

INDEX.

A.

Abingdon, Berks, fragments of pottery found near, 73.

AFRICA :—memoir on discoveries on the site of Carthage, 149; iron shield and head-piece from Tangiers, 156.

America, South, the ancient tombs of Nicaragua, by Mr. Frederick Boyle, 41, 300.

Amersweiler, vide Marivillier.

Anglesey, notice of ancient interments at Carreglwyd, 300.

Anglo-Saxon weapons and relics found at Hartwell, Bucks, 78; cemetery at Melton Mowbray, Leicester, 300.

ARCHITECTURE :—in the East, remarks on Mediaeval, by the Rev. J. L. Petit, 1, 152, 243; Church of St. Michael at St. Albans, 67; "Colston's House," Bristol, 150; document as to the repair of Waltham Abbey Church, 293.

ARMS AND ARMOUR :—jousting vamplate of the sixteenth century in the Woolwich Museum, 51; head of tilting lance of the sixteenth century, 65; "Solingen" blade, mounted with guard of Indian work, 69; small cross-bow with inlaid stock, 70; Indian "kuttar" daggers, 73; hand-mortar of the seventeenth century, 73, 218; collar of mail of the fifteenth century, 149; helmet of the fifteenth century, 155; iron shield and head-piece from Tangiers, 156; Grenadier of H. M. first regiment of Foot Guards in 1735, 222.

Aulus Plautius, vide Plautius.

Axbridge, Somerset, early historical document among the muniments of the town, 224.

B.

Ballinrobe, county Mayo, seal of the convent of Austin Friars at, 66.

Beck, Rev. James, exhibits pavement tile with a device, 74; enamelled locket, ib.; oval watch, ib.; portrait by Geo. Chinnery, ib.; design for copper coinage, ib.

Bedfont, Middlesex, mural paintings in the church of, 63.

Beek, Sir Thomas, his seal, 70.

Beldam, Mr. J., his memoir on the Icen-hilde Street, 231.

BERKS :—pottery found near Abingdon, 73.

Birch, Mr. W. de Gray, exhibits impressions of various seals, 77.

Bloxam, Mr. M. H., exhibits seal of the convent of Austin Friars at Ballinrobe, county Mayo, 66.

Bohn, Mr. H. G., exhibits painting in the style of the Flemish school, 74.

Bowyer, Mr. C., exhibits gesso of the Virgin and Child, 69.

Boyle, Mr. Frederick, his memoir on the ancient tombs of Nicaragua, 41, 300.

Bradbury, Mr. J., communicates account of excavations at Slack, near Huddersfield, 66.

Bradford Abbas, Dorset, flint implements, &c., found at, 300.

Bristol, pigs of lead found in the river bank at, 62; Colston's House at, remarks of Mr. Godwin on threatened destruction of, 150

British antiquities found in the Isle of Portland, 149.

Buckman, Professor James, describes vestiges of early occupation found in the Isle of Portland, 149; flint implements, &c., in Dorset, 300.

BUCKS :—Anglo-Saxon weapons and relics found at Hartwell, 78; mural paintings in Whaddon church, ib.

Burt, Mr. J., communicates charter of Henry VII. to the Franciscan Friars at Greenwich, 54; contributes document as to the repair of Waltham Abbey church, 293.

Bush, Mr. Arthur, secures for the British Museum a Roman pig of lead found at Bristol, 63.

C.

- Caerleon, Monmouthshire, mosaic pavement found at, 74.
 Calverhall, William de, his seal, 70.
 CAMBRIDGESHIRE:—proposed destruction of part of the chancel screen of Emneth church, 151.
 CAMEOS:—exhibited by Mr. F. Potts, 151; on onyx, exhibited by Capt. E. Hoare, 151.
 Canwick Common, Lincoln, Roman relics found at, 304.
 Carminow Barton, Cornwall, a Swedish "dalar" found in a building at, 236.
 Carminow family, effigies of persons of the, in Mawgan church, Cornwall, 76.
 Carreglwyd, Anglesey, notice of ancient interments at, 300.
 Carthage, memoir on discoveries on the site of, 149, 270.
 Caton, Mr. R. R., exhibits silver matrices of seals of "Jano le Rice" of the thirteenth century, and of the city of Marivillier, dep. Upper Rhine, of the fifteenth century, 152.
 Charles I., first great seal of, 77.
 Chester, the Rev. Greville J., communicates memoir of discoveries on the site of Carthage, 149, 270.
 Child's Ercall, Salop, William of, his seal, 70.
 China, maps of, exhibited, 304.
 Chini, Signor Bartholomeo, his comments on the proposed destruction of the monastery of Monte Cassino in Italy, 153.
 Christchurch, Hants, remonstrance against threatened destruction of the rood-screen in the Priory church at, 69.
 Coates, the Rev. R. P., describes his visit to Othona, at St. Peter's Head, Essex, 60.
 COINS:—design for copper coinage of 1788, 74; crown pieces of Edward VI. and Charles I., ib.; found in Portland, 75, 78; the mints of Dorsetshire, 122; "denarius" of Domitian found in Hampshire, 235; a Swedish "dalar" found at Carminow Barton, Cornwall, 236.
 CORNWALL:—grave, effigies, &c., in Mawgan church, 76; a Swedish "dalar" found at Carminow Barton, 236; metallurgical relics in, 277.
 Cowling Castle, Kent, account of an enamelled plate in front of, 233.

D.

- DENMARK:—the antiquities of South Jutland or Sleswick, by J. J. A. Worsaae, 21, 96, 181, 291.
 DEVONSHIRE:—Roman relics found at Exeter, 68.
 Dod, Mr. Whitehall, early documents in his possession relating to Staffordshire and Shropshire, 70; contributes indulgence by the "Minister" of Trinitarian Friars near Knaresborough, 145.
 Dodd, Mr. S., exhibits representation of Edward the Confessor from Romford chapel, 73; exhibits two MSS. of the fourteenth century, 235.
 DOCUMENTS:—charter of Henry VII. to the Franciscans at Greenwich, 54; collection relating to Staffordshire, Shropshire, and parts of Wales, 70; "Declaration" published by the House of Commons, June, 1660, 74; document temp. Charles I., ib.; indulgence granted in 1491 by the "Minister" of the Franciscan Friars near Knaresborough, 145; early historical document from the muni-ments of Axbridge, Somerset, 224; as to the repair of Waltham Abbey church, 293; roll of possessions in the Marches of Wales, 304.
 Dorchester, Oxfordshire, Roman pottery and a lamp found near, 73.
 DORSETSHIRE:—discoveries in Portland, 75, 78, 149; flint implements and weapons found in, 300; numismatics of, 122.
 Drohitchin, Poland, bullæ found at, 62.
 Dunraven, the Earl of, exhibits three silver dishes found near the Abbey of Fore, co. Westmeath, 235.
 Dunstan, St., vide Axbridge.

E.

- East, remarks on mediæval architecture in the, by the Rev. J. L. Petit, 1, 152, 243.
 Elizabeth, Queen, Mr. G. Scharf's account of a picture of her procession to Blackfriars, 131; Mr. J. G. Nichols; remarks on same, 302.
 Elsted, Mr. W. P., exhibits impression of counterscal of John le Furmager, of the thirteenth century, found on the beach at Dover, 151.
 Emneth, Cambridgeshire, proposed destruction of part of the chancel screen in the church of, 151.
 Enamels:—locket, 74; a circular plaque, with portrait, a dish by S. Courtois, and an oblong plaque, 156; plate in front of Cowling Castle, Kent, 233.

ESSEX :—St. Peter's Head, discoveries in connection with Othona, 60; mural paintings in West Ham church, 63; silver betrothal ring found at Gains Colne, 65; painted glass at Romford chapel, 73; document as to the repair of Waltham Abbey church, 293.
Evans, Mr. John, his account of coins found in Portland, 70.
Exeter, Roman relics found at, 63.

F.

Ffarrington, Miss, exhibits drawings of low arch in Leyland church, Lancashire, 70.
Flint, antiquities of, see Stone.
FRANCE :—seal of Marivillier, dep. Upper Rhine, exhibited, 152.
Furmager, John le, seal of, 151.

G.

Germany, portrait of Antony Kress, Provost of St. Laurence's, Nuremberg, 78; casts from Imperial bullæ aureæ, 156.
Glass, painted, in Romford Chapel, Essex, 73.
Glastonbury Abbey, Professor Willis's architectural history of, 237.
GLYPHIC ART :—cameos, exhibited by Mr. F. Potts, 151; by Captain E. Hoare, ib.; glass paste found in Rome, with inscriptions, 155; intaglio on jacinth, exhibited by the Rev. Gregory Rhodes, 235.
Godwin, Mr. E. W., his remarks on "restorations," and on the threatened destruction of Colston's House, Bristol, 150.
Gosch, Ch. C. A., his translation of M. Worsaae's essay on the antiquities of South Jutland or Sleswick, 21, 96, 181, 291.
Graves, the Rev. J., contributes seal of the Warden of the Franciscan Friars at Greenwich, 54.
Greaves, Mr. C. Sprengel, his remarks on the punishment of lepers, 68; further remarks thereon, 73.
Greaves, Mr. E., exhibits three specimens of Limoges enamel, 156.
Greenwich, charter of Henry VII. to the Franciscan Friars at, 54.
Greville, the Hon. Fulke, exhibits roll of possessions in the Marches of Wales, 304.
Grimani breviary at Venice, photographs of illuminations in, 74.

Guest, Dr., his discourse on the campaign of Aulus Plautius, 159.

H.

Hailstone, the Rev. J., exhibits silver betrothal ring found at Gains Colne, Essex, 65.
HAMPSHIRE :—remonstrance against threatened destruction of rood-screen at Christchurch, 69; "denarius" of Domitian found in, 235.
Hartwell, Bucks, Anglo-Saxon weapons and relics found at, 78.
Hawkins, Mr. Edw., on Dorsetshire numismatics, 122.
Henderson, Mr. J., exhibits Persian hunting-horn of ivory, sculptured, 69; Indian "kuttar" daggers, 73.
Henry VII., charter of, to the Franciscans at Greenwich, 54.
HERTFORDSHIRE :—account of the church of St. Michael at St. Albans, 67.
Hewitt, Mr. J., his remarks on a jousting vamplate in the Woolwich Museum, 51; on a hand-mortar of the seventeenth century, 73, 218; on a collar of mail of the fifteenth century, 149; exhibits two maps of China, 304.
Hind, Mr. Lewis, exhibits photographs of the Grimani breviary at Venice, 74.
Hoare, Capt. E., exhibits cameo on onyx, 151; silver seal of the sixteenth century, with his family arms, 156.
HOLLAND :—a Dutch silver prize-whip exhibited, 235.
Hutchinson, Rev. B., his account of the church of St. Michael at St. Albans, 67.

I.

IRELAND :—seal of the Austin Friars at Ballinrobe, co. Mayo, 66; impression of Irish Exchequer seal, tempore Henry VI., 77; Col. A. Lane-Fox's account of Roovesmore Fort, county Cork, 149; silver dishes found near the Abbey of Fore, co. Westmeath, 235.
ITALY :—remarks on the contemplated destruction of the monastery of Monte Cassino, 152, 299; Rome, Mr. Parker's discourse on the fortifications of, 231; piece of ironwork obtained from, 235.
IVORY, SCULPTURES IN :—mirror cases of the fourteenth century, 66; Persian hunting-horn, 69; 13th century tablet, 151.

J.

- Jarvis, the Rev. Edwin, exhibits pieces of mediæval ironwork, 235.
 Jervoise, Sir J. C. Clarke, Bart., M.P., exhibits "denarius" of Domitian found in Hampshire, 235.
 Jutland, South, or Sleswick, the antiquities of, by J. J. A. Worsaae, translated by Ch. C. A. Gosch, 21, 96, 181, 291.

K.

- Kendrick, Dr., exhibits collection of documents relating to Staffordshire and Shropshire, 70; series of casts from Imperial bulle aurea, 156.
 KENT:—charter of Henry VII. to the Franciscans at Greenwich, 54; seal of John le Furmager found at Dover, 151; enamelled plate in front of Cowling Castle, 233.
 Kerr, Mrs. Alexander, sends photographs of examples of art at Vienna, 74.
 King, Mr. C. W., on the signet of Q. Cornelius Lupus, 79.
 —, Mr. H. W., his account of mural paintings in the church of West Ham, Essex, 63.
 Kress, Antony, Provost of St. Laurence's, Nuremberg, portrait of, 73.

L.

- LANCASHIRE:—drawings of low arch in Leyland Church, 70.
 Lane-Fox, Col. A., his account of Roovesmore Fort, in Ireland, 149.
 Le Bas, the Rev. H. V., his account of mural paintings in the church of Bedfont, Middlesex, 63.
 Lefroy, Brigadier-General R. A., exhibits steel head of tilting-lance, temp. Henry VIII., 65; his remarks on a helmet of the fifteenth century from the Woolwich Museum, 155; exhibits iron shield and head-piece obtained from Tangiers, 156.
 LEICESTER:—Roman remains found in the town of, 70; Anglo-Saxon cemetery at Melton Mowbray, 300.
 Leyland Church, Lancashire, low arch in, 70.
 LINCOLNSHIRE:—Hospital of the Holy Innocents, near Lincoln; notice of a sepulchral slab discovered on the site of the, 212; piece of ironwork found near Hackthorne, 235; Roman relics found at Lincoln and on Canwick Common, 304.
 London, Mr. G. Scharf's account of the picture of Queen Elizabeth's procession to Blackfriars, 131; remarks on, 302; report of annual meeting in, 305.

- London, the origin of, vide Plautius, Aulus.
 Lowndes, the Rev. Charles, exhibits Saxon weapons and relics found at Hartwell, Bucks, 78.
 Lubbock, Sir John, Bart., his address to the Section of "Primæval Antiquities" at the London Meeting, 190.

M.

- MacLauchlan, Mr., his survey of the Eastern Watling Street in Northumberland, 73.
 Maeshowe, Orkney, tumulus of, 72.
 Malahide, Lord Talbot de, see Talbot.
 Marivillier, dep. Upper Rhine, matrix of seal of, 152.
 Melton Mowbray, Leicester, Anglo-Saxon cemetery at, 300.
 Metcalfe, Mr. F. M., his remarks on the proposed destruction of part of the screen of Emneth Church, Cambridgeshire, 151.
 MIDDLESEX:—mural paintings in the Church of Bedfont, 63; picture of Queen Elizabeth's procession to Blackfriars, 131, 302.
 MONMOUTHSHIRE:—Mosaic pavement found at Caerleon, 74.
 Monte Cassino, Italy, the contemplated destruction of the monastery of, 152, 299.
 Morgan, Mr. Octavius, M.P., his observations on Roman hypocausts, 67; his description of mosaic pavement at Caerleon, 74; exhibits a Dutch silver prize-whip, 235.

N.

- Newman, Mr., exhibits ivory mirror-cases of the fourteenth century, 66; head of terra cotta, ib.
 Nicaragua, memoir on the ancient tombs of, by Mr. Frederick Boyle, 41, 300.
 Nichols, Mr. J. G., his observations on the picture representing Queen Elizabeth's visit to Blackfriars, 302.
 North, Mr. Thomas, his account of an Anglo-Saxon cemetery at Melton Mowbray, Leicester, 300.
 NORTHUMBERLAND:—survey of the Eastern Watling Street in, 73.
 North Wales, see Wales.
 Nuremberg, portrait of Antony Kress, provost of St. Laurence's, 79.

O.

Orkney, tumulus of Maeshowe in, 72.
Othona, see St. Peter's Head.
OXFORDSHIRE:—Roman pottery and a lamp found near Dorchester, 73.

P.

PAINTINGS:—in Bedfont Church, Middlesex, 63; in West Ham Church, Essex, ib.; in the style of the Flemish school, 74; portrait by George Chinnery, ib.; in Whaddon Church, Bucks, 78; portrait of the Provost of St. Laurence's, Nuremberg, ib.; picture of Queen Elizabeth's procession to Blackfriars, 131, 302; portrait, said to be Chaucer's, 236.
Parker, Mr. J. H., his discourse on the primitive fortifications of Rome, 231.
Pepys, Mr. E., exhibits the "Declaration" published by the House of Commons, June 1660; and crown pieces of Edward VI. and Charles I., 74.
Petit, the Rev. J. L., his remarks on mediæval architecture in the East, 1, 152, 243.
Pigott, the Rev. William, exhibits drawings of mural paintings in Whaddon church, Bucks, 78.
Plautius, Aulus, Dr. Guest's discourse on the campaign of, 159.
Poland, bullæ found at Drohitchin, 62.
Portland, discoveries in, 75, 149.
POTTERY: fragments found near Abingdon, Berks, 73; Roman pottery found near Dorchester, Oxfordshire, ib.
Potts, Mr. F., exhibits a cameo and agate ornament, 151.
Primæval Antiquities; address of Sir John Lubbock, Bart., to the section of, at the London meeting, 190.
Publications, Archæological:—"Contributions towards the History of Old London," 158; the Runic Monuments of England and Scandinavia, ib.; M. Engelhardt's "Denmark in the early Iron Age," ib.; Mr. Shaw's Handbook of Illuminations, 158, 239; Professor Willis's Architectural History of Glastonbury Abbey, 237; Mr. Dollman's Ecclesiastical and Domestic Architecture in England, 242.

R.

Reynolds, Mr., exhibits spear-head found at Rushall, Wilts, 65.
Rhodes, the Rev. Gregory, exhibits a

Greek gem, the head of Sappho, 235.

RINGS:—silver betrothal ring found at Gains Colne, Essex, 65; gold ring with engraved ruby, and massive gold ring of English work, ib.

Rock, the Very Rev. Canon, his remarks on paintings in Bedfont church, 63; on the proposed destruction of the monastery of Monte Cassino, in Italy, 153; on a shield, &c., from Tangiers, 156.

Rogers, Mr. J. Jope, communicates notice of a mural grave, effigies, &c., in Mawgan church, Cornwall, 76; exhibits copper coin, said to be a Swedish "dalar," found in Cornwall, 236.

ROMAN ANTIQUITIES:—discoveries at St. Peter's Head, Essex, 60; bullæ found at Brough, Westmoreland, 62; pig of lead found at Bristol, 63; found at Slack, near Huddersfield, 66; Mr. Morgan's remarks on hypocausts, 67; relics found at Exeter, 68; remains found in the town of Leicester, 70; found in Portland, 75, 78, 149; pigs of lead and metallurgical relics, 277; relics found in Lincolnshire, 304.

Rome, Mr. J. H. Parker's discourse on the fortifications of, 231.

Romford, Essex; painted glass in the chapel of, 73.

S.

St. Albans, Herts; account of the church of St. Michael, at, 67.

St. Peter's Head, Essex; the Rev. R. P. Coates's visit to Othona, at, 60.

Scharf, Mr. Geo., on a picture of Queen Elizabeth's procession to Blackfriars, 131, 302; on an ancient interment in Westminster Abbey, 303.

Scarth, the Rev. Canon, his account of the discovery of pigs of lead at Bristol, 62; further remarks on, 69.

SCOTLAND:—symbols on the pillar stones of, 71.

SEALS:—of the convent of Austin Friars at Ballinrobe, county Mayo, 66; of John de Verdon, Thomas Talbot, William of Child's Ercall, Salop; William de Calverhall, and Sir Thomas Beek, 70; Great Seal of Charles I., 74; impressions of Irish Exchequer seal, temp. Henry VI.; of seal attributed to Gilbert de Sempringham; of first Great Seal of Charles

- I.; 77; signet of Q. Cornelius Lupus, 79; seal of John le Furmager, 151; of John le Rice, and of the city of Marivillier, dep. of Upper Rhine, 152; of the family of Captain Hoare, 156; impressions from Imperial bullæ aureæ, 156; of Waltham Abbey, 295.
- Sempringham, Gilbert de, impression of seal attributed to, 77.
- SEPULCHRAL ANTIQUITIES:—the ancient tombs of Nicaragua, 41, 300; sepulchral vessel found at Leicester, 70; the Pillar Stones of Scotland, 71; tumulus of Maeshowe, 72; grave, effigies, &c. at Mawgan Church, Cornwall, 76; slab found near Lincoln, 212; cemetery at Melton Mowbray, 300; interments in Anglesey, ib.; interment in Westminster Abbey, 303.
- Shaw, Mr. Henry, exhibits illuminated portrait of Anthony Kress, provost of St. Laurence's, Nuremberg, 78; his handbook of illumination, 239.
- SHERPESHIRE:—documents relating to, 70.
- Slack, near Huddersfield, account of excavations at, 66.
- Sleswick, vide Jutland, South.
- Smirke, Mr. E., communicates documents relating to lepers, 68; further remarks on, 72; communicates early historical document among the muniments of the town of Axbridge, 224.
- Smith, Mr. R. H. Soden, exhibits gold ring with ruby inscribed in Arabic; a massive gold ring of English work; a pair of book-clasps of silver gilt, with enamel; and sword-guard and pommel of steel gilt, 65; Roman pottery, and a lamp found near Dorchester, Oxon, 73; his observations on the jewellery and decorations of the portraits at South Kensington, 152.
- Smith, Mr. W. J. Bernhard, exhibits "Solingen" blade, mounted with cross-guard of Indian work, 69; small cross-bow, ib.; fragments of pottery found near Abingdon, Berks, 73.
- SOMERSET:—Roman pig of lead found at Bristol, 63, 69; early historical document among the muniments of Axbridge, 224.
- South Jutland, see Jutland.
- Spurrell, the Rev. F., his remarks on discoveries in connection with Othona, 62.
- STAFFORDSHIRE — documents relating to, 70.
- Stanley, the Hon. W. Owen, his account of ancient interments in Anglesey, 300.
- STONE, ANTIQUITIES OF:—the Pillar Stones of Scotland, 71; Sir John Lubbock's remarks on, 194; flint implements found at Bradford Abbas, Dorset, 300; tracings of stone monuments, 304.
- Stuart, Mr. J., his observations on the incised symbols on the pillar stones of Scotland, 71.
- T.
- Talbot, Thomas, seal of, 70.
- Talbot de Malahide, Lord, his remarks on the Maeshowe, and sculptured stones of Scotland, 72.
- Tangiers, iron shield and head-piece obtained from, 156.
- Tempest, Col., exhibits a portrait, said to be of Chaucer, 236.
- Tregellas, Mr. W. H., communicates memoir on "Cæsar's Camp," at Wimbledon, 74, 261.
- Trollope, Mr. Arthur, exhibits Roman relics found in Lincolnshire, 304.
- Trollope, the Rev. Edward, his notice of a sepulchral slab discovered on the site of the Hospital of the Holy Innocents, near Lincoln, 212.
- Tucker, Mr. Charles, his account of Roman relics found at Exeter, 68.
- Tyszkiewicz, the Count, his account of bullæ found at Drohitchin, 62.
- V.
- Vamplate of the 16th century, from the Royal Artillery Museum, Woolwich, Mr. J. Hewitt's remarks on, 51.
- VENICE:—photographs of the Grimani Breviary at, 74.
- Verdon, John de, seal of, 70.
- Vernon, Mr. W. F., exhibits a glass paste found at Rome, 155.
- VIENNA:—photographs of examples of art at, 74.
- Virtue, the Very Rev. Mons., exhibits psalter of the thirteenth century, 65; embroidered chalice-vail, 66.
- W.
- Walcot, the Rev. Mackenzie E. C., exhibits leaves of a French MS. of the thirteenth century, 66; silver reliquary, 74.
- Wales, H.R.H. the Prince of, consents to be Honorary President of the Annual Meeting in London, 74.
- WALES (NORTH):—documents relating

- to, 70; roll relating to possessions in the Marches of, 304.
- Walker, the Rev. H. Aston, exhibits a thirteenth century tablet of ivory, 151.
- Waller, Mr. J. G., his account of the enamelled plate on Cowling Castle, Kent, 233.
- Waltham Abbey, Essex, document as to the repair of the church there, 293.
- Waring, Mr. J. B., exhibits tracings from publications illustrating stone monuments, 304.
- Way, Mr. Albert, his notes on Charter of Henry VII. to the Franciscans at Greenwich, 54; his remarks on perforated leaden pellets or bullæ, 62; on Roman pigs of lead and metallurgical relics, 277.
- Weatherhead, Mr. J., his description of Roman remains found at Leicester, 70.
- Westminster Abbey, account of an ancient interment in, 303.
- Williams, Mr. B. T., exhibits the Hon. Fulke Greville's roll of possessions in Wales, 304.
- WILTS :—spear-head found at Rushall, 65.
- Winnington, Sir T. E., Bart., M.P., exhibits document temp. Charles I., with Great Seal, 74.
- Woolwich Museum; jousting vamplate from, 51; steel head of tilting lance from, 65; collar of mail from, 149; helmet of the fifteenth century from, 155; iron shield and head-piece obtained in Tangiers, from, 156.
- Worsaae, J. J. A., on the antiquities of South Jutland, or Sleswick, 21, 96, 181, 291.
- Wray, Major, R. E., his account of discoveries of Roman remains in Portland, 75, 78.

Y.

- Yates, Mr. James, calls attention to the contemplated destruction of the monastery of Monte Cassino in Italy, 152.
- YORKSHIRE :—account of excavations at Slack, near Huddersfield, 66; Indulgence by the "minister" of the Franciscan Friars, near Knaresborough, 145.