

Figure 4.37 Period 1.3: Plan of Cemetery 3 (Farmer's Avenue), showing grave and skeleton (sk.) numbers. Key: c = child, m = male, f = female, i = indeterminate (Areas 1, 6 & 22). Scale 1:200

Plate 4.11 Ditch 1 (segment 11109; Period 1.3–1.4), beneath Cemetery 4 (St John de Berstete/Timberhill), showing the distinct basal slot. A segment of the later boundary ditch demarcating the northern limit of the cemetery is evident in the right foreground.

Plate 4.13 Middle aged/old female sk.60458, grave 60455, Cemetery 3 (Farmer's Avenue; Period 1.3). This burial was radiocarbon dated to cal AD 960–1040 (GU-5744)

Plate 4.14 Middle aged/old female sk.60381, grave 60383, Cemetery 3 (Farmer's Avenue; Period 1.3). This burial was radiocarbon dated to cal AD 920–1030 (GU-5743)

Plate 4.12 South-facing section of Ditch 1 (segment 11109; Period 1.3–1.4), beneath Cemetery 4 (St John de Berstete/Timberhill)

Plate 4.15 Working shot looking south-east showing beamslot Building 23 (Period 1.4) and modern service trenches at the eastern end of Area 6, in the vicinity of Cemetery 3 (Farmer's Avenue; Period 1.3). Note the isolated burial (grave 60651) at the centre of the photograph.