

The Heraldry of Dugdale's Visitation of Derbyshire, 1662-3.

By REV. HENRY LAWRENCE, M.A.

THE following notes on the heraldry of the Visitation of Derbyshire taken in 1662-3, complete the series of the three Visitations which are available. The arms of 1569 and 1611 have already been described in the pages of the Journal, the former in vols. xxxv and xxxvi and the latter in vol. xl. Some notes on this Visitation are the more necessary since the heraldry published in the Genealogist, vol. III is wholly undependable. The majority of the coats are taken from a manuscript in the possession of the Society, supplemented from other sources. Most of those included were Nouveaux hommes in 1662, though a few belonged to really old Derbyshire families which had, however, only come into prominence after the Civil-Wars, whilst others were members of families belonging to other counties who had acquired estates in Derybshire.

ABNEY OF WILLESLEY. Vis. 1569 and 1611, James Abney H.S., 1656.

AGARD OF FOSTON. Vis. 1569 and 1611, Charles Agard H.S., 1661.

ALLESTREY OF DERBY. Journal xxxv, 275, Roger Allestrey, M.P. for Derby 1661. William Allestrey 1685, H.S. 1683,

ALLEYNE OF GRESLEY. Sir Christopher Alleyne of the family of Alleyn of Ightham, co. Kent, purchased Gresley Priory from Henry Crich, one of the speculators in monastic lands. Sir John Alleyn, founder of the family's fortunes was twice Lord Mayor of London, in 1525 and 1535. The arms of the family are sable a cross potent or. The Lord Mayor appears to have borne or three ogresses, on each a talbot passant of the first: on a chief gules a lion passant gardant gold.¹ The Society's M.S. (62) gives for Allen of Stanton in Yolgrave or a fess gules between three oak leaves vert,² an entirely different family. Another family connected with Derbyshire and derived from an Alleyn who made his fortune in the Barbadoes bore per chevron gules and ermine in chief two lion's heads erased or.

ALSO OF ALSOP IN THE DALE. Vis. 1569 and 1611.

ASHENHURST OF BEARD (63) or a cockatrice sable legs and wattles gules. Crest: on a wreath of the colours a cockatrice as in the arms. (Vis. of Staffordshire 1583 and 1663-4.)

ASHTON OF STONEY MIDDLETON. Ashton of Ashton, co. Lancaster differenced by a crescent (Lysons). Robert Ashton H.S., 1665.

BACHE OF STANTON (in the Peak). (68) or a lion rampant paean within a bordure sable bezantee. Crest: on a wreath of the colours a demi-lion rampant gardant paean holding a besant.

These arms were granted to Ralph Bache 10 Dec., 1634, so that he probably appeared at that Visitation (Asmol. MS. 858).

BAGSHAW OF ABNEY. Vis. 1569.

BAGSHAW OF RIDGE. Vis. 1569 and 1611.

BALGUY OF HAG. Balguy of Aston, 1569. Henry Balguy of Derwent H.S., 1681.

BALIDON OF DERBY (62).

These arms and crest were granted by Dugdale, 4 Dec., 1663 (Journal xxxii, 63 and 64).

² Confirmed by Flower 16 June, 1586.

BRAYLESFORD OF SENOR. Vis. 1611.

BRERETON OF HORDLOW. Argent two bars sable (Lysons) Vis. of Staffords 1663-4, where the arms are differenced by a crescent; and of the Staffordshire family it is further stated that they were a younger branch of the Breretons of Haulton, co. Flint.

BROWNE OF HUNGRY BENTLEY (68) ermine on a fess embattled [sable] three escallops [argent]. Crest: from a mural coronet gules a crane's head erased ermine.

Browne of Marsh a different family appeared at the Vis. 1569 and 1611; Browne of Snelston, different again, Vis. 1569. Edmund Browne of Hungry Bentley was the third son of Thomas Browne of Shredicote, co. Stafford. The arms confirmed by Camden (see Harl. Soc., LXIII, 39).

BROWNE OF STRETTONFIELD descended from Sir John and his son Sir William Browne, both Lord Mayors of London, the latter in 1508. Azure a chevron between three escallops or. Now represented by the Cave-Browne-Cave, Baronets.

BULKLEY OF STAPENHILL (63) [sable] a chevron between three bulls heads caboshed [argent]. Vis. of Stafford, 1663-4, when the arms are shown with two chevrons.

"Ex sigillo Tho. Bulkley 3 et 4 Ph. et Ma." The Cheshire family seem to have borne the same arms as those described above with the colours reversed.

BULLOCK OF NORTON.

BULLOCK OF UNSTONE. Vis. 1569 and 1611.

BURDET OF FOREMARK. Sir Francis Burdet H.S., 1650.
