NOTE.

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge much kindly aid rendered me, while preparing this Catalogue, by MR. I. MATTHEWS JONES, the City Surveyor, who directed the excavations of the North City Wall; by MR. NEWSTEAD, Curator of the Museum, and by many others, whose help and hospitality have lightened what is, perhaps, a far more laborious work than it seems.

For the Inscriptions found before 1887 I have consulted, among other books, and have regularly cited the late MR. W. T. WATKIN'S "Roman Cheshire." It is a great storehouse of facts and I have preferred to correct silently its errors, which are sometimes serious, rather than appear to disparage a valuable work. For the Inscriptions found in and since 1887 I have been obliged mainly to refer to my own writings. For a few details I am indebted to PROF. MOMMSEN and PROF. A. VON DOMASZEWSKI.

An Index of Illustrations and a Note explaining the principle on which these have been selected, will be found at the end of the Catalogue, before the Plates.
