

GRID	ROMAN COINS (10)
A1	Unidentified, AE 12-13mm., corroded. Obv: Illegible Rev: Victory adv. Left holding trophy and dragging captive SALVS REI P]VBLIC[AE Mint: Probably Aquelia Date: 388-393 Ref: cf. RIC 58 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
A1	House of Constantine I AE 13mm., Very worn and corroded Obv: Laur. bust right Rev: Two soldiers with one standard Date: 335-340 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
A1	? House of Constantine I AE 10-11mm., very worn and corroded Obv: Trace of Laurel. bust right Rev: Possibly two soldiers with one standard Date: 4th century, ?335-340 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
B1	Unidentified AE 19mm., exceedingly worn and chipped, all detail lost Obv: Bust right Rev: Falling horseman type Date: c. 354 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
B1	Constantius II AE 14-16mm., worn, particularly the reverse Obv: Pearl diad, bust right CONSTANT[Rev: Two victories holding wreaths Mint: Trier Date: 343-348 Ref: RIC 193 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
C3	Probably Constantius II AE 18-20mm., very worn and chipped Obv: Diad. bust right Rev: Falling horseman Date: c. 354 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
C3	Valens AE 16-17mm., corroded Obv: Diad. bust right [D N VALEN] S [P F AV]G Rev: Victory adv. left holding wreath [SECVRITAS] REI[PVBLICAE] OF/I/-- Mint: Lyons Date: 364-375 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)

C3	Probably Valens AE 18mm., worn and corroded Obv: Diad. bust right [D N VALEN] S [P F AVG] Rev: Victory adv. left holding wreath and palm Securitas Reipublicae type Date: 364-378 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
G5 = G8	Claudius II deified AE 16-17mm., some wear Obv: Rad. head right [DIVO C]LAVDIO Rev: Eagle stg left, head right CONSECRATIO Mint: Rome Date: 270-1 Ref: Normanby 1115 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
H3= H7	Salonia AE 16-17mm., worn Obv: Diad. bust right, crescent behind SAL[ONINA AVG] Rev: Fortuna stg left with rudder in right hand and cornucopiae in left [FOR]TVNA RED[VX] Mint: Rome 5th series but a hybrid with reverse type proper to Gallienus Ref: Normanby 297 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
	ENGLISH SILVER COINS
H3 = H7	Edward III Penny AR 17mm., wt0.89g. (13.8gn), worn, bent with some loss of fabric Obv: Crowned bust facing +EDW[XoANGLI Rev: Long cross with three pellets and an annulet in each quarter CIVI TAS LON [DO]N Mint: London, fourth coinage, series C Date: 1351-52 Ref: North 1149 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
I17	Probably Edward III Halfpenny AR 13-14mm., wt 0.52g.(8.0gn), worn and slightly bent Obv: Crowned bust facing []ARDVS REX AN[Rev: Long cross with three pellets in each quarter CIVI TAS LON [] Mint: London, third coinage Date: 1344-51 Ref: Probably North 1132 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)

	ENGLISH SILVER COINS cont.
I10	Edward / Henry Penny AR 13-14mm., 0.49g. (7.6gn), exceedingly worn and clipped Obv: ?Crowned bust facing, almost illegible Rev: Long cross with quarterfoil in centre, three pellets in each quarter Mint: Probably York Date: 14th – 15th century (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
	TOKEN
D5	17th century trade token William Joyce Salisbury Farthing AE 15mm., worn and neatly perforated from obverse Obv: A camel couchant ★ WILLIAM ♦ IOYCE Rev: Rosette W I ★ IN ♦ SARVM ♦ 1652 Ref: Williamson, Wiltshire 199; Norweb 5564 (Description: David Algar Salisbury & South Wiltshire Museum)
	OTHER ARTEFACTS FOUND
	Statements and Identification by Devizes Museum. (person unknown)
D10	Medieval buckle Frome MEOLS type 6 Date: 1250-1450
E4 = E5	Fragment Roman bow brooch- Catchplate & lower bow AD 50 – 150
I2 = I8	Medieval forked spacer from a composite strap – end -m incomplete (missing decorative Knob at one end. Both arms incomplete) Date: 1350-1450
J15	Unidentified Uncertain date -but worthy of recording (with photo) (added length 10mm. width 6-8mm.)	