

| | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Name of database | Wroxeter Baths Basilica SF |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------------|

| | | |
|-------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|
| Name of table | Finds | |
| Purpose of table | Provides catalogue listings for the entire archive | |
| Number of rows | 9234 | |
| Primary Key | ID | |
| Foreign Key | | |
| Name of field | Full description of field and codes or terminology used | Data type and field length |
| ID | A unique entry for each record assigned during the creation of the database. | Integer |
| Material | Identity of material of find. This has been taken from the original database print-out and up-dated where appropriate from the discussions in Section 3-13. (| Text – 25 characters |
| Simple Name | The simple name of the object. This has been taken from the original database print-out and up-dated where appropriate from the discussions in Section 3-13 of the downloads. | Text – 50 characters |
| Type | This is the principle typological field and the keys are provided in the discussions in sections 3-13 of the downloads | Text – 50 characters |
| Sub-type | This field includes additional typological information as appropriate. It has been primarily used for the glass beads and the brooches where alternative typologies can be used. This is explained in the relevant sections of the download discussions. | Text – 50 characters |
| Discussion _section | The number in this relates to the sections 3 to 14 where the relevant find category is discussed | Number – integer |
| Context | This is the context number the object was found in. Descriptions of the contexts are found in the concordance sections 16-22. | Text – 30 characters |
| Area | The area of the site the find was found in. The explanation of the areas is given in section 15 and the context concordances (sections 16-22) are arranged according to area. | Text – 5 characters |
| Grid | The grid square in which the find was found. The grid is explained in section 15 where Barker et al 1997, fig. 9 which provides a plan of the grid is reproduced. | Number – integer |
| Find_number | The original finds number as given on site. Please note each grid square had a sequence starting with 1. | Number – integer |
| Diameter | Diameter of item (in mm.) if recorded in database print-out . | Number – decimal |
| Length | Length of item (in mm.) if recorded in database print-out. | Number – decimal |
| Weight | Weight of item (in g.) if recorded in database print-out. | Number – decimal |
| Comment | Additional information derived from original database print-out. It also contains catalogue entries where available. | Text – memo field |
| Drawn | This indicates whether there is a drawing. True/False field, set to true if the item was drawn and is available as a scanned image. | True/False |
| Album | The reference number (8 figure) of the album in which the original drawing is stored by English Heritage. | Text – 10 characters |
| Scale_of_drawing | Record of whether the original drawing was drawn at 1:1 or 2:1. The former have been scanned at 1200 dpi and the latter at | Text – 10 characters |

| | | |
|----------------------|---|----------------------|
| | 600 dpi. Not all drawings retained a statement of the scale. | |
| Photographed | This indicates whether there is a photograph. True/False field, set to true if the item was photographed and is available as a scanned image. | True/False |
| Photograph_reference | The original site archive reference number for the photograph. | Text – 30 characters |
| Site_phase | The phase to which the context was assigned. Please see Section 15 for a guide to using the phasing and sections 16-22 for the full site concordance. | Text – 30 characters |