

INDEX.

A.

Algeria, Lord Talbot de Malahide's memoir on antiquities of, 195.

ARCHÆOLOGICAL INTELLIGENCE :—Mr. Marsh's annals of Chepstow Castle, 209; Mr. Kershaw's studies in Lambeth Palace Library, 210; Mr. Hilton's chronograms, ib.; Mr. Gotch's buildings of Sir Thomas Tresham, 211; Mr. Hodges' Hexham Abbey, 212; Ancient Customs of Hereford, 213; Fleming's description of Westmoreland, ib.; Mr. Bloxam's principles of Gothic architecture, &c., 214; Meeting of the Institute in Cumberland, ib. The Earliest Latin Inscription, 481; the Roman "Legio Secunda Ajutrix Pia Fidelis," 482; Signacula in jet of St. James of Compostella ib.; Church Plate, 483; Bramshill, ib.; MSS. at Stanford Court, ib.; Early History and Genealogy of Families of Hore and Hoare, ib.; Retrospections social and archæological, ib.

Atkinson, Mr. G. M., exhibits repeater watch, 195.

Auxerre, see Sens.

B.

Bain, Mr. J., his Calendar of Documents relating to Scotland noticed, 202; contributes will of Gavin Dunbar, archbishop of Glasgow, 1548, 412.

Balance Sheet for 1881, 307.

Baker, Rev. R. S., his memoir on Yelden, 76.

Bayly, Mr. J. A. Sparvel, exhibits rubbings of brasses from Essex, 91, 201.

BEDFORDSHIRE :—Mr. North's memoir on bells of, 71; Rev. R. S. Baker's do. on Yelden, 76; Rev. A. J. Foster's do. on churches of, 83; Mr. W. T. Watkin's do. on Roman Bedfordshire, 257.

BERKSHIRE :—Mrs. Henley Jervis's note on church stock at Sonning, 89.

Bloxam, Mr. M. H., new edition of his Principles of Gothic Architecture, &c., 214; noticed, 473.

Bigge, Rev. H. J., exhibits iron work and casket, 423.

Birch, Dr. S., his memoir on Egyptian sepulchral statuettes, 384; 420.

Brailsford, Mr. W., his memoir on the Monuments of the Seymours in Great Bedwyn Church, Wilts, 407, 424; exhibits photographs, 425.

Brock, Mr. E. P. L., exhibits photographs of Carrow Abbey, 316.

BRONZE, ANTIQUITIES OF :—Mr. Evans' work on Ancient Implements, noticed, 206.

BUCKINGHAMSHIRE :—Mr. Peacock communicates "professio" of a sister of nunnery of Little Marlow, 309.

C.

Candy, Rev. J. H., exhibits helmet from Swanscombe, 90.

Carlisle, the Bishop of, his inaugural address, 215.

Carlisle, Mr. Freeman's memoir on the place of, in English history, 317; Report of annual meeting at, 427.

Clark, Mr. G. T., his memoir on castles of England and Wales at latter part of twelfth century (concluded), 154; on Colchester Castle, 239; on moated mound at Sekington, 372.

Clarke, Mr. Somers, Jun., his memoir on font in church of St. Nicholas, Brighton, 196; exhibits drawings of ditto, 200.

Collar of SS., example of, exhibited by Mr. Hilton, 312; Mr. Hartshorne's memoir on, 376.

Cosson, The Baron de, his notes on helms from Petworth and Wimborne, 186.

Cripps, Mr. W., his remarks on Mr. Kempson's pomander, 194; on the Hamsterley paten, 410.

Constantinople, Prof. B. Lewis' memoir on antiquities of, 117.

Cresset Stones, Rev. T. Lees's memoir on, 390.

Cromwell, Oliver, notes on relics, of, 195.

CUMBERLAND :—Mr. Ferguson exhibits funeral chalices and patens from Kirkoswald, Melmerby and Carlisle, 200; his memoir on initial letter of charter of Edward II, 291.

D.

Dartford, Rev. C. F. R. Palmer's memoir on priory of, 177.

DEVONSHIRE :—Mr. Tucker's paper on parish registers of Warleigh, read, 91; Mr. King's notes on baldachino at St. Mary's, Totnes, 310.

DOCUMENT, ORIGINAL :—Will of Gavin Dunbar, Archbishop of Glasgow, 1548, 412.

Dryden, Sir H., Bart., his memoir on lamp niches, 396, exhibits photographs of draughtsman, and drawing of chess-piece from Northampton, 421.

Duckett, Sir G. F., Bart., his edition of Fleming's Westmoreland, 213.

E.

Ely, Dean of, his opening address, 38.

Egypt, Dr. Birch's memoir on sepulchral statuettes, 384; Rev. W. J. Loftie's memoir on worship of Chonsu, 399; Mr. Petrie exhibits antiquities from, 421; Rev. W. J. Loftie, do. do., ib.; exhibits antiquities, 425; Captain Hoare exhibits statuette, 426; Rev. W. J. Loftie's remarks thereon, ib.

ESSEX :—Mr. Sparvel Bayly exhibits rubbings of brasses, 91, 210; Mr. Clark's memoir on Colchester Castle, 239.

Evans, Mr. J., his ancient Bronze Implements, noticed, 206; his opening address to Section of Antiquities at Carlisle meeting, 440.

F.

Ferguson, Mr. R. S., exhibits funeral chalices and patens from Cumberland, 200; his remarks thereon, ib.; his memoir on initial letter of charter of Edward II to Carlisle, 291.

Foster, Rev. A. J., his memoir on churches of Beds and Northants, 83.

Foster, Mr. W. K., his remarks on pits in Italy, 192.

Freeman, Mr. E. A., his memoir on Sens and Auxerre, 97, 309; on place of Carlisle in English history, 317.

G.

Gloucester, Mr. Palmer's memoir on Black Friars of, 296.

Goodchild, Mr. J. G., his memoir on archaeology of Milburn, 402.

Gosselin, Mr. H. R. H., exhibits tiles from Bengoe, Herts, 426.

Gotch, Mr. J. A., his work on buildings of Sir T. Tresham, 211.

Griffiths, Mr. E. A., exhibits British urns from Hampton Wick, 193; Romano-British do., 201.

H.

Harland, Mr. H. S., exhibits flint implements from Yorkshire, 193.

Hartshorne, Mr. A., his memoir on collars of SS., 376.

Hereford, Ancient Customs of, new edition of work on, 213.

HERTFORDSHIRE :—Mr. Lloyd's memoir on wall paintings at St. Albans, 64; Mr. Gosselin exhibits tiles from Bengoe, 426; Mr. Ransom exhibits photograph of urns, ib.

Hilton, Mr. J., his work on chronograms, 210; exhibits keys and collars of SS., 312.

Hoare, Capt. E., exhibits bronze medal commemorating first meeting of British Archaeological Association, 316; Egyptian statuette, 426; his remarks thereon, ib.; on Roman wall in London, ib.

Hodges, Mr. C. C., his work on Hexham Abbey, 212.

Holley, Mrs. Windham, exhibits portrait of Black Prince, 90.

Hulme, Mr. E. C., exhibits impression of seal with Greek inscription, 312.

Huyshe, Mrs., exhibits and presents sculptured antiquities in marble, &c., 90.

Huyshe, Mr. W., his memoir on helmets from Petworth and Wimborne, 184.

J.

Jervis, Mrs. Henley, communicates notes on church stock at Sonning, 89.

Jews, coins of the, Mr. Madden's work on, noticed, 203.

K.

Kempson, Rev. H., exhibits pomander, 193.

- KENT:—Rev. J. H. Candy exhibits helmet from Swanscombe, 90; Rev. C. F. R. Palmer's memoir on Dartford priory, 177.
 Kershaw, Mr. S. W., his studies in Lambeth Palace library, 210.
 King, Mr. A., exhibits plan of Carrow priory, 316.
 King, Mr. C. R. B., exhibits and presents illustrations of undercroft of St. John's, Clerkenwell, and baldachino in St. Mary's, Totnes, 310; his notes upon baldachinos, ib.
 King, Rev. C. W., his memoir on votive tablets at York, 23, 91.
 King, Rev. E., his notes on Toft Dishes, 314; exhibits an example, 316.

L.

- Lamp Niches, Sir H. Dryden's memoir on, 396.
 Lees, Rev. T., his memoir on cresset stones, 390.
 Lewis, Prof. B., his memoir on antiquities of Constantinople, 117; on antiquities of Autun, read, 424.
 Lewis, Rev. S. S., exhibits coins, 425.
 LINCOLNSHIRE:—Mr. Peacock's memoir on churchwardens' accounts of Sutterton, 53; Precentor Venable's memoir on dedication of churches of, read, 88; Mr. Way exhibits matrix of seal of guild of Holy Trinity, Boston, 90; Bishop Suffragan of Nottingham's memoir on Somerton Castle, 180.
 Lloyd, Mr. R. R., his memoir on wall paintings at St. Alban's Abbey, 64.
 Lottie, Rev. W. J., his memoir on worship of Chonsu, 399; 424; exhibits Egyptian antiquities, 425; his remarks on Egyptian statuette, 426.
 London:—Mr. Middleton's notes on Ashburnham House, 192; Mr. Newton's notes on Romano-British urns from Cheapside, 199; Mr. Hulme exhibits impression of seal from site of Winchester House, 312; Captain Hoare's remarks on Roman wall in city, 426.

M.

- Madden, Mr. F. W., his Coins of the Jews, noticed, 203.
 Marsh, Mr. J. F., publication of his Annals of Chepstow Castle, 209.
 Maughan, Mr. V. W., exhibits rubbings from various brasses, 201.

- Micklethwaite, Mr. J. T., his remarks on Ashburnham House, 192; on funeral chalices and patens, 200; his memoir on crypts at Hexham and Ripon, 347.
 MIDDLESEX:—Mr. Griffiths exhibits British urns from Hampton Wick, 193; Romano-British from ditto, 201; Mr. Newton's notes on Romano-British urns from Cheapside, 199.
 Middleton, Mr. J. H., his notes on Ashburnham House, 192; exhibits plan, 193; his notes on the Little Farringdon chalice, 411.
 Morgan, Mr. O., his remarks on parish registers, 91.

N.

- Newton, Mr. E. T., his notes on Romano-British urn from Cheapside, 199; exhibits urn, 200.
 NORFOLK:—Mr. Spurrell's notes on pits on north-coast of, 192; Precentor Venables' memoir on Carrow Priory, 312.
 North, Mr. C. N. McIntyre, his book of Club of True Highlanders, noticed, 92.
 North, Mr. T., his memoir on church bells of Bedfordshire, 71.
 NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:—Rev. A. J. Foster's memoir on churches of, 83; Miss Petit exhibits tracings of wall paintings at Grendon, 90; Mr. Gotch's work on buildings of Sir T. Tresham, 211; Sir H. Dryden exhibits photograph of draughtsman and drawing of chess-piece, 421.
 NORTHUMBERLAND:—Mr. Hodges' work on Hexham Abbey, 212; Mr. Micklethwaite's memoir on crypt at ditto, 347.
 Nottingham, Bishop Suffragan of, his memoir on Somerton Castle, 180.

P.

- Palmer, Rev. C. F. R., his memoir on Dartford Priory, 177, 317; on Black Friars of Gloucester, 296.
 Peacock, Mr. E., his memoir on churchwardens' accounts of Sutterton, 53, 89; communicates "Professio" of a nun of Little Marlow, 309.
 Petit, Miss, exhibits tracings from wall paintings in Grendon Church, Northamptonshire, 90.
 Petrie, Mr. W. M. F., exhibits glass objects, &c., from Egypt, 421.
 Prescott, Mrs. Oliveria, notes on her relics of Oliver Cromwell, 194.
 Phipson, Mr. B. M., exhibits illustrations of Carrow Priory, 316.

PUBLICATIONS, ARCHEOLOGICAL, Notices of :—Book of the Club of True Highlanders, by C. N. McIntyre North, 92 ; Essay on the History of English Church Architecture, by G. G. Scott, 94 ; Calendar of Documents relating to Scotland, edited by J. Bain, 202 ; Coins of the Jews, by F. W. Madden, 203 ; the Ancient Bronze Implements of Britain and Ireland, by J. Evans, 206 ; Old Church Plate in Diocese of Carlisle, 472 ; Principles of Gothic Ecclesiastical Architecture, a Companion to do., by M. H. Bloxam, 473 ; Diaries and Letters of Philip Henry, edited by Rev. M. H. Lee, 477 ; Ogham inscribed Monuments, &c., by the late R. R. Brash, 479 ; Solution of the Pyramid Problems, 480.

R.

Ransom, Mr. W., exhibits photographs of Roman antiquities, 426.

ROMAN ANTIQUITIES :—Rev. C. W. King's memoir on votive tablets at York, 23 ; Rev. R. S. Baker's memoir on Yelden, 76 ; Mr. Newton's notes on urn from Cheapside, 199, exhibits ditto, 200 ; Mr. Griffiths exhibits Romano-British urn from Hampton Wick, 201 ; Mr. Watkin's memoir on Roman Bedfordshire, 257 ; on inscriptions discovered in Britain in 1881, 355 ; Mr. W. Ransom exhibits photograph of urns, &c., from Hitchin, 426 ; Captain Hoare's remarks on wall in London, ib.

Rudyard, Mrs., exhibits letter of Queen of Bohemia, 422 ; Cup of Sir B. Rudyard, 423.

S.

SCOTLAND : Will of Gavin Dunbar, Archbishop of Glasgow, 1548, 412.

Scott, Mr. G. G., his essay on history of church architecture, noticed, 94.

Scott, Mr. J. O., exhibits cast of effigy, and relics from North Curry church, Somerset, 201.

Scott, Sir J. S. D., Bart., his remarks at final meeting of Institute in New Burlington street, 195.

Sens and Auxerre, Mr. Freeman's memoir on, 97.

Smith, Mr. W., exhibits flint implements, 193.

SOMERSET :—Mr. Scott exhibits cast of effigy, and relics from North Curry church, 201.

Spurrell, Mr. F. C. J., his memoir on Deneholes (continued), 1 ; his remarks on pits in Norfolk, 192 ; exhibits flint implements, 193.

SUSSEX :—Mr. Huyshe's memoir on helmets from Petworth and Wimborne, 184 ; the Baron de Cosson's notes on the same, 186 ; Mr. Somers Clarke's memoir on font in church of St. Nicholas, Brighton, 196.

T.

Taverner, Rev. H. E., exhibits tiles from Martin Hussington, Worcestershire, 426.

Talbot de Malahide, The Lord, his memoir on antiquities of Algeria, 227 ; his remarks on worship of Chonsu, 424 ; on antiquities of Autun, 425 ; exhibits antiquities from Algeria, ib.

Tucker, Mr. S. I. (Somerset), his memoir on parish registers of Warleigh, Devonshire, 91 ; exhibits the original, ib.

V.

Venables, Rev. Precentor, his memoir on dedications of churches of Lincolnshire, 88 ; on Carrow Priory, 312.

Vaughan, Mr. H., exhibits photograph of silver cassa at Genoa, 420.

W.

Waller, Mr. J. G., proposes resolution respecting Ashburnham House, 193 ; his notes on silver cassa at Genoa, 420.

WARWICKSHIRE :—Mr. Clark's memoir on moated mound at Sekington, 372.

Watkin, Mr. W. T., his memoir on Roman Bedfordshire, 257 ; on Roman inscriptions discovered in Britain in 1881, 355.

Way, Mr. B. H. W., exhibits matrix of seal of guild of Holy Trinity, Boston, 90.

WESTMORELAND :—Fleming's description of, 213 ; Mr. Goodchild's memoir on archæology of Milburn, 402.

Y.

Whitehead, Rev. H., his notes on the Old-Hutton chalice, and the Hamsterley paten, 410.

WILTSHIRE :—Mr. Brailsford's memoir on the monuments of the Seymours in Great Bedwyn Church, 407, 424.

WORCESTERSHIRE :—Rev. H. E. Taverner exhibits tiles from Martin Hussington-tree, 426.

YORKSHIRE :—Rev. C. W. King's memoir on votive tablets at York, 23 ; Mr. Harland exhibits flint implements, 193 ; Mr. Micklethwaite's memoir on crypt at Ripon, 347.