

Figures

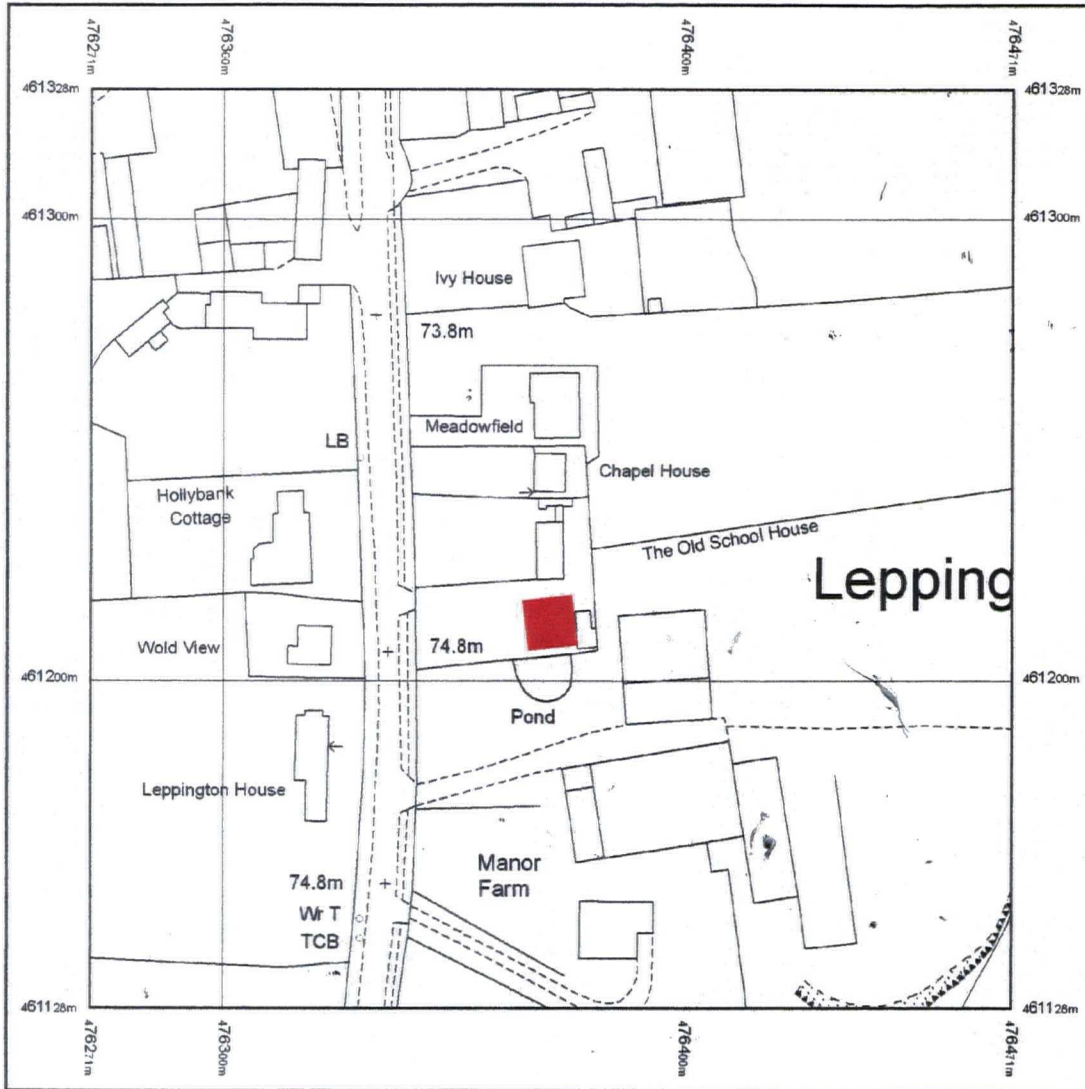

Figure 1. Location of Evaluation Area.

Based upon Ordnance Survey data with permission of Her Majesty's Controller of Stationary Office Crown Copyright. John Buglass Archaeological Services, Rosebank, Newby Wiske DL7 9EX. Licence Number 100048796

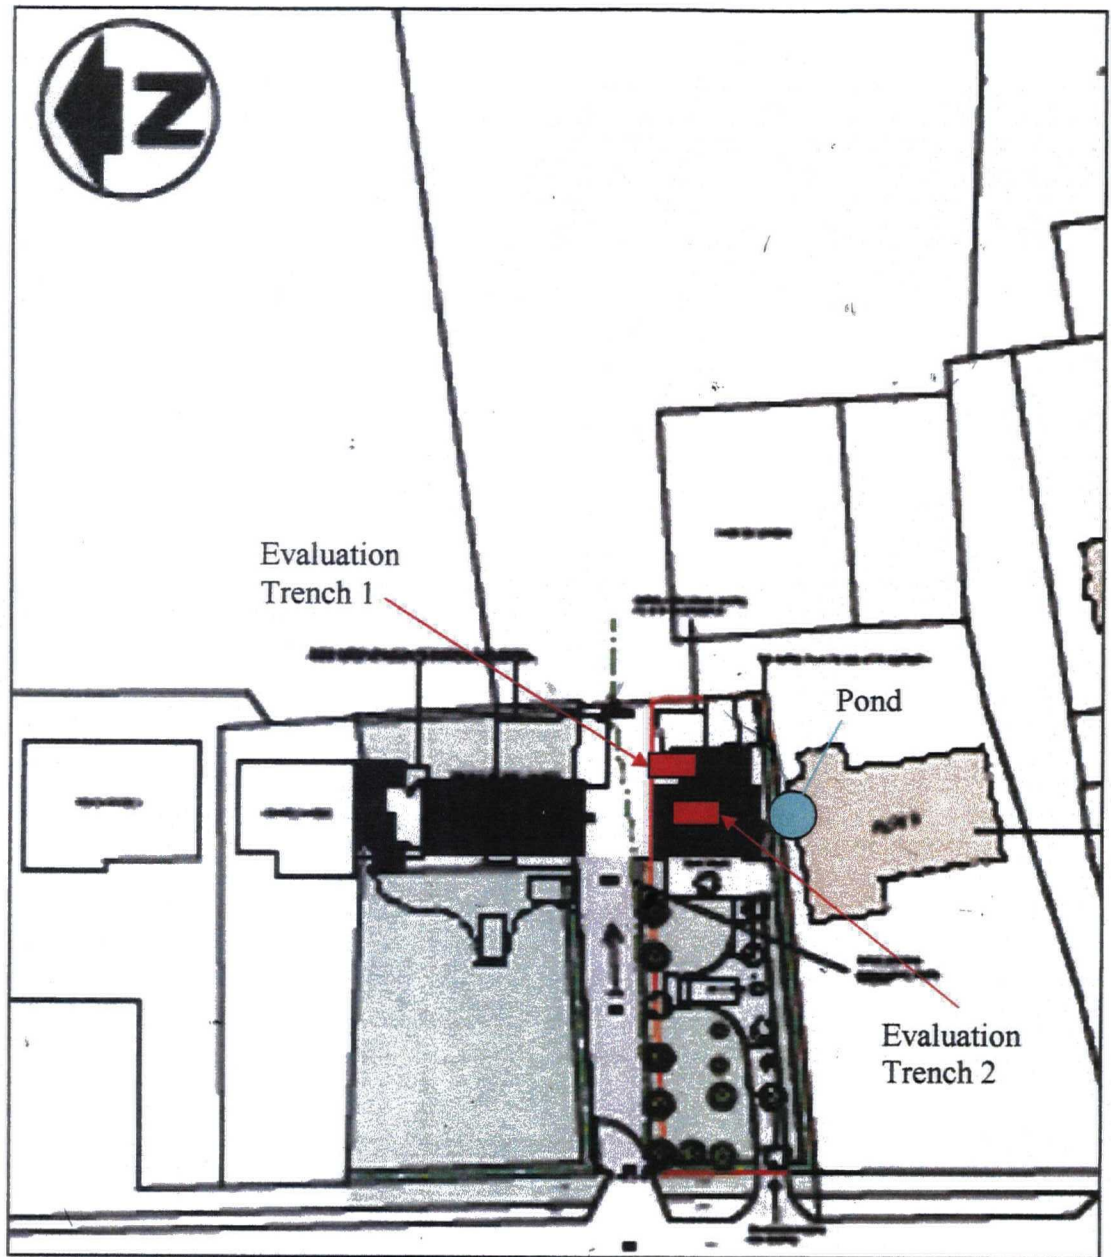

Figure 2. Evaluation Trench Locations in relation to Proposed New Build.

Drawing – Paul Hewitt Architect

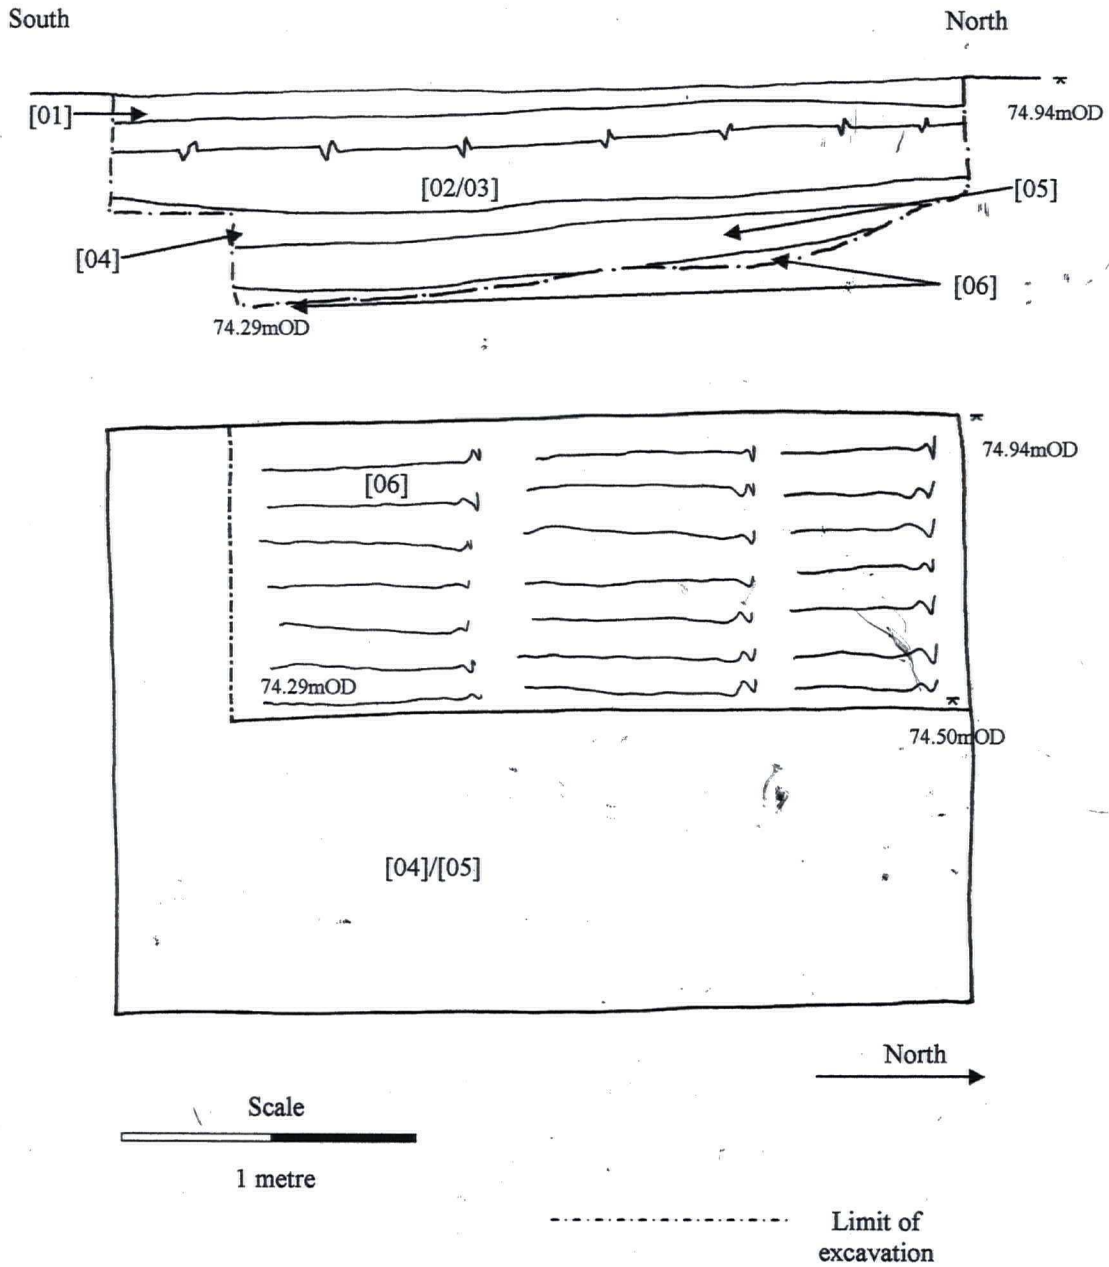

Figure 3. Trench 1. East facing section and plan of trench as excavated.

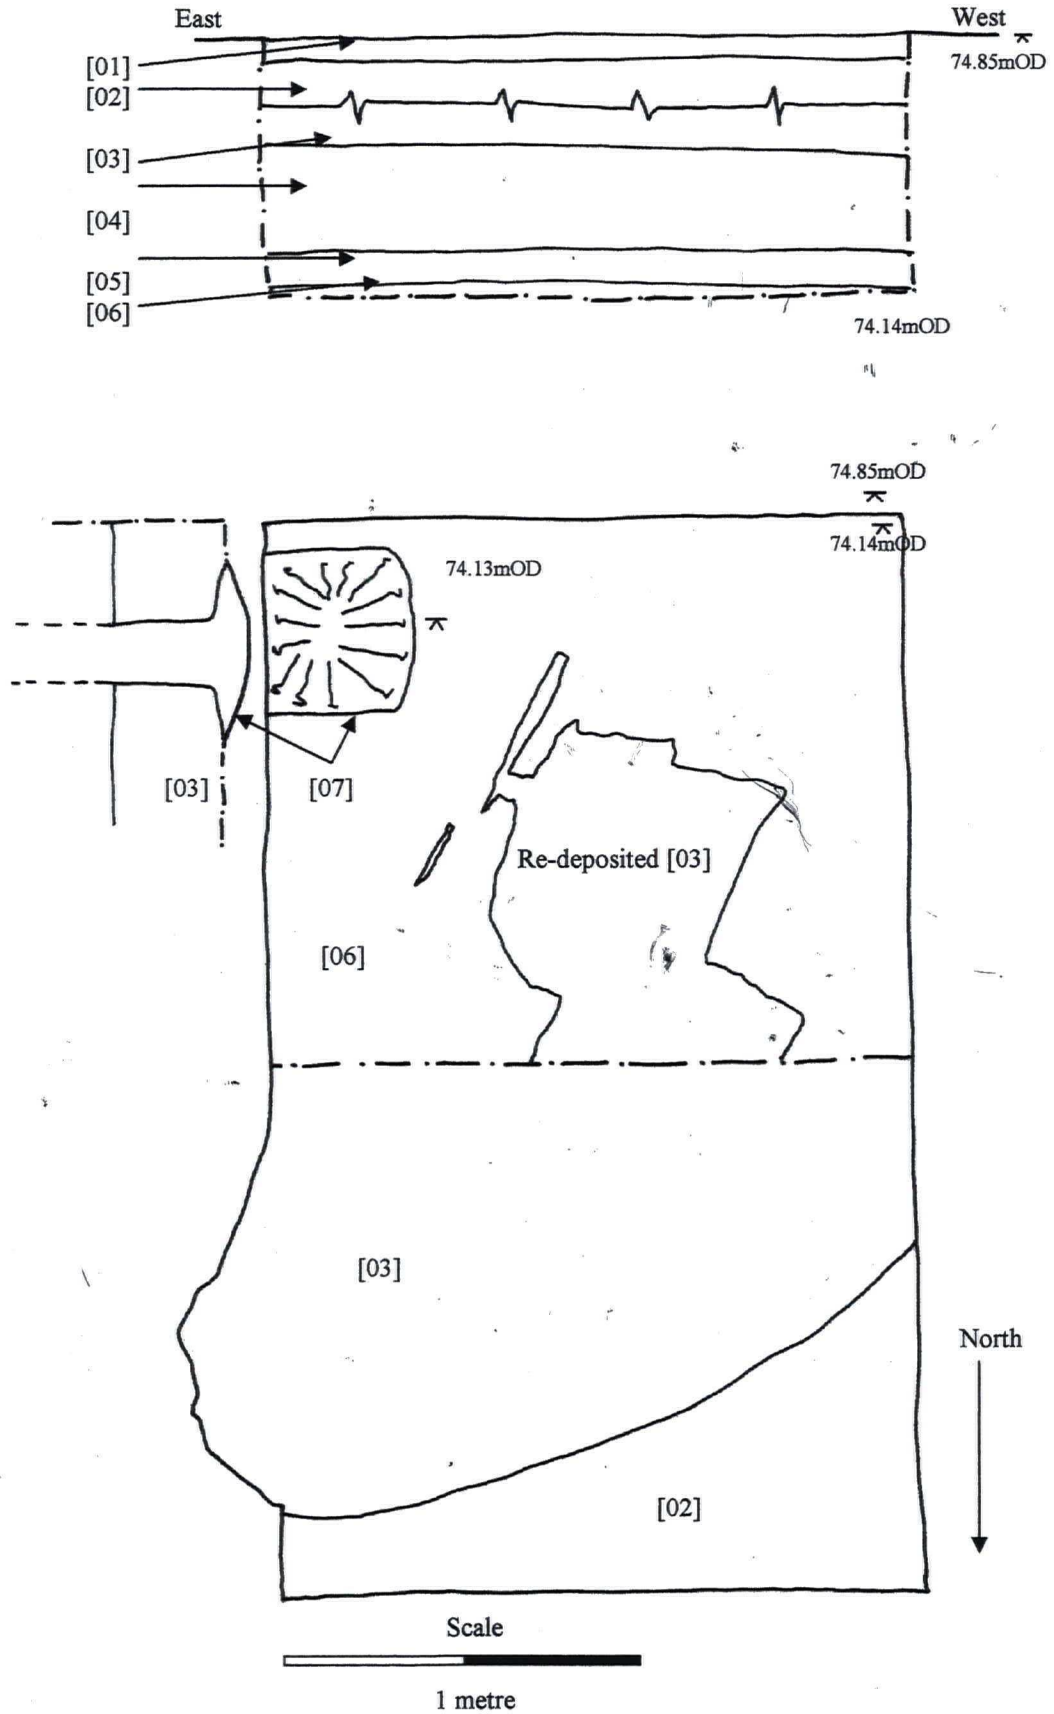

Figure 4. Trench 2. North facing section and plan as excavated.

Plates

Plate 1. General View of Evaluation Area, looking south-west. Trench 1 in foreground, Trench 2 to right of hi-viz jacket.

Plate 2. Trench 1, excavated to natural geology [06]. Looking north, scales 1m.

Plate 3. Trench 1, excavated to natural geology [06]. Looking east, scales 1m.

Plate 4. Trench 2, excavated to natural geology [06]. Posthole [07] to SE corner. Dark patch in the centre is due to over cutting by the machine. Looking south, scales 1m.

Plate 5. Trench 2, Posthole [07] SE corner excavated to natural geology. Looking east, scale 1m.

Plate 6. Trench 2, showing problems with dumped material and access. Looking east, scale 1m.

Plate 7. Pottery from Trench 1, context [04/05] to left, context [05] to right. Scale 0.1m.

Plate 8. Remains of c. 16/17th century pond to south of evaluation site. Looking east.