

INDEX.

A.

- Æthelwold, Bishop of Winchester, his gifts to the Monastery of Peterborough, 355; his skill in metal-work, 358; his illuminated Benedictional, ib.; books given by him to Peterborough, 360.
- Aldborough, Suffolk, barrows and antiquities at Snape, near, 188, 373.
- Almanacs, early printed, exhibited by Miss Ffarington, 172.
- Amber, Roman rings of, in Mr. Waterton's collection, 377.
- ANGLO-SAXON PERIOD:—Memoir on Bishop Wulfstan, 1; fashion of wearing long hair, 19; cemetery at Baston, Lincolnshire, 29; urns, iron shears, comb, &c., found there, 30; publication of documents proposed by Mr. Thorpe, 360, 406; declaration of Queen Eadgifu regarding lands in Kent, 396.
- ARCHITECTURE:—memoir by Mr. Godwin on Bristol Cathedral, 38; memoir by Professor Willis on Worcester Cathedral and monastic buildings, 83, 254, 301; buildings attributed to Bishop Gundulf, 209; Rochester Castle not his work, 210; notices of mouldings there, 221; notices of the Mote at Ightham, 387; of Leeds Castle, 391; of Cowling Castle, 407.
- Armlet, of bronze found at Stoke Prior, Worcestershire, 200.
- ARMOUR AND ARMS:—sabre from the Woolwich collection exhibited, 73; oriental weapons, shield, &c., exhibited by Mr. Henderson, 77; executioner's sword from Dresden exhibited by Mr. W. J. Bernhard Smith, 78; Japanese swords, ib.; flat-topped helmets in monumental sculpture at Furness Abbey, 134; sword-fight, example of thirteenth-century costume, 136; sword with the name of Andrea Ferrara exhibited by Mr.

- Pritchett, 182; two-handed sword in the Woolwich collection, 187; remarks on dimensions of mediæval swords, 188; wheel-lock pistols from the Woolwich collection, 201; Asiatic sabre and weapons exhibited by Mr. W. J. Bernhard Smith, 201; weapons found in morasses in Denmark, 298; portions of Spanish plate armour exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 378.
- Arrow-head, forked, 160.
- Arthur, Prince, son of Henry VII., his interment and tomb, 280.
- Auditors, their financial report, 203, 399.

B.

- Baker, Rev. F., his notices of Beaulieu Abbey, Hants, 197.
- Barenton, notices of the family in Essex, 164.
- Barrows, at Snape, Suffolk, examined, 188, 373.
- Baston, Lincolnshire, Anglo-Saxon burials found at, 29.
- Bauble, for a fool, exhibited, 181.
- Bayly, Mr. Villiers, exhibits a fool's bauble, 181.
- Beaulieu Abbey, Hants, notices of, 197; vessel of stone ware found there, 198.
- Beck, Rev. J., exhibits gimmel and other rings, 195; Battersea enamels, ib.
- Belgium, archæological map of, exhibited, 194.
- Bell, Irish, in a richly ornamented shrine, exhibited, 76; bells given by Bishop Æthelwold to the Monastery of Peterborough, 359.
- Berlanga, Dr., communicates facsimiles of bronze tablets found near Malaga, 170.
- Birch, Mr. S., his observations on Egyptian gold ornaments, 167.
- Bishop, Mr., medallions of the Cæsars exhibited by, 181.

- Bisley, Gloucestershire, Roman sculptures found there, 186.
- Blaauw, Mr., communicates notices of mural paintings at Westmeston, Sussex, 73; bronze palstaves, mould for celts, &c., found at Wilmington, Sussex, 192.
- Bloxam, Mr. M. H., his account of an effigy with a horn at Pershore, 158; of sepulchral remains and effigies in Worcester Cathedral, 273, 339.
- Boat, remains of one found in a barrow at Snape, 190.
- Bodidris, Denbighshire, tripod brass caldron found there, 169; ancient mansion of the Earl of Leicester there, ib.
- Bohn, Mr. H., exhibits Chinese enamels, tortoiseshell vase, &c., 196; painted glass representing St. Christopher, ib.; ivory casket, 378.
- Bond, Mr., exhibits a chalice and silver tazza, 198.
- Bos longifrons, remains of, found in the Orkneys, 33; in a Roman villa at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 74.
- Brank, engine of torture, at Munich, 80.
- BRASSES, SEPULCHRAL:—at Chaddesley Corbet, Worcestershire, 160; publication on, by Messrs. Waller, 411.
- Brett, Mr., Egyptian gold ornaments exhibited by, 181.
- Bricks, Flemish, with moulded ornaments, found at Walsoken, 376; found at Wisbeach and other places, ib.
- Bristol, memoir by Mr. Godwin on the Cathedral there, 38.
- BRONZE, antiquities of:—mould for spears found in county Limerick, 76, 170; palstaves, celts, and mould found at Wilmington, Sussex, 192; pendant ornament found in Flintshire, 200; armlet found at Stoke Prior, Worcestershire, ib.; antique lamps, 375; compasses found at Tingewick, Bucks, 376.
- Brooches, Anglo-Saxon, found at Baston, Lincolnshire, 31; bronze, found in Ireland, 171; silver, with inscriptions and ornaments in niello, &c., in Mr. E. Waterton's collection, 201.
- BUCKINGHAMSHIRE:—Bronze Roman compasses found at Tingewick, 376; iron stirrup found on Longdown Common, 377.
- Bullæ, of lead, Papal and Venetian, exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 174.
- Burges, Mr. W., exhibits painted cloth intended for wall decoration, 184; a Chinese enameled vase, 198; chain-mail found in the Thames, 377; shears of peculiar construction found at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, ib.
- C.
- Caermarthen, the 'Black Book' of, exhibited by Mr. W. W. Wynne, 199.
- Caldron, of brass, found in Denbighshire, 169; other like objects noticed, 170; see also Additions.
- Camesina, Albert, his publication of the Biblia Pauperum, 408.
- Campion, Rev. C. H., his notices of mural paintings at Westmeston, Sussex, 73, 168.
- Carslsruhe, MSS., and sculptures in ivory there, 142.
- Celts, of flint, one found at Panshanger, Herts, 192; near Idsworth, Hants, 371.
- , of bronze, mould for their manufacture found in Anglesea, 171; mould for palstaves found in France, ib.; celts, palstaves, and a mould found at Wilmington, Sussex, 192.
- Charles I., portraits of him exhibited, 378.
- Charlton, Dr., his notice of antiquities found in morasses in Denmark, 296.
- Chertsey, Register of the Abbey exhibited by Lord Clifford, 166, 180.
- Chester, Rev. J. Greville, his notice of Roman urns found at Ditchingham, 179; fictile lamps and terra-cottas from Italy exhibited by him, 376; sculptured skull of marble from Capri, ib.; Flemish moulded brick found at Walsoken, ib.
- Chichester, the Dean of, memoir by him on the life and times of Bishop Wulfstan, 1.
- Clayton, Mr. W., documents communicated by him, 163.
- Clifford, Lord, Register of Chertsey Abbey in his possession, 166, 180.
- Cloth marks, of lead, exhibited, 174.
- Coffins, of lead, found in Worcester Cathedral, 279.
- COINS:—Roman, found at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 73, 74; at Woolaston, Gloucestershire, 167; near Maesmor, Denbighshire, 192; Scottish coin of James VI. found at Cowden, Kent, 195; notices by Mr. Hawkins of the Mint at Rochester, 392.
- Comb, found with Anglo-Saxon interments at Baston, Lincolnshire, 30.
- Copper, broken cakes of, found with early remains on Kingston Hill, Surrey, 372; axes and weapons of, with steel edges, found in Denmark, 377.
- Compasses, bronze, found with Roman remains in Buckinghamshire and elsewhere, 376.
- CORNWALL:—Remains at Mount's Bay described by Mr. Rogers, 64; official

- seal of John Bassett, Vice-Admiral of the North coasts, 78; seal of the Tinnars, 174.
 Cuthbert, St., ring found with his remains at Durham, 236.
 Counter, silver, exhibited, 174.
 Cowper, Hon. H., exhibits a flint celt found at Panshanger, 192.
 Cromlechs, notices by Mr. J. E. Lee, 174.
 Cromwell, bronze medallion of, 202.

D.

- Dagger, Persian specimens exhibited by Mr. Henderson, 77; Asiatic, exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 201.
 D'Albanie, Count, exhibits leaden sling-bullets from Granada, 198.
 Damascened work, Persian, exhibited by Mr. Henderson, 77; on Spanish armour exhibited by Mr. Bernhard Smith, 378.
 Davidson, Mr. S., his discoveries in barrows at Snape, 188, 373.
 De Salis, Mr., exhibits a stone mould for spear-heads, 76, 170.
 Decade rings, observations by Mr. E. Waterton on their use, 74.
 Denmark, antiquities found in morasses, 297; copper weapons edged with iron, 377.
 DEVONSHIRE:—Indulgence granted by Bishop Veysey for a beacon at Ilfracombe, 66; painted cloth used as wall-hangings found at Kingsbridge; sculptured heads at Clyst St. George Church, 192; deposits of flints at Blackbury, 372.
 Dillwyn, Mr. L., medallion of Cromwell in his possession, 202.
 Dinas Bran, Denbighshire, memoir read by Mr. Tregellas, 72.
 DOCUMENTS:—Indulgence granted by Bishop Veysey for a beacon at Ilfracombe, 69; writ of Henry III. relating to disorders in the realm, 162; proposed publication of, in France, 191; relating to Peniarth, Merionethshire, 199; 'carta de Forestis' exhibited by Mr. Netherclift, 201; relating to Yorkshire, noticed by Mr. G. Wentworth, ib.; relating to Reading Abbey, in possession of the Marquess of Westminster, 280; lists of the gifts of Bishop Æthelwold to Peterborough, 355.
 Drake, Sir Francis, sword inscribed with his name, 182.
 Du Noyer, Mr. G. V., his account of a sculpture of St. Christopher at Jerpoint Abbey, Ireland, 179.

E.

- Earth-pillars, in Switzerland, noticed 174.
 Eday, Pict's house in the Isle of, 33.
 EFFIGY, SEPULCHRAL:—Incised figure of an ecclesiastic at Treves, 144; sculptured figure of a knight with a horn at Pershore, 158, see also Additions; at Wadsworth, Yorkshire, 159; at Newland, Gloucestershire, 159; brass at Chaddesley Corbet, Worcestershire, 160; memoir on effigies in Worcester Cathedral by Mr. Bloxam, 273, 339.
 Egan, Mr., exhibits a diptych and a crucifix, 201.
 Egyptian ornaments, drawings of those found in the tomb of Aah Hotep exhibited, 75, 82; described by Mr. Birch, 166; gold relics exhibited by Mr. Brett, 181.
 Ellacombe, Rev. H. T., his notice of sculptured heads at Clyst St. George church, 192.
 ENAMEL:—observations on its use by ancient nations, 167; specimens exhibited by Mr. Webb, 172; Battersea, exhibited by Rev. J. Beck, 195; Chinese, exhibited by Mr. Bohn, 196; Limoges, exhibited by Mr. Farrer, 198.
 Engelhardt, Conrad, his description of antiquities found in Schleswig, 297.
 Entrenchment, on the shore of Mounts' Bay, Cornwall, 67; in the Forest of Bere, Hants, 371.
 Episcopal rings, memoir by Mr. E. Waterton on their use, 224.
 ESSEX:—documents relating to the Barenton family, 163; Roman mirror found at Sible Hedingham, 181.

F.

- Farrer, Mr. James, his researches in the Orkneys, 35, 37.
 —, Mr. H., exhibits a silver pax, Limoges enamel, and a bust of Fredegonde, 198.
 Faulkner, Mr. C., exhibits Roman pottery, &c., found at Deddington, 172.
 Ffarington, Miss, early printed almanacs in her possession, 172.
 Fitch, Mr. R., exhibits a gold ring found at Heigham, 172.
 FLINT, antiquities of:—lance-head found in a tomb in Orkney, 35; flakes found near barrows at Snape, Suffolk, 189; celt found at Panshanger, Herts, 192; flakes found at Castle Ring, Staffordshire, 198; celt found in the Forest of Bere, Hants, 371.

Follis, used in ball-play by the Romans, 333.

Fonts, of brass at Treves, 151.

Foord, Mr. J. R., his account of the Old Bridge at Rochester, 390.

Fortnum, Mr., exhibits a terra cotta mask, 192; leaden sling bullet from Perugia, 198.

Fox, Mr. R., exhibits a gold posy ring, 195; Scottish coin found at Cowden, Kent, ib.

France, proposed publication of National documents, 191.

Francis, Mr. F., his account of barrows and relics found at Snape, Suffolk, 188, 373.

Furness, sepulchral effigies in the Abbey church there, 134.

G.

GEMS, antique:—cameo at Treves, 153; intaglio in a Roman ring found at Snape, 190; cameo set in a ring in the Waterton collection, 227; Gnostic intaglio set in an episcopal ring at Chichester, 235; intaglio of Minerva, found in the tomb of Bishop Gardiner, 236.

Germany, archaeological notes by Professor Westwood on works of art there, 141.

Glamorganshire; cromlech called Arthur's Stone, 175.

Glass, vase found in a barrow at Snape, Suffolk, 190; Roman ampullæ found at Wroxeter, 196.

—, painted, memoir by Mr. Winston on the east window of Gloucester Cathedral, 239, 319; note on the 'Bell-founder's Window,' York Minster, 330.

Glastonbury, gold ring found there, 377.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE:—memoir by Mr. Godwin on Bristol Cathedral, 38; effigy at Newland, 159; Roman coins found at Woolaston, 167; sword inscribed with the name of Sir Francis Drake found at Brookwear, 182; Roman sculptures found at Bisley, 186; painted glass in the east window of Gloucester Cathedral, 239, 319.

Gnostic gem, set in an episcopal ring found at Chichester, 235.

Godwin, Mr. E. W., his memoir on Bristol Cathedral, 38.

Gold, ornaments formed of, found in Ireland, 171; found in the tomb of Queen Aah Hotep in Egypt, 75, 82; ring found in a barrow at Snape, 190; large deposit of ornaments found near Hastings, 400.

Greaves, Mr., his remarks on interments at Oxford, 191.

Grey, Mr. R. W., his notice of discoveries at the basilica of S. Clemente at Rome, 185.

Gundulf, Bishop, buildings attributed to him, 209; Rochester Castle not his work, 210.

H.

Hair, fashion of wearing it in Anglo-Saxon times, 19; remarkable preservation of in a barrow at Snape, 190; see also Additions.

HAMPSHIRE:—ancient vestiges in the Forest of Bere, 371.

Hartshorne, Rev. C. H., his memoir on Rochester Castle, 205.

Hawkins, Mr., his notices of the Mint at Rochester, 392.

Hefner, J. H. von, his Publications noticed, 79.

Heidelberg, representation of the castle there, 377.

Helm, flat-topped, shown on effigies at Furness Abbey, 134; other illustrations of that fashion, 136.

Henderson, Mr., exhibits oriental armour and weapons, 77; damascened Indian wand, 183; antique lamps, 375.

Heraldry, coats of arms in the east window at Gloucester Cathedral, 319; in Worcester Cathedral, 349.

Hereford, episcopal rings found in the Cathedral, 236.

HERTFORDSHIRE:—flint celt found at Panshanger, 192.

Hewitt, Mr., his notices of a sabre in the Woolwich Armoury, 73; of flat-topped helmets at Furness Abbey, 134; exhibits a silver counter, 174; partizans from the Woolwich Armoury, 185; two-handed sword, 187; his remarks on the use of wheel-lock pistols in the chase, 201.

Hill, Miss, exhibits Roman seals of lead found at Brough, 181.

Hoare, Capt. E., his notices of Irish gold ornaments, 171.

Hook, the Very Rev. W. F., his memoir on Bishop Wulfstan, 1.

Horn, represented on sepulchral memorials, 158; see also Additions.

I.

Ilfacombe, Indulgence granted by Bishop Veysey for a beacon there, 69.

Inscription, on a coffin-lid at the Temple Church, London, 138.

IRELAND:—notice by Mr. Waterton of Irish decade rings, 75; stone mould for bronze weapons, 76, 170; iron hand-bell enclosed in a silver shrine, 76; gold ornaments found in county Cork, 171; bronze brooch, ib.; sculpture of St. Christopher at Jerpoint Abbey, 179; mural painting at Knockmoy, 180.

IVORY:—decade ring, in the Waterton collection, formed of, 75; sculptures in the museum at Carlsruhe, 142; at Treves Cathedral, 148; in the museum at Treves, 156; sculptured horns amongst sacred offerings, 359; Special Exhibition of sculptures in ivory, 367; ivory rapiers for snuff exhibited, 370.

J.

Jerpoint Abbey, Ireland, sculpture of St. Christopher there, 179.

Jervoise, Sir J. C., Bart., his notices of ancient remains near Idsworth, 371; exhibits a flint celt found there, ib.

John, King of England, his interment and effigy at Worcester, 278, 345.

K.

Keller, Dr., exhibits a cast of a die for Gaulish gold coins, 171; his notices of Samian ware found in Switzerland, 331.

Kemble, Mr. J. M., his proposed publication of Anglo-Saxon documents, 357.

Kendrick, Dr., exhibits an impression of a seal of the Vice-Admiral of Cornwall, 78.

KENT:—iron foundries at Cowden, 195; Scottish coin found there, ib.; brass ornament exhibited by the Rev. L. Larking, 198; meeting of the Institute at Rochester, 379; remarks by Mr. Thorpe on early history, dialect, names of places, &c., 393; the declaration of Queen Eadgifu regarding lands at Cooling, 396.

Keys, exhibited by Mr. W. J. Bernhard Smith, 78.

Kiddle, Mr., exhibits drawings of Egyptian gold ornaments, 75; his proposed publication of them, 82.

L.

Lamps, fictile, found at Wroxeter, 197; collection of fictile and bronze, exhibited by Mr. Fortnum, 375; by Mr. Henderson, ib.; by Sir Sibbald D. Scott, 376; by the Rev. Greville J. Chester, b.

LANCASHIRE:—sepulchral effigies at Furness Abbey, 134.

Larking, Rev. L., exhibits a brass ornament found in Kent, 198.

Lead, Roman seals formed of, found at Brough, 181; glandes or sling bullets found in Granada, Italy, &c., 198.

Lefroy, Col., partizans from the Woolwich Armoury exhibited by his permission, 185; two-handed sword, 187; wheel-lock pistols, 201.

LEICESTERSHIRE:—pavement tile with one of the signs of the Zodiac found at Ulvescroft Priory, 77.

Letts, Messrs., exhibit an Archæological map of Belgium, 194.

Libraries, notices of ancient, 360.

LINCOLNSHIRE:—Anglo-Saxon burial-ground at Baston, 29.

London; inscribed coffin-lid found at the Temple Church, 138; tessellated floor at the India House, 177; notices of other mosaics, ib.

Lottery, notice of one in the reign of Elizabeth, 174.

Lowder, Rev. H., his account of the Roman remains found at Bisley, Gloucestershire, 186.

Lowndes, Mr. G. Alan, documents amongst his Essex evidences, 162.

Lyttelton, Lord, exhibits a patent of nobility granted to the first baron Lyttelton, 184.

M.

Mackie, Mr., his notices of species of oxen formerly existing in Britain, 74.

Mail, armour of, shown on an effigy at Pershore, 158; found in morasses in Denmark, 298, 299; of steel, found in the Thames, 377.

Majendie, Mr. A., exhibits a Roman mirror found in Essex, 181; a portrait of Charles I., 378.

Malaga, facsimiles of Roman bronze tablets found there, presented, 170.

Manning, Rev. C. R., exhibits a leaden seal found in Norfolk, 378.

Mansfield, the Earl of, exhibits a vase of lacquered work, miniatures, watch-cases, &c., 378.

MANUSCRIPTS:—illuminated service-book at Tredegar, Monmouthshire, 78; MSS. at Heidelberg, 141; at Carlsruhe, 142; at Strasburgh, 143; at Treves, 148, 153, 157; register of Chertsey Abbey in possession of Lord Clifford, 180; rental book of the Abbey of Espinlieu, 184; MSS. from the Hengwrt collection exhibited by Mr. W. W. Wynne, 186; Black Book of Caermarthen, 199; Bene-

- dictional of Bishop Æthelwold, 359; MSS. given by him to the Monastery of Peterborough, 360.
- Marotte, a bauble for a fool, exhibited, 181.
- Martin, lacquered work by a French artificer so named, 378.
- Miniatures, of Charles Louis, Elector of the Rhine, and his consort, 377; of Charles I., 378; of Frederick V., King of Denmark, and other distinguished personages, ib.
- Mint, at Rochester, notices of it by Mr. Hawkins, 392.
- Mirror, Roman, found at Sible Hedingham, 181; at Wroxeter, 196.
- Molyneux, Mr., his account of remains at Beaudesert, Staffordshire, 198; exhibits pottery and relics found there, ib.
- Moore, Mr. Joseph, his remarks on Oriel windows, 73.
- , Mr. R., exhibits an Irish hand-bell, 76.
- Morgan, Mr. Octavius, his remarks on the Castle of Dinas Bran, 72; exhibits an illuminated service-book from Tredegar, 78; steel locks, a briquet, &c., 201; his remarks on rapiers for snuff, 370; exhibits a miniature of Charles Louis, Elector of the Rhine, and his consort, 377.
- Mote, Ightham, notices of the, 386; curious musical instrument there, 387; portrait of Dame Dorothy Selby there, ib.
- Mould, for bronze weapons, found in county Limerick, 76, 170; for celts, found at Wilmington, Sussex, 192.
- Mounts' Bay, Cornwall, ancient remains there, 64.
- Murchison, Sir R., exhibits a bronze armlet found in Worcestershire, 200.
- Museum, British, stone mould for casting spears there preserved, 76, 170; Samian ware, 338; recent additions to the collection of antiquities, 399.
- , at Carlsruhe, notices of, 142; at Strasburgh, 144; at Treves, 156; formed at the Rochester meeting of the Institute, 383.

N.

- Names, of persons, singular examples in Surrey, 180; of places, in Kent, noticed by Mr. Thorpe, 394.
- Netherclift, Mr. F., exhibits a copy of the Magna Carta de Forestis, 201.
- Nicholas, St., churches dedicated in his honor, 69.
- NIELLO:—ring enriched with, in the

Waterton collection, 75; on a silver shrine of an Irish hand-bell, 76; on inscribed brooches, 201; on a gold ring bearing the name of Alhstan, 226; additional note to Mr. Waterton's memoir on the art of niello, 238; Italian ring with work in niello, 377; Russian silver spoon of Tula work, 377.

NORFOLK:—Gold ring found at Heigham, 172; Roman urns found at Ditchingham, 178; moulded Flemish brick found at Walsoken, 376; leaden seal found at Lynn, 378.

O.

- Oliver, the Rev. Dr., copy of an Indulgence by Bishop Veysey obtained from his collections, 70; his observations on a register of Chertsey Abbey, 167.
- Orkneys, Picts'-houses and other ancient remains there, 32; observations on the tumulus called Maes How, 37.
- Ormerod, Dr., his notice of Roman coins found in Gloucestershire, 167.
- Ovens, or furnaces, on the shore of Mounts' Bay, Cornwall, 66; see also Additions.
- OXFORDSHIRE:—Roman villa discovered at Beckley, 73; urn, Samiau ware, &c., discovered at Deddington, 172; miniature pistol found at Little Bourton, ib.

P.

- Paintings, mural, in Westmeston Church's, Sussex, 73, 168; at Knockmoy Abbey, county Sligo, 180; at Shorwell, Isle of Wight, ib.
- Pershore, effigy with a hunting-horn in the abbey church there, 158.
- Peterborough, gifts of Bishop Æthelwold to the monastery there, 355; its extensive library, 357.
- Petrie, Mr. G., his memoir on Picts' houses in the Orkneys, 32.
- Phillips, Mr. R., exhibits a Japanese bronze vase, 192.
- Picts' houses in the Orkneys, notices of, 32.
- Pistols, wheel-lock, used in the chase, 201.
- Plon, Mr. H., announces the proposed publication of historical documents in France, 191.
- Poire d'angoisse, instrument of torture, 80.
- Posy rings, in the Waterton Collection, 75; several exhibited by the Rev. J.

- Beck, 195; exhibited by Mr. R. Fox, ib.
- POTTERY :—Anglo-Saxon, found at Baston, Lincolnshire, 30; urns found in chambered tombs in the Orkneys, 35; Roman, found at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 74; Roman vase and Samian ware found at Deddington, 172; Roman, at Ditchingham, Norfolk, 179; mediæval vessel of green glazed ware found at Langport, 182; sepulchral urns in barrows at Snape, 189, 374; vessel of stone ware found at Beaulieu Abbey, 198; urns found on Kingston Hill, Surrey, 372; in Dorset, 373; fictile lamps exhibited, 375, 376.
- Price, Mr. T., exhibits Roman coins found in Denbighshire, 192.
- Pritchett, Mr., exhibits a sword bearing the name of Sir F. Drake, 182.
- PUBLICATIONS :—Hefner's Mediæval Ironwork, &c., 79; Fasti Eboracenses, by the Rev. J. Raine, 82; Egyptian Gold Ornaments, by Mr. Kiddle and Mr. Birch, 75, 82; Thorsbjerg Mosefund, account of Antiquities in Schleswig, 297; Biblia Pauperum, published at Vienna by Camesina, 408.

R.

- Rappoira, for snuff, notice of by Mr. Octavius Morgan, 370.
- Reading, documents in possession of the Marquess of Westminster relating to the abbey there, 281.
- Richardson, Mr. E., exhibits a model of the effigy of the Black Prince, 378.
- RINGS :—observations by Mr. E. Waterton on decade rings, 74; specimen formed of ivory in his collection, 75; Gnostic, and other rings exhibited by him, ib.; gold ring exhibited by Mr. Fitch, 172; Irish ring with peculiar bosses, 183; Roman gold ring found in a barrow at Snape, Suffolk, 190; gold posy ring exhibited by Mr. R. Fox, 195; gimmel and posy rings, &c., exhibited by the Rev. J. Beck, ib.; Etruscan and Sassanian, by Mr. R. H. Smith, 196; rings exhibited by Mr. E. Waterton, 200; memoir by him on episcopal rings, 224; gold ring bearing the name of Alhstan, 226; episcopal rings found at Chichester Cathedral, 235; at York Minster, ib.; at Winchester Cathedral, 236; at Hereford Cathedral, ib.; ring found at Durham in the tomb of St. Cuthbert, ib.; remarkable examples in France, 237; list of rings formerly in Canterbury Cathedral, 238.
- Rochester, memoir by the Rev. C. H. Hartshorne on the Castle there, 205; that fortress built by Archbishop William de Corbeuil, 211; Proceedings at the Meeting of the Institute there, 379; account by Mr. Foord of the Old Bridge, 390.
- Rock, the Very Rev. Canon, his remarks on early art, 168; on the Cavaliere Rossi's Christian Epigraphy, 170; on a proposed publication of the Imperial regalia, 197; exhibits a bronze pendant ornament found in Flintshire, 200; lists of the gifts of Bishop Æthelwold to the monastery of Peterborough communicated by, 355.
- Rogers, Mr. J. J., his memoir on ancient remains in West Cornwall, 64, 186; see also Additions.
- ROMAN ANTIQUITIES :—Remains in West Cornwall, 64; villa at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 73; coins, ib.; at Treves, 145, 157; coins found at Woolaston, Gloucestershire, 167; bronze tablets found at Malaga, 170; urn, Samian ware, &c., at Deddington, 172; mosaic pavements at the India House, London, 177; urns found at Ditchingham, Norfolk, 179; mirror found at Sible Hedingham, Essex, 181; leaden seals found at Brough, ib.; altars and relics found at Bisley, Gloucestershire, 186; gold ring found in a barrow at Snape, Suffolk, 190; report on excavations at Wroxeter, 196; fictile lamps, mirrors, &c., found there, 197; bosses of shields found in Denmark, 299; Samian ware found in Switzerland and Germany, 331; bronze compasses found in Buckinghamshire, 376; rings of amber and glass in the Waterton collection, 377.

S.

- St. Christopher, sculptured figure of, at Jerpoint Abbey, 179.
- St. Cuthbert, ring found at Durham in his tomb, 236.
- St. Hilaire, notices of the family so named, 139.
- St. Vincent, mural painting representing him, 168.
- Samian ware, found at Deddington, Oxfordshire, 172; at Avenches, in Switzerland, 331; in Germany, 337; in London, 338.
- Scarth, Rev. H. M., exhibits a mediæval vessel of glazed ware, 182; commu-

- nicates notices of discoveries at Snape, 188.
- SCOTLAND:—memoir by Mr. Petrie on Picts' houses, 32; notices of a chambered tomb in the Orkneys, 35; silver brooch found at Terregles, Dumfriesshire, 201.
- Scott, Sir J. D., Bart., exhibits Roman fictile lamps, 376; a tobacco-box set with a medallion of Charles I., 378.
- SEALS:—Seal of John Bassett, Vice-Admiral of Cornwall, 78; of the Tinnors of Cornwall, 174; Papal and Venetian bullæ, ib.; seals from the Prattinton collection exhibited by Dr. Kendrick, 185; of William Wynter, ib.; of Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester, ib.; of Sir Hugh de Mortimer, ib.; of the Hospital of St. John Baptist at Lichfield, ib.; silver matrix of the seal of Peter Yonge, 200; seal of Sir Richard de Goldesborough, 202; leaden seal found at Tremeirchion, county Flint, ib.; silver matrix with figure of the Blessed Virgin Mary, ib.; episcopal rings used for sealing, 225; seal of Adeliza, queen of Henry I., 283, 288; of the Empress Matilda, 283, 289; of King Stephen, 292, 293; of Henry II., 294; of Richard Cœur de Lion, 296; leaden seal found at Lynn, 378.
- Selby, Lady Dorothy, her portrait at the Mote, 388; the supposed discoverer of the Powder Plot, ib.
- SEPULCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—Anglo-Saxon burial-ground at Baston, Lincolnshire, 29; chambered tombs in the Orkneys, 34; tumuli at Snape, Suffolk, 188, 373; memoir by Mr. Bloxam on sepulchral remains and effigies in Worcester Cathedral, 273, 339; vestiges of interments on Kingston Hill, Surrey, 372; see also Brasses and Effigy.
- Shears, or scissors, Anglo-Saxon, 30; of brass with steel edges found at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, 377.
- Shields, with inscribed bosses, found in Denmark, 298.
- Shrines, for Irish sacred bells, 76.
- SHROPSHIRE:—Report by Dr. Johnson on excavations at Wroxeter, 196.
- Slabs, sepulchral:—inscribed slab found at the Temple Church, 138; with an effigy of a priest in the church of St. Thomas at Strasburgh, 145; with an incised cross and other symbols at Great Salkeld, Cumberland, 160; see also Additions.
- Sling, glandes or pellets thrown by the, found in Granada, 198; found at Perugia, &c., ib.
- Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits a tile found at Ulverscroft Priory, 77; a German executioner's sword, 78; specimens of locksmith's work, ib.; Japanese swords, ib.; relic of elk's horn intended for hafting stone celts, 171; seal of the Cornish Tinnors, leaden bullæ, &c., 174; Asiatic sabre, pistols, &c., 101; Italian or Spanish armour, 378.
- Mr. R. H., exhibits Etruscan and Sassanian rings, 196.
- Snape, Suffolk, barrows and ancient relics found there, 189, 374.
- SOMERSETSHIRE:—Vessel of green-glazed ware found at Langport, 182; gold ring found at Glastonbury, 195, 377.
- Spain, Roman bronze tablets found at Malaga, 170.
- STAFFORDSHIRE:—excavations by Mr. Molyneux at Beaudesert, 198.
- Stanley, Hon. W. O., his notice of a brass caldron found at Bodidris, Denbighshire, 169.
- Stirrup, of iron, found in Buckinghamshire, 377.
- Strasburg, notices by Professor Westwood of MSS., sculptures, &c., there, 144; architectural museum there, 145.
- Stuart, Mr. W., exhibits gold cups of Delhi work, 196.
- SUFFOLK:—barrows and ancient remains at Snape, 188, 373.
- SUSSEX:—Mural paintings at Westmeston, 73, 168; bronze weapons, mould for celts, &c., found at Wilmington, 192; jeweled rings found in the tombs of bishops at Chichester, 235.
- SURREY:—Register of Chertsey Abbey in possession of Lord Clifford, 166, 180; singular personal names in the county, ib.; remains, pottery, &c., found on Kingston Hill, 372.
- Switzerland, earth-pillar in the valley of Stalden, 174; Samian ware, &c., found at Avenches, 231.
- Sword; see Armour and Arms.

T.

- Temple Church, London, inscribed coffin slab there, 138.
- Tessellated pavement, at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 74; found on the site of the India House, London, 177; other examples found in London, 178.
- Thorpe, Mr. B., his proposed publication of Anglo-Saxon documents, 360, 406; his notice of archæological subjects in Kent, 393; of a declaration by Queen Eadgifu, 396.

- Thorsbjerg, in Denmark, antiquities found in morasses there, 297.
- Tiles, Roman, found at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 74; mediæval, found at Ulverscroft Priory, Leicestershire, 77.
- Tite, Mr., his remarks on Roman remains found in London, 179.
- Torphichen, Lord, exhibits a clock-watch, 183.
- Tregellas, Mr., his memoir on Castell Dinas Brân, 72; notices of remains found on Kingston Hill, Surrey, 372.
- Treves, notes by Professor Westwood on examples of architecture and art there, 146; ivory sculptures in the cathedral, 148; illuminated MSS. &c., 149, 153.
- Trollope, Rev. E., his account of an Anglo-Saxon burial-ground at Baston, Lincolnshire, 29.
- Tucker, Mr. C., his notice of an Indulgence by Bishop Veysey for a beacon at Ilfracombe, 69; his remarks on the special exhibition of sculptures in ivory, 367.

U.

- Ulverscroft Priory, Leicestershire, pavement tile found there, 77.
- Urns, sepulchral; see Pottery and Sepulchral Antiquities.

V.

- Vaughan, Mr. H., exhibits a tazza of onyx, 378.
- Veysey, Bishop, Indulgence for a beacon at Ilfracombe granted by him, 69.
- Villa, Roman, found at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 73.
- Vindonissa, in Switzerland, vestiges of, 335.

W.

- WALES:—Memoir on Castell Dinas Bran, Denbighshire, 72; metal caldron found at Bodidris, Denbighshire, 169; cromlech in Glamorganshire called Arthur's Stone, 175; MSS. from the Hengwrt library exhibited by Mr. W. W. Wynne, 186; Roman coins found in Denbighshire, 192; sculptured boss at Llanegryn, Merionethshire, 194; the Black Book of Caermarthen exhibited by Mr. W. W. Wynne, 199; documents relating to Peniarth, ib.; bronze pendant ornament found in Flint-

- shire, 200; leaden seal found at Tremeirchion, Flintshire, 202.
- Walford, Mr. W. S., his account of an inscribed coffin-slab found at the Temple Church, London, 138.
- Waterton, Mr. E., his remarks on decade rings, 74; ivory ring, Gnostic and other rings exhibited by, 75; Irish ring with peculiar bosses in his collection, 200; brooches and various rings exhibited by, 201; memoir on episcopal rings by him; specimens in his collection described, 227, 228; exhibits Roman rings of amber and glass with other specimens, 377; fragments of sculptured bone found at Rome, ib.; Russian silver nielloed spoon of Tula work, ib.
- Way, Mr. Albert, his notices of Roman remains found in Leadenhall Street, 177; of the Register of Chertsey Abbey in Lord Clifford's possession, 180; of documents relating to Reading Abbey in possession of the Marquess of Westminster, 281.
- Webb, Mr., enamels exhibited by, 172; specimens of sculpture in ivory, 368.
- Wentworth, Mr. G., documents relating to Yorkshire communicated by, 201.
- Westmeston, Sussex, mural paintings in the church there, 73.
- WESTMORELAND:—Roman leaden seals found at Brough, 181.
- Westwood, Professor, his account of a Roman villa found at Beckley, Oxfordshire, 73; Archæological Notes of his Tour in West Germany, 141, 371.
- Westminster, the Marquess of, documents relating to Reading Abbey in his possession, 281.
- Williams, Sir Hugh, metal caldron found in Denbighshire in his possession, 169.
- Willis, the Rev. Professor, his memoir on Worcester Cathedral, 83; on the monastic buildings there, 199, 254, 301.
- Winchester, episcopal rings found in the Cathedral, 236.
- Windsor, singular shears found at St. George's Chapel, 377.
- Winston, Mr. C., his memoir on the East window of Gloucester Cathedral, 239, 318; note on his memoir on a window in York Minster, 330.
- WORCESTERSHIRE:—Memoir by the Very Rev. Dr. Hook on the life of Bishop Wulfstan, 1; on Worcester Cathedral and the monastic buildings by Professor Willis, 83, 199, 254, 301; effigy at Pershore with a hunting horn, 158; sepulchral brass at Chad-

- desley Corbet, 160; memoir by Mr. Bloxam on sepulchral remains and effigies in Worcester Cathedral, 273, 338; destruction of the Guesten Hall, 309.
- Wulfstan, Bishop, Memoir on his life and times, 1; his benefactions to Worcester Cathedral, 85.
- Wyatt, Mr. D., his discourse on sculpture in ivory, 368.
- Wynne, Mr. W. W. E., exhibits MSS. from the Hengwrt collection, 186; Roman coins found in Denbighshire, 192; his notice of a sculptured boss at Llanegryn, Merionethshire, 194; exhibits the Black Book of Caermarthen, 199; documents relating to Peniarth, ib.

Y.

YORKSHIRE:—Ivory ring found at Merston, 75; sepulchral effigy at Wadworth, 159; documents relating to Creskeld, 201; episcopal rings found in York Minster, 235; note by Mr. Winston on an heraldic window in York Minster, 330.

END OF VOL. XX.