

NOTICES OF MEETINGS, 1917.

WEDNESDAY, 7th FEBRUARY, 1917.

Sir Henry H. Howorth, President, in the Chair.

Dr. G. B. Grundy read a paper on the evidence of the Anglo-Saxon charters on the road system of England.

In the discussion there spoke Dr. P. Norman, Mr. R. Garraway Rice, Mr. A. G. K. Hayter, and the Chairman.

---

WEDNESDAY, 7th MARCH, 1917.

Sir Henry H. Howorth, President, in the Chair.

Mr. A. Hadrian Allcroft read a paper on the original castle of William de Warrenne and the early history of the Priory of St. Pancras at Lewes.

In the discussion there spoke Mr. R. Garraway Rice, Mr. C. Angell Bradford, and the Chairman.

---

WEDNESDAY, 4th APRIL, 1917.

Sir Henry H. Howorth, President, in the Chair.

Mr. V. B. Crowther-Beynon read a paper on some family relics of the Jacobite rebellion, 1745; and Dr. Nelson read a paper on some English medieval embattled alabasters.

Dr. Hildburgh also exhibited two alabaster tables in his collection.

In the discussion there spoke Colonel Parker, Mr. Druce, Mr. L. M. May, and the Chairman.

---

WEDNESDAY, 2nd MAY, 1917.

Sir Henry H. Howorth, President, in the Chair.

Mr. G. G. Coulton read a paper entitled 'Some notes on medieval masons' marks and graffiti': illustrated by lantern slides.

In the discussion there spoke Mr. Hemp, Mr. Rawnsley, and the Chairman.

---

WEDNESDAY, 6th JUNE, 1917.

Sir Henry H. Howorth, President, in the Chair.

Mr. G. C. Druce read a paper on Misericords and their decoration; with lantern illustrations.

In the discussion there spoke Mr. Lynam, the Rev. E. S. Dewick, and the Chairman.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING: WEDNESDAY, 4th JULY, 1917.

Sir Henry H. Howorth, President, in the Chair.

The report and accounts for 1916 were presented and taken as read, and their adoption moved from the Chair, seconded by Mr. H. Plowman, and adopted unanimously.

Mr. G. McN. Rushforth then read a paper on the glass in Henry VII's window in Malvern Priory Church, with lantern illustrations.

In the discussion there spoke the Rev. E. S. Dewick, the Rev. J. K. Floyer, and the Chairman.

---

WEDNESDAY, 5th NOVEMBER, 1917.

Sir Edward Brabrook, C.B. Treasurer, in the Chair.

Mr. A. Hamilton Thompson read a paper entitled 'Some notes on the lesser colleges of secular canons in England.'

In the discussion there spoke Mr. R. Garraway Rice, the Rev. H. F. Westlake, Mr. F. C. Eeles, and the Chairman.