquities and art, 373.
- Fortnum, Mr., antique bronzes exhibited by, 89; Venetian candlesticks, ib.; bronze celts, swords, &c., 157.
- Fox, the great statesman, singular portrait of him exhibited by Sir B. Brodie, Bart., 378.
- France, circular church at Montmajour, 112; moulds for celts found in France, 166; tissue found in a tomb at Bayonne, 174.
- Francis I., King of France, his portrait amongst the gems in the royal collection at Windsor, 309.
- Franks, Mr., his remarks on Anglo-Saxon weapons, &c., found near Lancaster, 68; on bronze weapons and traces of their manufacture in Britain, 86; ancient needlework exhibited by, 185.
- Freeman, Mr. E., his observations on church architecture in Northamptonshire, 387.
- Gabatae, hanging basins, 77.
- Galley ware, glazed pottery, 138, 145.
- Garrard, Mr., Chinese mirror-case of jade exhibited by, 305.
- Gems, antique, used as mediæval seals, 63; Discourse by Mr. Waterton on Glyptic Art, 292; special exhibition of, 299—305; intaglio representing the Annunciation found with the Gothic crowns at Guarrazar, 372.

- George II., bronze medallion of, 91.
 Germany, notices of round churches in, 108 et seq.
 Gibeciere, exhibited by Mr. Morland, 188; by Lady North, ib., 372.
 Glass, specimens from Venice exhibited by Mr. Oswell Thompson, 83; vessels, &c., of, amongst effects of Henry VIII., 138, 143; painted, at North Moreton, Berks, 152.
 GLOUCESTERSHIRE:—engraved basin found at Haw Passage on the Severn, 72; Anglo-Saxon MS. leaves in the cathedral library, 92; copy of Coverdale's Bible there, 116; bronze Anglo-Saxon ornaments found at Fairford, 168; traces of Ethnology in local names, 342; traces of Roman occupation in local names, 349.
 Gloves, worn by James I., formerly at Strawberry Hill, exhibited, 189; given by Charles I. to Bishop Juxon, 291.
 Godwin, Mr. E. W., his memoir on an ancient house at Colerne, Wilts, 87, 125; on churches in Cornwall, 231—252; 325—341.
 Gold torque and ornaments found in the Crimea, 82; torque-ring found in Ireland, 83; torques found at Brigg in Lincolnshire, 159.
 Goldsmith's art, discourse by Signor Castellani on the, 365.
 Graves, Mr., portrait of Charles I. exhibited by, 190; of the Earl and Countess of Arundel, 305; view of Arundel House by Hollar, ib.
 Greaves, Mr., his account of a barrow in Derbyshire, 69; tortoiseshell reliquary exhibited by, 92; communicates notes by Mr. Calvert on the site of Troy, 363.
 Greencroft, Durham, Anglo-Saxon weapons found there, 67.
 Guarrazar, Gothic crowns found there, 369.
 Guest, Dr. Augustus, bronze horse's head attributed to Lysippus exhibited by, 86.
 Gwynne, Nell, her mirror with embroidered ornaments, 191.
 Gyrth House, ancient round church in the Orkneys, 227.
 Haigh, Rev. D., apparel of the amice of St. Thomas of Canterbury exhibited by, 183.
 Halswell, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 282.
 Hamilton, the Duke of, gems and jewels exhibited by, 302.
 HAMPSHIRE:—engraved bronze celt found at Liss, 167.
 Hand-bells, brass, exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 91; by Mr. Brackstone, ib.; by Mr. Rolls, ib.; observations on, 277; of silver, formerly belonging to the nuns of Syon, 276.
 Harrison, Rev. J. H., Lord Howard of Effingham's prayer-book exhibited by, 285
 Harvey, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 288.
 Hastings, Major, Buddhist sculptures, bronze statuette and terra cotta of Greek character, coins, &c., from Afghanistan exhibited by, 373.
 Head, Right Hon. Sir Edmund, gold torque ring found in Ireland exhibited by, 83.
 Henderson, Mr., Chinese and ancient bronzes exhibited by, 88; bronze celts, &c., 158; Tunisian embroidery, tissues and costume, 191; purse with royal devices attributed to Queen Elizabeth, ib.; point lace, &c. ib.; Lady Ducie's almanack, 285; gems, and rings, 304; majolica plate, ib.
 Henry V. and Henry VI., kings of England, the signet of the eagle used by, 49, 55.
 Henry VII., indentures between him and the Abbot of Westminster exhibited, 182, 278, 279; cope of rich Florentine velvet with his badges, 186.
 Henry VIII., inventory of his musical instruments, clocks, vessels of glass, &c., 134.
 Henry IV., King of France, needlework portrait of, 191.
 HERALDRY:—observations on the arms of De Fortibus, Earls of Albemarle, 57; on part a surcoat worn by one of that family, 58; arms of Byland Abbey, 64; on a brass at Constantine, Cornwall, 81; coats, partly fictitious, on the Syon cope, 184; on a stole exhibited by Lord Willoughby de Broke, 185; on Swiss embroidery, 189; arms of Henry VIII. on book-bindings, 287; of de Clare and Lacy, on vestments, 184; of Archbishop Dene, 257. See Seals.
 Hereford, processional cross found in the cathedral, 77; destruction of the town-hall, 155.
 HERTFORDSHIRE:—copper ingots found in a barrow near Royston, 86.
 Hervey, the Rev. Lord Arthur, his remarks on Professor Willis' discourse on Lichfield Cathedral, 80.
 Hewett, Mr., Anglo-Saxon arrow-head exhibited by, 83.
 Hope, Mr. A. Beresford, chasuble exhibited by, 187; camei and gems, 303.
 Hopkins, Mr., his notice of the seals of Grimsby, 169.

- Howard, Dr. J., facsimiles of book-bindings exhibited by, 289.
- Hunt and Roskell, Messrs., gems and engraved diamonds exhibited by, 303.
- Hut-circles, sites of ancient dwellings in Cornwall, 41; in other places, 44.
- India, relics with traditions of Greek art found in Afghanistan, 373.
- Inscriptions, on a slab at Fardel, Devon, accompanied by Oghams, 175; in S. Wales, Ireland, Cornwall, &c., 177.
- IRISH ANTIQUITIES:—flint flakes, arrow-heads, &c., exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 75; gold torque-ring, 83; bronze celts, 158; mace-heads, &c., 163; brooches, pins, blades, and numerous relics from Mr. Brackstone's collection, 164; bridle-bits, 165; bronze arrow-heads, 167; celts and bronze caldron exhibited by the Rev. T. Cornthwaite, 168; Ogham inscriptions noticed, 179, 180.
- Iron-workings in Yorkshire, supposed early reference to, 61.
- Italy, bronze spears, swords, &c., found in, 158.
- IVORY CARVINGS:—fictitious matrices of seals, 48; spoon and fork, 78; specimens in the Brussels Museum, 217; Charlemagne's hunting-horn at Aix-la-Chapelle, 221; sculptures on the pulpit there, 221; tablet with a figure of Otho III. in the Musée des Thermes, 224; situla at Aix-la-Chapelle, 224; diptych there, 225; image of the Virgin Mary formerly belonging to the nuns of Syon, 275; tablet on the binding of a MS., 280.
- James I., pendant jewel enclosing his portrait exhibited by the Duke of Hamilton, 303.
- James, Col. Sir H., his application of photozincography to producing facsimiles of MSS., 130, 170, 192.
- James, Rev. T., his Discourse on Northamptonshire archæology, 380.
- Jet, fictitious matrices of seals formed of, 48.
- Kendrick, Dr., bronze celts exhibited by, 159; ewer in form of a mounted knight, ib.
- Kerslake, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 287; dagger formerly at Rûg used by Charles I. when Prince of Wales, 289.
- Key, of a lady of the bedchamber to the Duchess of York, 78; various keys exhibited by the Rev. J. Beck, ib.; found near Abury, Wilts, exhibited by Mr. Falkner, 160.
- Keythorpe Hall, Leicestershire, Anglo-Saxon interment and relics found there, 76.
- King, Rev. C. W., his notices of the royal collection of gems at Windsor Castle, 307; of the Marlborough gems, 313; of the Besborough collection, 315.
- King, Rev. S. W., urn found near a Roman potter's kiln in Norfolk exhibited by, 374.
- LANCASHIRE:—bronze spear found at Winmarley, 158; bronze blade, urn, &c., at Winwick, ib.; bronze box found at Bewsey Hall, 159; celt with a ring at Winwick, 158; beaded collar or torque at Mow-road, 167.
- Lanchester, Durham, Anglo-Saxon weapons, &c. found there, 67.
- Larisa, in the Troad, memoir by Mr. Calvert on its site, 252.
- Lawrence, Mr., brass engraved basin found at Haw Passage on the Severn exhibited by, 72.
- Lee Warner, Rev. J., his notices of Coverdale's Bible, 116.
- LEICESTERSHIRE:—Anglo-Saxon interment with singular relics found at Keythorpe Hall, 76.
- Lewis, Mrs. Harvey, intaglio exhibited by, 305.
- Lever, vessel of plate or glass, 143.
- Lichfield Cathedral, memoir on buildings discovered there, 1; its architectural history, 17.
- Liege, brass font there cast at Dinant, 217.
- LINCOLNSHIRE:—bronze trumpet found in the river Witham, 150; bronze bridle-bits and gold torques found at Brigg, 159; spears, palstaves, &c., found at Nettleham, 159; bronze mould for casting celts found at Lincoln, 166; seals of Great Grimsby, 169.
- Llandaff Cathedral, ancient Register of exhibited by Mr. Davies Cooke, 279.
- Louis XII., cameo portrait of him amongst the Royal gems at Windsor, 308.
- Madden, Sir F., his notice of the new seal made for the Chapter of Norwich Cathedral in 1349, 79.
- Mace-heads, bronze, found in Ireland, 163.
- Maes-how, chambered barrow in the Orkneys excavated, 353.
- Majendie, Mr., portraits of the Emperor Maximilian, Philip II., and other great personages, exhibited by, 306.
- Manning, Mr., embroidery on satin exhibited by, 191.
- Marlborough, the Duke of, exhibits the

- Blenheim Gems, 291, 300; Natter's MS. Catalogue of the Besborough Gems in his possession, 314.
- Martineau, Mrs., embroidered aprons, stomachers, &c., exhibited by, 191.
- Martyrology of the Convent of Syon, 276.
- Mary I., Queen of England, copy of Hours formerly in her possession, 280.
- Mary, Queen of Scots, cameo portrait of, amongst the gems at Windsor Castle, 300, 310.
- Maskell, Mr., Italian embroidery exhibited by, 188.
- Maskelyne, Professor, intaglio portrait of Newton exhibited by, 304.
- Miles, Mr., silver inscribed ring exhibited by, 91.
- Mirrors, list of, belonging to Henry VIII., 135, 138; Nell Gwynne's mirror, 191.
- Misereres, at Bristol Cathedral, 273; remarks on their use and various other examples, 274.
- Mitre, of St. Thomas of Canterbury exhibited by H. E. Cardinal Wiseman, 182.
- Monmouthshire, barrow at Penhow excavated, 71.
- Montirol, Signor, elected an Hon. Member of the Institute, 268.
- Morgan, Mr. Octavius, his account of a barrow in Monmouthshire, 71; rings exhibited by him, 78; enameled purse, ib.; brass hand-bell, 91; diminutive clock, 169; needlework, lace, purses, and embroidery, 189; his remarks on "Restorations," 275; on brass hand-bells, 277; gems and antique pastes exhibited by him, 304.
- Morland, Mr., gibeciere exhibited by him, 188.
- Mostyn, Sir Pyers, Bart., vestments and dalmatics from the Escorial exhibited by, 187.
- Moulds of stone for casting weapons, found in Devon, 161; of stone and bronze for casting celts, spears, &c., 166.
- Munster, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 288; Roman cameo, 305.
- Murray, Mr., medallion portrait of Cromwell exhibited by, 91.
- Musical Instruments belonging to Henry VIII., inventory of, 136, 139.
- Names, local, in Gloucestershire, Memoir on, by the Rev. J. Earle, 342.
- Nelson, Mr., gloves given by Charles I. to Bishop Juxon exhibited by, 291.
- Nesbitt, Mr., Italian linen altar-cloth exhibited by, 187; Italian book-bindings, 283.
- Netherlands, notes on round churches in the, 106.
- Nichols, Mr. J. Bowyer, statuette of Mercury found at Piersbridge exhibited by, 90; three other bronzes, ib.; chasuble supposed to have belonged to the chapel of Margaret de Clare, 184; book-bindings, 285.
- , Mr. J. Gough, bronze figure of a wodevole exhibited by, 91; medallion portrait of George II., ib.; Swiss embroidery, 189; embroideries of t. Charles I., 190.
- NORFOLK:—new seal for the chapter of Norwich made in 1349, 79; mural paintings at Easton, 269; Roman urn and kiln for pottery found at Hedenham, 374.
- North, the Lady, embroidered hawking pouch, glove and lure exhibited by, 188; Chancellor's Purse used by Lord Keeper North, 189; embroidered binding, 285.
- NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:—Discourse by the Rev. T. James on the Archæology of the county, 380; observations on Church Architecture in, 386, et seq.
- Northumberland, the Duke of, bronze shields found at Stamfordham exhibited by, 157; bronze sword found at Bath in his Museum, 160.
- Oakes, Capt., urn and iron spear found at Cookham exhibited by, 76.
- Obsidian, weapon pointed with, found in the Thames, 75.
- Oghams, on an inscribed stone found at Fardel, Devon, 175; on a sepulchral stone found at Bressay, 179, 181; alphabet of, 180; examples in Wales, Ireland, &c., ib.; at Hackness, Yorkshire, 181.
- Olyvers, term supposed to be connected with early iron workings, 61.
- Orkney, round-church at Orphir described, 227; Maes-how, chambered tumulus near the Stones of Stenness, 353.
- Paintings, mural, in Norfolk and other counties, 269.
- Palimpsest, Sepulchral brass, at Constantine, Cornwall, 80; at Topcliffe, Yorkshire, 82.
- Palstaves, double looped, found in Ireland and Somerset, 157; various specimens, 160, 164; bronze mould for, found at Morges in Switzerland, 166.
- Pardons, general, under the Great Seal, 77.
- Paten, silver, exhibited by Mr. Sambrooke, 83; pewter, found at Charlwood, Surrey, 276.

Parker, Archbishop, presents an agate intaglio to Queen Elizabeth, 304.

Payne, Mr., book-binding exhibited by, 284.

Peterborough, the Foundation and early Fasti of, 193; extracts from the Black Book of, 209; Report of the Meeting of the Institute there, 378; notice of the museum then formed, 408.

Petit, Rev. J. L., presents photographs of Tewkesbury church, 75; his Notes on circular churches, 101—292.

Petrie, Mr. G., his memoir on a circular church at Orphir, Orkney, 227; on the chambered tumulus called Maeshow in Orkney, 353.

Phillips, Mr., Italian ornaments, cameo, reliquaries, &c. exhibited by, 78; ivory spoon and fork, ib.; bronze vessel found at Naples, 90.

Photozincography, reproduction by of Anglo-Saxon MSS. found at Gloucester, 92; of Domesday Book, 123, 170, 191.

Picnino, his works in metal, 83.

PORTRAITS:—of Anne queen of James II., 183; of James II. and Mary d'Este, 84; of Charles V. at Windsor Castle, 169; of Prince Arthur, ib. of Charles I. in needlework, 190; of Lady Anne Luttrell, worked by Miss Linwood, ib.; of Henry IV. King of France, 191; of Edward VI., ib., 308; of Queen Elizabeth, 191, 297, 310; of the President de Thou, 191; of Camden, cut in paper, ib.; of Henry VII. in illuminations, 278, 279; cameo portraits of Henry VIII., Queen Elizabeth, Mary Queen of Scots, &c., in the Royal collection at Windsor, 300; of James I. in the Duke of Hamilton's collection, 303; of the Old Chevalier, 304; of Prince Charles Edward, ib.; of Henry III. King of France (or the Earl of Leicester), 304; of Newton, ib.; of the Earl and Countess of Arundel, etchings by Hollar, 305; of Philip le Hardi, the Emperor Maximilian, Philip II. King of Spain, and other personages exhibited by Mr. Majendie, 306; of Louis XII. and other royal portraits in cameo amongst the Royal Gems at Windsor Castle, 308; of Francis I. in the same collection, 309; camei of Queen Elizabeth, Philip II. &c., 310; of William III. by Natter, and of Clementina Sobieski, ib.; of Fox, the statesman, in possession of Sir B. Brodie, Bart., 378.

POTTERY:—Nuremberg tankard exhibited by the Rev. J. Beck, 78; ware manufactured in Rhodes, ib.; Samian and Roman wares in Essex, 95; remarkable specimen of Castor ware found at Colchester, 96; galley or glazed ware, 138, 145; Roman found at Carminow, Cornwall, 168; Roman kiln and urn found at Hedenham, Norfolk, 374; fragments found in Warwickshire, exhibited by Mr. Shirley, ib.; in Canada, 374; in Derbyshire, &c., 413.

Praun Collection of Gems, in possession of the Rev. G. Rhodes, exhibited, 302.

Prince Consort, H.R.H. the, his Visit to the Institute's Exhibition of Gems, 299.

PUBLICATIONS, ARCHAEOLOGICAL:—Essex Archaeological Transactions, vol. i., 92; Memoirs read at the Chichester Meeting of the Institute, 100; Photozincographic fac-similes of Domesday, 192; Worcestershire Architectural Antiquities, ib.; Professor Westwood's miniatures and ornaments of Anglo-Saxon MSS. (in preparation), 306; Ten Years' Diggings in Celtic and Saxon Gravehills, by Mr. Bateman, 410.

QUEEN, Her Majesty the, the Royal Collection of gems at Windsor Castle exhibited by her gracious permission, 300.

Ram, Mr., needlework portrait of Charles I. exhibited by, 190; choice French and German bookbindings, 283.

Reading, proposed destruction of the abbey-gate, 87.

Ready, Mr., fac-similes of seals to be obtained from him, 47; chapter seals of Norwich and Ely exhibited by, 79.

Reigate, Lord Howard of Effingham's Prayer-book preserved there, 285.

Rhodes, peculiar ware formerly manufactured there, 78.

Rhodes, Rev. G., his collection of Gems exhibited, 302.

Richardson, Mr. E., fac-similes of sepulchral slabs at Tattenhall exhibited by, 375.

Rings, with talismanic inscriptions, 64; Jerusalem pilgrims' ring and other specimens exhibited by Mr. Morgan, 78; torque, of gold, found in Ireland, 83; gold, set with a ruby, found at Sullington, Sussex, 83; silver, with a talismanic inscription, found at King's Weston, Somerset, 91; choice examples from Mr. Waterton's Dactyliothea exhibited, 303; exhibited by Mr. Henderson,

- 304; with intaglio portrait of Newton exhibited by Professor Maskelyne, 304; signet of Charles II. when Prince of Wales, 310; signet of Charles I. possibly by Simon, 311.
- Rings, spiked, of bronze found in Ireland, &c., 160, 163.
- Rock, the Very Rev. Canon, Irish bronze celt exhibited by, 168; ancient chasuble, specimens of tissues and embroidery, 187; his remarks on misereres, 274; on an ivory statuette of the B. V. Mary, 275; Italian bookbinding exhibited by, 283.
- Robson, Dr., bronze relics, &c., from the Warrington Museum sent by, 158.
- Rogers, Mr. J. J., his account of Roman pottery &c., found at Carminow, Cornwall, 168.
- Rolls, the Right Hon. Master of the, the ancient binding of Domesday exhibited by his permission, 182; likewise the Indentures between Henry VII. and the abbot of Westminster, ib. 278.
- Rolls, Mr., brass hand-bell exhibited by, 91; bronze barbed spear found in Glamorganshire, 161; needle-work, and ancient toilet mirror, ib.; portrait of Camden, ib.
- ROMAN ANTIQUITIES:—Traces of a Roman way in Westmoreland, 38; urn with coins found near Sheffield, 71; urn found in the Thames at Cookham, 76; various bronze objects exhibited, 88; marble weight, 89; statuette of Mercury found at Piersbridge, Durham, 90; bronze relics exhibited by Mr. Cornthwaite, ib.; found at Colchester, 94; curiously ornamented flue-tiles, ib.; figure of a sphynx found at Colchester, 95; horse-shoes (or lamp-holders), ib.; remarkable vase of Castor ware, 96; villa and numerous relics disinterred at N. Wraxhall, Wilts, 146; singular crescent formed of boar's-tusks found there, ib.
- Runes, incised on slabs in the chambered tumulus at Maes-how, Orkney, 356.
- Russell, Mr., bronze model of a Caryatid by Michael Angelo exhibited by, 89; remarkable Chinese bronze vases, ib.
- Russell, Rev. J. F., processional cross found at Hereford exhibited by, 77; embroidered hood of a cope, 189; gloves worn by James I., ib.; book-bindings, 284; glass funnel, 147; pottery found near Helston, Cornwall, 168; traces of Roman occupation in Gloucestershire noticed in local names, 349; potter's kiln and an urn found at Hedenham, Norfolk, 374.
- Sambrooke, Mr., specimen of Rhodes ware exhibited by, 78; silver engraved paten, 83.
- St. Paul's, Indenture between Henry VII. and the abbot of Westminster amongst the chapter muniments, 279.
- Scharf, Mr., tracings of portraits of Charles V. and Prince Arthur, at Windsor Castle exhibited by, 169.
- SCOTLAND:—Stone moulds for celts found in, 166; bronze spear, 167; beaded bronze collar, 168; sepulchral slab with Oghams in Bressay, 181; round church at Orphir, Orkney, 227; chambered tumulus called Maes-how, in Orkney, 353.
- Scott, Mr. Hope, ivory image of the Virgin, formerly at Syon, exhibited by, 275.
- Scrope, Mr. Poulett, his discovery of a Roman villa at N. Wraxhall, Wilts, 146; boars'-tusks forming a crescent talisman, a glass funnel, and other relics found there, 147.
- Sculpture, discourse on working in bronze in classical times, by Professor Westmacott, 84. See Effigies and Ivory.
- SEALS:—Memoir on Examples of, 47; fac-similes supplied by Mr. Ready from Mr. Doubleday's large collection of moulds, ib.; fictitious matrices of jet and ivory, 48; spurious seals of King John, Lady Jane Grey, and Mary Queen of Scots, formed of stone, ib.; signet of the Eagle used by Henry V. and Henry VI., 49; of John of Ghent, 53; seal of William de Fortibus, Earl of Albemarle, 56; another seal assigned to him, 58; of John, Vicar of Knaresburgh, 60; of Byland Abbey, 63; privy seal of one of the abbots, 64; mediæval seals set with antique gems, 63, 297; of Renaerd Van Halen, in Lord Braybrooke's Museum, 78; chapter seal of Norwich, dated 1349, 79; of Ely, ib.; silver matrix of a seal of Robert le Archer, found in Essex, 98; seal of Lucas de Tany, ib.; seals of the De Veres, Earls of Oxford, 100; of Great Grimsby, 169; of W. Warham, archbishop of Canterbury, and others, in silver skipets appended to indentures t. Henry VII., 182, 278; crystal seal of Lothaire I., 222; remarks on Carolingian seals set with intagli of imperial heads, ib. note; attributed to Constantine the Great,

- 225; of the nunnery of Syon, 276; signet of Charles I., 300, 311; of Charles II. when Prince of Wales, 300, 310; of John de Shareshulle, precentor of Exeter, 360, 362; of Sir William de Shareshulle, lord chief justice, ib.; seals appended by way of corroboration, 361, 377; seal of Thomas de Lyons, of Bristol, 375; of Thomas de Weston, 376; of Henry Weston, ib.; of the Common Pleas, t. Hen. VII., ib.; of the Mayor of Bristol, 377; of Henry Brayne, ib.; of Michael Sowdelay, 377.
- SEPUCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—stone coffin found at Lichfield, 9; notices of interments in barrows, &c., near Shap, 33, 37; of a barrow in Derbyshire, 69; pebbles deposited with the corpse, 70; barrow in Monmouthshire, 71; on the Wiltshire Downs, 71; remarkable burial with Anglo-Saxon relics at Keythorpe Hall, Leicestershire, 76; barrow containing an urn, at Winwick, Lancashire, 155; barrow on Roundway Down, Devizes, 160; chalice and paten deposited with the corpse of a priest, 276; chambered tumulus, Maes-how, in Orkney, 353; Mr. Bateman's Ten Years' Diggings in Grave Hills, &c. noticed, 400.
- Sepulchral slab, at Bressay, Shetland, with Oghams, 181; with figures, &c. engraved, at Tettenhall, Staffordshire, 375.
- Shap, Westmoreland, notices by the Rev. J. Simpson of ancient remains there, 25; avenue of erect stones there, 26; Karl Lofts, 35; barrows, ancient villages, &c., 37.
- Shareshill, Staffordshire, document relating to, 359.
- Sheffield, Roman urn and coins found near, 71.
- Shields, bronze, found in Northumberland, 157.
- Shirley, Mr., Irish bronze bridle-bit in his collection, 166; pottery, &c. found near Halford Bridge, Warwickshire, 374.
- SHROPSHIRE:—bronze blade found at Madeley, 161; spears, &c. found in a barrow near the Wrekin, 163.
- Simpson, Rev. J., his memoir on antiquities at Shap, 25.
- Slab, sepulchral, with Oghams found at Fardel, Devon, 175; at Bressay, Shetland, 181; at Grez, in Belgium, exhibited by Mr. Weale, 272; with engraved effigies, at Tettenhall, Staffordshire, 375.
- Slade, Mr., choice book-bindings exhibited by, 280; forel for a book, and a representation of the crucifixion, specimens of cuirbouilli, 281; champ-levé enamel, ib.; fine proofs of Bartolozzi's plates of the Marlborough Gems, 305; original drawings by Cipriani for ditto, ib.; Natter's Catalogue of the Devonshire Gems, in his library, 305.
- Smirke, Mr., his notices of the inscribed slab with Oghams found at Fardel, Devon, 175.
- Smith, Mr. W. T. Bernhard, natural flints exhibited by him, resembling artificial ancient objects, 75; armour from Constantinople, 78, 291; Cingalese weapon, 78; iron shackle and padlock found near Cheltenham, 83; antique objects of bronze, Chinese bronze of a crab, &c., 90; fine armour from the Middle Temple Hall, 154; bronze spears, blades, &c., 161; spiked maul, torture-chain, &c., 163.
- Sotheby, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 285.
- Spears, bronze, 158, 159, 161, 167; barbed, found in Devon, Wales, and Worcestershire, 161.
- Sphynx, bronze, found at Colchester, 95.
- Spurrell, Rev. F., his notice of a wooden effigy of a priest in Essex, 73.
- STAFFORDSHIRE:—Memoir by Professor Willis on ancient buildings found at Lichfield Cathedral, 1; grant of land at Shareshill, 359; engraved sepulchral slabs at Tettenhall, 375.
- Stephens, Mr., silver cups obtained at Christiania exhibited by, 377.
- Stephenson, Mr., bronze bridle-bits, gold torques, &c., found in Lincolnshire, exhibited by, 159.
- Stevens, Mr., bronze weapon found in Wiltshire exhibited by, 160; medieval relics from Salisbury, &c., ib.
- Stewart, Mr., book-bindings exhibited by, 288.
- Stirrups, combined with spurs, exhibited by Mr. Brackstone, 166.
- Stokes, Miss, book-bindings exhibited by, 288.
- Stone, antiquities of; avenue, circles, &c., at Shap, 26; cromlechs in Cornwall, 44, 66; diagram showing the chief forms of weapons, flakes, &c., 76; maul-head found at Winwick, Lancashire, 158.
- Stonyhurst College, Florentine velvet cope with badges of Henry VII. there preserved, 186; Hours used by Queen Mary I., 280.
- Stuart, Mr., cameo by Girometti exhibited by, 305.
- Stubbs, the Rev. W., his Memoir on the - Foundation and early Fasti of Peterborough, 194.

- SUFFOLK:—bronze spiked ring found at Lidgate, 163.
- SURREY:—bronze sword found at Runnymede, 158; pewter chalice and paten at Charlwood, 276; chalice in the grave of an abbot at Chertsey, 277.
- Surtees, Mr., singular portrait of Fox executed by, 378.
- SUSSEX:—gold ring found at Sullington, 83; publication of Memoirs on Chichester Cathedral, Boxgrove and Shoreham churches, &c., read at the Meeting of the Institute, announced, 100, 306; curiously engraved celt found near Lewes, 167; Professor Willis' observations on the fall of Chichester Spire, 269.
- Switzerland, bronze mould for palstaves found at Morges, 166
- Swords, Anglo-Saxon, of iron found near Lanchester, 67; of bronze, 158, 161, 164; leaf-shaped iron sword obtained in Africa, 168.
- Syon, nunnery there founded by Henry V., 275; disastrous wanderings of the nuns, ib.; magnificent cope formerly there exhibited, 185; ivory image of the Virgin, 275; seals, Martyrology, and other objects formerly there, 276.
- Talbot de Malahide, Lord, double looped palstave in his collection, 157; his observations on the Special Exhibitions of the Institute, 268; on the Exhibition of Gems, 291; miniature portrait of the Duke of Tyrconnel, and one of Charles, Duke of Shrewsbury, exhibited by, 377.
- Talismanic inscriptions, on rings and seals, 63, 64, 91.
- Temple, the Middle, armour from exhibited, 154.
- Textile Arts and Embroidery, Discourse on by Mr. D. Wyatt, 170
- Thatcher, Mrs., intaglio exhibited by, 303.
- Thornbury, Mr., barrow in Wiltshire excavated by, 71.
- Thompson, Mr. Oswell, Venetian glass exhibited by, 83.
- Tickell, Rev. C., embroidered velvet cope exhibited by, 185.
- Tiles, Roman, for an hypocaust, singularly ornamented, 94.
- Toovey, Mr., indenture between Henry VII. and the abbot of Westminster exhibited by, 279.
- Torques, of gold, found in Ireland, 83; at Brigg, Lincolnshire, 159; of bronze, or collar of beaded type, 168.
- Troad, illustrations of its Ancient Geography by Mr. Calvert; Larisa, 253; site of Troy, 363.
- Trollope, Mr. A., bronze spears and palstaves found at Nettleham exhibited by, 159.
- Troy, remarks on its site, 363.
- Trumpet, bronze, found in the river Witham, 150.
- Tucker, Mr. C., bronze barbed spears found in Devon exhibited by, 160; casts of moulds for bronze weapons, 161.
- Tumulus, see Barrow.
- Urns, found in barrows, &c., general classification of, 403. See Pottery.
- Vernicle, on fine Italian tapestry exhibited by the Marquis d'Azeglio, 186.
- Vernon, Mr. W. F., general pardon to Henry Vernon of Sudbury exhibited by, 77; document relating to Sharnhall, Staffordshire, communicated by, 359.
- Villages, ancient, traces of near Shap, 37; in Cornwall, 39.
- Walcott, Mrs., cameo exhibited by, 305.
- WALES:—barbed bronze spear found in Glamorganshire, 161; bronze moulds for palstaves found near Bangor, 166; dagger used by Charles I. when Prince of Wales, formerly at Rûg, 283. See Anglesea.
- Walford, Mr. W. S., his notices of Examples of Seals, 46; of deeds relating to Bristol, 375.
- Walker, Mrs., ancient pottery, &c., found in Canada exhibited by, 374.
- Waller, Mr. G., his account of a palimpsest sepulchral brass at Constantine, Cornwall, 80; sepulchral slab at Grez in Belgium exhibited by, 272.
- Warren, Mr. R. H., presents photographs with a notice of the misereres in Bristol Cathedral, 273.
- Warrington, bronze spears, &c., from the museum there exhibited, 158; bronze box found at Bewsey Hall, 159.
- Waterton, Mr. E., inscribed brooch in his collection, 64; Discourse on the History of Gem Engraving by, 292; gems and rings exhibited by, 303; jewel of the Order of Christ, ib.
- Way, Mr. Albert, his observations on seals, 47; on an engraved bason found at Haw Passage on the Severn, 72; on early relics of bronze, 147; Italian book-binding exhibited by, 282; notices of the Gothic Crowns found at Guarrazar, near Toledo, communicated by, 369.

- Weale, Mr. W. H., his account of an incised slab at Grez in Belgium, 272.
- Webb, Mr., Italian embroidery and tissues exhibited by, 188; MS. service-book with a sculptured ivory tablet on the binding, 280; sardonyx vases, 305.
- Wellesley, the Rev. Dr., choice book-bindings exhibited by, 281.
- Wentworth, Mr. G., documents relating to Yorkshire communicated by, 60.
- Westmacott, Professor, his Discourse on antique art in bronze, 84; ancient bronze vase, candelabrum, &c., exhibited by him, 88.
- Westminster, indentures between Henry VII. and the abbot of, for services for the king's soul, exhibited, 182, 183.
- Westwood, Professor, memoir on examples of art in Belgium, &c. by, 147; his proposed publication on Anglo-Saxon illuminations, 306.
- Whetstone, found in a barrow in Monmouthshire, 71.
- Whitehead, Mr., book-binding exhibited by him, 288; cameo portrait of Henry III. (or the Earl of Leicester?), 304.
- Will, of Archbishop Dene, 261.
- Willis, Professor, memoir on buildings found at Litchfield Cathedral by, 1, 79; his observations on the fall of the spire at Chichester, 269.
- Willoughby de Broke, Lord, stole with heraldic ornaments exhibited by, 185.
- WILTSHIRE :—Mr. E. W. Godwin's notice of domestic architecture at Colerne, 125; Mr. Poulett Scrope's excavations of a Roman villa at N. Wraxhall, 146; bronze blade found at Fisherton Anger, 160; mediæval relics at Salisbury, ib.; relics found in a barrow near Devizes, 160; stone mould for celts found at Everly, 166.
- Winston, Mr. C., his account of painted glass at N. Moreton, Berks, 152; remarks on "Restorations," 153.
- Wiseman, His Em. Cardinal, mitre of St. Thomas of Canterbury exhibited by, 182.
- WORCESTERSHIRE :—barbed spear-head found in the Severn, 161; chasuble formerly at Mable, 187; proposed publication by Mr. Severn Walker on Architectural Examples in, 192.
- Wyatt, Mr. Digby, his Discourse on Textile Arts and Embroidery, 171.
- Wyatt, Mrs., brocade christening wrapper exhibited by, 191.
- Wylie, Mr., Anglo-Saxon antiquities found at Fairford exhibited by, 168.
- Yates, Mr., his remarks on cromlechs in Cornwall, 66; diagram of flint weapons exhibited by, 75; remarks on boar's tusks used as talismans, 147; book-bindings exhibited by, 288.
- YORKSHIRE :—documents relating to, communicated by Mr. Wentworth, 60; supposed allusion to early iron workings near Knaresborough, 61; Roman coins and urn found near Sheffield, 71; diminutive bronze celt found at Market Weighton, 156; bronze celt with a ring, 164; mould for casting celts found in Cleveland, 166.

END OF VOL. XVIII.