

Archivist's Note

TCG09

The site consisted of a block of buildings located directly south of the Astoria Theatre and bounded by Charing Cross Road, Sutton Row, Goslett Yard and buildings fronting Soho Square. They comprised 12 Goslett Yard, 12 Sutton Row and numbers 135a, 137, 139, 143, 145, 147 and 155 Charing Cross Road, the latter being a series of shops located within the main buildings. For the purposes of the standing building survey 12 Sutton Row was referred to as 'Building 1', the structure to the south of it (incorporating most of the shops) was 'Building 2' while 12 Goslett Yard was 'Building 3'. These designations are used in both the report and the site records.

Vince Gardiner

Archivist

05/11/16